The University presently is organized in eight divisions and a Graduate School. The divisions are the College of Arts and Sciences and the Schools of Education, Home Economics, Music, Library Work, Social Welfare, Business, Nursing and Engineering Science. The Graduate School alone enrolls more than 2,000 students and more than 100 doctorates are conferred yearly. Much of the advanced research and instruction is undertaken in such institutes as those for Molecular Biophysics, Oceanography, Human Development, Human Learning, Social Research and Governmental Research.

Director of Athletics VAUGHN MANCHA

A former Alabama football great and Florida State assistant coach, Vaughn Mancha became Director of Athletics in 1959.

Mancha entered Alabama in 1944; four years of varsity football and selection to the All-SEC and All-America teams followed. In 1945, the Tide had a 10-0 record behind Mancha and Harry Gilmer. Mancha starred at center in the '45 and '47 Sugar Bowl games (he was named to the all-time Sugar Bowl team), and the '46 Rose Bowl.

After graduation he played a year for the Boston Yanks (the franchise later became the NFL Baltimore Colts), while earning his BS and MA at 'Bama.

In 1949, he became head coach at Livingston (Ala.) State College and in three years there dominated Alabama small college football.

In 1952, Mancha came to FSU as an assistant. He left in 1957 for Columbia University where he coached, taught, and completed all work towards the doctorate except the dissertation.

Married to the former Sybil Little of Birmingham, he is the father of three children: Clare, 16; Nan, 14; and Dit, 6.

Head Basketball Coach

JESSE K. (Bud) KENNEDY

Bud Kennedy is beginning his eighteenth year as Florida State's head basketball coach. Only Adolph Rupp (35 years at Kentucky) and Lyles Alley (19, Furman) can boast longevity records topping Kennedy's.

FSU first fielded athletic teams in 1947-48, and Kennedy was hired to fulfill the dual role of Athletic Business Manager and assistant basketball coach. He replaced Don Loucks as head coach the following year.

By 1954-55 Kennedy fielded a team that went 22-4; in 1956-57 he attacked Florida State's first big-time schedule, moved into 4500-seat Tully Gym, and first met rival Florida. On Dec. 3, 1960, Florida State defeated Kentucky 63-58 in Lexington, a moment Kennedy remembers with pride. Then Jan. 29, 1964, Florida State defeated Alabama 95-77 for Kennedy's 200th FSU victory.

Born into an athletic setting, Kennedy is the son of Dr. A. R. "Bert" Kennedy, who as head football coach at Kansas in 1904-1910 gave the Jayhawks their only undefeated grid season to date in '07. (Dr. Kennedy, now 89, still practices dentistry in Lawrence.)

Bud attended Kansas, Baker, and Kansas State Teachers, graduating from the latter in 1932. He played football, basketball, and ran track at each school. He spent two years as playing coach of the San Diego, Calif., Athletic Club during those years. He formed lasting friendships with other well-known basketball figures such as Rupp, a KU player while Bud was playing at Lawrence High; Forrest "Phog" Allen, the KU coach, and Dr. James A. Naismith, founder of the game who was a physical education instructor at Kansas in Kennedy's college days.

After graduation, Kennedy coached basketball, baseball, and track for two years at Warrensburg, Mo., High School, followed by six years of service in the Kansas City school system. He supervised Physical Education in elementary schools and Westport High School.

He was then appointed Assistant Recreation Director for the city of Madison, Wisconsin. He was there for three years, then entered the U. S. Navy for three years, coaching basketball teams at the Naval Training Station at Purdue University and while overseas at Tubabo, Philippine Islands. His association with Florida State began at the end of his naval service.

Kennedy and his charming wife, Laura, have two sons, Hugh, 33, and Bob, 31, and seven grandchildren. All the grandchildren, five boys and two girls, and their families are residents of Tallahassee.

HUGH N. DURHAM, Assistant Basketball Coach

Probably the finest guard in Florida State's basketball history, Hugh Durham has served as Assistant Coach since 1961. The 27-year-old Kentuckian is beginning his tenth year at FSU, four as a player and six as a member of the coaching staff.

A three-time collegiate All-Stater for the 1956-59 teams, Durham scored more than 500 points twice and finished with 1381 points in 73 games. (See "1000 Point Club," page 25.)

Durham's career began with a 509-point output as a sophomore in 1956-57. His 43 points against Stetson that year is a school record shared by Dave Fedor (vs. Miami in '60). Slowed by injury, Durham scored 368 points as a junior, but closed his career with 504 as a senior, when he served as team captain and made several All-America lists.

