MEDIA INFORMATION

Welcome to Florida State University. Head Coach Leonard Hamilton, his staff and players welcome your interest and hope you enjoy your visit to Tallahassee, the capital city of the Sunshine State.

COVERING THE 2016-17 SEMINOLES

The 2016-17 Florida State basketball almanac has been produced to assist the media in the coverage of the Seminole men's basketball team. Additional information, including press releases, game notes, photographs, Photo CDs, video footage and recent news clips are available upon request to all members of the media. Any questions not covered in this publication may be directed to the Sports Information Office.

Before Your Visit

Credentials for Florida State home games are issued to accredited members of the media only. Working space along press row at the Tucker Center is limited and seats are expressly reserved to those working on deadline, with no exceptions. Children and other non-workers are not allowed in the press area. Requests for credentials should be made to Chuck Walsh, Deputy Director of Sports Information. If you would rather e-mail your request, please do so. The e-mail address is cwalsh@fsu.edu. These requests are accepted from sports editors and sports directors only. Credential requests are carefully screened to insure proper working conditions in the press area. When time permits, a working press pass and a parking pass will be mailed. When mailing is not possible, they will be left at the Media Will Call entrance near the bottom level at the Elephant Doors located in the southwest corner of the Tucker Center. The Media Will Call is located near the television trucks and directly opposite the Florida State Basketball Training Center. Media Will Call is located at this entrance and is open 90 minutes prior to tip-off.

Procedures

All media who wish to cover Florida State athletics will be expected to comply with all of the procedures of Florida State University, The NCAA, The ACC and the FSU Sports Information Office in order to be credentialed.

Photography Credentials

Photographers, too, should make their credential requests at least one week in advance. Strobe lights may be installed in the Tucker Center; arrangements must be made through the Tucker Center at least two weeks prior to gameday. Space for strobe lights is available on a first come, first served basis. Arrangements may be made by calling Roger Englert at (850) 487-1691. The NCAA has an established policy to control congestion within photography areas on the basketball court. Only photographers on assignment will be issued photo passes along with members of the working television media. Admission to the court and photo baseline is by photo pass only. Photographers, both still and electronic, must shoot from the baselines at the Northeast (visiting bench) or Southeast (Florida State bench) corners of the court.

Photographer's floor access is governed by Atlantic Coast Conference and NCAA policy. Please note, only game photographers, no runners, assistants, or producers will have access to the photography areas. Photographer positions are at the complete discretion of the basketball game officials and the Sports Information office at ALL TIMES.

Photographers

raphers deemed to be on the premises for legitimate media purposes. All photographers working Florida State games should be prepared to show a media ID card and equipment designed to photograph major college basketball. Still photographers will have access to the court only. Any secondary or commercial use of any picture taken by the accredited organization or photographer to whom the credential has been issued (including, but not limited to delayed editorial, advertising sales promotion or merchandise) is prohibited without prior specific, written approval of Florida State University.

The interviews will take place in the Florida State Basketball Training Center and will provide the media with an opportunity to speak with Coach Hamilton as well as various Seminole players. All interview requests must be made in advance and must be made with at least a 24 hour notice. Player's individual phone numbers will not be given to the media and game day interviews will not be granted until the end of each game. 2016-17 SEASON PREVIEW lorida State welcomes back two of its top three scorers, its top rebounder and its assists leader as the Seminoles will rely on a deep and talented group of athletes as it looks to make its fifth NCAA Tournament appearance in the last eight seasons. The Seminoles will also count on the maturation of their second consecutive top-10 recruiting class to continue to play as one of the top teams in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Florida State is ranked in all of the early preseason polls and is considered to be among the favorites in the ACC race.

The Seminoles are ranked 20th nationally by Blue Ribbon Magazine, 21st by Sporting News and 22nd by USA Today among the national preseason polls. The national landscape, which favorably includes the Seminoles, is populated by six teams in the ACC illustrating the incredible strength and depth of the nation's toughest basketball conference. The Seminoles, who won the ACC Championship in 2012, will be among the favorites in the league along with Duke, North Carolina, Louisville, Virginia and Miami.

"We have a good mix of mature veterans and a group of talented, eager new players on our team," said head coach Leonard Hamilton, the winningest coach in school history. "That mix of players – with their combination of experience and athleticism – creates a team that will allow us to be to be very competitive in the ACC and help us reach our goals at the end of the season."

Florida State will be led by returning veterans and All-America candidates Dwayne Bacon and Xavier Rathan-Mayes who both entered their names for the 2016 NBA Draft but decided to return to Tallahassee to form one of the top backcourt tandems in the ACC. Bacon and Rathan-Mayes combined to average 27.2 points per game and make 71 3-point field goals. Bacon scored a Florida State freshman record 536 points and averaged a Seminole freshman record 15.6 points scored per game. Rathan-Mayes, who earned All-ACC Freshman Team honors in 2015, averaged 11.8 points per game as a sophomore and needs only 134 points to become only the 45th player in school history to score 1,000 or more career points.

In addition to being Florida State's leading returning scorer, Bacon is also the Seminoles' leading returning rebounder (5.6 rpg) while Rathan-Mayes is the Seminoles' returning assists leader (4.4 apg).

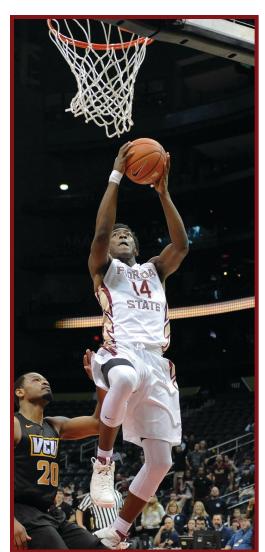

Senior Jarquez Smith, who is ranked 16th in school history with 93 career blocked shots, and sophomore Terance Mann, who was one of only three Seminoles with at least 175 points (177, 5.2 ppg), at least 125 rebounds (126, 3.7 rpg), at least 30 assists (30, 0.9 apg) and at least 20 steals (21, 0.6 spg) during the 2015-16 season, will be major contributors to Florida State's success in 2016-17. Christ Koumadje, the tallest player in Seminole athletics history, returns as one of the top shot-blocking threats in all of college basketball.

2016-17 SEASON PREVIEW

The biggest boost to the roster will be in the Seminoles' frontcourt as Michael Ojo (who missed the entire 2015-16 season) and Phil Cofer (who played in only 11 games as a sophomore) are healthy and will be major contributors to Florida State's success. Ojo, who will play as a graduate student, has played in 96 career games and his return to the Seminoles' lineup gives them a much needed presence in the paint. Cofer is one of the most athletic power forwards in college basketball. His return gives Florida State a presence near the basket and an athletic forward who can play on the perimeter.

Florida State continues to stockpile talent and welcomes a recruiting class of six to its roster. Included in the six-member class are: Jonathan Isaac (No. 9 overall high school player), Trent Forrest (the No. 48 overall player in the nation), CJ Walker (the No. 87 ranked player entering college for the 2016-17 season), Mfiondu Kabegnele (the No. 65 overall high school player), Braian Angola-Rodas (who earned All-American First Team Junior College Honors at North Idaho College in 2016) and PJ Savoy (who averaged 16.8 points per game as a junior college standout in 2016.

Isaac is the crown jewel of the Seminoles' very impressive recruiting class, and by all reports, could be one of the top players in college basketball. He is a versatile combination forward who possesses an incredible blend of quickness and ball-handling skills. Isaac was the No. 3 overall ranked power forward in the Class of 2016, was the No. 1 ranked small forward in the south, the No. 1 ranked small forward and the No. 1 player in the state of Florida, the No. 3 small forward and the No. 12 overall recruit by 247Sports.com. Isaac made the tour of the major high school All-Star games following his senior season as he played in the Jordan Brand All-Star game, was a member of the USA Basketball Junior Select Team, participated in the NIKE Skills Academy and was extremely impressive at the NBPA Top-10 Camp.

Forrest, from nearby Chipley, Fla., was ranked as the nation's 11th best shooting guard. He scored 3,103 points during his prep career. He played in the 2015 Nike Global Challenge and was a two-time high school All-American. Walker, a point guard, was the runner-up for the Mr. Basketball award and an All-State First Team pick in the basketball-rich state of Indiana. The lefthander averaged 18.3 points during his four-year high school career and led his team to the city championship in Indianapolis twice in his final three seasons as a prep star. Kabegnele averaged a double-double of 19.0 points and 10.0 rebounds as a prep-school star in 2015-16.

In Angola-Rodas and Savoy, the Seminoles landed two of the top junior college shooters in the nation. Angola-Rodas was a First-Team All-American and averaged 21.4 points while shooting 52 percent from the field and 38 percent from the 3-point line at North Idaho College during the 2015-16 season. Savoy averaged 16.8 points and shot nearly 43 percent from distance in his only season at Sheridan College in Wyoming.

"We can be the surprise of the ACC," said Hamilton. "We will be a very deep team if we stay healthy. Scoring won't be a problem. We just need to get back to playing junkyard defense."

LEONARD HAMILTON

- 15TH SEASON AT FLORIDA STATE
- TENNESSEE-MARTIN. 1971 | AUSTIN PEAY. 1973

Hamilton led the Seminoles to the first ACC basketball championship in school history in 2012, is among the leaders in the ACC and the nation in recruiting and coaching NBA talent, has made appearing in the NCAA Tournament an expected part of the Seminoles' schedule each season and made the program one of the tougher teams to prepare for on a nightly basis.

In 2012, Hamilton led the Seminoles to a school record fourth consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance, to a school record tying 12-4 record in ACC play, to a third consecutive third place finish in the ACC standings, to two wins each over Duke and North Carolina (two of the top four winningest programs in college basketball history), to wins over an ACC-leading six nationally ranked teams and to victories over each of the four Tobacco Road teams in the ACC (Duke, North Carolina, NC State and Wake Forest) for the first time in school history. While finishing the season in the NCAA Tournament for the fourth consecutive season, the Seminoles were ranked No. 10 in the final Associated Press poll and No. 15 in the final ESPN/USA Today poll.

