MEDIA INFORMATION

Welcome to Florida State University. Head Coach Leonard Hamilton, his staff and players welcome your interest and hope you enjoy your visit to Tallahassee, the capital city of the Sunshine State.

COVERING THE 2018-19 SEMINOLES

The 2018-19 Florida State basketball almanac has been produced to assist the media in the coverage of the Seminole men's basketball team. Additional information, including press releases, game notes, photographs, video footage and recent news clips are available upon request to all members of the media. Any questions not covered in this publication may be directed to the Sports Information Office.

Before Your Visit

Credentials for Florida State home games are issued to accredited members of the media only. Working space along press row at the Tucker Center is limited and seats are expressly reserved to those working on deadline, with no exceptions. Children and other non-workers are not allowed in the press area. Requests for credentials should be made to Chuck Walsh, Deputy Director of Sports Information. If you would rather e-mail your request, please do so. The e-mail address is cwalsh@fsu.edu. These requests are accepted from sports editors and sports directors only. Credential requests are carefully screened to insure proper working conditions in the press area. When time permits, a working press pass and a parking pass will be mailed. When mailing is not possible, they will be left at the Media Will Call entrance near the bottom level at the Elephant Doors located in the southwest corner of the Tucker Center. The Media Will Call is located near the television trucks and directly opposite the Florida State Basketball Training Center. Media Will Call is located at this entrance and is open 90 minutes prior to tip-off.

All media who wish to cover Florida State athletics will be expected to comply with all of the procedures of Florida State University, The NCAA, The ACC and the FSU Sports Information Office in order to be credentialed.

Photography Credentials

Photographers, too, should make their credential requests at least one week in advance. Strobe lights may be installed in the Tucker Center; arrangements must be made through the Tucker Center at least two weeks prior to gameday. Space for strobe lights is available on a first come, first served basis. Arrangements may be made by calling Brett Eustice at (386) 209-4198. The NCAA has an established policy to control congestion within photography areas on the basketball court. Only photographers on assignment will be issued photo passes along with members of the working television media. Admission to the court and photo baseline is by photo pass only. Photographers, both still and electronic. must shoot from the baselines at the Northeast (visiting bench) or Southeast (Florida State bench) corners of the court. Photographer's floor access is governed by Atlantic Coast Conference and NCAA policy. Please note, only game photographers, no runners, assistants, or producers will have access to the photography areas. Photographer positions are at the complete discretion of the basketball game officials and the members of the Sports Information office at ALL TIMES.

Photographers

Florida State reserves the right to admit only those photographers deemed to be on the premises for legitimate media purposes. All photographers working Florida State games should be prepared to show a media ID card and equipment designed to photograph major college basketball. Still photographers will have access to the court only. Any secondary or commercial use of any picture taken by the accredited organization or photographer to whom the credential has been issued (including, but not limited to delayed editorial, advertising sales promotion or merchandise) is prohibited without prior specific, written approval of Florida State University.

All interview requests must be made in advance and must be made with at least a 24-hour notice. Player's (nor their parents) individual phone numbers will not be given to the media and game day interviews will not be granted until the end of each game. 2018-19 SEASON PREVIEW

'NOLES LOADED WITH TALENT, EXPERIENCE AS THEY LOOK TO BUILD OFF ELITE 8 RUN

Talented and experienced with depth at all five positions is a great description of the 2018-19 Florida State Men's Basketball team.

Fresh from an Elite Eight run in the 2018 NCAA Tournament, the Seminoles return:

- Four players who have played starters' minutes throughout their careers.
- Seven players who played in double figure minutes during last year's magical season.
- Seven of their top nine scorers.
- · Their top two rebounders.
- · Their leader in steals and assists.
- Ten players who earned playing time during the NCAA Tournament.

Add to that outstanding list of returning players a senior transfer student (David Nichols) who not only graduated in three years but averaged more than 14.0 points per game in his first three collegiate seasons, and two game-ready redshirt freshmen (Raiquan Gray and Anthony Polite) who will add to the Seminoles' depth at both the guard and forward positions.

"We are an older team with most of our guys having played major minutes throughout their careers," coach Leonard Hamilton said. "Our seniors and juniors have played in two NCAA Tournaments and our sophomores were part of our Elite Eight team last season. Also in the mix are two players who redshirted and practiced with us all season, so they know our system very well. Our newcomers – one is a graduate transfer who has played in 81 career games in college – and another (Devin Vassell) was the Player of the Year in the state of Georgia."

Any discussion of this year's Florida State basketball team begins with the dynamic duo of seniors Phil Cofer and Terance Mann. Both players were named to the 2018 NCAA Tournament All-West Regional team as the Seminoles advanced to within one game of the second Final Four in school history. Cofer (12.8 points and 5.1 rebounds) and Mann (12.6 points and 5.4 rebounds) are both on the cusp of scoring 1,000 career points and have helped the Seminoles to 69 wins in the last three seasons.

A trio of seniors – guards PJ Savoy and David Nichols as well as center Chris Koumadje – with extensive playing and strong credentials make the Seminoles one of the most mature teams in all of college basketball.

Savoy, one of the top 3-point shooters in school history, made 50 3-point field goals and averaged 6.7 points per game as a junior. He is 11th in school history in career 3-point field-goal percentage and made one of the biggest shots in school history (a 3-pointer) to boost the Seminoles past No. 1 seed Xavier and into the Sweet 16 of the 2018 NCAA Tournament.

Nichols, a graduate transfer from the University of Albany, was an All-Conference First-Team pick in 2017 and averages 14.1 points scored during his collegiate career. As a junior, Nichols scored 15 points at Louisville and 14 at Memphis. He led Albany to the Collegeinsider.com Tournament as a sophomore.

Koumadje is poised to become one of the top 10 shot blockers in school history. He averaged a career-high 16.0 minutes played and 6.5 points scored per game as a junior in helping the Seminoles reach the Elite Eight for the first time since 1993.

"Our seniors have played a lot of games and some very important minutes for us so we are expecting

2018-19 SEASON PREVIEW

"Our seniors have played a lot of games and some very important minutes for us so we are expecting that group to lead our team." FSU HEAD COACH LEONARD HAMILTON that group to lead our team," said Hamilton. "The addition of David Nichols is a bonus for our team and gives us added depth at the point guard position. He has really done a nice job of picking up our system since he arrived on campus."

Junior Trent Forrest, one of the best on-ball defenders in the ACC, returns as Florida State's starting point guard. He averaged 25.6 minutes as a sophomore and was one of the big reasons – offensively and defensively – the Seminoles won three NCAA Tournament games a year ago. Forrest averaged nearly 10 points in four NCAA games and totaled 14 points in the Seminoles' win over Xavier. Forrest led the Seminoles in both assists (4.1) and steals (1.6) while averaging nearly 8.0 points scored per game as a sophomore.

Guard M.J. Walker, who was one of the top freshmen in the ACC in 2018, returns as one of Florida State's most talented players. He averaged almost 20 minutes played per game, 7.0 points and made 41 3-point shots – the third highest total among the Seminoles' returning players.

Florida State will rely heavily on a trio of redshirt freshman to become important pieces of its rotation this season. RaiQuan Gray, a point forward that displays the ability to handle the ball, and play inside and out on the offensive end, along with Anthony Polite, a left-handed guard with tremendous touch from the outside, are both players who learned Hamilton's system last year. Wyatt Wilkes, a sharpshooting forward who was limited because of injuries as a freshman, is fully healthy and is expected to boost Florida State's depth.

"We are really excited about RaiQuan, Anthony and Wyatt this season," said Hamilton. "All three players have worked hard to get healthy and each of them are going to be major contributors for our team."

Vassell, a talented freshman who fits perfectly into Hamilton's mold of lengthy and athletic players, joins the rotation and increases Florida State's depth at both the guard and forward positions. His ability to handle the basketball on the offensive end of the court, coupled with his incredible length on the defensive end, will make him a very valuable player for the Seminoles this season and throughout his career.