Named to the Dean's List, Gold Key, and Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, Durham graduated in 1959 with a degree in Business Administration. He served as freshman coach for one year, compiling a 9-1 record that is still best in the school's history. He received his Masters degree and was appointed a full-time assistant coach in 1961.

Hugh is married to the former Malinda Dixon of Jacksonville, and they have two sons, David, 5, and Doug, one year.

RUFUS C. ASHWORTH,

Freshman Basketball Coach

A standout playmaker and defenseman on three FSU teams (1959-62) and coach last year at Edison High School, Miami, Rufus Charles Ashworth is FSU's new freshman coach, replacing Lake Kelly. Kelly was named assistant coach at Loyola of New Orleans in June.

Ashworth is now working toward a graduate degree at Florida State. Last season he taught the patented "Seminole Shuffle" as a metropolitan head coach in Miami.

Ashworth, 24, graduated from Florida State in April, 1963, with a degree in Science Education. He is a native of Miami, where he prepped at Coral Gables High School. He is a bachelor.

CHARLIE M. LONG,

Assistant Freshman Basketball Coach

Captain of the 1962-63 Seminoles and outstanding forward for three years, Charles Madison Long joins the F.S.U. basketball family as assistant coach to former teammate Rufus Ashworth.

The Louisville, Ky., native graduated in April of 1963 and earned a strong reputation playing for numerous service All-Star teams. He is a bachelor, taking graduate courses here at Florida State.

PLAYER PROFILES

DON BIGGS (No. 3)

6-7 Sophomore Center
Macon, Georgia

This transfer from the Citadel adds beef to Florida State's lineup . . . Highly sought as a Georgia prep star, Biggs will push FSU's other big men for a starting role . . . Strong rebounder, adequate shooter and ball handler . . . Great desire to play.

JOHN BLOODWORTH (No. 30)

6-1½ Sophomore Guard
St. Petersburg

FSU Coach Bud Kennedy put aside a scholarship for Bloodworth when he first saw him as a sophomore at St. Petersburg's Dixie Hollins High . . . Nicknamed "Moe", this redshirt guard could be one of the nation's best ball handlers if he can develop consistency . . . He spends long hours each day improving his game . . . With his hustle and desire, he could be a starter.

Year	G	FG	FT	Reb	Pts.	Avg.
1963-64 (Frosh)	16	38	31	45	107	6.7

DICK DANFORD (No. 21)

6-9½ Sophomore Center
Clearwater, Florida

The tallest basketball player in Florida State history . . . Danford was an outstanding high school player at Clearwater High, and alternated at center on the FSU freshman team two years ago . . . The 215-pounder was held out last year and moved to forward where his lack of weight is not as great a handicap . . . More aggressive rebounding and more confidence in his shooting ability could win him a starting role.

Year	G	FG	FT	Reb	Pts.	Avg.
1963-64 (Frosh)	16	61	22	104	144	9.0

KEN DOYLE (No. 50)

6-9 Sophomore Center
Tampa, Florida

Big enough to handle any job, Doyle used a redshirt year to work on speed and defense . . . Improvement here could make him a valuable asset . . . An all state star at Tampa's Plant High School, he was the second highest scorer on the frosh team two years ago and is an inside scoring threat any time . . . Tremendous offensive potential.

Year	G	FG	FT	Reb	Pts.	Avg.
1963-64 (Frosh)	16	89	42	119	220	13.8

CHARLES FAIRCHILD (No. 32)

6-3 Senior Forward

Homer, N.Y.

A graduate of Pensacola Junior College, Fairchild made the FSU varsity last year on his defensive ability . . . He is probably the quickest squad member and has tremendous spring which enables him to rebound with much taller men . . . He is also an excellent shot from the foul line.

Year	G	FG	FT	Reb	Pts.	Avg.
1964-65	18	13	16	37	42	2.3

BILL GLENN (No. 41)

6-4½ Sophomore Forward

Tallahassee, Florida

Probably the best prospect ever to come out of Tallahassee high schools . . . One of the best shooters on the team, but needs to improve defensively . . . An outstanding student, Glenn has better than a B average . . . His mother is Mrs. Hortense Glenn, Dean of the School of Home Economics at FSU . . . Holds the Tallahassee Leon High School scoring record with 42 points in one game . . . Held out last year, but a strong contender with good potential.