Hamilton was named the ACC Coach of the Year in 2012 for the second time in his career as the Seminoles solidified their position as one of the top teams in the ACC. With their 3-0 record in the 2012 ACC Tournament, the Seminoles won a single-season school-record 15 ACC games. With wins over No. 4 North Carolina and No. 6 Duke to begin the ACC 2012 schedule, the Seminoles spent the majority of the conference season in first place in the ACC standings.

"Leonard Hamilton has done a brilliant job at Florida State," said the Duke Basketball Report.

Hamilton was the Washington Wizards' head coach in 2001 and the head coach at the University of Miami (1991-2000) and at Oklahoma State University (1987-90) before he was named the seventh head coach in Florida State men's basketball history on March 19, 2002.

- 15TH SEASON AT FLORIDA STATE (256-187, .578 WINNING PERCENTAGE)
- 29TH SEASON AS A COLLEGIATE HEAD COACH (456-397, .535 WINNING PERCENTAGE)

The most successful coach in Florida State history, Leonard Hamilton is the Seminoles' all-time winningest coach and is the 10th winningest coach in ACC history. He became the Seminoles winningest coach as Florida State defeated Pittsburgh on March 7, 2015 and became the 10th all-time winningest coach in ACC history as he guided the Seminoles past VCU on Dec. 6, 2015. As the 2016-17 season begins, he needs only nine wins to surpass Frank McGuire of North Carolina and South Carolina to move into ninth place for all-time coaching victories in the nation's most storied and illustrious conference – the ACC.

Under Hamilton and since the start of the 2005-06 season, the Seminoles are the third winningest overall program in the ACC with 233 wins and are one of only three teams that has won at least 60 percent of its games. Florida State is one of only three teams in the ACC that averages at least 21 wins or more per season and is one of only three teams that has won at least 20 games in a season seven times in the last 11 years.

Under Hamilton, the Seminoles have won at least 20 games in eight of his 14 years and have advanced to the postseason in 10 of his 14 seasons at Florida State.

Hamilton has earned three National Coach of the Year awards, two Atlantic Coach Conference Coach of the Year awards, two Big East Coach of the Year awards, led his teams to seven NCAA Tournament appearances and 18 postseason appearances, to the 2012 ACC Championship (as the head coach at Florida State) and to the 1978 National Championship (as an assistant coach at Kentucky). He is the only person to earn Coach of the Year honors multiple times in both the ACC and the Big East.

PERSONAL

Full Name J. Leonard Hamilton

In a recent Athlon Sports ranking of the ACC's top coaches, Hamilton was an easy choice among the top ACC coaches.

Said Athlon's editors: "Leading one of the stingiest defensive teams in the country, Hamilton coached Florida State to one of the best four-year runs at Florida State from 2009-12. For the first time in program history, the Seminoles won at least 20 games and at least 10 ACC games in four consecutive seasons. A one-point loss in overtime to VCU in 2011 prevented the Seminoles from reaching the Elite Eight. In 2012, the Seminoles became only the second team not named Duke or North Carolina to win the ACC Tournament since 1996. Hamilton has proven himself capable of building consistent basketball programs at football schools by leading Miami to three consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances to wrap up his 10-season tenure with the Hurricanes in 2000. The coaches were ranked on a mix of past accomplishments with consideration for career trajectory over the next five seasons or so. Rankings take Xs and Os acumen and recruiting prowess into account along with success in the regular season and postseason."

More important in Hamilton's eyes than the championships, the NCAA Tournament appearances and the wins, is the overwhelming success that his players have achieved in the classroom.

For Florida State under Hamilton, the academic achievements of the seniors on the 2015-16 team continues a long standing tradition of classroom success. During Hamilton's tenure as a head coach at Florida State, Miami and Oklahoma State dating back to 1988, more than 94 percent of his players have earned their degrees. Under Hamilton, the Seminoles were one of seven ACC teams credited with a perfect APR score in 2016 and are among the ACC leaders in the most recent five-year period.

The Academic Progress Rate, which was developed in 2003, holds institutions accountable for the academic progress of their student-athletes through a team-based metric that accounts for the eligibility and retention of each student-athlete for each academic term.

Each of the three Seminoles who earned their degrees in 2016 helped Florida State earn success on the basketball court with two NIT appearances (including a semifinal appearance in 2014), five victories over ranked teams and two upper division ACC finishes during their careers.

Hamilton is the first coach to lead Florida State to nine consecutive postseason appearances as the Seminoles participated in the 2009, 2010, 2011 and 2012 NCAA Tournaments and played in the NIT in 2006, 2007, 2008, 2013 and 2014. Hamilton has guided 11 of his 14 Seminole teams into postseason play.

Under Hamilton, Florida State has developed and lived up to its reputation as the nation's best defensive team.

The Seminoles led the NCAA in field goal percentage defense in both 2010 and 2011 in becoming one of only six teams in NCAA history to lead the nation in field goal percentage defense in consecutive seasons. The Seminoles' .363 field goal percentage mark in 2011 was the best in the ACC since 1960 (a span of 52 years). Florida State led the ACC in field goal percentage defense during each of the four consecutive years (2009, 2010, 2011 and 2012) it played in the NCAA Tournament under Hamilton. It marked the first time in ACC history that any team led the league for four consecutive seasons in the field goal percentage defense category. Florida State led the ACC in blocked shots and steals in 2012 in becoming only the fourth team in history to lead the ACC in both blocked shots and steals in the same season.

The Seminoles have also earned great success against ranked teams under Hamilton. The Seminoles defeated No. 1 ranked Duke in Tallahassee on Jan. 12, 2011 to mark the third time under Hamilton that Florida State has defeated the nation's top ranked team. Hamilton has guided Florida State to wins over No. 1 ranked Duke twice (Jan. 12, 2011 and March 1, 2006), as well as No. 1 North Carolina on March 14, 2009, in the semifinals of the ACC Tournament).

Under Hamilton, Florida State has defeated 32 nationally ranked teams during his 14 years in Tallahassee. Included in those wins are six victories over nationally ranked Duke, North Carolina with two victories over nationally ranked Duke, North Carolina and Virginia teams in 2012, the Seminoles led the ACC with six victories over nationally ranked teams in winning Florida State's first ever ACC Championship. The Seminoles defeated No. 10 VCU in the first round of the Puerto Rico Tip-Off in 2013. The Seminoles topped No. 11 Virginia and No. 20 Notre Dame during the 2015-16 season.

Hamilton annually attracts the nation's top talent to Tallahassee and helps those players reach their goals of not only playing at the next level, but of excelling academically and earning their degrees.

At Florida State, Hamilton has recruited and coached three of the Seminoles' four all-time All-ACC First Team selections Tim Pickett (2004), Al Thornton (2007) and Toney Douglas (2009) as well as the only two players in school history to earn ACC Defensive Player of the Year honors (Toney Douglas in 2009 and Chris Singleton in 2010 and 2011). Hamilton has coached 14 All-ACC selections in his first 14 seasons (only 15 Seminole players had earned All-ACC honors in Florida State's first 11 years in the ACC), 11 selections to the ACC All-Defensive Team, five members of the ACC All-Rookie Team and five members of the All-ACC Tournament team. Following Florida State's victory over North Carolina in the 2012 ACC Tournament Championship game, Michael Snaer was named the Most Valuable Player of the Tournament (a first in Seminole basketball history) while Snaer and Luke Loucks were named to the All-Tournament First-Team. Dwayne Bacon (five) and Malik Beasley (three) won the ACC Rookie of the Week award a combined eight times during the 2015-16 season.

Hamilton has also coached two All-Americans at Florida State – Thornton in 2007 and Douglas in 2009. Thornton and Douglas were both All-American Third-Team and All-ACC First-Team selections during their Seminole careers.

With 10 NBA Draft selections under Hamilton since 2004, the Seminoles are tied for fourth in the ACC for the most draft picks. Four Seminoles have been selected in the first round (Al Thornton in 2007, Toney Douglas in 2009, Chris Singleton in 2011 and Malik Beasley in 2016). Thornton was only the second Draft Lottery selection in school history and the third highest overall pick in school history. Only North Carolina (21) and Duke (20) have more NBA Draft picks since 2004 than Hamilton and Florida State among the current 15 ACC Teams.

Hamilton was at the 2007 NBA Draft to watch as Al Thornton became only the second Draft Lottery selection in school history as he was picked with the 14th overall selection by the Los Angeles Clippers. He was with 2009 NBA First Round selection Toney Douglas when his name was called by the Los Angeles Lakers. Hamilton watched as Solomon Alabi and Ryan Reid were selected in the second round of the 2010 NBA Draft and reveled when Chris Singleton became the first round pick of the Washington Wizards in 2011.

Hamilton watched with great pride as All-ACC selection Bernard James was selected in the second round of the 2012 NBA Draft. James arrived at Florida State in 2010 after serving in the United States Air Force during three tours of duty in Iraq, Afghanistan and Qatar and only two years of junior college basketball at Tallahassee Community College. He left Florida State after two years with his Bachelor's Degree in Social Science and an ACC Championship to begin his professional career with the Dallas Mavericks.

Florida State has had at least one player selected in the NBA Draft in nine of the last 12 seasons. Under Hamilton, the Seminoles have been represented in the NBA Draft by Malik Beasley (2016 by the Denver Nuggets in the first round), Bernard James (2012 by the Cleveland Cavaliers and traded on draft night to the Dallas Mavericks), Chris Singleton (2011 by the Washington Wizards), Solomon Alabi (2010 by Dallas and traded on draft night to Toronto), Ryan Reid (2010 by Indiana and traded on draft night to Oklahoma City) and Toney Douglas (2009 by the Los Angeles Lakers and traded on draft night to the New York Knicks). Douglas was a member of the Miami Heat's NBA Eastern Conference Champions and NBA Finals runner-up team in 2014.