Florida State will play its most challenging schedule in Hamilton's 17 years in Tallahassee. The Seminoles will play 16 homes games (seven non-conference and nine ACC games) at the Donald L. Tucker Center, including seven teams that played in the 2018 NCAA Tournament. Florida State will open against Florida and face Purdue in the ACC-Big Ten Challenge, enjoy a trip to Disney World for the loaded AdvoCare Invitational and travel to games against UConn in the Never Forget Tribute Classic in New Jersey and against Saint Louis in the Orange Bowl Classic at Sunrise, Fla.

LEONARD HAMILTON HEAD COACH

- 17th Season at Florida State (305-208, .595 winning percentage)
- 31st Season as a collegiate head coach (505-418, .548 winning percentage)
- Tennessee-Martin, 1971
- Austin Peay, 1973

The most successful coach in Florida State history, Leonard Hamilton enters the 2018-19 season as the Seminoles' all-time winningest coach and is the eighth winningest coach in ACC history.

He became the Seminoles' winningest coach as Florida State defeated Pittsburgh on March 7, 2015 and became the eighth all-time winningest coach in ACC history as he guided the Seminoles past Samford on Dec. 19, 2016. Hamilton enters the 2018-19 season only 21 wins behind Terry Holland of Virginia for the seventh highest win total in the nation's most storied and illustrious conference – the ACC.

Leonard Hamilton is: Florida State's all-time winningest coach with 305 career victories. He has 67 more wins than Bud Kennedy, who coached the Seminoles from 1949-66; Florida State's all-time winningest coach with 125 ACC victories. He has 80 more victories than Pat Kennedy who coached the Seminoles from 1992-97; Florida State's all-time winningest coach with 11 ACC Tournament victories. He has eight more ACC Tournament victories than Steve Robinson who coached the Seminoles from 1998-2002; Florida State's all-time leader for NCAA Tournament appearances with six. He surpassed Pat Kennedy with the Seminoles' appearance in the 2018 NCAA Tournament.

Hamilton won his 300th game at Florida State and his 500th overall in Florida State's 81-79 overtime win over No. 11 ranked Clemson on Feb. 14, 2018 — the 42nd win over a ranked team during his tenure in Tallahassee.

Hamilton guided the Seminoles to one of the most successful seasons in school history in 2017-18.

Florida State advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament for the first time under Hamilton and for only the third time in school history during the 2017-18 season. The Seminoles finished with a 23-12 record, a 9-9 mark in ACC play, won the Jamaica Classic and played in the NCAA Tournament for the second consecutive season and for the sixth time in the last 10 years. Florida State was one of two ACC teams which advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament, defeated a near school-record six nationally ranked teams and three teams seeded higher than them in the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history.

Under Hamilton and since the start of the 2005-06 season, the Seminoles are the third winningest overall program in the ACC with 282 wins and are one of only four teams that have won at least 60 percent of its games. Florida State is one of only four teams in the ACC that averages more than 21 wins per season and is one of only three teams that has won at least 20 games in a season 10 times in the last 13 years.

Under Hamilton, the Seminoles have won at least 20 games in 10 of his 16 years and have advanced to the postseason in 13 of his 16 seasons at Florida State.

Hamilton has earned three National Coach of the Year awards, two Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year awards, two Big East Coach of the Year awards, has led his teams to eight NCAA Tournament appearances and 19 postseason appearances, to the 2012 ACC Championship (as the head coach at Florida State) and to the 1978 National Championship (as an assistant coach at Kentucky). He is the only person to earn Coach of the Year honors multiple times in both the ACC and the Big East. He was named the Clarence "Big House" Gaines National Coach of the Year in 2018 by the National Sports Media Association.

Hamilton led the Seminoles to the first ACC basketball championship in school history in 2012, is among the leaders in the ACC and the nation in recruiting and coaching NBA talent, has made appearing in the NCAA Tournament an expected part of the Seminoles' schedule each season and made the program one of the nation's tougher teams to prepare for on a nightly basis.

In 2012, Hamilton led the Seminoles to a school-record fourth consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance, to a school record-tying 12-4 record in ACC play, to a third consecutive third place finish in the ACC standings, to two wins each over Duke and North Carolina (two of the top four winningest programs in college basketball history), to wins over an ACC-leading six nationally ranked teams and to victories over each of the four Tobacco Road teams in the ACC (Duke, North Carolina, NC State and Wake Forest) for the first time in school history. While finishing the season in the NCAA Tournament for the fourth consecutive season, the Seminoles were ranked No. 10 in the final Associated Press poll and No. 15 in the final ESPN/ USA Today poll.

Hamilton was named the ACC Coach of the Year in 2012 for the second time in his career as the Seminoles solidified their position as one of the top teams in the ACC. With their 3-0 record in the 2012 ACC Tournament, the Seminoles won a single-season school-record 15 ACC games. With wins over No. 4 North Carolina and at No. 6 Duke to begin the ACC 2012 schedule, the Seminoles spent the majority of the conference season in first place in the ACC standings.

"Leonard Hamilton has done a brilliant job at Florida State," said the Duke Basketball Report.

Hamilton was the Washington Wizards' head coach in 2001, the head coach at Oklahoma State University (1987-90), and the head coach at the University of Miami (1991-2000) before he was named the seventh head coach in Florida State men's basketball history on March 19, 2002.

In a recent Athlon Sports ranking of the ACC's top coaches, Hamilton was an easy choice among the top ACC coaches.

Said Athlon's editors: "Leading one of the stingiest defensive teams in the country, Hamilton coached Florida State to one of the best four-year runs at Florida State from 2009-12. For the first time in program history, the Seminoles won at least 20 games and at least 10 ACC games in four consecutive seasons. A one-point loss in overtime to VCU in 2011 prevented the Seminoles from reaching the Elite Eight. In 2012, the Seminoles became only the second team not named Duke or North Carolina to win the ACC Tournament since 1996. Hamilton has proven himself capable of building consistent basketball programs at football schools by leading Miami to three consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances to wrap up his 10-season tenure with the Hurricanes in 2000. The coaches were ranked on a mix of past accomplishments with consideration for career trajectory over the next five seasons or so. Rankings take Xs and Os acumen and recruiting prowess into account along with success in the regular season and postseason."

More important in Hamilton's eyes than the championships, the NCAA Tournament appearances and the wins, is the overwhelming success that his players have achieved in the classroom.

Florida State enjoyed its best year ever in the classroom in 2017. The Seminoles earned a team grade point average of 3.034 – the highest during Head Coach Leonard Hamilton's 16-year tenure at Florida State and the highest among all men's athletic teams at Florida State. The Seminoles had nine players earn a 3.0 or better GPA during the fall semester and 13 players finished with a GPA of 3.0 or better during the spring semester when they earned a team GPA of 3.222.

Florida State was one of nine teams who played in the 2017 NCAA Tournament and earned an NABC Team Academic Excellence award. The Seminoles were joined by Butler, Gonzaga, Princeton, Purdue, Kansas, Louisville, Notre Dame and West Virginia on that select list. The Seminoles were one of three ACC teams with cumulative GPA's at 3.0 or above and nine Seminoles were named to the ACC Honor Roll (Brandon Allen, Dwayne Bacon, Phil Cofer, Trent Forrest, Justin Lindner, Will Miles, Michael Ojo (graduate student), Harrison Prieto and CJ Walker), while Forrest was named to the 2017 ACC All-Academic Basketball team.

For Florida State under Hamilton, the academic achievements of his players is a long standing tradition of classroom success. During Hamilton's tenure as a head coach at Florida State, Miami and Oklahoma State dating back to 1988, more than 94 percent of his players have earned their degrees. Under Hamilton, the Seminoles were one of seven ACC teams credited with a perfect APR score in 2016 and are among the ACC leaders in that five-year period.

The Academic Progress Rate, which was developed in 2003, holds institutions accountable for the academic progress of their student-athletes through a team-based metric that accounts for the eligibility and retention of each student-athlete for each academic term.

Hamilton is the first coach to lead Florida State to nine consecutive postseason appearances as the Seminoles participated in the 2009, 2010, 2011 and 2012 NCAA Tournaments and played in the NIT in 2006, 2007, 2008, 2013 and 2014. Hamilton has guided 13 of his 16 Seminole teams into postseason play.

Under Hamilton, Florida State has developed and lived up to its reputation as the nation's best defensive team.