Year	G	FG	FT	Reb	Pts.	Avg.
1963-64 (Frosh)	13	60	127	69	130	10.0

KEN LEAKEY (No. 45)

6-2 Senior Guard

Fort Wayne, Ind.

A top reserve for two years, Leakey has a reputation for coming through in the clutch . . . Last season he came off the bench three times to score a crucial basket leading to an FSU victory . . . The most experienced guard on the club, he should provide a steadying influence to the Seminole sophmores . . . Hit 46 per cent from the floor and 86 per cent from the foul line last season.

Year	G	FG	FT	Reb	Pts.	Avg.
1963-64	21	30	28	30	88	4.2
1964-65	25	51	110	25	127	5.1

JIM LYTTLE (No. 10)

6-0 Sophomore Guard

Harrison, Ohio

A basketball and baseball star in high school, Lyttle hopes to combine the two sports at Florida State . . . Finished in a tie for second highest scorer on last year's freshman team and was an outstanding outfielder for the frosh baseball team . . . He has great speed to match his shooting ability, and should be in contention for a starting role from the beginning.

Year	G	FG	FT	Reb	Pts.	Avg.
1964-65 (FR)	20	103	75	84	281	14.1

RON MALMEN (No. 23)

6-4 Junior Guard
Orion, Ill.

At 26, Malmen is the oldest player on the Seminole squad . . . He was discovered at nearby Eglin Air Force Base and entered Florida State after his discharge from the service . . . He immediately became a freshman sensation, averaging 21.3 points per game . . . Last season he scored 12.4 per game, and hit an outstanding 84 per cent of his attempts from the foul line . . . A consistent scorer with the long jump shot . . . One of the team's strongest players, Malmen uses muscle and spring to rebound with taller players . . . Expected to come into his own as a scorer this season.

Year	G	FG	FT	Reb	Pts.	Avg.
1964-65	26	132	58	122	322	12.4

BRIAN MURPHY (No. 25)

5-10 Junior Guard
West Palm Beach

The smallest member of the squad, Murphy keeps a cool head in high-pressure situations . . . A good ball-handler and great defensive player, he should see much action in important game situations . . . Last year he appeared in 17 games, averaging a point per contest, but he has the potential to score more often . . . Overcomes his lack of height with speed and determination.

Year	G	FG	FT	Reb	Pts.	Avg.
1964-65	17	2	13	17	17	1.0

BILL PEACOCK (No. 14)

6-4 Senior Forward
Campbellton

Has probably the best shooting eye on the team . . . Peacock is murder for a zone defense, shot 49 per cent from the floor as a sophomore . . . Last year he averaged 6.8 points per game as FSU's sixth man . . . Hard work has improved his defense making him even more valuable . . . A center in high school, he may alternate between guard and forward for the Seminoles this year.

Year	G	FG	FT	Reb	Pts.	Avg.
1963-64	23	79	39	44	197	8.6
1964-65	26	68	42	59	178	6.8

BILL PHILLIPS (No. 5)

6-7½ Senior Center
Mount Kisco, N.Y.

Phillips now resides in Mount Kisco, but was discovered by the Seminoles as a high school star in Okeechobee, Fla., in 1962 . . . Phillips has improved each year . . . Played behind scoring leader Jerry Shirley last year . . . He can hold his own on the boards and has developed some new offensive moves . . . Should be ready for a good year.

Year	G	FG	FT	Reb	Pts.	Avg.
1963-64	14	12	18	39	42	3.0
1964-65	24	13	10	43	36	1.5

GARY SCHULL (No. 4)

6-7 Senior Center
Pompano Beach

Although listed as a center, Schull sees quite a bit of action at forward where he is extremely effective . . . Top returnee from last year's squad, he has been a starter since he was a sophomore . . . Leading rebounder for the past two years, he also led the Seminoles in scoring as a sophomore, but dropped to second place behind Jerry Shirley last season . . . Kennedy regards Schull as the most determined player to play for FSU during his 18 years as coach . . . Though Schull could use 10 more pounds, he is strong enough to carry a lot of weight on the boards . . . Had a season high of 20 rebounds against Valdosta State last year . . . Quick and agile for his size, he can score from anywhere on the court . . . A good season could give Schull a chance for post-season recognition.