With top-10 recruiting classes in 2015 and 2016, Hamilton has continued to stock the Seminoles' program with the nation's top talent. The Seminoles recruiting class was ranked No. 3 in 2015 and No. 8 in 2016. Florida State's 2015 recruiting class included High School All-American Dwayne Bacon, NBA First Round selection Malik Beasley, the Gatorade Player of the Year (in New Hampshire) Terance Mann, and center Christ Koumadje (a member of the 2015 high school national championship team). The Seminoles' 2016 class is just as loaded with High School All-American Jonathan Isaac, one of the leading all-time scorers in Florida prep basketball history in Trent Forest and the runner up for the Mr. Basketball award in the tradition rich state of Indiana in CJ Walker.

Hamilton came to Florida State after 10 seasons at the University of Miami.

In his final season at Miami, Hamilton guided the Hurricanes to their second straight 20-win season, a share of the Big East regular season championship and the school's first trip to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. The Hurricanes finished 23-11, including a 13-3 conference record, and were ranked 23rd in the nation in the final Associated Press poll and 20th in the final USA Today/ESPN poll.

Under Hamilton's leadership, Miami became one of the nation's top programs, advancing to postseason play five times in his final six seasons with three consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances in 1998, 1999 and 2000. Miami's winning records in his final six seasons meant the Hurricanes joined Syracuse and Connecticut as the only Big East schools to have an overall winning record from 1995-2000. The Hurricanes' 48-22 Big East mark over his last four seasons tied Connecticut for the best conference record over that period. Over his last two seasons, Miami registered a league-best 28-6 conference record for an .824 winning percentage.

In his final season at Miami, Hamilton's Hurricanes recorded three wins over ranked teams including a 74-70 home win over No. 18 St. John's, marking the sixth straight season Miami had defeated a ranked opponent in the Miami Arena. In the 40 seasons prior to Hamilton's arrival, the Hurricanes reached the postseason just four times including one NCAA tournament appearance (1960).

Along with the rise of the Hurricanes' program, Hamilton's players also continued to develop and win individual awards. In 2000, guard Johnny Hemsley earned All-Big East Second Team honors while center Mario Bland earned All-Conference Third-Team honors. In 1999, Hemsley and forward Tim James earned All-Big East First Team honors. The Hurricanes and Syracuse (twice) were the only schools to have two players earn All-Big East First Team honors in the same season at least once during Hamilton's tenure at Miami. In 10 seasons under Hamilton, the Hurricanes had 13 All-Conference selections

In 1998-99, Tim James was named Big East Co-Player of the Year, along with Connecticut's Richard Hamilton, and Johnny Hemsley was selected as the league's Most Improved Player.

Miami's rise began in 1994-95 when Hamilton led the Hurricanes to the greatest single season turn-around in Big East history. Picked to finish at the bottom of the Big East Conference standings, Hamilton guided the Hurricanes to a fifth-place finish and a berth in the National Invitational Tournament - Miami's first postseason appearance in 31 years. The Hurricanes' nine-win conference win increase tied Louisiana Tech for the best in the nation. Miami's eight-win overall improvement tied for the third best single season increase in school history.

At the conclusion of the 1995 season, Hamilton was named the United Press International National Coach of the Year. He was also recognized as the Big East Coach of the Year for the first time. He was named Big East Coach of the Year for the second time in 1999 and was honored as the Eastern Basketball Coach of the Year. In 2000, he was named the Black Coaches Association (BCA) Coach of the Year.

For his work both on and off the court, Hamilton was honored as one of four finalists for the 2000 Coach Wooden "Keys to Life" Award. The award is given annually to a coach who best exemplifies Coach John Wooden's philosophy of emphasizing that impacting the life of a student is more significant than any winning percentage. He was named one of Tallahassee's Top 33 citizens in 2004 by the Tallahassee Democrat, inducted into the Gaston County (N.C.) Hall of Fame in 2007 and was honored by his hometown of Gastonia, N.C. in 2012 for his accomplishments during his career.

He played at Gaston College where he set a school record by scoring 54 points in a game, and later at the University of Tennessee-Martin.

Hamilton was inducted into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame in 2013. As one of the top players at the University of Tennessee-Martin during his playing career, Hamilton's roots run deep in the state of Tennessee. A walk-on at the UT-Martin, he served as a team captain during his senior season. Hamilton received both the team's Most Valuable Player Award and the Best Defensive Player award his senior season and is a charter member of the school's Hall of Fame.

Hamilton's induction into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame marks the fifth Hall of Fame he will be a member of during his illustrious career. He is also a member of the Austin Peay State University, University of Tennessee at Martin and University of Miami athletic Hall of Fames. Hamilton received the 2015 Alumnus of Distinction award from Gaston (N.C.) College at its 50th Anniversary Gala on May 16, 2015.

In 2016 he was the commencement speaker at Chipola College in Florida.

Hamilton went to Miami from Oklahoma State where he spent four years rebuilding the Cowboys' program. He led them to consecutive appearances in the NIT, the first back-to-back postseason appearances for OSU since the 1953 and 1954 seasons. While at Oklahoma State, he recruited and coached former Florida State assistant coach Corey Williams who, as the head coach at Stetson, led the Hatters to the cusp of the NCAA Tournament in 2016.

PROFESSIONAL COACHING RECORD

2000-01 Washington Wizards (NBA) 19-63 .231

Prior to his tenure at Oklahoma State, Hamilton was on the staff at the University of Kentucky where he spent 12 seasons with one of the top programs in the country. From 1974-80, he served as an assistant coach, and in 1980 he was honored by being named the first associate head coach in Kentucky basketball history. During his 12 seasons at Kentucky, the Wildcats registered a 296-83 (.781) record, won eight SEC regular season championships, two SEC tournament titles, went to three Final Fours and won the national title in 1978.

Hamilton's coaching career began at Austin Peay State University where he served as a graduate assistant from 1971-73 and then as a full-time assistant from 1973-74. The Governors won back-to-back Ohio Valley Championships in Hamilton's last two seasons at the school. Hamilton recruited and coached James "Fly" Williams, the 1974 conference Player of the Year and two-time all-conference selection. Williams was a two-time consensus All-America in 1973 and 1974, the only two-time All-America in school history. The Governors won the OVC Championship and played in the NCAA Tournament in 1973.

Hamilton's legacy extends across the nation as eight of his former assistant coaches have moved on to become head coaches at the Division I level. Included on the list are Corey Williams (Stetson), Tim Carter (South Carolina State), Andy Enfield (Southern California), Tony Sheals (Virginia Union), Dwight Freeman, Randy Lee, Dickey Nutt (Southeast Missouri), John Phillips and Bill Self (Kansas).

He earned his Bachelor's Degree in Physical Education from Tennessee-Martin in 1971 and received his Master's Degree in Physical and Health Education from Austin Peay State in 1973.

STAN JONES

- ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH
- MEMPHIS. 1984 | MEMPHIS. 1990

With each step he takes, Stan Jones helps guide the Florida State men's basketball team to sights unseen in with each step he taxes, start Johns helps guide the richad state their s deskelball teath to sights other he is teaching the game he loves, recruiting the most talented players around the world or mentoring current and past players, Jones is always working to move every aspect of the Florida State program forward and into the future. The results are evident: Florida State is annually among the ACC leaders in wins, in the elevation of college players into the NBA and professional leagues around the world and players who earn their degrees.

Jones has helped the Seminoles compile an impressive list of accomplishments including the 2012 ACC Championship, a school-record four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances (2009-12), a school-record orianiporiship, a school-recurrence of the consequence of the conseque

As one of the most respected and knowledgeable coaches in all of college basketball, Jones is in his 15th season as the Associate Head Coach at Florida State. The 2016-17 season will mark his 21st season working alongside Seminole head coach Leonard Hamilton – 15 at Florida State, five at the University of Miami and one with the Washington Wizards in the NBA. Jones helped direct the Seminoles to their first-ever ACC Championship (2012) and has been on the bench for more wins over the nation's No. 1 ranked team (three), more wins over nationally ranked teams (32) and more 20-win seasons (eight) than any coach in school history.

Jones is consistently recognized as one of the top assistant coaches in the nation and has worked tirelessly to help build the Seminoles into a consistent winner – into a program that is the third winningest in the ACC in the last 11 years. Jones has been on the bench for two of the Seminoles' top four winningest seasons in school history and helped lead Florida State to 95 wins from 2009-12 – the winningest four-year period in Florida State The Seminoles also set a four-year Florida State record with 43 regular season ACC wins and 48

His drive and determination as both a recruiter and a coach are two of the main reasons why Florida State is the third-winningest program in the ACC since the start of the 2005-06 season.

Jones has coached in four of the last eight NCAA Tournaments and helped the Seminoles to the Sweet 16 of the 2011 NCAA Tournament. He helped guide Florida State to the first ACC Championship in school history in 2012 and to four straight NCAA Tournament appearances from 2009-12. The Seminoles have won more ACC games in 14 years with Jones on the sideline (113) than they did in their first 11 years in the ACC (70) and he has helped the program increase its winning percentage in conference games by more than 10 percent

Jones has systematically helped assemble then expertly coached winning basketball players and teams to heights unmatched in the programs he has worked to build. He helped coach Miami to a regular season championship in the Big East in 2000 only six years after the Hurricanes went winless in Big East play. He helped coach Mississippi State to the SEC Tournament Championship in 2002 – a title that marked only the second tournament championship in school history. At Florida State, Jones helped the Seminoles win the ACC Tournament in 2012. Florida State's ACC Championship is the most significant championship in Jones' career considering the Seminoles defeated two of the top four all-time winningest programs (Duke and North Carolina) in the semifinals and championship games of the event.