The Seminoles led the NCAA in field goal percentage defense in both 2010 and 2011, becoming one of only six teams in NCAA history to lead the nation in field goal percentage defense in consecutive seasons. The Seminoles' .363 field goal percentage mark in 2011 was the best in the ACC since 1960 (a span of 52 years). Florida State led the ACC in field goal percentage defense during each of the four consecutive years (2009, 2010, 2011 and 2012) it played in the NCAA Tournament under Hamilton. It marked the first time in ACC history that any team led the league for four consecutive seasons in the field goal percentage defense category. Florida State led the ACC in blocked shots and steals in 2012 in becoming only the fourth team in history to lead the ACC in both blocked shots and steals in the same season.

FAMILY

Hamilton and his wife, Claudette, have a son, Lenny, and a daughter, Allison.

The Seminoles have also earned great success against ranked teams under Hamilton. The Seminoles defeated No. 1 ranked Duke in Tallahassee on Jan. 12, 2011 to mark the third time under Hamilton that Florida State has defeated the nation's top ranked team. Hamilton has guided Florida State to wins over No. 1 ranked Duke twice (Jan. 12, 2011 and March 1, 2006), as well as No. 1 North Carolina on March 14, 2009 (in the semifinals of the ACC Tournament).

Under Hamilton, Florida State has defeated 44 nationally ranked teams during his 16 years in Tallahassee. Included in those wins are seven victories over nationally ranked Duke teams. With two victories over nationally ranked Duke, North Carolina and Virginia teams in 2012, the Seminoles led the ACC with six victories over nationally ranked teams in winning Florida State's first ever ACC Championship.

Hamilton annually attracts the nation's top talent to Tallahassee and helps those players reach their goals of not only playing at the next level, but also excelling academically and earning their degrees.

At Florida State, Hamilton has recruited and coached three of the Seminoles' four all-time All-ACC First Team selections: Tim Pickett (2004), Al Thornton (2007) and Toney Douglas (2009) as well as the only two players in school history to earn ACC Defensive Player of the Year honors (Toney Douglas in 2009 and Chris Singleton in 2010 and 2011). Hamilton has coached 16 All-ACC selections in his first 16 seasons (only 15 Seminole players had earned All-ACC honors in Florida State's first 11 years in the ACC), 12 selections to the ACC All-Defensive Team, six members of the ACC All-Rookie Team and five members of the All-ACC Tournament team.

Following Florida State's victory over North Carolina in the 2012 ACC Tournament Championship game, Michael Snaer was named the Most Valuable Player of the Tournament (a first in Seminole basketball history) while Snaer and Luke Loucks were named to the All-Tournament First-Team. Dwayne Bacon (five) and Malik Beasley (three) won the ACC Rookie of the Week award a combined eight times during the 2015-16 season.

Hamilton has also coached two All-Americans at Florida State – Thornton in 2007 and Douglas in 2009. Thornton and Douglas were both All-American Third-Team and All-ACC First-Team selections during their Seminole careers.

With 12 NBA Draft selections under Hamilton since 2004, the Seminoles are tied for fourth in the ACC for the most draft picks. Five Seminoles have been selected in the first round (Al Thornton in 2007, Toney Douglas in 2009, Chris Singleton in 2011, Malik Beasley in 2016 and Jonathan Isaac in 2017). Isaac was the third Draft Lottery selection in school history and the second highest overall pick in school history. Only Duke (28), North Carolina (23), Syracuse (17) and Louisville (12) have as many or more NBA Draft picks since 2004 than Hamilton and Florida State among the current 15 ACC Teams.

Hamilton attended the 2017 NBA Draft as he celebrated with both Jonathan Isaac and Dwayne Bacon as they were both selected and appeared on stage at the draft at the Barclays Center in New York. He was also at the 2007 NBA Draft to watch as AI Thornton became only the second Draft Lottery selection in school history as he was picked with the 14th overall selection by the Los Angeles Clippers. He was with 2009 NBA First Round selection Toney Douglas when his name was called by the Los Angeles Lakers. Hamilton watched as Solomon Alabi and Ryan Reid were selected in the second round of the 2010 NBA Draft and reveled when Chris Singleton became the first round pick of the Washington Wizards in 2011.

Hamilton watched with great pride as All-ACC selection Bernard James was selected in the second round of the 2012 NBA Draft. James arrived at Florida State in 2010 after serving in the United States Air Force during three tours of duty in Iraq, Afghanistan and Qatar and only two years of junior college basketball at Tallahassee Community College. He left Florida State after two years with his Bachelor's Degree in Social Science and an ACC Championship to begin his professional career with the Dallas Mavericks.

Florida State has had at least one player selected in the NBA Draft in 10 of the last 14 seasons. Under Hamilton, the Seminoles have been represented in the NBA Draft by Jonathan Isaac (2017 by the Orlando Magic), Dwayne Bacon (2017 by the New Orleans Pelicans and traded on draft night to the Charlotte Hornets), Malik Beasley (2016 by the Denver Nuggets in the first round), Bernard James (2012 by the Cleveland Cavaliers and traded on draft night to the Dallas Mavericks), Chris Singleton (2011 by the Washington Wizards), Solomon Alabi (2010 by Dallas and traded on draft night to Toronto), Ryan Reid (2010 by Indiana and traded on draft night to Oklahoma City) and Toney Douglas (2009 by the Los Angeles Lakers and traded on draft night to the New York Knicks). Douglas was a member of the Miami Heat's NBA Eastern Conference Champions and NBA Finals runner-up team in 2014.

With top-10 recruiting classes in 2015 and 2016, Hamilton has continued to stock the Seminoles' program with the nation's top talent. The Seminoles' recruiting class was ranked No. 3 in 2015 and No. 8 in 2016. Florida State's 2015 recruiting class included High School All-American Dwayne Bacon, NBA First Round selection Malik Beasley, the Gatorade Player of the Year (in New Hampshire) Terance Mann and center Christ Koumadje (a member of the 2015 high school national championship team). The Seminoles' 2016 class was just as loaded with High School All-American Jonathan Isaac and one of the leading all-time scorers in Florida prep basketball history in Trent Forest, and junior college All-American Braian Angola.

Hamilton came to Florida State after 10 seasons at the University of Miami.

In his final season at Miami, Hamilton guided the Hurricanes to their second straight 20-win season, a share of the Big East regular season championship and the school's first trip to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. The Hurricanes finished 23-11, including a 13-3 conference record and were ranked 23rd in the nation in the final Associated Press poll and 20th in the final USA Today/ESPN poll.

Under Hamilton's leadership, Miami became one of the nation's top programs, advancing to postseason play five times in his final six seasons with three consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances in 1998, 1999 and 2000. Miami's winning records in his final six seasons meant the Hurricanes joined Syracuse and Connecticut as the only Big East schools to have an overall winning record from 1995-2000. The Hurricanes' 48-22 Big East mark over his last four seasons tied Connecticut for the best conference record over that period. Over his last two seasons, Miami registered a league-best 28-6 conference record for an .824 winning percentage.

During the 1999-00 season, Hamilton's Hurricanes recorded three wins over ranked teams including a 74-70 home win over No. 18 St. John's, marking the sixth straight season Miami had defeated a ranked opponent in the Miami Arena. In the 40 seasons prior to Hamilton's arrival, the Hurricanes reached the postseason just four times including one NCAA tournament appearance (1960).

Along with the rise of the Hurricanes' program, Hamilton's players also continued to develop and win individual awards. In 2000, guard Johnny Hemsley earned All-Big East Second Team honors while center Mario Bland earned All-Conference Third-Team honors. In 1999, Hemsley and forward Tim James earned All-Big East First Team honors. The Hurricanes and Syracuse (twice) were the only schools to have two players earn All-Big East First Team honors in the same season at least once during Hamilton's tenure at Miami. In 10 seasons under Hamilton, the Hurricanes had 13 All-Conference selections.

In 1998-99, Tim James was named Big East Co-Player of the Year, along with Connecticut's Richard Hamilton, and Johnny Hemsley was selected as the league's Most Improved Player.

Miami's rise began in 1994-95 when Hamilton led the Hurricanes to the greatest single season turn-around in Big East history. Picked to finish at the bottom of the Big East Conference standings, Hamilton guided the Hurricanes to a fifth-place finish and a berth in the National Invitational Tournament - Miami's first postseason appearance in 31 years. The Hurricanes' nine-win conference win increase tied Louisiana Tech for the best in the nation. Miami's eightwin overall improvement tied for the third best single season increase in school history.

