THE FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY

GENERAL INFORMATION

LOCATION: Tallahassee, the state capital, a city of 55,000 in north Florida. Tallahassee is served by Eastern and National air lines, the Seaboard Airline Railroad, and the Trailways and Greyhound bus lines. The city is located on United States Highways 27, 90, and 319.

HISTORY: In 1851, the Florida Legislature adopted an act establishing a seminary west of the Suwannee River. What had been the Florida Institute was offered as a gift to the State and so became for 50 years the West Florida Seminary. Later this institution was called Florida University, and Florida State College. In 1905 the institution became the Florida State College for Women and so remained until 1947, when by action of the State Legislature it became coeducational and was designated The Florida State University.

THE FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY

President Blackwell

One of two senior institutions in Florida's university system, Florida State University has shown spectacular growth since 1947, when it was converted from Florida State College for Women. It has become, for instance one of the foremost centers of graduate education in the South and in 12 years has awarded more than 500 doctorates. The doctorate is offered in 35 fields.

A $26 million building program is under way, and this school year saw completion of a $2.5 million University Union, an air-conditioned residence hall of twin eight-story spires (which houses FSU basketball players), and research buildings for Psychology and Physics. And Doak S. Campbell Stadium was increased to a seating capacity of 40,500.

Besides a main campus of more than 315 acres, Florida State has a University Farm, a nine-hole golf course, and an off-campus apartment village for married students.

Enrollment for the Fall Trimester was 12,137, and is expected to reach 15,000 by 1970. Freshmen enter the Division of Basic Studies in the College of Arts and Sciences, where their instruction is in communication, history, social science, humanities, natural sciences and personal development. As juniors they may continue in Arts and Sciences or specialize in one of eight other schools.

Director of Athletics VAUGHN MANCHA

A former Alabama football great and Florida State assistant coach, Vaughn Mancha became Director of Athletics in 1959.

Mancha entered Alabama in 1944; four years of varsity football and selection to the All-SEC and All-America teams followed. In 1945, the Tide had a 10-0 record behind Mancha and Harry Gilmer. Mancha starred at center in the '45 and '47 Sugar Bowl games (he was named to the all-time Sugar Bowl team), and the '46 Rose Bowl.

After graduation he played a year for the Boston Yanks (the franchise later became the NFL Baltimore Colts), while earning his BS and MA at 'Bama.

In 1949, he became head coach at Livingston (Ala.) State College and in three years there dominated Alabama small college football.

In 1952, Mancha came to FSU as an assistant. He left in 1957 for Columbia University where he coached, taught, and completed all work towards the doctorate except the dissertation.

Married to the former Sybil Little of Birmingham, he is the father of three children: Clare, 15; Nan, 13; and Dit, 5.

Head Basketball Coach

JESSE K. (Bud) KENNEDY

Bud Kennedy is beginning his seventeenth year as Florida State's head basketball coach. Only Adolph Rupp (34 years at Kentucky) and Lyles Alley (18, Furman) can boast longevity records topping Kennedy's.

FSU first fielded athletic teams in 1947-48, and Kennedy was hired to fulfill the dual role of Athletic Business Manager and assistant basketball coach. He replaced Don Loucks as head coach the following year.

By 1954-55 Kennedy fielded a team that went 22-4; in 1956-57 he attacked Florida State's first big-time schedule, moved into 4500-seat Tully Gym, and first met rival Florida. On Dec. 3, 1960, Florida State defeated Kentucky 63-58 in Lexington, a moment Kennedy remembers with pride. Then Jan. 29, 1964, last year's team defeated Alabama 95-77 for Kennedy's 200th FSU victory.

Born into an athletic setting, Kennedy is the son of Dr. A. R. "Bert" Kennedy, who as head football coach at Kansas in 1904-1910 gave the Jayhawks their only undefeated grid season to date in '07. (Dr. Kennedy, now 89, still practices dentistry in Lawrence.)

Bud attended Kansas, Baker, and Kansas State Teachers, graduating from the latter in 1932. He played football, basketball, and ran track at each school. He spent two years as playing coach of the San Diego, Calif., Athletic Club during those years. He formed lasting friendships with other well-known basketball figures such as Rupp, a KU player while Bud was playing at Lawrence High; Forrest "Phog" Allen, the KU coach, and Dr. James A. Naismith, founder of the game who was a physical education instructor at Kansas in Kennedy's college days.

After graduation, Kennedy coached basketball, baseball, and track for two years at Warrensburg, Mo., High School, followed by six years of service in the Kansas City school system. He supervised Physical Education in elementary schools and Westport High School.