Jones has helped the Seminoles build a solid program by doing what he does as well as any coach in the country: recruit outstanding talent and develop those signees into NBA level players. A total of 10 Seminoles have become NBA Draft choices during his tenure at Florida State

His coaching philosophies have helped Florida State become one of the nation's top defensive teams and his ability to teach the game of basketball has transformed the Seminoles in to one of the most fundamentally

FLORIDA STATE IN THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

Jones has helped Florida State advance to four NCAA Tournaments including coaching the Seminoles to an appearance in the Sweet 16 of the 2011 NCAA Tournament. The Seminoles played in a school-record four consecutive NCAA Tournaments (2009-12) after playing in the NCAA Tournament only four times in the 13 years prior to Jones' arrival in Tallahassee. After winning a school-record tying 12 ACC regular season games and winning the 2012 ACC Championship, the Seminoles tied the school record by earning a No. 3 seed in the East Region in the NCAA Tournament. It had been 19 years since the Seminoles had earned a seed higher than No. 5 in the NCAA Tournament. Florida State was a No. 5 seed in the 2009 NCAA Tournament.

Florida State won its first ever ACC Championship in 2012 as it swept through the ACC Tournament with wins over Miami in the quarterfinals, No. 2 seeded and No. 6 ranked Duke in the semifinals and No. 1 seeded and No. 4 ranked North Carolina in the Championship game. The Seminoles finished the 2012 season with a 25-10 overall record and a school record tying 12-4 mark in ACC play. Florida State earned the automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament as the ACC Champion and played in its school record fourth consecutive NCAA Tournament where it advanced to the third round for the second consecutive season. The Seminoles defeated an ACC-high six ranked teams including both Duke and North Carolina twice and defeated each of the four Tobacco Road teams in the ACC (Duke, North Carolina, NC State and Wake Forest) in the same season for the first time since joining the ACC for the 1991-92 season.

FLORIDA STATE AND THE NATIONAL POLLS

On the strength of its first ACC Tournament championship and second 25-win season in four years, Florida State was ranked in the top 15 of both major national polls to end the 2012 season - No. 10 by the Associated Press and No. 15 in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches polls. It marked the first time since the 1992-93 season - and only the second time in school history - that the Seminoles were ranked in the top 15 in the final polls from both ranking services. The Seminoles were 15-6 while playing as a ranked team in 2012 including six consecutive wins during the month of March - two to close out the regular season, three in the ACC Tournament and one during their school-record fourth consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance.

FLORIDA STATE VS. RANKED TEAMS

Florida State has defeated 32 nationally ranked teams during the first 14 years of Jones' career as the associate head coach of the program. Included in those 32 wins over ranked teams are six victories over nationally ranked Duke teams including two when the Blue Devils were ranked No. 1 in the country at the time (March 1, 2006, 79-74 and Jan. 12, 2011, 66-61). Florida State has defeated four top-five and six top-10 ranked Duke teams with Jones on Florida State's staff. Jones has also helped Florida State earn three of the programs four all-time victories over the nation's No. 1 ranked team. In addition, with two victories over nationally ranked Duke, North Carolina and Virginia teams in 2012, the Seminoles led the ACC with six victories over nationally ranked teams on the way to winning Florida State's first ever ACC Championship. The Seminoles defeated No. 11 ranked Virginia and No. 20 Notre Dame during the 2015-16 season – both teams advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament.

NATIONAL RECOGNITION

As one of the top coaches in all of college basketball, Jones has been recognized several times for his achievements. As recently as 2012, he was selected as part of the elite group of assistant coaches from the input of more than 450 head and assistant coaches from around the nation

FLORIDA STATE

COLLEGE COACHES WITH EXTRAORDINARY PROMISE

Jones was praised for his high basketball IQ, success, incredible ability to coach players, the respect he has earned from each of the players he has coached during his career, his teaching ability and knowledge of how to implement strategy as a member of a select panel at the 2012 NCAA Final Four in New Orleans. Said ESPN. com Insider David Thorpe: "I consider Stan Jones the best "coach" that works as an assistant in the NCAA. He has been Leonard Hamilton's right-hand man when they turned around the programs at the University of Miami and now at Florida State. But unlike many assistant coaches, Jones had extensive experience and incredible success as a high school coach in Tennessee, winning multiple state titles while being considered one of the top five prep coaches in the country. In addition to becoming a top recruiter, Jones is a big part of what Florida State does from a philosophical standpoint (like fronting the post at all times – no other team does so) as well as being the loudest voice at every FSU practice. His command of the game and its nuances rival that of Roy Williams and Coach K ... both of whom incidentally lost to FSU a combined four times (in 2012)."

AN IMPACT RECRUITER ACCORDING TO ESPN'S JAY BILAS

Jones was also praised for his recruiting and teaching abilities by expert analyst Jay Bilas of ESPN who selected an outstanding group of five recruiters who have a huge impact in recruiting players and building programs. Said Bilas: "Jones is one of the most respected assistant coaches in basketball and is another basketball man who is not at all about being flashy. He is about teaching and coaching, and about giving back to the game and those who play it. There is a perception out there that the best recruiters are younger assistant coaches. Jones is clear evidence that is not always the case. He has been in the game forever, never misses an important detail and really does his homework. The results are clear. There is no way that Florida State would be as successful in identifying and securing talent without Jones. He is truly outstanding.

HAILED AS A TOP ASSISTANT COACH IN 2014 BY SPORTS ILLUSTRATED

In 2014 Jones was on a short list of assistant coaches deemed ready for head coaching jobs as determined by Pete Thamel and Brian Hamilton of Sports Illustrated. He was characterized by two current Division I head coaches as "a guy ready for the leap who is detail-oriented and has helped rebuild after rebuild."

ONE OF THE TOP 15 BEST ASSISTANT COACHES IN COLLEGE BASKETBALL

Jones was named as one of the top 15 assistant coaches in all of college basketball by Daniel O'Brien of the Bleacher Report in 2012. He is one of only three assistant coaches from the ACC named to the list. Said Daniels: "It's tough to give North Carolina and Duke a run for their money in the ACC, but with Stan Jones' help, the Florida State Seminoles have achieved that and more. During his tenure assisting Leonard Hamilton, Jones has guided the team toward the top of the conference. The Seminoles went from a cellar-dwelling squad eight years ago to ACC tournament champs in 2012. The program has seen a drastic improvement in recruiting during Jones' decade in Tallahassee, and he's been able to maximize almost every prospect's potential.

POSTSEASON AND NBA DRAFT

In his 20 years as a coach at the collegiate level (all under Seminole head coach Leonard Hamilton), Jones has helped 16 different teams into postseason play including eight into the NCAA tournament. He has also recruited and coached 15 different NBA Draft selections, including six first round picks.

DRAFT PICKS

With 10 NBA Draft selections in the last 14 years, including four first round selections, Jones has helped Florida State become one of the top collegiate producers of NBA talent since his arrival in 2002. Florida State's four first round selections in the NBA Draft in the last 10 seasons is as many as Florida State produced during the decade of the 1990's (four) and nearly as many as were produced in the first 50 years of the program (six). Malik Beasley (19th overall selection in the 2016 NBA Draft by Denver) was the first ever one-and-done player in school history. Bernard James was the 33rd overall selection in the 2012 NBA Draft and has helped the Mavericks into the NBA Playoffs in each of his first overall selection in the 2012 Abrah and issue selected as the 18th overall selection in the 2011 NBA Draft and joined Al Thornton (14th overall selection in 2007) and Toney Douglas (29th overall selection in 2009) as recent first round draft picks. Singleton was a two-time ACC Defensive Player of the Year, Thornton was only the second NBA Draft Lottery selection in school history and Douglas was an All-ACC First Team selection as a senior. In the 2010 NBA Draft. Solomon Alabi and Ryan Reid became the first Seminole duo to be drafted in the same the 2010 NBA Draft, Solomon Alabi and Ryan Keld became the first Seminole duo to be drafted in the same year since Doug Edwards and Sam Cassell were both chosen as first round selections in 1993. Tim Pickett, who earned All-America Honorable Mention and All-ACC First Team honors during his two year career at Florida State, was a second round pick of the New Orleans Hornets in 2004, while Von Wafer was a second round pick of the Los Angeles Lakers in 2005. Alexander Johnson was an All-ACC pick and was selected in the second round of the 2006 NBA draft by the Indiana Pacers. With nine draft selections since 2004, Florida State tied for fourth in the ACC for total draft selections. The Seminoles were one of only two ACC teams to have at least one player drafted each year from 2004-07, and in 2010 were one of two ACC teams (Georgia Tech) to have two

BERNARD JAMES - FROM THE AIR FORCE TO THE NBA

Jones took particular pride in his coaching success when Florida State's Bernard James was selected with the 33rd overall selection in the 2012 NBA Draft. Jones was a driving force behind the incredible all-around improvement of James who did not play high school basketball and served three tours of duty in Afghanistan and Qatar in the United States Air Force. James came to Florida State two years of junior college basketball experience under his belt and left for the NBA after earning All-ACC, All-ACC Tournament and ACC All-Defensive Team honors in becoming the face of the Seminole program for two years. James closed his career ranked in the top five for blocked shots and field goal shooting percentage despite playing only two years as a

NBA DRAFT CHOICE SOLOMON ALABI
In 2009, Jones helped sophomore center Solomon Alabi achieve All-ACC Third Team and ACC All-Defensive honors after earning Freshman All-America Honorable Mention and All-ACC Freshman honors in 2008. Jones was largely responsible for the development of Alabi who led the ACC in blocked shots in both 2008 and 2009 The 7-footer came to Tallahassee with seemingly limitless potential and Jones helped Alabi reach that potential Alabi earned ACC All-Defensive team honors and became only the seventh freshman in league history to lead the conference in blocked shots with 73. In his second full season of action, Jones helped the center reach even greater heights as he improved in nearly every category including rebounds per game (5.6 to 6.2), points per game (8.4 to 11.7), blocked shots (73 to 75), and free throw percentage (.680 to .794). Alabi led the team in points and blocked shots per game as well as free throw percentage. Alabi's development allowed him to become the second round draft choice of the Dallas Mavericks in 2009.