At the conclusion of the 1995 season, Hamilton was named the United Press International National Coach of the Year.

Hamilton was recognized as the Big East Coach of the Year for the first time. He was named Big East Coach of the Year for the second time in 1999 and was honored as the Eastern Basketball Coach of the Year. In 2000, he was named the Black Coaches Association (BCA) Coach of the Year.

For his work both on and off the court, Hamilton was honored as one of four finalists for the 2000 Coach Wooden "Keys to Life" Award. The award is given annually to a coach who best exemplifies Coach John Wooden's philosophy of emphasizing that impacting the life of a student is more significant than any winning percentage. He was named one of Tallahassee's Top 33 citizens in 2004 by the Tallahassee Democrat, inducted into the Gaston County (N.C.) Hall of Fame in 2007 and was honored by his hometown of Gastonia, N.C. in 2012 for his accomplishments during his career.

Hamilton was one of three honorees celebrated at the 13th Annual Dick Vitale Gala for Cancer Research in 2018. He was honored along with ESPN's Mike Greenberg and University of Michigan Head Football Coach Jim Harbaugh as a champion in helping raise funds to rid the world of one of the most dreaded diseases known to man. With Hamilton as a headliner, a record-breaking $3.7 million was raised for pediatric cancer research.

He played at Gaston College where he set a school record by scoring 54 points in a game, and later at the University of Tennessee-Martin.

Hamilton was inducted into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame in 2013. As one of the top players at the University of Tennessee-Martin during his playing career, Hamilton's roots run deep in the state of Tennessee. A walk-on at UT-Martin, he served as a team captain during his senior season. Hamilton received both the team's Most Valuable Player Award and the Best Defensive Player award his senior season and is a charter member of the school's Hall of Fame.

Hamilton's induction into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame marks the fifth Hall of Fame he will be a member of during his illustrious career. He is also a member of the Austin Peay State University, University of Tennessee at Martin and University of Miami athletic Hall of Fames. Hamilton received the 2015 Alumnus of Distinction award from Gaston (N.C.) College at its 50th Anniversary Gala on May 16, 2015.

In 2016 he was the commencement speaker at Chipola College in Florida.

Hamilton went to Miami from Oklahoma State where he spent four years rebuilding the Cowboys' program. He led them to consecutive appearances in the NIT, the first back-toback postseason appearances for OSU since the 1953 and 1954 seasons. While at Oklahoma State, he recruited and coached former Florida State assistant coach Corey Williams who, as the head coach at Stetson, led the Hatters to the cusp of the NCAA Tournament in 2016.

Prior to his tenure at Oklahoma State, Hamilton was on the staff at the University of Kentucky where he spent 12 seasons with one of the top programs in the country. From 1974-80, he served as an assistant coach, and in 1980 he was honored by being named the first associate head coach in Kentucky basketball history. During his 12 seasons at Kentucky, the Wildcats registered a 296-83 (.781) record, won eight SEC regular season championships, two SEC tournament titles, went to three Final Fours and won the national title in 1978.

Hamilton's coaching career began at Austin Peay State University where he served as a graduate assistant from 1971-73 and then as a full-time assistant from 1973-74. The Governors won back-to-back Ohio Valley Championships in Hamilton's last two seasons at the school. Hamilton recruited and coached James "Fly" Williams, the 1974 conference Player of the Year and two-time all-conference selection. Williams was a two-time consensus All-American in 1973 and 1974, the only two-time All-America in school history. The Governors won the OVC Championship and played in the NCAA Tournament in 1973.

Hamilton's legacy extends across the nation as eight of his former assistant coaches have moved on to become head coaches at the Division I level. Included on the list are Corey Williams (Stetson), Tim Carter (South Carolina State), Andy Enfield (Southern California), Tony Sheals (Virginia Union), Dwight Freeman, Randy Lee, Dickey Nutt (Southeast Missouri), John Phillips (Tulsa) and Bill Self (Kansas).

He earned his Bachelor's Degree in Physical Education from Tennessee-Martin in 1971 and received his Master's Degree in Physical and Health Education from Austin Peay State in 1973

STAN JONES Associate head coach

17th Season at Florida State

Memphis, 1984 | Memphis, 1990

Stan Jones, who excels as a scout and who is one of the top in-game strategists in all of college basketball, is in his 17th season as Florida State's Associate Head Coach. He is a veteran of 23 years of high major college success and is regarded as one of the nation's best coaches in the development of big men. Not only has Jones helped Florida State's program become one of the most respected in all of college basketball, but he has helped more than 30 Seminoles become professional players.

Jones has helped the Seminoles compile an impressive list of accomplishments including the 2012 ACC Championship, a school-record four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances (2009-12), a school-record nine consecutive postseason appearances (2006-14), the first wo appearances in the ACC Championship game in school history (2009 and 2012), 135 ACC victories and the first appearance in the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament (2018) for the Seminoles in a quarter of a century.

His drive and determination as both a recruiter and a coach are two of the main reasons why Florida State is the third-winningest program in the ACC since the start of the 2005-06 season. Since the 2009 season, Florida State is tied for third in ACC Tournament championship game appearances and is one of only five teams to make multiple ACC tournament championship game appearances.

Jones, the longest tenured assistant coach in the ACC, helped direct the Seminoles to their first-ever ACC Championship (2012) and has been on the bench for more wins over the nation's No. 1 ranked team (three), more wins over nationally ranked teams (44) and more 20-win seasons (10) than any assistant coach in school history. In 2017, the Seminoles won a near school-record 26 games, tied the Florida State record with 12 ACC wins, finished in second place in the ACC standings and earned a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

Jones is consistently recognized as one of the top assistant coaches in the nation and has worked tirelessly to help build the Seminoles into a consistent winner – into a program that is the third winningest in the ACC in the last 13 years. Jones has been on the bench for three of the Seminoles' top five-winningest seasons in school history and helped lead Florida State to 95 wins from 2009-12 – the winningest four-year period in Florida State history. The Seminoles also set a four-year Florida State record with 43 regular season ACC wins and 48 overall ACC wins.

Jones has coached in six of the last 10 NCAA Tournaments and helped the Seminoles to the Elite Eight of the 2018 NCAA Tournament and to the Sweet 16 of the 2011 NCAA Tournament. He helped guide Florida State to the first ACC Championship in school history in 2012 and to four straight NCAA Tournament appearances from 2009-12. The Seminoles have won almost twice as many ACC games in 16 years with Jones on the sideline (135) than they did in their first 11 years in the ACC (70) and he has helped the program increase its winning percentage in conference games by more than 10 percent.

Jones has systematically helped assemble, and then expertly coach, winning basketball players and teams to heights unmatched in the programs he has worked to build. He helped coach Miami to a regular season championship in the Big East in 2000 only six years after the Hurricanes went winless in Big East play. He helped coach Mississippi State to the SEC Tournament Championship in 2002 – a title that marked only the second tournament championship in school history. At Florida State, Jones helped the Seminoles win the ACC Tournament in 2012. Florida State's ACC Championship is the most significant title in Jones' career considering the Seminoles defeated two of the top four all-time winningest programs (Duke and North Carolina) in the semifinals and championship games of the event.

Jones has helped the Seminoles build a solid program by doing what he does as well as any coach in the country: recruit outstanding talent and develop those signees into NBA level players. A total of 12 Seminoles have become NBA Draft choices during his tenure at Florida State.

His coaching philosophies have helped Florida State become one of the nation's top defensive teams and his ability to teach the game of basketball has transformed the Seminoles into one of the most fundamentally sound teams in the nation.