He was then appointed Assistant Recreation Director for the city of Madison, Wisconsin. He was there for three years, then entered the U. S. Navy for three years, coaching basketball teams at the Naval Training Station at Purdue University and while overseas at Tubabo, Philippine Islands. His association with Florida State began at the end of his naval service.

Kennedy and his charming wife, Laura, have two sons, Hugh, 32, and Bob, 30, and seven grandchildren. All the grandchildren, five boys and two girls, and their families are residents of Tallahassee.

HUGH N. DURHAM, Assistant Basketball Coach

Probably the finest guard in Florida State's basketball history, Hugh Durham has served as Assistant Coach since 1961. The 27-year-old Kentuckian is beginning his tenth year at FSU, four as a player and six as a member of the coaching staff.

A three-time collegiate All-Stater for the 1956-59 teams, Durham scored more than 500 points twice and finished with 1381 points in 73 games. (See "1000 Point Club," page 25.)

Durham's career began with a 509-point output as a sophomore in 1956-57. His 43 points against Stetson that year is a school record shared by Dave Fedor (vs. Miami in '60). Slowed by injury, Durham scored 368 points as a junior, but closed his career with 504 as a senior, when he served as team captain and made several All-America lists.

Named to the Dean's List, Gold Key, and Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, Durham graduated in 1959 with a degree in Business Administration. He served as freshman coach for one year, compiling a 9-1 record that is still best in the school's history. He received his Masters degree and was appointed a full-time assistant coach in 1961.

Hugh is married to the former Malinda Dixon of Jacksonville, and they have two sons, David, 4, and Doug, two months.

As a standout athlete at Eastern High in Louisville, Ky., Durham earned four letters in both basketball and baseball, and three each in track and football. He took two third places at the state track meet, in the 440 and 880 yard runs, and turned down college football scholarships to play basketball at Florida State.

Hugh is still an avid sportsman. He took up golf two years ago and now shoots in the 70's. In the Spring he serves as FSU's Golf coach. He is also the city badminton champ.

RUFUS C. ASHWORTH,

Freshman Basketball Coach

A standout playmaker and defenseman on three FSU teams (1959-62) and coach last year at Edison High School, Miami, Rufus Charles Ashworth is FSU's new freshman coach, replacing Lake Kelly. Kelly was named assistant coach at Loyola of New Orleans in June.

Ashworth is now working toward a graduate degree at Florida State. Last season he taught the patented "Seminoke Shuffle" as a metropolitan head coach in Miami.

Ashworth, 24, graduated from Florida State in April, 1963, with a degree in Science Education. He is a native of Miami, where he prepped at Coral Gables High School. He is a bachelor.

Bradley

RONALD MELTON, Athletic Business Manager

A 1953 graduate of Florida State, Melton became Athletic Business Manager in 1959 after five years as assistant, and assistant baseball coach.

An outstanding local athlete at Leon High School (as a 140-pound football guard he blocked 17 punts as a senior, four in one game, and made all-state in baseball), he was a baseball standout at FSU. Melton hit safely in 17 consecutive games in 1950, batting .361.

Supervises ticket distribution, travel arrangements, budgeting, and other vital tasks.

B. J. SAVAGE, JR., Academic Counselor

Jeff Savage performs an invaluable service as a full-time member of the Department, guiding FSU athletes in their studies. He counsels players, keeps a close watch on grades, and supervises distribution of textbooks.

A native of Germanton, N. C., he holds a BS and MA in history and physical education from Appalachian State Teachers College in Boone, N. C.

Internship coordinator for three years in the School of Education before assuming his present role, Savage has taught football, basketball, and baseball in the public schools of North Carolina and Florida.

DON FAULS, Head Trainer

Once a trainer in the farm system of the St. Louis baseball Cardinals, Fauls is in his tenth year with the Seminoles.

A native of Ithaca, N. Y., he attended Ithaca College, graduating in 1948 with a degree in Physio-therapy.

Fauls began professional work with a V.A. hospital in Bath, N. Y. In 1951 he joined the Greensboro, N. C., Patriots of the Carolina Baseball League as team trainer. After two years there, he moved to Omaha in the Western League, then a Class A club in the Cardinals' system.

The popular Fauls was Trainer for the U. S. team in the 1963 Pan American Games.

GEORGE BRADLEY, Equipment Manager

A native of Uniontown, Pa., Bradley attended Adrian, Mich., College, where he lettered in football and basketball.

George moved with his family to Tallahassee in 1956, and was employed for 16 years as a Route Supervisor for the Borden Dairy Co. He began work as Equipment Manager in April, 1963.

Bradley supervises the 188-locker varsity dressing room in Tully Gym, and manages equipment for basketball, baseball, track, and tennis.