NBA DRAFT PICKS AL THORNTON AND TIM PICKETT

Jones is also largely credited with the development of 2007 NBA Lottery Draft pick Al Thornton, who came to Florida State as a little-known freshman in 2004 and finished his career as one of the top players in school history. After averaging just 2.8 points and 7.9 minutes played as a freshman, Thornton left Florida State for the NBA as an All-America Third Team and All-ACC First Team selection, the runner-up ACC Player of the Year and the eighth-leading all-time scorer in Seminole basketball history. Thornton was named to the NBA All-Rookie Team in his first professional season. Jones's coaching talents have also been extolled for his work with Tim Pickett, who came to Florida State as a junior college transfer and left as an All-ACC First Team selection and an NBA Draft pick.

ALL-ACC SELECTIONS

Since joining the ACC in 1992, Florida State has produced four All-ACC First Team selections, and Jones has helped coach three of them - Tim Pickett, Al Thornton and Toney Douglas. In total, he has coached 10 all-conference selections, with three All-ACC Second Team selections and three Third Team All-ACC selections an-content new selections, with three All-ACC Selection terms selections and three Third term All-ACC selections on top of the three first team selections. In helping the Seminoles become the nation's most dominant defensive team, Jones has played an integral role in coaching the ACC Defensive Player of the Year times at Florida State. All-American Toney Douglas was named the league's top defender in 2009 while Chris Singleton earned the honor in both 2010 and 2011. Michael Snaer was named to the ACC All-Defensive Team in 2013 and Okaro White was named to the team in 2014.

FSU TEAM STATISTICAL IMPROVEMENT

Jones is an extraordinary teacher of defensive principles and the Seminoles have deservedly earned the reputation as the best defensive team in all of college basketball. The statistics validate the reputation. Florida State has ranked in the nation's top 10 in field goal percentage defense in four of the last seven seasons and has advanced to the NCAA Tournament each time they ranked in the top 10. Not only was Florida State's .363 field goal percentage defense in 2011 the fifth best mark in NCAA history – but it was the best in the ACC since 1960. The Seminoles led the NCAA in field goal percentage defense in both 2010 and 2011. Jones coaching helped Miami lead the nation in field goal percentage defense in both 2010 and 2011. Jones coaching helped Miami lead the nation in field goal percentage defense during the 1998-99 season. Florida State has led the ACC in field goal percentage defense four of the last seven years including a league record four consecutive seasons (2009-12) and led the ACC in blocked shots and steals in 2012 in becoming only the fourth team in league history to lead the ACC in both blocked shots and steals in the same season. Florida State has led the ACC in blocked shots in four of the last six seasons and is the league's best overall shot blocking team in the last seven years.

SUCCESS AT MISSISSIPPI STATE

Jones helped lead Mississippi State to a school-best No. 3 seed in the 2002 NCAA tournament. The Bulldogs captured the school's second SEC tournament championship with victories over No. 11-ranked Florida and No 8-ranked Alabama in the title game of the SEC Tournament. Mississippi State also recorded the school record for most wins in a single season with 27 in his only season in Starkville

IN THE NBA WITH THE WASHINGTON WIZARDS

Jones began his collegiate assistant coaching career at Miami under Hamilton in 1996. During his career at Miami, he helped guide the Hurricanes to a 95-54 record for a .638 winning percentage and three NCAA Tournament appearances. The 95 wins (19.0 wins per season) were the most in a five-year period for the program since the 1959 through 1964 seasons. Miami won 23 games in both 1999 and 2000 to mark only the third time in program history (and first time since 1964) that the program had won at least 20 games in consecutive seasons.

MIAMI POSTSEASON

In his final four seasons at Miami, Jones helped guide the Hurricanes to four postseason tournament appearances, a regular season Big East championship and the school's first ever NCAA Tournament "Sweet 16" appearance in 2000. Miami won a then-school record 23 games in 1999 on its way to the school's first ever top-10 national ranking. The Hurricanes were ranked No. 10 in the season ending Associated Press poll in 1999.

INCREDIBLE HEAD COACHING SUCCESS

Jones won four state championships and had a winning percentage of nearly 80 percent as the head coach at First Christian Academy in Memphis (1981-90) and at Jackson Academy in Mississippi (1990-95). He won two association championships at First Christian and two at Jackson Academy while earning Coach of the Year Honors twice in Mississippi (state Coach of the Year) and three times in Tennessee (district Coach of the Year). Jones won a total of eight district championships (five at First Christian and three at Jackson Academy) and was the head coach of the state of Tennessee All-Star team in 1989 and the head coach of the state of Mississippi All-Star team in 1994. He amassed a head coaching record of 353-91 for a .795 winning percentage.

PERSONAL

The 56-year-old Jones is married to the former Olga Campos. The couple has a daughter, Shannon (34) (son-in-law Kass Bottini), and a son, Adam (32). Shannon and Kass welcomed the family's first grandchild, Kaleb (seven), into the world right after the Seminoles' run in the ACC Tournament championship game and the NCAA Tournament in March of 2009, his second grandchild, Jacob (five), just after the Final Four in 2011 and his third, Daniel (two), during the summer recruiting period in 2014.

pipeline to the NBA, Dennis Gates is in his sixth season as a member of Leonard Hamilton's coaching staff at Florida State. The Seminoles are recruiting at a level never before seen in Tallahassee and Gates' tireless efforts as a national and worldwide recruiter has helped the Seminoles recruit the nation's top talent to Tallahassee.

Because of Gates' incredible ability to build lasting relationships, Florida State's current recruiting class of Jonathan Isaac, Trent Forrest, Mfiondu Kabengele and CJ Walker is ranked No. 8 nationally in 2016. The Seminoles' 2015 class of Dwayne Bacon, Malik Beasley, Terance Mann and Christ Koumadje was ranked as high as the No. 3 recruiting class in the nation. Beasley was the first one-and-done player in school history and was a first round draft choice of the Denver Nuggets in the 2016 NBA Draft Gates' ability to recruit star basketball players since joining Hamilton's staff in 2011 is evident when one scans Florida State's current roster. Nearly half of the players on the Seminoles' roster for the upcoming season were ranked in the nation's top 100 players when they were recruited including Isaac (No. 9), Bacon (No. 22), junior Xavier Rathan-Mayes (No. 24), Forrest (No. 45), junior Phil Cofer (No. 56), senior Jarquez Smith (No. 63), CJ Walker (No. 82), and Mann (No. 94).

Gates connects with players and families like very few college basketball coaches can. It's his ability to connect with a recruit and then help them reach the next level of basketball during their collegiate careers that makes Gates so incredibly successful.

With Gates on the staff, the Seminoles have firmly established themselves as the third-winningest program in the ACC in the last 11 years (since the 2005-06 season) in total wins (233). The Seminoles are joined by only Duke and North Carolina as the three teams who have won more than 60 percent of

One of the sharpest minds in college basketball, Gates was hired as a graduate assistant at Florida State in 2005. After stops at Marquette, Cal and in the NBA with the Los Angeles Clippers, he coached at Northern Illinois in 2008 and was elevated to the position of associate head coach after just one season with the Huskies. At only 28 years of age, he became one of the youngest associate head coaches in all of college basketball. He was Northern Illinois' lead recruiter, coached the Huskie guards and helped numerous players earn All-Mid-American Conference and MAC All-Freshman honors during his two years there statistics in both field goal percentage defense and blocked shots.

Gates has been instrumental in bringing in four consecutive top-15 ranked recruiting classes full of talent to Florida State and works daily to ensure that effort continues. In the last three recruiting cycles, Gates has helped recruit 10 players who were judged to be four- or five-star recruits including Jordan-Brand All-American Jonathan Isaac (a freshman on Florida State's 2016-17 team) and McDonald's All-American Dwayne Bacon (a sophomore on Florida State's 2016-17 team). He has helped assemble top ranked recruiting classes at each of his first four coaching stops -- Florida State, Cal, Nevada and Northern Illinois. The many players he has had a hand in recruiting have become the cornerstones of their respective programs and future NBA and professional players. His 2006 class at Cal included four top-150 recruits; Taylor Harrison, All Pac-10 guards Patrick Christopher, Jerome Randle and All Pac-10 power forward and 2008 NBA first-round draft pick Ryan Anderson. Following the 2006-07 season, Anderson was selected to the Pac-10 All-Freshman team. Malik Beasley, a freshman on Florida State's 2015-16 roster, was a first round selection of the Denver Nuggets in the 2016 NBA Draft.

Gates, who excelled as a combo guard during his playing career, has mentored the Seminoles' guards during his career in Tallahassee. He has worked with Luke Loucks (who set an ACC Tournament championship game record with 13 assists in the Seminoles' 2012 ACC Championship clinching victory over North Carolina), Ian Miller (who was named as the ACC's Sixth Man of the Year in 2014), Devon Bookert (one of the greatest shooters in school history), Xavier Rathan-Mayes (who earned All-ACC Freshman and All-ACC Honorable Mention honors in 2015) and Beasley (who was a first round NBA selection in 2016).

POSTSEASON EXPERIENCE

Gates has helped coach the Seminoles to four postseason appearances in his first five years at Florida State -- the NCAA Tournament in 2012 and to the NIT in 2013, 2014 and 2016. Gates helped the Seminoles reach the semifinals of the NIT in 2014 to mark only the second time in school history they had advanced to the Final Four of the NIT. He also helped coach Cal into the 2006 NCAA Tournament and Nevada into the 2010 NIT. As a player, Gates was a three-year team captain (and four-year varsity letterwinner) at Cal and led the Bears to NCAA Tournament appearances in 2001 and 2002, the 1999 NIT title and the 2000 NIT Final Eight.

INCREASED WINS

In his first season as an assistant coach at Cal the Golden Bears saw their win total increase from 13 (2004-05) to 20 (2005-06). In his first season as an assistant at Florida State, the Seminoles saw their win total increase from 23 (2010-11) to 25 (2011-12).