FLORIDA STATE IN THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

Jones has helped Florida State advance to six NCAA Tournaments including coaching the Seminoles to an appearance in the Eitle Eight of the 2018 Tournament. The Seminoles played in a school-record four consecutive NCAA Tournaments (2009-12) after playing in the NCAA Tournament only four times in the 13 years prior to Jones' arrival in Tallahassee. The Seminoles have appeared in six NCAA Tournaments in the last decade – the most NCAA appearances in any 10-year period in the history of the Florida State program. After winning a school-record bying 12 ACC regular season games and winning the 2012 ACC Championship, the Seminoles tied the school record by earning a No. 3 seed in the East Region in the NCAA Tournament. It had been 19 years since the Seminoles had earned a seed higher than No. 5 in the NCAA Tournament. Florida State was a No. 5 seed in the 2009 NCAA Tournament. The Seminoles tied the school record in both 2012 and 2017 as they earned a No. 3 seed in the 2017 NCAA Tournament. In 2018, the Seminoles tied the school record for wins in a single NCAA Tournament (three), wins over higher seeded teams in the NCAA Tournament (three) and defeated a No. 1 seed (Xavier) for the first time in school history in advancing to the Elift Eight for the first time in a quarter of a century.

2018 SEASON

Florida State advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1993 and for only the third time in school history during the 2017-18 season. The Seminoles finished with a 23-12 record, a 9-9 mark in ACC play, won the Jamaica Classic and played in the NCAA Tournament for the second consecutive season and for the sixth time in the last 10 years. Florida State was one of two ACC teams which advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament, defeated a near school-record six nationally ranked teams and three teams seeded higher than them in the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history.

2017 SEASON

Florida State enjoyed one of the most successful seasons in school history in 2017 as it finished with a 26-9 overall record, a 12-6 mark in ACC play, a second place finish in the ACC standings, a school-record tying No. 2 seed in the ACC Tournament and a school-record tying No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament. Florida State's 26 wins fell one win short of tying the school record for wins while its 12 ACC wins during the regular season tied the school record for ACC wins in a single season. Jones helped coach Florida State to a schoolrecord tying sever in wins over nationally ranked teams including wins over five nationally ranked teams in a six-game stretch in December and January.

2012 SEASON

Florida State won its first ever ACC Championship in 2012 as it swept through the ACC Tournament with wins over Miami in the quarterfinals, No. 2 seeded and No. 6 ranked Duke in the semifinals and No. 1 seeded and No. 4 ranked North Carolina in the Championship game. The Seminoles finished the 2012 season with a 25-10 overall record and a school-record tying 12-4 mark in ACC play. Florida State earned the automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament as the ACC Champion and played in its school-record fourth consecutive NCAA Tournament where it advanced to the third round for the second consecutive season. The Seminoles defeated an ACC-high six ranked teams including both Duke and North Carolina twice and defeated each of the four Tobacco Road teams in the ACC (Duke, North Carolina, NC State and Wake Forest) in the same season for the first time since joining the ACC for the 1991-92 season.

FLORIDA STATE AND THE NATIONAL POLLS

Florida State has become a fixture in the national rankings with Jones on the Seminoles' bench. The Seminoles were ranked No. 6 in the nation during the 2016-17 season and finished the year ranked No. 16 by the Associated Press and No. 24 in the USA Today Coaches poll. The Seminoles were ranked 18th in the final coaches' poll of the 2018 season after advancing to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament. On the strength of its first ACC Tournament championship and second 25-win season in four years, Florida State was ranked in the top 15 of both major national polls to end the 2012 season – No. 10 by the Associated Press and No. 15 in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches polls.

NATIONAL RECOGNITION

As one of the top coaches in all of college basketball, Jones has been recognized several times for his achievements. As recently as 2012, he was selected as part of the elite group of assistant coaches by more than 450 head and assistant coaches from around the nation.

CALLED AN IMPRESSIVE BASKETBALL MIND

Jones was recognized in 2015 by Coachtate.net as one of the top two "X's and O's" assistant coaches in the nation. Said the editors of the publication: Leonard Hamilton's right-hand-man since his days at Miami, Stan Jones epitomizes the X&O coach on the staff. An impressive basketball mind."

COLLEGE COACHES WITH EXTRAORDINARY PROMISE

Jones was praised for his high basketball IQ, success, incredible ability to coach players, the respect he has earned from each of the players he has coached during his career, his teaching ability and knowledge of how to implement strategy as a member of a select panel at the 2012 NCAA Final Four in New Orleans. Said ESPN.com Insider David Thorpe: 'I consider Stan Jones the best 'coach' that works as an assistant in the NCAA. He has been Leonard Hamilton's right-hand man when they turned around the program's at the University of Miami and now at Florida State. But unlike many assistant coaches, Jones had extensive experience and incredible success as a high school coach in Tennessee, winning multiple state titles while being considered one of the top-five prep coaches in the country. In addition to becoming a top recruiter, Jones is a big part of what Florida State does from a philosophical standpoint (like fronting the post at all times — no other team does so) as well as being the loudest voice at every FSU practice. His command of the game and its nuances rival that of Roy Williams and Coach K … both of whom incidentally lost to FSU a combined four times (in 2012)."

AN IMPACT RECRUITER ACCORDING TO ESPN'S JAY BILAS

Jones was also praised for his recruiting and teaching abilities by expert analyst Jay Bilas of ESPN, who selected an outstanding group of five recruiters who have a huge impact in recruiting players and building programs. Said Bilas: "Jones is one of the most respected assistant coaches in basketball and is another basketball man who is not at all about being flashy. He is about teaching and coaching, and about giving back to the game and those who play it. There is a perception out there that the best recruiters are younger assistant coaches. Jones is clear evidence that is not always the case. He has been in the game forever, never misses an important detail and really does his homework. The results are clear. There is no way that Florida State would be as successful in identifying and securing talent without Jones. He is truly outstanding.

HAILED AS A TOP ASSISTANT COACH IN 2014 BY SPORTS ILLUSTRATED

In 2014 Jones was on a short list of assistant coaches deemed ready for head coaching jobs as determined by Pete Thamel and Brian Hamilton of Sports Illustrated. He was characterized by two current Division I head coaches as "a guy ready for the leap who is detail-oriented and has helped rebuild after rebuild."

ONE OF THE TOP 15 BEST ASSISTANT COACHES IN COLLEGE BASKETBALL

Jones was named as one of the top-15 assistant coaches in all of college basketball by Daniel O'Brien of the Bleacher Report in 2012. He is one of only three assistant coaches from the ACC named to the list. Said Daniels: "It's tough to give North Carolina and Duke a run for their money in the ACC, but with Stan Jones' help, the Florida State Seminoles have achieved that and more. During his tenure assisting Leonard Hamilton, Jones has guided the team toward the top of the conference. The Seminoles went from a cellar-dwelling squad eight years ago to ACC tournament champs in 2012. The program has seen a drastic improvement in recruiting during Jones' decade in Tallahassee, and he's been able to maximize almost every prospect's potential.

POSTSEASON AND NBA DRAFT

In his 22 years as a coach at the collegiate level (all but one under Seminole head coach Leonard Hamilton), Jones has helped 18 different teams into postseason play including nine into the NCAA tournament. He has also recruited and coached 17 different NBA Draft selections, including seven first round picks.

DRAFT PICKS

With 12 NBA Draft selections in the last 16 years, including five first round selections, Jones has helped Florida State become one of the top collegiate producers of NBA talent since his arrival in 2002. Florida State's five first round selections in the NBA Draft in the last 15 seasons is more than Florida State produced during the decade of the 1990's (four) and nearly as many as were produced in the first 50 years of the program (six). Jonathan Isaac was the No. 6 overall pick in the 2017 NBA Draft by the Orlando Magic while Dwayne Bacon began his NBA career with the Charlotte Hornets in 2017 after he was the 40th overall pick in the 2017 NBA Draft. After leading Florida State to the 2012 ACC Championships, Bernard James was the 33rd overall selection in the 2012 NBA Draft. Chris Singleton was selected as the 18th overall selection in the 2011 NBA Draft and joined AI Thornton (14th overall selection in 2007) and Toney Douglas (29th overall selection in 2009). Singleton was a two-time ACC Defensive Player of the Year, Thornton was only the second NBA Draft Lottery selection in school history and Douglas was an All-ACC First Team selection as a senior. In the 2010 NBA Draft, Solomon Alabi and Ryan Reid became the first Seminole duo to be drafted in the same year since Doug Edwards and Sam Cassell were both chosen as first round selections in 1993. Tim Pickett, who earned All-America Honorable Mention and All-ACC First Team honors during his two-year career at Florida State, was a second round pick of the New Orleans Hornets in 2004, while Von Wafer was a second round pick of the Los Angeles Lakers in 2005. Alexander Johnson was an All-ACC pick and was selected in the second round of the 2006 NBA draft by the Indiana Pacers. With 12 draft selections since 2004, Florida State tied for fourth in the ACC for total draft selections. The Seminoles were one of only two ACC teams to have at least one player drafted each year from 2004-07, and in 2010 were one of two ACC teams (Georgia Tech) to have two players selected in the same draft.