JIM WALLACE (No. 12)

6-7 Junior Forward

Wallace lettered as a sophomore, but was held out last season in order to gain needed experience . . . Played only one year of high school basketball before coming to Florida State . . . Has shown improvement, and may get a chance to play this season.

Leading the team will be forwards 6-1 Bob Rich (17.0) and 6-4 Letson Plant (13.1) two outstanding shooters. Newest of the junior college transfers is Glenn McSwain, a 6-6 center from Abraham Baldwin JC where he was an impressive rebounder. Center Wayne Harden (6-8), and forwards Ron Stone (6-6) and Chris Wacenske (6-4) are all experienced performers and rugged rebounders. Soph Vic Thixton will man the other guard post while Jay Anders (6-6), Fran Pinchot (6-3), and Mike Irvin (6-5) give Tampa depth.

Conference—Southeastern
Series—11-4 UF
1964-65 Record—W 18, L 7
COACH—Norm Sloan, 5 years, W 71, L 55

OUTLOOK: A tremendously tall front line gives the Gators a strong chance to rank high in the Southeastern Conference again this year. The big men are junior forward Gary Keller (6-9), the top rebounder, and center Jeff Ramsey (6-11). The other forward will probably be the veteran Bob Hoffman. The loss of starting guards Brooks Henderson and Tom Baxley hurts but Skip Higley and Paul Morton are experienced players.

NORTH CAROLINA

5th Game—Chapel Hill, N.C.—Thur., Dec. 16
Site—Carmichael Auditorium (10,000)
Tipoff—8:00 p.m. CST
Nickname of teams—Tar Heels
Location—Chapel Hill, N.C.

Enrollment—12,000
Conference—Atlantic Coast
Series—first game
1964-65 Record—W 15, L 9
COACH—Dean Smith, 4 years, W 52, L 36

OUTLOOK: The Tar Heels should be adequate offensively with forward Bob Lewis who averaged 20 points per game as a soph, and Larry Miller, who scored 33 per game as a frosh, pacing the attack. The team's defensive structure is sound although Mark Mirken (6-6) and Bob Bennett (6-8) must come through in the rebounding department. Guards Johnney Yokley and Ray Hassell are among the six returning lettermen and provide experience in the backcourt. If height deficiency is overcome, the Tar Heels should win their share of a demanding schedule of games.

U. of CALIFORNIA (SANTA BARBARA)

6th Game—at Tallahassee—Sat., Dec. 18
Site—Tully Gym (4500) Tallahassee
Tipoff—7:45 p.m. EST

COACH—Art Gallon, 9 years, W 198, L 125

OUTLOOK: After a disappointing 12-14 season last year the Gauchos expect steady improvement and better team depth. Leading the squad is forward Russ Banko (6-5), who finished second in the nation in free throw percentage, and playmaker Howard Demmelmaier. Forward Dick Kolberg (6-8) and Center Dick Hallett (6-7) return but two promising newcomers, Bob Morton (6-10) and Charlie Hess (6-9) make the Gauchos one of the biggest teams ever to appear in Tully Gym.

AUBURN

7th Game—at Pensacola—Mon., Dec. 27
Site—Escambia Gym (3000) Pensacola
Tipoff—8:00 p.m. EST

Nickname of teams—Tigers

OUTLOOK: The Tigers lost two outstanding big men in Joe Newton, the top shooter in the SEC last season and Freddie Guy, one of the top rebounders in the nation. Despite this lack of height Auburn has eight boys with equal ability and good overall team speed to fast break their opposition. Forward Lee DeFore and guard Bobby Buisson lead the seven lettermen into a strong schedule.

GEORGIA

8th Game—at Athens, Ga.—Mon., Jan. 3

Ath. Dir.—Joel Eaves

Enrollment—12,000
Conference—Southeastern
Series—17-8, FSU
1964-64 Record—8-18

COACH—Ken Rosemond, first year

OUTLOOK: Under new coach Ken Rosemond, the Bulldogs hope to improve on last year's poor 8-18 record. Top scorer Jimmy Pitts and center Mack Crenshaw have departed but there is promising hope that 6-7 Jerry Waller who averaged 16.8 points per game and 10.8 rebounds will take over team leadership. From a good freshman team comes 6-7 Jim Youngblood who set new frosh accuracy records and is expected to step into a starting post. There is weakness at guard where only Dwayne Powell has much game experience.