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Gates began his career as a coaching assistant with the Los Angeles Clippers as a skill development coach during the 2002-03 season. He worked with a strong collection of players that included 10 prospects with three or fewer years of experience including future All-Stars Elton Brand and Lamar Odom. Brand finished the 2003 season as the Clippers' leading scorer with an 18.5 points per game average while Odom ranked third on the team with a 14.6 points per game average. Brand and Odom formed one of the NBA's highest scoring and best shooting front court duos in the NBA with Gates on the Clippers' staff. The Clippers finished in the top 10 in the NBA statistics for blocked shots, free throws made and free throws attempted.

FLORIDA STATE

PREPARING PLAYERS TO REACH THE NBA

With Malik Beasley's selection in the 2016 NBA Draft, Gates expanded his resume of developmental success to five NBA Draft selections. In addition to working with Beasley (who was named to the All-ACC Freshman team). Gates also worked with Bernard James (second round pick of the Cleveland Cavaliers in 2012 / played three years with the Dallas Mavericks), has worked with power forward Leon Powe at Cal (second round pick of the Denver Nuggets in 2006) as well as Travis Diener (second round pick of the Orlando Magic in 2005) and Steve Novak (second round pick of the Houston Rockets in 2006) at Marquette. Gates worked with two NBA players during his coaching tenure at Nevada: Armon Johnson was a second round draft choice of the Portland Trail Blazers in 2010 and has played for the Trail Blazers and the New Jersey Nets while Luke Babbitt was the No. 16 overall selection in the 2010 NBA Draft by the Minnesota Timberwolves. Babbitt currently plays for the Miami Heat. Gates also coached Okaro White of the Heat during his Florida State career.

STATISTICAL IMPROVEMENT

In each of his stops as an assistant coach, Gates has played a significant role in helping his teams improve statistically. Northern Illinois finished his second season (2008-09) ranked among the top five in six different statistical categories in the Mid-American Conference including third in scoring (66.2 ppg), third in three-point field goal percentage (34.7) and fourth in assists (12.4 apg). All were significant improvements from the 2007-08 campaign. The 2008-09 season saw the Huskies go 7-5 at home, their first winning record since the 2005-06 season. Overall, Northern Illinois improved its win total by four wins in Gates first season as the Huskies associate head coach. During his second season at Nevada, the Wolf Pack finished third in the league statistics in rebounding (36.8 rpg), fourth in blocked shots (3.7 bpg) and fourth in field goal percentage defense (.426). The Wolf Pack also ranked in the top 15 in the nation in scoring and field goal percentage, and broke school single-season marks for scoring and field goals made and attempted in 2010. In his two seasons as an assistant coach at Cal, the Bears averaged 18 wins a season and won 20 games in advancing to the NCAA Tournament in 2006. Florida State won 65 games in Gates' first three seasons under Hamilton – an average of 21.7 wins per season. In his first season at Florida State, he helped Florida State continue to stand as one of the nation's top defensive teams. Florida State finished fifth in the nation in field goal percentage defense and seventh in blocked shots in 2012. The Seminoles defeated an ACC-high six ranked teams and defeated all four Tobacco Road teams in the ACC (Duke, North Carolina, NC State and Wake Forest) in the same season for the first time in school history. In his second season, the Seminoles led the ACC in blocked shots and finished second in free throw shooting percentage. It marked the school-record fourth consecutive season the Seminoles had led the ACC in blocked shots while their second place finish in the team statistics in free throw percentage shooting marked an improvement of 10 positions in the league statistics. The Seminoles led the ACC in field goal shooting percentage in 2014 - the first time in school history they led the ACC in that category since joining the ACC for the 1992 season.

SECOND TIME AROUND

Gates was a graduate assistant at Florida State under Hamilton during the 2004-05 season - a year the foundation for the current Seminole program began to take shape. The Seminoles counted a victory over No. 3 Wake Forest in their win total. The Seminoles' win over the Deacons marked the third victory over a top five ranked team under Hamilton. Gates played a part in the development of future pros Al Thornton, Alexander Johnson and Von Wafer during his first season in Tallahassee with Thornton becoming only the second NBA Draft Lottery selection in Florida State history in 2007. Johnson and Wafer were second round NBA Draft selections.

COACHING TREE

Gates has learned the game from some of basketball's all-time greatest coaches including Hamilton who is one of the top 20 all-time winningest coaches in ACC history. He played and coached under Ben Braun at Cal (a finalist for the 2003 Naismith National Coach of the Year award), Tom Crean at Marquette (the 2012 National Coach of the Year by ESPN.com), Ricardo Patton at Northern Illinois and David Carter at Nevada. Braun has taken eight teams to the NCAA Tournament while Crean, the current head coach at Indiana, has guided eight teams to the NCAA Tournament including his 2003 Marquette team which advanced to the Final Four of the NCAA Tournament. Crean led Indiana to the 2013 Big Ten Championship and led the Hoosiers to an incredible 10 weeks at the No. 1 ranking during the 2012-13 season. Gates also worked under Alvin Gentry (current head coach of the New Orleans Pelicans) and the late Dennis Johnson while he was a coaching assistant with the Los Angeles

PLAYING CAREER

During his playing career at Cal the Golden Bears compiled an 83-46 record, winning 20 games in a season three times. In 2002, the Bears reached the semifinals of the Pac-10 Tournament and the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Gates was named to the All-Tournament team at the Golden Bear Classic in 2001 after hitting a three-pointer to beat Penn State, 76-73, in the closing seconds of the championship game. He played in 114 career games, started 34 games and finished his career with a scoring average of 3.8 points per game as well as 100 steals and 148 assists.

SPECIAL HONORS

Gates was a two-time Pac-10 First Team All-Academic Team selection, was named Cal's Most Inspirational Player (2001) and was twice named the Bears' Outstanding Student-Athlete (1999 and 2001). In addition, he was awarded the 2002 Pac-10 Medal of Honor (given to the Pac-10 Universities Top Graduating Student-Athlete).

COACHING IS A FAMILY AFFAIR

Gates' younger brother, Armon, is in his third season as a member of Chris Collins' staff at Northwestern. He helped guide the Wildcats to victories over NCAA Final Four participant Wisconsin and NIT Champion Minnesota during his first season at Northwestern in 2014. He has made his mark as not only a top-notch recruiter but as a coach who can teach and coach the game as it is played by today's superstar athletes. Young annually makes Florida State a big player for the most important recruits and his closing ability has helped the Seminoles land top-10 recruiting classes in each of his first three seasons in Tallahassee.

He has crafted his reputation through hard work, a stellar eye for talent and the incredible ability to help each player he coaches become the best they can be at everything they want to accomplish – both on and off of the basketball court. As a player, he was an all-conference performer who played professionally. As a coach, he has made it his mission to help the players he coaches achieve the same lofty goals.

Prior to his arrival in Tallahassee, Young spent four seasons as the head coach at his alma mater, Georgia Southern. In his three years on the job the Seminoles won the school's third football National Championship in 2013 and the University's first-ever soccer National Championship in 2014. Also, the athletic department has recorded two top 15 finishes in the Learfield Sports Athletic Director's Cup fielding fewer sports than almost any other school in the top 25 of the standings.

Wilcox has been at the helm during a span that is one of the most successful in the history of Seminole athletics. During Wilcox's tenure there have been 16 ACC Player of the Year honors awarded to Seminoles and FSU student-athletes have received more than 150 All-America honors. Add to that a Heisman Trophy winner and 15 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans and the arc of the program under his direction is apparent.

Facilities upgrades have also been a major focus since Wilcox arrived in Tallahassee. In the last year the Tucker Center, home to FSU's men's and women's basketball programs, has been completely transformed with new seating, state-of-the-art scoreboards and numerous infrastructure improvements. The arena is currently undergoing another $10 million worth of renovations, which includes new locker rooms, player lounges, training rooms and auxiliary areas. Seminoles football offices, locker rooms, common areas, meeting rooms, coaches' locker rooms and players' lounge areas have all been significantly renovated or newly constructed. In his short time at the helm, locker room renovations for soccer, softball and beach volleyball have also been completed.

Wilcox came to Florida State from Duke where he served as Senior Deputy Director of Athletics from 2008-2013. During his time at Duke, Wilcox's duties included managing the day-to-day operation of the department and oversight of the football program. In addition, Wilcox was responsible for coordinating football scheduling.

Before arriving at Duke, Wilcox, a former basketball letterman at Notre Dame, spent three years as the deputy director of athletics at his alma mater. Prior to returning to South Bend in 2005, he served 11 years as an associate commissioner of the BIG EAST Conference.

While working at the BIG EAST Conference, Wilcox was the league's representative to the NCAA Management Council from 2000-05 and served on the Management Council subcommittees on incentives and disincentives, governance, nominations and the task force to review the NCAA's one-time transfer exception rule. His national compliance responsibilities extended to the NCAA recruiting task force and the basketball issues committee. His internal BIG EAST Conference duties included handling the league's NCAA governance, legislative, enforcement, compliance services and legal issues. In recognition of his outstanding service, he was awarded the 2001-02 National Association of Athletics Compliance Coordinators Outstanding Achievement Award.

In addition to his Florida State duties, Wilcox currently holds several national and ACC leadership positions including: membership on the NCAA Administrative Cabinet; 2015-16 Chair of the ACC Athletics Directors; Chair of the ACC Women's Basketball Committee; and, for the last 12 years, serving on the Advocates for Athletic Equity (AAE) Board of Directors.

Throughout his career Wilcox has spent considerable time expanding opportunities for others. He helped to create the Minority Opportunity Athletics Association and subsequently served as a member of its Board, and from 2003 to 2005 he was President of the Black Coaches Association (BCA).

Before his tenure at the BIG EAST Conference, Wilcox worked as a legislative assistant at the NCAA from 1989-94. Prior to that, he worked as a senior court analyst for the Kings County Supreme Court in Brooklyn, N.Y., from 1982-89. Following his graduation from Notre Dame in 1981 with a degree in economics, he spent one year as an account executive for Serres, Visones & Rice Insurance in New York, N.Y. and was a graduate assistant basketball coach at C.W. Post College.