BERNARD JAMES - FROM THE AIR FORCE TO THE NBA

Jones took particular pride in his coaching success when Florida State's Bernard James was selected with the 33rd overall selection in the 2012 NBA Draft. Jones was a driving force behind the incredible all-around improvement of James who did not play high school basketball and served three tours of duty in Afghanistan and Qatar in the United States Air Force. James came to Florida State with two years of junior college basketball experience under his belt and left for the NBA after earning All-ACC, All-ACC Tournament and ACC All-Defensive Team honors in becoming the face of the Seminole program for two years. James closed his career ranked in the top-five for blocked shots and field goal shooting percentage despite playing only two years as a Seminole.

FIRST ROUND NBA DRAFT PICKS IN 2016 AND 2017

Jonathan Isaac (No. 6 overall pick by the Orlando Magic in 2017) and Malik Beasley (No. 19 overall pick by the Denver Nuggets in 2016) have both been selected in the first round of the last two NBA Drafts. Isaac became the third Draft Lottery selection following his freshman All-American season in 2017 while Beasley was the fourth Seminole player picked in the first round during the Jones era at Florida State following his freshman All-American season in 2016.

ALL-ACC SELECTIONS Since joining the ACC in 1992, Florida State has produced four All-ACC First Team selections, and Jones has helped coach three of them – Tim Pickett, Al Thornton and Toney Douglas. In total, he has coached 11 all-conference selections, with four All-ACC Second Team selections and four Third Team All-ACC selections on top of the three first team selections. In helping the Seminoles become the nation's most dominant defensive team, Jones has played an integral role in coaching the ACC Defensive Player of the Year four times at Florida State. All-American Toney Douglas was named the league's top defender in 2009 while Chris Singleton earned the honor in both 2010 and 2011. Michael Snaer was named to the ACC All-Defensive Team in 2013 and Okaro White was named to the team in 2014.

FSU TEAM STATISTICAL IMPROVEMENT

Jones is an extraordinary teacher of defensive principles and the Seminoles have deservedly earned the reputation as the best defensive team in all of college basketball. The statistics validate the reputation. Florida State has ranked in the nation's top-10 in field goal percentage defense in four of the last seven seasons and has advanced to the NCAA Tournament each time they ranked in the top 10. Not only was Florida State's .363 field goal percentage defense in 2011 the fifth best mark in NCAA history - but it was the best in the ACC since 1960. The Seminoles led the NCAA in field goal percentage defense in both 2010 and 2011. Jones' coaching helped Miami lead the nation in field goal percentage defense during the 1998-99 season. Florida State has led the ACC in field goal percentage defense in four of the last seven years including a league record four consecutive seasons (2009-12) and led the ACC in blocked shots and steals in 2012, becoming only the fourth team in league history to lead the ACC in both blocked shots and steals in the same season. Florida State has led the ACC in blocked shots in four of the last seven seasons and is the league's best overall shot blocking team in the last eight years.

SUCCESS AT MISSISSIPPI STATE

Jones helped lead Mississippi State to a school-best No. 3 seed in the 2002 NCAA tournament. The Bulldogs captured the school's second SEC tournament championship with victories over No. 11-ranked Florida and No. 8-ranked Alabama in the title game of the SEC Tournament. Mississippi State also recorded the school record for most wins in a single season with 27 in his only season in Starkville.

IN THE NBA WITH THE WASHINGTON WIZARDS

Jones was an assistant coach to Leonard Hamilton with the Washington Wizards in 2001

MIAMI

Jones began his collegiate assistant coaching career at Miami under Hamilton in 1996. During his career at Miami, he helped guide the Hurricanes to a 95-54 record for a .638 winning percentage and three NCAA Tournament appearances. The 95 wins (19.0 wins per season) were the most in a five-year period for the program since the 1959 through 1964 seasons. Miami won 23 games in both 1999 and 2000 to mark only the third time in program history (and first time since 1964) that the program had won at least 20 games in consecutive season

MIAMI POSTSEASON

In his final four seasons at Miami, Jones helped guide the Hurricanes to four postseason tournament appearances, a regular season Big East championship and the school's first ever NCAA Tournament "Sweet 16" appearance in 2000. Miami won a then-school record 23 games in 1999 on its way to the school's first ever top-10 national ranking. The Hurricanes were ranked No. 10 in the season ending Associated Press poll in 1999.

INCREDIBLE HEAD COACHING SUCCESS

Jones won four state championships and had a winning percentage of nearly 80 percent as the head coach at First Christian Academy in Memphis (1981-90) and at Jackson Academy in Mississippi (1990-95). He won two association championships at First Christian and two at Jackson Academy while earning Coach of the Year Honors twice in Mississippi (state Coach of the Year) and three times in Tennessee (district Coach of the Year). Jones won a total of eight district championships (five at First Christian and three at Jackson Academy) and was the head coach of the state of Tennessee All-Star team in 1989 and the head coach of the state of Mississippi All-Star team in 1994. He amassed a head coaching record of 353-91 for a .795 winning percentage.

PERSONAL

The 58-year-old Jones is married to the former Olga Campos. The couple has a daughter, Shannon (36) (son-in-law Kass Bottini), and a son, Adam (34). Shannon and Kass welcomed the family's first grandchild, Kaleb (nine), into the world right after the Seminoles' run in the ACC Tournament championship game and the NCAA Tournament in March of 2009, his second grandchild, Jacob (seven), just after the Final Four in 2011 and his third, Daniel (four), during the summer recruiting period in 2014.

DENNIS GATES ASSISTANT COACH

Dennis Gates, whose tenure as an assistant coach at Florida State mirrors the Seminoles' rise to national prominence, is in his eighth season on Head Coach Leonard Hamilton's staff. With Gates on the staff, the Seminoles have played in three NCAA Tournaments, advanced to the Elite Eight of the 2018 NCAA Tournament, established themselves as the third-winningest program in the ACC in the last 13 years (since the 2005-06 season) in total wins (284) and have become one of the nation's top producers of NBA talent. Florida State is recruiting at a level never before seen in Tallahassee and Gates' tireless efforts as a national and worldwide recruiter have helped the Seminoles recruit the nation's top talent to Tallahassee.

The Seminoles are looking to make their third consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance in 2018-19, advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1993, won the 2012 ACC Championship for the first time in school history and had five players in the NBA during the 2017-18 season. With three NBA Draft picks in the last three seasons – including one lottery pick – Gates has helped revitalize the Seminoles' pipeline to the NBA.

Gates' ability to recruit star basketball players since joining Hamilton's staff in 2011 is evident when one scans Florida State's current and recent rosters. The players who have helped the Seminoles reach the postseason and who make up their 2018-19 roster were ranked in the nation's top-100 players when they were recruited including 2017 NBA Lottery pick Jonathan Isaac (No. 9), 2017 NBA Draft choice Dwayne Bacon, (No. 22), NBA free-agent signee Xavier Rathan-Mayes (No. 24), sophomore M.J. Walker (No. 24), junior Trent Forrest (No. 45), senior Phil Cofer (No. 56) and senior Terance Mann (No. 94).

Gates connects with players and families like very few college basketball coaches can. It's his ability to connect with a recruit and then help them reach the next level of basketball during their collegiate careers that makes Gates so incredibly successful.

Gates was an integral member of the Seminoles' coaching staff in 2012 when the Seminoles won their first ACC Championship in school history, played in the NCAA Tournament for the school-record fourth time (also in 2012), finished the season ranked in the top-15 by the major polls, defeated an ACC-best six ranked teams, tied the school record for ACC wins with a 12-4 mark in ACC play, beat Duke and North Carolina twice each for the first time in school history, beat all four Tobacco Road teams in the same season for the first time and finished in the top-10 in the NCAA statistics in both field goal percentage defense and blocked shots.