PLAYER PROFILES

DICK DANFORD (No. 21)

6-9½ Sophomore Center
Clearwater, Fla.

A highly-sought prep star at Clearwater High two years ago, Dick Danford is the tallest basketball player ever at Fla. State. . . . A 213-pounder, he alternated with Ken Doyle at center on last year's fine freshman team, starting nine of 16 games and scoring 144 points, a 9.0 average. . . . He scored in double figures seven times. . . . Dick can negotiate the key and score with a nifty jumper. . . . His major need now is strength. . . . His dad played basketball for Ohio U. and is now Principal of Dunedin High. . . . Dick scored 1369 points at Clearwater, and took down 1100 rebounds, 43 in one game. . . . He is an important figure in FSU's future plans.

Year	G	FG	FT	Reb.	Pts.	Avg.
1963-64 (Fr.)	16	61	22	104	144	9.0

KEN DOYLE (No. 3)

6-9 Sophomore Center
Tampa, Fla.

At 6-9 and 254, young Ken Doyle is well-equipped to handle any job. . . . He needs more speed and experience to become FSU's starting center. . . . An All-State star at Tampa's Plant High, he proved last year as a freshman that he can score aplenty, hitting for 220 points, a 13.8 average, and second only to Ron Malmen's 21.3. . . . He hit 25 in an overtime battle with Florida's freshmen, scoring 13 points in the extra period to win it for FSU, 89-87. . . . In one high school game he scored 50 points, and ended his last season with a three-year 1683 total.

Year	G	FG	FT	Reb.	Pts.	Avg.
1963-64 (Fr.)	16	89	42	119	220	13.8

BILL GLENN (No. 41)

6-4½ Sophomore Forward
Tallahassee, Fla.

An outstanding student, Bill is the finest local prospect ever. . . . He broke the Leon High scoring record with 42 points in one game, and played steadily as a freshman, scoring 130 points. . . . Bill is the son of Mrs. Hortense Glenn, Dean of the School of Home Economics at Florida State and during his freshman year compiled an outstanding 3.52 (4.0 possible) grade point average. . . . He is very strong, and can score from the corner or handle himself well in the wars around the basket.

Year	G	FG	FT	Reb.	Pts.	Avg.
1963-64 (Fr.)	13	60	10	69	130	10.0

PETE GONZALEZ (No. 10)

6-0½ Senior Guard
Miami, Fla.

Pete is a "trash collector" and a success story: When the Seminoles met NIT entry Miami here last season, crafty veteran Gonzalez scored a season high of 24 points and played a masterful floor game to help defeat the team that denied him a scholarship. . . . Pete became a crowd favorite as a collector of loose balls and a playmaker, and wound up starting 22 games. . . . A prime factor in mid-season wins over Miami, Memphis State, Georgia, and Alabama, he scored a creditable 215 points for the year. . . . He began to click late on a 20-foot jumper, and is a clever operator of the shuffle offense.

Year	G	FG	FT	Reb.	Pts.	Avg.
1962-63	17	30	21	48	81	4.8
1963-64	25	78	59	81	215	8.6

KEN LEAKEY (No. 45)

6-2 Junior Guard
Fort Wayne, Ind.

Ken had a frustrating year as a sophomore, compiling a 31.9 shooting percentage that didn't represent his true ability. . . . Now a more poised junior, he's ready to snap back and return to the form that saw him average 12.9 a game as a frosh performer. . . . He still appeared in 21 of 25 games last season, and scored 88 points, most of them at long range. . . . He was an All-city choice back home in Fort Wayne.

Year	G	FG	FT	Reb.	Pts.	Avg.
1963-64	21	30	28	30	88	4.2

BOBBY LOVELL (No. 34)

6-1 1/2 Senior Guard
Chattanooga, Tenn.

Determination won for Lovell last season. . . . After a hold-out year and another season of waiting, he improved steadily until he was tried as a starting guard in the 12th game; he came through with 18 points and started every succeeding game, ending the year with 165 points. . . . Now 22 years old and 200 pounds, Lovell is most experienced in the Kennedy "Seminole Shuffle." . . . When Lovell was leading the 1960-61 frosh team with a 20-point scoring average, the offense was installed here. . . . He put his skills to work last year and, teaming with Pete Gonzalez, figures to close out his lengthy career in fine style.

Year	G	FG	FT	Reb.	Pts.	Avg.
1962-63	21	19	4	33	42	2.0
1963-64	21	69	27	57	165	7.9

RON MALMEN (No. 23)

6-4 Sophomore Forward
Orion, Ill.