MIAMI

9th Game—at Tallahassee—Fri., Jan. 7

1964-64 Record—W 22, L 4

COACH—Bruce Hale, 10 years, W 190, L 90

OUTLOOK: The Hurricanes expect a sharp drift in the attack this season. With the departure of All-American forward Rick Barry to the pros, two fine junior guards Junior Gee and Rick Jones expect to shoot more. At forward junior Mike Wittman (6-6), and senior Stewart Marcus (6-4) have the edge but John Bates (6-6) and Dan Rodgers (6-5) also return. Center a difficulty a year ago is well stocked with seniors Don Patrican (6-7), Charlie Grob (6-8) and promising redshirt Ed Spriggs (6-8).

1964-65 Record—8-16

COACH—Bill Gardiner, 18 years, W 228, L 237

OUTLOOK: The Wolfpack lack height but return three of the top four scorers from last year's team. Leading the team is 6-4 forward Don Kalinowski, a good scorer (14.5) and an excellent rebounder. The other two returning and an excellent rebounder. The other two returning center Barry Geraghty. To improve on last season's record the Wolfpack needs height and sophomore standout 6-6 Jim Jackoniski is expected to play an important role. Another strong soph is guard Ted Adams, the playmaker of last year's frosh squad.

MEMPHIS STATE

11th Game—at Tallahassee—Sat., Jan. 15
15th Game—at Memphis, Tennessee—Sat., Feb. 5
Sites—Tully Gym (4500) Tallahassee

Conference—none
Series—7-3, MS
1964-65 Record—W 10, L 14
COACH—Dean Ehlers, 3 years, W 43, L 32

OUTLOOK: Although the Tigers have only three returning lettermen returning, basketball prospects are brighter thanks to the arrival of a 19-2 frosh squad. The top rookie is Mike Butler, a 6-2 guard who is a magician with the basketball and averaged 18.9. Other new faces include forward Mackie Don Smith (6-8), and frosh centers Chuck Neal and Mike O'Dell, both 6-7. The experienced players include guards B. G. Perry (10.4 average) and Alan Mirrieles (4.0) and forward Craig Alexander (8.8). Still it will be the youngsters who'll try to restore the Tigers to basketball prominence.

JACKSONVILLE

13th Game at Jacksonville—Mon., Jan. 24

Conference—NCAA and NAIA
Series—3-0, FSU
1964-65 Record—W 15, L 11
COACH—Joe L. Williams, 1 year, W 15, L 11

OUTLOOK: The loss of Ralph Tiner, All-Florida, NAIA All-American, will hurt. A tougher schedule including Florida, Citadel, Auburn, Miami, and Alabama will also make the Dolphins have a tough year. Leading the team is Dick Pruet, 6-9, 230 lb. sophomore whose 16.4 point scoring average was second to Tiner's last year. Other starters include forwards Gene Martineau (6-6) and Wayne Kruer (6-4) and guards Skip Bumbico and senior Ed Johnson. Other than Pruet and Martineau there is little height on this year's five.

GEORGIA TECH

Series—3-1, GT

1964-65 Record—W 14, L 11

COACH—John C. "Whack" Hyder, 14 years, W 185, L 167

OUTLOOK: The Yellow Jackets expect to have a colorful and hustling ball club with good speed and the best depth of any Tech team in recent years. Despite the loss of outstanding center Jim Caldwell there is an experienced center in Wes Field and a promising one in Newt Holloway. Deminitive forwards Pres Judy (6-3) and Mick Stenftenagel (6-2) can play guard if rebounding becomes a problem while veteran letterman Charles Kenny is a good playmaker. Best of the new men are forward Peter Thorne (6-4) and forward Ted Tomasovich (6-3).

HOWARD

19th Game—at Tallahassee—Sat., Feb. 19

Site—Tully Gym (4500) Tallahassee

Tipoff—7:45 p.m. EST

Enrollment—2,450

Conference—none

Series—5-0, FSU

1964-65 Record—W 12, L 11

COACH—John H. Edwards, 1st year

OUTLOOK: Prospects for improving last year's 12-11 mark are fair. The Bulldogs return starters Mike McKenzie and Joe Sexton plus center Clyde Heath (6-6). With a new coach and a tougher schedule improvement will depend upon the addition of promising newcomers like Jerry Hill (6-3), a transfer from Chipola JC, and Alabama prep All-Staters Greg Horn, a 6-7 center, and guard Howard Williams. The team will have more cage talent than in past years, but the squad is inexperienced.