One of the sharpest minds in college basketball, Gates was hired as a graduate assistant at Florida State in 2005. After stops at Marquette, Cal, and in the NBA with the Los Angeles Clippers, he coached at Northern Illinois in 2008 and was elevated to the position of associate head coach after just one season with the Huskies. At only 28 years of age, he was one of the youngest associate head coaches in all of college basketball. He was Northern Illinois' lead recruiter, coached the Huskie guards and helped numerous players earn All-Mid-American Conference and MAC All-Freshman honors during his two years there.

OUTSTANDING RECRUITING SUCCESS

Gates was instrumental in bringing in four consecutive top-15 ranked recruiting classes full of talent to Florida State and works daily to ensure that effort continues. In the last four recruiting cycles, Gates has helped recruit 11 players who were rated four- or five-star recruits including McDonald's All-American M.J. Walker (a sophomore on the Seminoles' 2018-19 team), Jordan-Brand All-American Jonathan Isaac (the No. 6 overall selection in the 2017 NBA Draft) and McDonald's All-American Dwayne Bacon (the No. 40 overall selection in the 2017 NBA Draft). He has helped assemble top-ranked recruiting classes at each of his four coaching stops — Florida State, Cal, Nevada and Northern Illinois. The many players he has had a hand in recruiting have become the cornerstones of their respective programs and future NBA and professional players. His 2006 class at Cal included four top-150 recruits; Taylor Harrison, All Pac-10 guards Patrick Christopher and Jerome Randle, and All Pac-10 power forward and 2008 NBA first-round draft pick Ryan Anderson. Anderson is currently a member of the Houston Rockets. Following the 2006-07 season, Anderson was selected to the Pac-10 All-Freshman team. Malik Beasley, a freshman on Florida State's 2015-16 roster, was a first round selection of the Denver Nuggets in the 2016 NBA Draft. He was the first one-and-done player in Florida State history and is in his third season with the Denver Nuggets.

GATES' SUCCESS WITH FLORIDA STATE'S GUARDS

Gates, who excelled as a combo guard during his playing career, has mentored the Seminoles' guards during his career in Tallahassee. He has worked with Luke Loucks (who set an ACC Tournament championship game record with 13 assists in the Seminoles' 2012 ACC Championship clinching victory over North Carolina), Ian Miller (who was named as the ACC's Sixth Man of the Year in 2014), Devon Bookert (one of the greatest shooters in school history), Xavier Rathan-Mayes (who earned All-ACC Freshman and All-ACC Honorable Mention honors in 2015 and All-ACC Defensive Team honors in 2017) and Malik Beasley (who was a first round NBA selection in 2016). His work with Braian Angola helped the guard go from a junior college All-American, to a Division I standout at Florida State, to the NBA. After a stellar season in the NBA Summer League in 2018, Angola signed a contract with the Magic that brought him to the Magic training camp with the opportunity to make the NBA team or play for the Magic's G-League affiliate in Lakeland, Fla.

POSTSEASON EXPERIENCE

Gates helped coach the Seminoles to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament in 2018 – the sixth Florida State team in his seven seasons to have played in the postseason. The Seminoles' appearance in the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament marked the third time in program history and first time since 1993 they played in a regional final game. Gates has helped coach the Seminoles into the NCAA Tournament in 2012, 2017 and 2018 and into the NIT in 2013, 2014 and 2016. The Seminoles tied the school record as they earned a No. 3 seed and advanced to the second round of the tournament in 2017. Gates helped the Seminoles reach the semifinals of the NIT in 2014 in New York's fame Madison Square Garden to mark only the second time in school history they had advanced to the Final Four of the NIT. He also helped coach Cal into the 2006 NCAA Tournament and Nevada into the 2010 NIT. As a player, Gates was a three-year team captain (and four-year varsity letterwinner) at Cal and led the Bears to NCAA Tournament appearances in 2001 and 2002, the 1999 NIT title and the 2000 NIT Final Eight.

SEMINOLES IN THE 2018 NCAA TOURNAMENT

Florida State advanced to the Elite Eight of the 2018 NCAA Tournament with Gates on the sidelines for only the third time in school history. The Seminoles finished with a 23-12 record, a 9-9 mark in ACC play, won the Jamaica Classic and played in the NCAA Tournament for the second consecutive season and for the sixth time in the last 10 years. Florida State was one of two ACC teams which advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament, defeated a near school-record six nationally ranked teams and three teams seeded higher than them in the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history.

INCREASED WINS

In his first season as an assistant coach at Cal, the Golden Bears saw their win total increase from 13 (2004-05) to 20 (2005-06). In his first season as an assistant at Florida State, the Seminoles saw their win total increase from 23 (2010-11) to 25 (2011-12).

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Gates began his career as a coaching assistant with the Los Angeles Clippers as a skill development coach during the 2002-03 season. He worked with a strong collection of players that included 10 prospects with three or fewer years of experience, including future All-Stars Elton Brand and Lamar Odom. Brand finished the 2003 season as the Clippers' leading scorer with an 18.5 points per game average while Odom ranked third on the team with a 14.6 points per game average. Brand and Odom formed one of the NBA's highest scoring and best shooting front court duos in the NBA with Gates on the Clippers' staff. The Clippers finished in the top-10 in the NBA statistics for blocked shots, free throws made and free throws attempted.

PREPARING PLAYERS TO REACH THE NBA

Gates recruited, coached and oversaw the development of 2017 NBA Draft Lottery pick Jonathan Isaac – the No. 6 overall selection by the Orlando Magic. It marked the second consecutive season Gates had recruited and coached a first round NBA draft pick. Malik Beasley was selected as the 19th overall pick in the first round of the 2016 NBA Draft by the Denver Nuggets. He averaged 3.8 points in his first season in the NBA. In addition to working with Beasley and Isaac (who were both named to the All-ACC Freshman team), Gates also worked with Bernard James (second round pick of the Cleveland Cavaliers in 2012 / played three years with the Dallas Mavericks), worked with power forward Leon Powe at Cal (second round pick of the Denver Nuggets in 2006), as well as Travis Diener (second round pick of the Orlando Magic in 2005) and Steve Novak (second round pick of the Houston Rockets in 2006) at Marquette. Gates worked with two NBA players during his coaching tenure at Nevada: Armon Johnson was a second round draft choice of the Portland Trail Blazers in 2010 and has played for the Trail Blazers and the New Jersey Nets while Luke Babbitt was the No. 16 overall selection in the 2010 NBA Draft by the Minnesota Timberwolves. Babbitt currently plays for the Miami Heat. Gates also coached Okaro White during his Florida State career. White most recently played with the Heat and the Cavaliers during the 2018 season.

STATISTICAL IMPROVEMENT

In each of his stops as an assistant coach, Gates has played a significant role in helping his teams improve statistically. Northern Illinois finished his second season (2008-09) ranked among the top-five in six different statistical categories in the Mid-American Conference including third in scoring (66.2 ppg), third in three-point field goal percentage (34.7) and fourth in assists (12.4 apg). All were significant improvements from the 2007-08 campaign. The 2008-09 season saw the Huskies go 7-5 at home, their first winning record since the 2005-06 season. Overall, Northern Illinois improved its win total by four wins in Gates first season as the Huskies associate head coach. During his second season at Nevada, the Wolf Pack finished third in the league statistics in rebounding (36.8 rpg), fourth in blocked shots (3.7 bpg) and fourth in field goal percentage defense (.426). The Wolf Pack also ranked in the top-15 in the nation in scoring and field goal percentage, and broke school single-season marks for scoring and field goals made and attempted in 2010. In his two seasons as an assistant coach at Cal, the Bears averaged 18 wins a season and won 20 games in advancing to the NCAA Tournament in 2006. Florida State won 65 games in Gates' first three seasons under Hamilton - an average of 21.7 wins per season. In his first season at Florida State, he helped Florida State continue to stand as one of the nation's top defensive teams. Florida State finished fifth in the nation in field goal percentage defense and seventh in blocked shots in 2012. The Seminoles defeated an ACC-high six ranked teams and defeated all four Tobacco Road teams in the ACC (Duke, North Carolina, NC State and Wake Forest) in the same season for the first time in school history. In his second season, the Seminoles led the ACC in blocked shots and finished second in free throw shooting percentage. It marked the school-record fourth consecutive season the Seminoles had led the ACC in blocked shots while their second place finish in the team statistics in free throw percentage shooting marked an improvement of 10 positions in the league statistics. SECOND TIME AROUND

Gates was a graduate assistant at Florida State under Hamilton during the 2004-05 season – a year the foundation for the current Seminole program began to take shape. The Seminoles counted a victory over No. 3 Wake Forest in their win total. Gates played a part in the development of future pros Al Thornton, Alexander Johnson and Von Wafer during his first season in Tallahassee with Thornton becoming only the second NBA Draft Lottery selection in Florida State history in 2007. Johnson and Wafer were second round NBA Draft selections.