At 25 years of age Malmen has the experience to become an important varsity player this year as an FSU sophomore. . . . The most sensational freshman here since Dave Fedor, he led the yearlings with 145 rebounds and 341 points, the latter good for a 21.3 per-game average. . . . He had nights of 34, 31, 29, 28, and 27. . . . An aggressive, muscular type who will drive the baseline or follow a missed shot with abandon; as a freshman he fouled out of six of 16 games. . . . He entered FSU after discharge from the Air Force, where he was discovered at nearby Eglin AFB. . . . He is a native of Chicago.

Year	G	FG	FT	Reb.	Pts.	Avg.
1963-64 (Fr.)	16	138	65	145	341	21.3

BILL PEACOCK (No. 14)

6-4 Junior Forward
Campbellton, Fla.

Peacock shot 49 per cent as a sophomore and made the adjustment to FSU's disciplined shuffle offense. . . . Connecting mostly on long jumpers, he scored 197 points and appeared in all but two games. . . . Leading scorer on the 1962-63 freshman team, he spent last year learning to play guard. . . . At tiny Campbellton High, he was an All-State center three times, and two of those led his team to the state title (the school closed last year after winning the state Class C title again). He will be moved to forward this season.

Year	G	FG	FT	Reb.	Pts.	Avg.
1963-64	23	79	39	44	197	8.6

BILL PHILLIPS (No. 5)

6-7½ Junior Center
Mount Kisco, N. Y.

Bill now lives with his mother in Mount Kisco, N. Y.; when FSU recruited him off the 1962 Okeechobee, Fla., High team he was just a lanky giant who didn't mind taking or giving punishment under the boards. . . . He has improved so much in one varsity season that he's a candidate for a starting job. . . . Jerry Shirley's illness may press Phillips into the No. 1 center job. . . . He is developing new moves and can hold his own underneath with heavier men.

Year	G	FG	FT	Reb.	Pts.	Avg.
1963-64	14	12	18	39	42	3.0

GARY SCHULL (No. 4)

6-7 Junior Center-Forward
Pompano Beach, Fla.

Gary wasn't sure he'd be a starter last year until he hit for 17 points in the fifth game (Texas Christian), but when the season was over he was the team's leading scorer (12.9) and rebounder (7.2 a game), and the primary building block in what was strictly a year for rebuilding. . . . A year older and wiser, the former All-Stater may get a chance to move out of the post and maneuver from a forward position. . . . Agile and quick, he is five pounds lighter than last year, but just as strong. . . . He clears the boards angrily, and will score from any angle with a one-hander. . . . He thrives on competition and loves the game. . . . The team's hardest worker and on-the-court leader. A Government major, he wants to be a lawyer. . . . His 27 points against Manhattan last year was a season high and helped make him a Gator Bowl All-Tournament selection.

Year	G	FG	FT	Reb.	Pts.	Avg.
1963-64	25	128	67	179	323	12.9

JERRY SHIRLEY (No. 44)

6-5½ Senior Center
Mobile, Ala.

Shirley, most experienced player on the squad, was struck with mononucleosis in late October and may not play until January. . . . His big frame and his savvy will be missed in the early-season doings. . . . Disappointing last year when he alternated as a starter, he still finished third in scoring and shot .868 from the foul line (59 of 68), and pulled down 155 rebounds. . . . He was second on the 62-63 team in scoring as a sophomore. . . . A strong 220-pounder, he will help the Tribe inside when he returns.

Year	G	FG	FT	Reb.	Pts.	Avg.
1962-63	25	118	45	199	281	11.2
1963-64	25	113	59	155	285	11.4

JIM WALLACE (No. 12)

6-7 Junior Forward
St. Petersburg, Fla.

Jim, like Phillips, has learned much that there is about the game while at Florida State. . . . Now a poised 6-7 junior, he is due for more service than he saw in seven games as a sophomore. . . . Mild and unassuming, he's the perfect gentleman away from the floor but he will mix it up when the going is rough under the basket. . . . He didn't play high school basketball until his senior year at St. Pete's Boca Ciega High, still made All-State.

Year	G	FG	FT	Reb.	Pts.	Avg.
1963-64	7	7	2	10	16	2.3

VALDOSTA STATE

1st Game—at Tallahassee, Tues., Dec. 1

Site—Tully Gym (4500) Tallahassee

Tipoff—7:45 p.m. EST

Nickname of teams—Rebels

Location—Valdosta, Ga.

Ath. Dir.—Gary Colson

Enrollment—1500

Conference—GaIAC

Series—4-0, FSU

1963-64 Record—W 18, L 7

COACH—Gary Colson, 4 years, W 95, L 45

OUTLOOK: Youthful coach Gary Colson lost three lettermen, Mike Perry, Chuck Bonovitch, and Ray McCully, but will count on five returnees and a handful of junior college recruits to duplicate last year's fine 18-7 record. "We could have another good year if these young boys jell early," Colson says. The Rebels, who last played FSU in 1963, will host the Georgia Intercollegiate Conference tournament this year.