FLORIDA SOUTHERN

20th Game—at Tallahassee—Thur., Feb. 24
Site—Tully Gym (4500) Tallahassee
Tipoff—7:45 p.m. EST
Nickname of teams—Moccasins
Location—Lakeland, Fla.
Ath. Dir.—Thomas H. Greene
Enrollment—1480
Conference—NCAA, FIAC
Series—13-8, FSU
1964-65 Record—10-14

COACH—Thomas H. Greene, 15 years, W 189, L 160

OUTLOOK: Tom Greene has high hopes in improving last season's 10-14 mark with a trio of strong scorers. 6-foot guard Bobby Bowman is one of the best shooters in the South, having averaged 21.8 points per game last year including 43 and 42 point outbursts against the University of Miami. Rugged 6-6 Dan Doherty can score under the basket and 6-5 Mike Huber (19.7) can shoot from anywhere. The Moccasins have some untested junior college transfers whom they hope will give them the needed depth.

ROBERT TULLY GYM

HOME OF THE FIGHTING SEMINOLES

Completion of Robert Tully Gym in 1956 marked the beginning of one era of FSU basketball and the beginnings of a greater one. Previous Seminoles teams had played their games at "West Campus," a collection of makeshift classrooms at the old Dale Mabry Field five miles south of the campus.

A modern, ample plant for physical education, Tully Gym seats 4,500 for home basketball games and has floor space for three basketball courts. The dimensions are 125' x 250', or 32,200 square feet of maple flooring. There are six practice goals for basketball. Initial cost of construction was $879,716.58 and the building was occupied by athletic and physical education classes in September, 1956. The Seminoles played their first game in the gym on Dec. 13, 1956, against Texas A & M.

The structure is named for a former Florida State footballer, Robert Tully, who died of cancer on May 14, 1954.

FIRST ANNUAL TAMPA INVITATIONAL TOURNAMENT

Tampa, Dec. 20, 21

Florida State plays host to the First Annual Tampa Invitational Tournament in Tampa's new Curtis Hixon Convention Hall. It will be the first major basketball attraction at the new hall and the Cigar City hopes to develop it into one of the best holiday tournaments in the country.

The Seminoles will face Virginia Military Institute in the second game of the tournament while Auburn and Columbia tangle in the 7 p.m. opener. Winners meet in the championship contest around 9 p.m. on the next night with the losers in the consolation game at 7 p.m.

V. M. I., State's first game opponent, returns six lettermen from last season's 8-13 team. Coach Gary McPherson regards forward Charlie Schmaus as one of the better players in the country. However, the 6-3 senior needs rebounding help expected to come from senior Jack Hartung, a 6-8 center and 6-6 sophomore Steve Powers. At guard the Keydets are strong with 5-10 sharp shooter Robin Porter and 6-3 Bobby Ayers. Other important frosh additions include 6-5 forward Bob DeVos and 5-10 guard John Kemper who scored 26.6 points per game.

Columbia finished sixth in the Ivy League and had a 7 and 15 mark, but Coach Jack Rohan is "cautiously optimistic" about the 1965-66 Lions. The big reason is big indeed—he's 7'¼" sophomore Dave Newmark, one of the most famous high school basketball players in New York City history. The Lions have tremendous height in sophs 6-7 John Harms and 6-6 Larry Borger but veteran Jack Dema is a probable forward starter. The strength isn't only in the frontcourt for 6-0 guard Stan Felsing averaged 20.5 points per game last season and has playmaking partner 5-9 Kenny Benoit (10.3).

If Auburn and Florida State are in the winners' bracket, the Tigers will play F.S.U. twice in a row since they play the Seminoles on December 27. Auburn does not have a player over 6'5" and Lee DeFore, an outstanding forward, may be forced to play center. Junior Jimmy Montgomery and sophs Alex Howell and Randall Walker are the only men in the 6'4" class and they must come through for Auburn to match last years line 16-9 record. As for guards, the Tigers have four good lettermen.

THE FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY

GENERAL INFORMATION

LOCATION: Tallahassee, the state capital, a city of 55,000 in north Florida. Tallahassee is served by Eastern and National air lines, the Seaboard Airline Railroad, and the Trailways and Greyhound bus lines. The city is located on United States Highways 27, 90, and 319.

HISTORY: In 1851, the Florida Legislature adopted an act establishing a seminary west of the Suwannee River. What had been the Florida Institute was offered as a gift to the State and so became for 50 years the West Florida Seminary.