A native of North Babylon, N.Y., Wilcox played in 100 career games on the hardwood for the Fighting Irish and was a member of Notre Dame's 1978 club that faced Duke in the NCAA Final Four in St. Louis, Mo. He helped the Irish to a four-year ledger of 92-26 with four NCAA Tournament berths. Wilcox went on to earn a juris doctor degree from the Brooklyn Law School in 1988 and is a member of the New York State Bar Association.

Ojo is now more apt to throw down a thunderous dunk than attempt a hook shot – a basketball move he now makes without hesitation...in four years under the tutelage of Hamilton and Jones, he has learned to not only go to the basket as hard as he can, but to grab rebounds in traffic, draw fouls, set screens and guard his opponent...he is often guarding an All-ACC caliber center in every game the Seminoles play... Hamilton has said that Ojo's biggest challenge is relaxing his mind in order to think clearly while remaining ultra-competitive... his strength and unusual size allows him to compete with many of college basketball's most accomplished big men because he is so tough to move off of the blocks...is working on developing his foot speed and quickness which will allow him to flourish as a defender in Florida State's system...is working on developing his explosiveness in order to outwork his opponents for position on the floor both offensively and defensively...already has the wingspan and the strength to defend any player in the country but needs to develop the quickness and foot speed in order to outwork other players...his increased quickness will also help him rotate to the ball within the Seminoles' system...his increased quickness will also allow him to help his teammates in many help defense situations and recover to his position and guard his man more efficiently...a very high character student athlete who fits in very well with the players on Florida State's roster...with his 7-8 wingspan, he can nearly touch the rim without jumping...earned the Golden Torch Award for basketball in 2013...the award recognizes the top academic performer on each of Florida State's 21 varsity teams on an annual basis...presented with the Unsung Hero Award by the Seminoles' coaching staff at Florida State's annual Honors Banquet in 2013...presented with the Mr. Hustle and Tip Of the Spear Awards at the Seminole basketball Honors Banquet in 2014...earned the Academic Achievement and Charlie Ward Outstanding Defensive Player Awards from the Florida State Coaching staff at the Seminoles' 2015 Honors Banquet...

WHY I WEAR MY NUMBER

Michael Ojo – "I wore No. 50 in high school and it's a big man's number. I felt like I had some success in high school and I was wearing it in high school when I was recruited to play at Florida State so I decided to stick with it when I came to play for Coach Hamilton."

NUMBER FACT

Ken Doyle was the first Seminole to wear No. 50 in 1965 and the number has been worn by nine Seminoles since then (including by Michael Ojo). Doyle earned three varsity letters as the Seminoles' center in 1966, 1967 and 1968 and averaged 3.3 points and 2.6 rebounds in 53 career games.

WHY I WEAR MY NUMBER

Phil Cofer – ""I was very close to the members of my recruiting class at Tennessee. When we left Tennessee because of the coaching change, we all decided that we would all wear No. 0 wherever we decided to go to school. Larry Austin wore No. 0 $\,$ at Xavier (before transferring to Vanderbilt) and CJ Turman wore No. 0 when he played at Florida Atlantic. Jordan Cornish was supposed to get No. 0 at UNLV (before transferring to Cal.) but another player already had the number.

NUMBER FACT

Phil Cofer is just the second player in school history to wear the number 0. Pierre Jordan wore 0 during the 2010 and 2011 seasons. Tim Wooden was the first Seminole to play in a uniform number below 1 when he wore 00 during the 1995 and 1996 seasons.

GAINESVILLE, Fla. -- Freshman phenom Dwayne Bacon scored 24 points, including a pull-up jumper with 4.6 seconds remaining, and the Seminoles beat the rival Gators 73-71. Bacon made 9 of 17 shots, none bigger than the 10-footer from the lane on FSU's final possession. Seminole head coach Leonard Hamilton called the play during a timeout and got an ideal matchup when guard Kasey Hill, who is six inches shorter than Bacon, was unable to affect Bacon's shot. Florida freshman KeVaughn Allen scored a career-high 32 points on 10-of-18 shooting. Devon Bookert and Xavier Rathan-Mayes finished with 11 points apiece for Florida State. Malik Beasley had 10. Hill and Finney-Smith had 10 points each for the Gators. Hill also had five

GAME 16 - FLORIDA STATE 85, NC STATE 78

RALEIGH, N.C. -- Malik Beasley scored 22 points to help the Seminoles beat NC State, 85-78, to gain their first ACC win of the season. Devon Bookert added 18 points for the Seminoles who led just about the entire game. Abdul-Malik Abu scored a career-high 21 points to go with 13 rebounds and a career-best six assists to lead N.C. State, while Anthony "Cat" Barber – the ACC's leading scorer – finished with 16 points. N.C. State shot 38 percent and went 7 for 26 (27 percent) from 3-point range, but hung around by making 23 of 32 free throws. N.C. State made its final push with freshman Maverick Rowan shaking off a game's worth of shooting struggles to bury two 3-pointers — one immediately after an FSU turnover — to bring the Wolfpack within 79-76 with 37.9 seconds left. But Xavier Rathan-Mayes answered with two free throws. Rowan and Barber each missed 3s on the ensuing possession and FSU hit its last four free throws to gain the win.

GAME 25 - MIAMI 67, FLORIDA STATE 65

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — Sheldon McClellan scored 20 points and No. 12 Miami fought off a second-half rally from Florida State to win 67-65. The Hurricanes led by four with less than a minute remaining when Dwayne Bacon's 3-pointer brought the Seminoles to 66-65. After Davon Reed missed a 3, Florida State had a chance to go ahead but Devon Bookert was short on a 3-pointer from the corner. Ja'Quan Newton hit one of two free throws for Miami, leaving Florida State one last chance, but Malik Beasley missed a 30-footer that would have won it. Reed had 14 points and Angel Rodriguez scored 11 for the Hurricanes, who secured their fourth 20-win season in Jim Larranaga's five years as coach. Bookert led Florida State with 14 points, and Xavier Rathan-Mayes had 12. Miami jumped out to an 11-2 lead and was up by seven before Florida State scored eight straight points — consecutive 3-pointers by Benji Bell and Terance Mann's jumper — to take a 15-14 advantage with 10-13 remaining. After the score was tied at 17, the Hurricanes regained control with a 17-5 run and built their largest lead of the half (34-22) with 1:49 remaining.

GAME 31 - FLORIDA STATE 88, BOSTON COLLEGE 66

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Malik Beasley and Dwayne Bacon added 13 points apiece for a balanced Florida State team as the Seminoles defeated Boston College, 88-66, in the first round of the ACC Tournament. This was not a rout from start to finish and actually was relatively close at halftime, with FSU ahead 39-30. But the 11th-seeded Seminoles scored the first six points of the second half and never really were threatened again. The Eagles wrapped up the first 0-19 season in ACC men's basketball with a conference tournament loss to the Seminoles. Against Florida State, Boston College senior center Dennis Clifford had 15 points and nine rebounds before fouling out with 9 1/2 minutes left. Right then, BC's deficit was somewhat manageable, at 65-56, but quickly climbed back up to 15 points. The 22-point win was Florida State's largest ACC tournament margin of victory.

NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY

Dave Cowens helped Florida State to its first berth in the NCAA Tournament.

Florida State played in the 1972 NCAA National Championship game against UCLA.

1967-68: DAVE COWENS AND FLORIDA STATE MAKE THEIR FIRST APPEARANCE IN THE TOURNAMENT

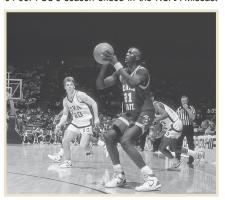

Led by sophomore Dave Cowens, Florida State made its first NCAA Tournament appearance during the 1967-68 season. The Seminoles finished the year with a 19-8 record after a 79-69 loss to East Tennessee State in the first round of the Mideast Regional. Cowens had an outstanding season averaging 18.8 points and 17.0 rebounds per game while hitting 53.8 percent (206-of-383) from the floor. Junior Jeff Hogan (15.8 ppg) and sophomore Jan Gies (12.7 ppg) also averaged in double figures for head coach Hugh Durham's second FSU team.

1971-72: THE UPSTART SEMINOLES SHOCK THE COLLEGE BASKETBALL WORLD

Entering the 1971-72 season, Florida State head coach Hugh Durham had one primary goal for his players. Said Durham prior to the season, "I want to get our players to play to their potential. If they do that, the wins will take care of themselves." By any standard, Durham succeeded. That season, Florida State fielded its most successful team in school history, winning a program-record 27 games against just six losses. The season culminated with an NCAA Mideast Regional Championship, a trip to the Final Four and a date with five-time defending national champion UCLA and legendary coach John Wooden in the national championship game. Along the way to the title game, Florida State knocked off perennial powers Minnesota, Kentucky and North Carolina. In the championship game, FSU fell just five points short of a national championship, going down 81-76 to the Bruins.

1977-78: COACH HUGH DURHAM TAKES HIS FINAL SEMINOLE TEAM BACK TO THE

Florida State found its way back to the NCAA Tournament in head coach Hugh Durham's final season at FSU, 1977-78. The Seminoles rolled through the Metro Conference to win the league's regular season title with an 11-1 record before falling in the conference tournament title game to Louisville 94-93. FSU's season ended in the NCAA Mideast

George McCloud helped Florida State reach the 1988 NCAA Tournament with an 18.2 PPG average for the season.

Regional when it lost to eventual national champion Kentucky 85-76. Harry Davis capped his Seminole career by leading Florida State in scoring (19.5 ppg) and rebounding (7.4 rpg).