VMI

2nd Game—at Tallahassee—Thurs., Dec. 3

Site—Tully Gym (4500) Tallahassee

Tipoff—7:45 p.m. EST

Nickname of teams—Keydets

Location—Lexington, Va.

Ath. Dir.—C. L. Ellington

Enrollment—1200

Conference—Southern

Series—1-0, VMI

1963-64 Record—W 12, L 12, Sou. Conf. champs

COACH—Gary McPherson, first year

OUTLOOK: Playing the role of defending Southern Conference champs is something new to the VMI Keydets, and Gary McPherson, the Rookie coach who replaced Weenie Miller at the conclusion of last season, lacks the manpower to pull off another surprise. Guard Bill Blair (18.0 ppg.) and 6-7 center Bobby Watson graduated, taking both scoring punch and rebounding strength. But two fine guards return, 6-2 Charlie Schmaus, who averaged 14.2 and hit 32 against Clemson, and 6-0 Joe Kruszewski, a tremendous jumper. McPherson's first team will be short, finely balanced, and tough defensively.

AUBURN

3rd Game—at Auburn—Sat., Dec. 5

17th Game—at Tallahassee—Mon., Jan. 25

Sites—Sports Arena (2600) Auburn

Tully Gym (4500) Tallahassee

Tipoffs—7:30 p.m. CST

7:45 p.m. EST

Nickname of teams—Tigers, also Plainsmen

Location, Auburn, Ala.

Ath. Dir.—G. W. "Jeff" Beard

Enrollment—10,000

Conference—Southeastern

Series—10-2, Auburn

1963-64 Record—W 11, L 13

COACH—Bill Lynn, 1 year, W 11, L 13

OUTLOOK: Coach Bill Lynn, beginning his second season, will scrap the control game that characterized Joel Eaves' teams at Auburn and will go to running and shooting. His material is just right for it: Larry Cart, the Sugar Bowl MVP two years ago, has been re-instated after a year away from the game and will start at guard. Herb Greene and Tom Fibbe are also veteran guards, and Freddie Guy and Lee Defore (17.7 ppg) are the SEC's best forward pair. Six-seven Joe Newton is the center again, and 6-5 Ronnie Quick leads a horde of good sophomores up from an Auburn freshman team that won 21, lost 1, last year.

ALABAMA

4th Game—at Tuscaloosa—Mon., Dec. 7

18th Game—at Tallahassee—Sat., Jan. 30

Sites—Foster Auditorium (3000) Tuscaloosa

Tully Gym (4500) Tallahassee

Tipoffs—8:00 p.m. CST
7:45 p.m. EST

Nickname of teams—Crimson Tide

Location—Tuscaloosa, Ala.

Ath. Dir.—Paul Bryant

Enrollment—14,700

Conference—Southeastern

Series—6-2, FSU

1963-64 Record—W 14, L 12

COACH—Hayden Riley, 5 years, W 46, L 56

OUTLOOK: Nine lettermen return at Alabama, the best of them being 6-4 senior guard Charlie Perry, who averaged 13 points a game last year. Coach Hayden Riley won't miss four lettermen who graduated, and will build around guards Perry and 6-3 Robert Hickey, with three 6-6 vets inside, Reese Carr, Bambi Howland, and Bob Andrews. Experience abounds at Bama, but Riley still lacks someone with spectacular scoring punch.

FLORIDA

5th Game—at Tallahassee—Wed., Dec. 9

24th Game—at Gainesville—Tues., Feb. 23

Sites—Tully Gym (4500) Tallahassee

Florida Gym (7200) Gainesville

Tipoffs—7:45 p.m. EST
8:00 p.m. EST

Nickname of teams—Gators

Location—Gainesville, Fla.

Ath. Dir.—Ray Graves

Enrollment—15,000

Conference—Southeastern

Series—10-3, UF

1963-64 Record—W 12, L 10

COACH—Norm Sloan, 4 years, W 53, L 48

OUTLOOK: "This is our best team yet at Florida"—Norm Sloan. Guards Brooks Henderson (17.3 ppg.) and Tom Baxley (13.3) are seniors now and lead the parade of fine material at Florida, which includes two tall sophomores, 6-11 Jeff Ramsay and 6-9 Gary Keller, and 6-5 forward Dick Tomlinson, plus 6-8 Bob Hoffman, 6-7 Bill Koss, and 6-3 Harry Winkler. Henderson is the best guard in the SEC; if those two sophs, Keller and Ramsey, can do a creditable job in an improved Southeastern Conference, the Gators could finish in the upper division.

TENNESSEE

8th Game—at Memphis, Tenn. (neutral site)—
Tues., Dec. 22

Site—Mid-South Coliseum (13,000) Memphis
Tipoff—8:00 p.m. CST

Nickname of teams—Volunteers

Location—Knoxville, Tenn.

Ath. Dir.—Bob Woodruff

Enrollment—13,000

Conference—Southeastern

Series—3-1, Tenn.

1963-64 Record—W 16, L 8

COACH—Ray Mears, 2 years, W 29, L 19

OUTLOOK: The Seminoles and Vols didn't play last season; this year's game has been moved to the new Mid-South Coliseum in Memphis. Senior forward and captain A. W. Davis (17.3 ppg.) was an All-SEC choice last year as UT finished a strong second. Six-five Howard Bayne is also back to play center again, with 6-1 guard Larry McIntosh. Frosh standout Ron Widby and several Juco recruits will help atone for the loss of All-American Danny Schultz. Coach Ray Mears signed 6-7 Austin Robbins of Chipola Jr. College, Marianna, Fla., last year after Robbins made the Juco first team All-America.

TULSA

9th Game—at Tulsa, Okla.—Sat., Dec. 26

Site—Civic Assembly Center (6880) Tulsa
Tipoff—8:00 p.m. CST

Nickname of teams—Golden Hurricane

Location—Tulsa, Okla.

Ath. Dir.—Glenn Dobbs

Enrollment—4,984

Conference—Missouri Valley

Series—1-0, FSU

1963-64 Record—W 10, L 15

COACH—Joe Swank, 4 years, W 42, L 59

OUTLOOK: Bill Kuslieka, the fine Tulsa forward who averaged 22.6 points a game, is gone, and Coach Joe Swank is at a loss to find a replacement. At the same time, Swank's team will be laying for FSU when the Seminoles cautiously invade the Missouri Valley the day after Christmas. FSU whipped Tulsa here a year ago in their first meeting. Guard Rick Park, national free throw shooting leader (.903 pctg.) is the best returner; he averaged 16.4. Six-three forward Carlos Gripado is the top inside man in a lineup that will average 6-4.

GEORGIA

13th Game—at Athens, Ga.—Thurs., Jan. 7

26th Game—at Tallahassee—Sat., Mar. 6

Sites—Georgia Coliseum (12,000) Athens
Tully Gym (4500) Tallahassee
Tipoffs—8:00 p.m. EST
7:45 p.m. EST

Nickname of teams—Bulldogs

Location—Athens, Ga.

Ath. Dir.—Joel Eaves

Enrollment—11,300

Conference—Southeastern

Series—15-8, FSU

1963-64 Record—W 12, L 14

COACH—Harbin Lawson, 13 years, W 104, L 222

OUTLOOK: When the Georgia Bulldogs moved into their new 12,000-seat Coliseum, they started to move, defeating

FSU 85-70, finishing 8-6 in the SEC, and compiling the best record of a Georgia team in 24 years. Everyone but forward Charles Bagby is back, and he'll be replaced by 6-7 Mike Taylor. But guard Billy Rado has been told by his physician not to play; he suffered last season with recurrent headaches. Guard Lee Martin and 6-7 Jerry Waller, who set a school rebound record, both made the soph All-SEC team and are back. Six-footer Dwayne Powell leads a fine group up from last year's fine frosh team; Powell averaged 23.3.

MIAMI

14th Game—at Tallahassee—Sat., Jan. 14

25th Game—at Miami Beach—Mon., Mar. 1

Sites—Tully Gym (4500) Tallahassee

Convention Hall (6800) Miami Beach

Tipoffs—7:45 p.m. EST

8:15 p.m. EST

Nickname of teams—Hurricanes

Location—Coral Gables, Fla.

Ath. Dir.—Andy Gustafson

Enrollment—14,000

Conference—none

Series—16-13, UM

1963-64 Record—W 20, L 7, NIT first round

COACH—Bruce Hale, 9 years, W 168, L 86

OUTLOOK: Six-foot-six forward Rick Barry averaged 32 points and 16 rebounds a game for the Hurricanes last year and is such a strong All-American candidate that Miami isn't saying he is. The blond cat is, however, the only returnee assured of his job on a Miami team that finished 20-7 and lost to St. Joseph's in the first round of the NIT. A 5-10 sophomore, Junior Gee, will probably start at guard where Bernie Butts and Larry Kessler graduated. John Dampier, an on-and-off scorer who averaged 19.3, will have to fight sophomore Rick Jones and junior Bob Green to hold his job. And sophomores Mike Wittman and Eddie Spriggs may oust three UM veterans for the starting jobs inside.