1979-80: COACH JOE WILLIAMS TAKES THE SEMINOLES BACK TO THE TOURNAMENT IN HIS SECOND YEAR

The trio of guard Mickey Dillard, forward Murray Brown and center Elvis Rolle helped Florida State to its second postseason appearance in three seasons with its trip to the 1980 NCAA Tournament. The Seminoles posted a 22-9 record and finished as Metro Conference runners-up. FSU beat Toledo 94-91 in the first round of the NCAA Mideast Regional for its first postseason win in eight years before being eliminated by Kentucky. Dillard led Florida State with a 20.4 points per game scoring average while Brown (18.6) and Rolle (15.3) also averaged in double figures for head coach Joe Williams' club.

1987-88: COACH PAT KENNEDY'S CINDERELLA SEMINOLES RETURN TO THE NCAA SHOW AFTER SEVEN YEARS

Head coach Pat Kennedy's second team at Florida State returned to the NCAA Tournament after a seven-year absence. The Seminoles' Cinderella season began with low expectations as the Tribe had been picked to finish near the basement of the Metro Conference standings. But two personnel decisions turned the season into a satisfying one for Seminole fans. The first was to move a previously overweight, seldom-used forward to point guard and the other was to offer a scholarship to a junior college transfer whose left leg was shorter than his right. The twosome - George McCloud (point guard) and Tony Dawson (junior college transfer) - transformed FSU into an NCAA Tournament club that earned the 12th seed in the West Regional before falling to lowa 102-98 in the first round. McCloud (18.2 ppg) and Dawson (17.9 ppg) both averaged more than 17 points per game for the 19-11 Seminoles.

1988-89: FSU RETURNS TO THE TOURNAMENT FOR THE SECOND YEAR IN A ROW

Florida State used the 1988-89 season to serve as a national coming-out party. The Seminoles topped one outstanding season with another, making the NCAA Tournament in consecutive seasons for the first time in school history. FSU, which returned four starters from the previous year, opened the season by winning 16 of its first 17 games, the best start in school history, and rose to as high as No. 8 in the national polls. The Seminoles also won the Metro Conference regular season crown, earned the fourth seed in the NCAA Southeast Regional and finished with a 22-8 record. George McCloud (22.8 ppg) and Tony Dawson (21.0 ppg) again led FSU by both averaging at least 21.0 points per game.

NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY

1990-91: CHARLIE WARD MAKES THE DIFFERENCE, AS SEMINOLES ADVANCE TO SECOND ROUND

After a one-year absence, Florida State returned to the NCAA Tournament in 1990-91. Heading into the season, most experts thought that it would be head coach Pat Kennedy's most challenging since coming to Tallahassee. The Seminoles struggled early in the season and opened the year just 5-5. But in game 11 head coach Pat Kennedy inserted Charlie Ward in the starting lineup at point guard and FSU began to surge. Florida State won 12 of its final 17 games and rolled through the Metro Conference Tournament in three games to claim its first tournament title in its final season in the league. The Seminoles were the seventh seed in the NCAA Tournament's Midwest Regional and defeated USC in the first round 75-72, for FSU's first tournament win since 1980. Florida State's season would end with a 21-11 record after a second-round loss to Indiana.

1991-92: ANOTHER SEMINOLE CINDERELLA SQUAD MAKES THE SWEET 16

Not many college basketball experts predicted that Florida State's first game and season in the Atlantic Coast Conference would be so successful. The Seminoles' first game turned out to be one of the greatest wins in school history and the season was one of the finest in program annals. FSU's ACC opener at North Carolina would provide a glimpse of what was to follow that season. Playing without star forward Doug Edwards and with just one senior on the roster, the Seminoles went into the Dean Smith Center and stunned the fifth-ranked Tar Heels 86-74 before more than 19,000. Florida State rolled on to a 22-10 record, an 11-5 conference record and second- place finish, and an appearance in the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16. Seeded third in the West Regional, FSU defeated Montana and Georgetown before giving Indiana everything it could handle in defeat.

1992-93: ANOTHER STEP UP THE LADDER: THE ELITE EIGHT

One year after advancing to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament, the 1992-93 Seminoles did their predecessor one better – a trip to the Elite Eight. The second-most successful season in Florida State basketball history ended just 40 minutes shy of the Final Four with a loss to Kentucky in the Southeast Regional Championship Game. Led by the quintet of Sam Cassell, Rodney Dobard, Doug Edwards, Bob Sura and Charlie Ward, the Seminoles went 25-10, including a 12-4 mark in the ACC. Florida State's 25 wins were the second most in school history.

1997-98: COACH STEVE ROBINSON TAKES THE SEMINOLES BACK TO THE BIG SHOW

Steve Robinson's first season as the Seminoles' head coach was a successful one as he took his team back to the NCAA Tournament. Florida State opened the season by winning 12 of its first 14 games, including an 84-79 win over defending national champion

Arizona in Tallahassee. After a late season stumble, FSU picked itself back up in the first round of the NCAA Tournament's Midwest Regional. The Seminoles, seeded 12th, played one of their best games of the year in beating No. 5 Texas Christian 96-87. Florida State's season would end in the second round with a heart-breaking 83-77 overtime loss to Valparaiso and an 18-14 record.

2008-09: LEONARD HAMILTON RETURNS SEMINOLES TO NCAA TOURNAMENT

Leonard Hamilton, who was named the 2009 National Coach of the Year by Basketball Times and the ACC Coach of the Year by the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association, guided the Florida State men's basketball team to one of the most successful seasons in school history in 2009. The Seminoles finished the season with a 25-10 record, a No. 5 seed in the NCAA Tournament and the first ACC Championship game appearance in school history. The Seminoles defeated four ranked teams including No. 1 North Carolina in the semifinals of the ACC Tournament during the season. The Seminoles faced No. 12 seed Wisconsin in a dreaded five-12 game and lost in the first round to the Badders. 61-59 in overtime in Boise. Idaho.

2010-11: SEMINOLES WIN THEIR WAY BACK TO THE SWEET SIXTEEN

With victories over No. 2 seeded and No. 5 ranked Notre Dame and No. 7 seeded and No. 20 ranked Texas A&M, the Seminoles advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament for the fourth time in school history and the first time since 1993. It marked the second time in school history that Florida State had defeated two ranked teams in the same NCAA Tournament. With four victories over ranked teams during the season - including No. 1 Duke - the Seminoles finished the season with a 23-11 overall record and an 11-5 mark in the ACC. Florida State was the best defensive team in the nation for the second consecutive season as it led the nation in field goal percentage defense and ranked fifth nationally in blocked shots. The Seminoles defeated Texas A&M and Notre Dame in the second and third rounds of the NCAA Tournament before falling to VCU in the Southeast Regional semifinals.

2011-12: SEMINOLES REACH NCAA TOURNEY FOR FOURTH STRAIGHT SEASON

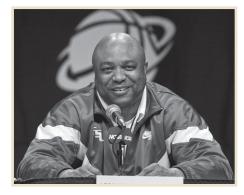

Coach Leonard Hamilton's Seminoles reached the NCAA Tournament for the fourth straight year in 2012. Florida State earned the third seed in the NCAA Tournament's East Regional, after capturing the first ACC Tournament Championship in school history by defeating Miami, Duke and North Carolina in Atlanta, Georgia. The win over the Tar Heels was the second of the year for Florida State versus UNC, as FSU also handed the third-ranked Tar Heels a 90-57 destruction in Tallahassee on January 14, 2012. The third-seeded Seminoles opened NCAA play with a win over No. 14 seeded St. Bonaventure. Two days later, Florida State was upset by the No. 6 seeded Cincinnati Bearcats.

Tony Dawson led Florida State to the NCAA Tournament in both 1988 and 1989.

Bob Sura, Florida State's all-time leading scorer, played in the 1992 and 1993 NCAA Tournaments.

Florida State went 202-131 under Kennedy, posting a .607 winning percentage in his 11 seasons. Kennedy set a then-record for road wins and total ACC wins by a first-year coach with six and 11 respectively, in 1991-92.

COACHING HISTORY

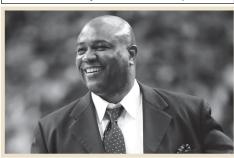

LEONARD HAMILTON 256-187* (.578) (2003-Pr)

The most successful coach in Florida State history, Leonard Hamilton is the Seminoles' all-time winningest coach and is the 10th winningest coach in ACC history. He became the Seminole's winningest coach as Florida State defeated Pittsburgh on March 7, 2015 and became the 10th all-time winningest coach in ACC history as he guided the Seminoles past VCU on Dec. 6, 2015. As the 2016-17 season begins, he needs only nine wins to surpass Frank McGuire of North Carolina and South Carolina to move into ninth place for all-time coaching victories in the nation's most storied and illustrious conference – the ACC.

Under Hamilton, the Seminoles have won at least 20 games in eight of his 14 years and have advanced to the postseason in 10 of his 14 seasons at Florida State. Hamilton has earned three National Coach of the Year awards, two Atlantic Coach Conference Coach of the Year awards, two Big East Coach of the Year awards, led his teams to seven NCAA Tournament appearances and 18 postseason appearances, to the 2012 ACC Championship (as the head coach at Florida State) and to the 1978 National Championship (as an assistant coach at Kentucky). He is the only person to earn Coach of the Year honors multiple times in both the ACC and the Big East. Hamilton is the only coach in league history to be the all-time winningest coach at two different ACC schools. Hamilton is also the winningest Division I coach at the University of Miami with 144 wins (1991-2000). Hamilton led the Seminoles to the first ACC basketball championship in school history in 2012, is among the leaders in the ACC and the nation in recruiting and coaching NBA talent, has made appearing in the NCAA Tournament an expected part of the Seminoles' schedule each season and made the program one of the tougher teams to prepare for on a nightly basis. In 2012, Hamilton led the Seminoles to a school record fourth consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance, to a school record tying 12-4 record in ACC play, to a third consecutive third place finish in the ACC standings, to two wins each over Duke and North Carolina (two of the top four winningest programs in college basketball history), to wins over an ACC-leading six nationally ranked teams and to victories over each of the four Tobacco Road teams in the ACC for the first time in school history.