MEMPHIS STATE

15th Game—at Tallahassee—Sat., Jan. 16

20th Game—at Memphis—Sat., Feb. 6

Sites—Tully Gym (4500) Tallahassee

Mid-South Coliseum (13,000) Memphis

Tipoffs—7:45 p.m. EST

8:30 p.m. CST

Nickname of teams—Tigers

Location—Memphis, Tenn.

Ath. Dir.—Dr. E. W. Lambert

Enrollment—8,250

Conference—none

Series—8-1, M. St.

1963-64 Record—W 14, L 11

COACH—Dean Ehlers, 2 years, W 33, L 18

OUTLOOK: Forward Bob Neuman (20.7 avg.) and guard George Kirk (14.3) are graduated, but Coach Dean Ehlers has five efficient returnees back, led by guard Tim Morgan, who averaged 13.8, two fine sophomores in forward Craig Alexander (22.5) and guard Al Mirrieles (17.9), who will replace Kirk as team quarterback, and 6-5 Harry Johnston, a transfer who once started at Mississippi. Memphis State goes through another big-name schedule that includes Seattle, Creighton, Villanova, DePaul, and Duquesne.

GEORGIA TECH

16th Game—at Tallahassee—Wed., Jan. 20

22nd Game—at Atlanta, Ga.—Mon., Feb. 15

Sites—Tully Gym (4500) Tallahassee

Memorial Coliseum (6,966) Atlanta

Tipoffs—7:45 p.m. EST

Nickname of teams—Yellow Jackets

Location, Atlanta, Ga.

Ath. Dir.—R. L. "Bobby" Dodd

Enrollment—6,300

Conference—none

Series—2-0, Tech

1963-64 Record—W 17, L 9

COACH—Whack Hyder, 13 years, W 171, L 155

OUTLOOK: 6-10 Jim Caldwell, 5-11 R. D. Craddock, and 6-3 Ron Scharf, all seniors, are three players as good at their positions as any three in the South. Craddock, the Tech captain, is expected to be recovered from a broken leg in time for the 'Jackets opener. Mickey Stenftenagel, 6-1, is likewise over a foot injury and is one of seven returners who figure to make Tech's first independent cage team a great one. Coach Whack Hyder's team will come to Tallahassee to play FSU for the first time here Jan. 20.

DUQUESNE

19th Game—at Baltimore, Md. (neutral site)—

Thurs., Feb. 4

Site—Civic Arena, Baltimore      Tipoff—9:00 p.m. EST

Nickname of teams—Dukes

Location—Pittsburgh, Pa.

Ath. Dir.—L. E. Skender

Enrollment—7000

Conference—WPIAC, ECAC

Series—1-0, Dukes

1963-64 Record—W 16, L 7

COACH—Red Manning, 7 years, W 87, L 56

OUTLOOK: Duquesne still has Willie Somerset, the high-scoring 5-10 guard who now has 1132 points, and two other good ones. Somerset, Ron Willard, and Willie Ross averaged 24.7, 16.1, and 15.4, respectively for a Dukes team that was ousted from the NIT by Army in overtime. Six-foot Frank Miniotas gets the call to replace graduated playmaker Dennis Cuff, while an improving, 6-8 Walt Lautsch hopefully will solve the "big man" problem that has plagued Duquesne for two seasons.

JACKSONVILLE

21st Game—at Tallahassee—Wed., Feb. 10

Site—Tully Gym (4500) Tallahassee
Tipoff—7:45 p.m. EST

Nickname of teams—Dolphins

Location—Jacksonville, Fla.

Ath. Dir.—Roland Rourke

Enrollment—2400

Conference—FIAC

Series—2-0, FSU

1963-64 Record—W 13, L 13

COACH—Joe Williams, first year

OUTLOOK: JU became an NCAA member and hired Joe Williams as head coach. Williams in two seasons jumped from a position as FSU's frosh coach to assistant at Furman, then head coach at JU. He inherits a Swisher Gym-full of talent, including the entire JU starting fire from 1963-64. Little All-America Ralph Tiner (25 ppg) may move into the backcourt and 6-3 Tommy Allison into the forecourt, while 6-9 center Dick Pruet, meek as a kitten when a frosh last year, is 20 pounds heavier. Six-six Gene Martineau is a proven veteran and will play a forward. Still, there's a guard spot open which Ed Johnson, a stocky six-footer, will probably fill.

TAMPA

23rd Game—at Tampa—Sat., Feb. 20

Site—Howell Gym (3000) Tampa
Tipoff—8 p.m. EST

Nickname of teams—Spartans

Location—Tampa, Fla.

Ath. Dir.—Sam Bailey

Enrollment—1,950

Conference—FIAC

Series—23-9, FSU

1963-64 Record—W 2, L 24

COACH—Bob Lavoy, 6 years, W 136, L 150

OUTLOOK: Only four lettermen are back from the team that went 2-24 for Bob Lavoy last year, but enthusiasm is good. This year's team will be inexperienced, but with three junior college transfers and a couple of excellent freshmen, this year's squad should be a good one."

SECOND ANNUAL VANDERBILT INVITATIONAL TOURNAMENT

Nashville, Dec. 18, 19

Florida State and Oklahoma State tip off the second Vandy Invitational Dec. 18, at 7 p.m., followed by Vanderbilt-Baylor at 9 a.m. Winners meet in the championship at 9 p.m. the following night with the losers in the consolation game at 7 p.m.

Vanderbilt's 6-9 junior center, Clyde Lee (471 pts, 18.8 avg.) is the best of a field of stars that includes Baylor's 6-6 Winston Moore, MVP in the Southwest Conference last year; Oklahoma State's fine forward Jim King, and Florida State's Gary Schull.

TWENTY-NINTH ANNUAL ALL-COLLEGE TOURNAMENT

Oklahoma City, Dec. 28, 29, 30

Florida State, Louisiana State, DePaul, and Brigham Young will participate for the first time in the All-College, oldest holiday tournament in the nation and older than the NCAA and NIT. Returning to this year's meet are Creighton, Oklahoma City, Rice, and Xavier. Each team plays three games with the championship at 9 p.m. Wednesday night.

An all-time team was chosen for the All-College in 1960 after 25 tournaments. It included Bob Kurland, Elgin Baylor, Arnold Short, Bill Russell, Slater Martin, Win Wilfong, Cab Renick, Frank Selvy, Charlie Black, and Hub Reed. Stars since then include Boo Ellis, Nate Thurmond, Howie Komives, Dave Stallworth, Bud Koper, Gary Hill, Jerry Harkness, and Bennie Lenox. Four times All-College winners have won NCAA championships: Oklahoma State in 1945 and 1946, San Francisco in 1955, and Loyola of Chicago in 1963. Wichita won last year's tournament, and sellouts the last two nights helped set a tourney attendance record.

The 1964 field promises more greatness. Xavier returns 6-0 Steve Thomas, who scored 29.9 points a game last year; LSU has Dick Maile (20.7) back; Brigham Young returns its top six scorers and three sophs who averaged 20-plus as freshmen; Creighton's Jay Warhaftig averaged 32.4 as a freshman; NCAA 1st round team Oklahoma City returns five of its top seven players; and DePaul, 1st round NIT last year, returns three starters. Pairings for the tournament will be announced.

FSU IN TOURNAMENT PLAY

Independent Florida State, once a member of the now defunct Florida Intercollegiate Basketball Conference, the Dixie Conference, and the NAIB (since changed to NAIA), has since 1956 appeared only in holiday and invitational tournaments. The Seminoles' all-time record for tournament play is 22-23.

This season the Tribe appears for the first time in two important holiday tournaments, the Vanderbilt Invitational at Nashville, Tenn., and the All-College at Oklahoma City.

Florida State is a charter entry in five tournaments: the Gator Bowl (1951); the Orange Bowl (1955); the Carousel Tournament (1955); the Citadel Invitational (1958); and the Savannah, Ga., Invitational (1962).

ROBERT TULLY GYM

HOME OF THE FIGHTING SEMINOLES

Completion of Robert Tully Gym in 1956 marked the beginning of one era of FSU basketball and the beginnings of a greater one. Previous Seminoles teams had played their games at "West Campus," a collection of makeshift classrooms at the old Dale Mabry Field five miles south of the campus.

A modern, ample plant for physical education, Tully Gym seats 4,500 for home basketball games and has floor space for three basketball courts. The dimensions are 125' x 250', or 32,200 square feet of maple flooring. There are six practice goals for basketball. Initial cost of construction was $879,716.58 and the building was occupied by athletic and physical education classes in September, 1956. The Seminoles played their first game in the gym on Dec. 13, 1956, against Texas A & M.

The structure is named for a former Florida State footballer, Robert Tully, who died of cancer on May 14, 1954.

SEMINOLES AT HOME AND AWAY SINCE '48

The 1964-65 Seminoles will travel approximately 10,000 miles, but it's nothing new to Coach Bud Kennedy and his FSU teams. In the past 16 years the Seminoles have played 89 different teams in 390 games, 227, or 58%, of them on the road. Kennedy's won-lost record for the period, meanwhile, is 203-187 (.520).

Year	Home Games	Away Games	Total Attendance	Won-Lost