COACHING TREE

Gates has learned the game from some of basketball's all-time greatest coaches including Hamilton who is one of the top-10 all-time winningest coaches in ACC history. He played and coached under Ben Braun at Cal (a finalist for the 2003 Naismith National Coach of the Year award), Tom Crean at Marquette (the 2012 National Coach of the Year by ESPN.com), Ricardo Patton at Northern Illinois and David Carter at Nevada. Braun took eight teams to the NCAA Tournament while Crean has guided eight teams to the NCAA Tournament including his 2003 Marquette team which advanced to the Final Four of the NCAA Tournament. Crean led Indiana to the 2013 Big Ten Championship and led the Hoosiers to an incredible 10 weeks at the No. 1 ranking during the 2012-13 season and is currently the Head Coach at Georgia. Gates also worked under Alvin Gentry (current head coach of the New Orleans Pelicans) and the late Dennis Johnson while he was a coaching assistant with the Los Angeles Clippers.

PLAYING CAREER

During his playing career at Cal, the Golden Bears compiled an 83-46 record, winning 20 games in a season three times. In 2002, the Bears reached the semifinals of the Pac-10 Tournament and the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Gates was named to the All-Tournament team at the Golden Bear Classic in 2001 after hitting a three-pointer to beat Penn State, 76-73, in the closing seconds of the championship game. He played in 114 career games, started 34 games and finished his career with a scoring average of 3.8 points per game as well as 100 steals and 148 assists.

SPECIAL HONORS

Gates was a two-time Pac-10 First Team All-Academic Team selection, was named Cal's Most Inspirational Player (2001) and was twice named the Bears' Outstanding Student-Athlete (1999 and 2001). In addition, he was awarded the 2002 Pac-10 Medal of Honor (given to the Pac-10 Universities Top Graduating Student-Athlete).

COACHING IS A FAMILY AFFAIR

Gates' younger brother, Armon, is in his first season as a member of Tim Miles' staff at Nebraska in 2019. He was an assistant at Northwestern (2013-18 at Northwestern) and was a driving force in the Wildcats' first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament in 2017. Armon has coached at Loyola of Chicago (two seasons, 2012-13), TCU (2011), Kent State (two seasons, 2009-10) and was a graduate assistant at Western Kentucky as he helped the Hilltoppers advance to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament in 2008. As a player, Armon led Kent State to an 88-42 overall record and three postseason appearances.

EDUCATION

Gates earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Cal in just three years and played as a master's degree candidate in education during his senior campaign. He earned his Master of Science degree in Adult Education and Human Resource Development from Florida State University in 2005.

CHARLTON YOUNG ASSISTANT COACH

Charlton Young, whose coaching knowledge and incredible ability to teach the game of basketball has helped transform the Seminoles into one of the most dynamic teams in all of college basketball, is in his sixth season as an assistant coach at Florida State. During his first five seasons in Tallahassee, the Seminoles are one of the nation's top offensive units and one of the toughest defensive teams in all of college basketball.

Young is in his 23rd season as a coach at the collegiate level during the 2018-19 season. He was a successful head coach at Georgia Southern (2010-13) where he helped the Eagles become one of the top teams in the Southern Conference.

Young has been an assistant coach in seven different conferences including the ACC and the SEC.

In his first five seasons at Florida State, Young has played a major role in helping the Seminoles win 110 games (an average of 22.0 games a season), 46 ACC games (an average of 9.2 conference wins per season) and play in four postseason tournaments including the 2017 and 2018 NCAA Tournaments. In 2016-17, the Seminoles came within one win of the school record for wins in a season, tied the school record for ACC wins in a season, finished in a school record-tying second place in the ACC standings, advanced to the semifinals of the ACC Tournament for only the fourth time in school history and earned a school record-tying No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

Young's coaching talents were on display during the 2017-18 season as Florida State advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1993 and for only the third time in school history. The Seminoles finished with a 23-12 record, a 9-9 mark in ACC play, won the Jamaica Classic and played in the NCAA Tournament for the second consecutive season and for the sixth time in the last 10 years. Florida State was one of two ACC teams which advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament, defeated a near school-record six nationally ranked teams and three teams seeded higher than them in the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history.

Young's work as a player development coach helped Florida State to a 26-9 overall record and a 12-6 record in the ACC in 2016-17. The Seminoles played in the NCAA Tournament, defeated a school recordtying seven ranked teams and were ranked as high as No. 6 nationally. The Seminoles set the school record with 24 regular season wins and won 12 conference games for just the second time in school history.

In the last two seasons, Florida State's offensive numbers have been among the best in the history of the program. The Seminoles averaged 81.0 points scored per game in the last two seasons and are one of only two teams in the ACC to rank in the top three in scoring offense in the last two seasons. Defensively, the Seminoles averaged 7.1 steals per game (second in the ACC), 5.2 blocked shots (third in the ACC) and allowed only 72.4 points scored per game during the 2017 and 2018 seasons. Florida State averaged 80 or more points scored in the last two seasons for the first time since the 1988 and 1989 seasons.

During the 2017 season, Young coached Florida State during its incredible early ACC season run that saw the Seminoles win five of six consecutive games against nationally ranked teams. The Seminoles played and defeated No. 11 Virginia (60-58, Dec. 31), No. 21 Virginia Tech (93-78, Jan, 7), No. 7 Duke (88-72, Jan, 10), No. 15 Notre Dame (83-80, Jan. 15) and No. 12 Louisville (73-68, Jan. 21) in one of the greatest six-game spans in school and ACC history. Florida State's 5-1 record in the six-game stretch is the best by an ACC team in league history against six consecutive nationally ranked teams

Young specifically worked with Seminole point guard Xavier Rathan-Mayes, who finished third in the ACC in assist:turnover ratio (2.6:1) and was named to the All-ACC Defensive Team in 2017. Rathan-Mayes was signed as a free agent by the New York Knicks following the 2016-17 season and made his NBA debut with the Memphis Grizzlies on March 5, 2018.

Young's ability to identify and successfully recruit the nation's top talent to Florida State is another of the big reasons why the Seminoles are in the national picture and contenders for the ACC Championship every year. He is a top-notch recruiter, as well as a coach, who can teach and coach the game as it is played by today's superstar athletes. Young annually makes Florida State a big player for the most important recruits and his closing ability has helped the Seminoles land top-10 recruiting classes in each of his first four seasons in Tallahassee. Young has helped recruit three of the top classes in school history including the Seminoles' 2015 class which was ranked as the third best class in the nation.

Young's recruiting successes in the last four seasons have enabled the Seminoles to chart a course for long-term winning in Tallahassee. The caliber of each player currently on Florida State's roster, and those who have pledged to become Seminoles, will continue to help the program flourish now and into the future as it becomes one of the top programs in college basketball.

During his first five seasons at Florida State, he helped coach the Seminoles to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament (2018), has coached two NBA first round Draft selections (Malik Beasley in 2016 and Jonathan Isaac in 2017), six All-ACC selections, three All-ACC Freshman team selections and helped Florida State cement itself as the third winningest program in the ACC in the last 13 seasons

Young was instrumental in the recruitment and development of talented forward Dwayne Bacon. Bacon emerged as one of the top players in all of college basketball during his two-year career at Florida State as he led the Seminoles in scoring in both of his two seasons in Tallahassee, earned Freshman All-American and All-ACC Second Team honors and led the Seminoles to the 2017 NCAA Tournament. Bacon was part of the season-long rotation for the Charlotte Hornets during his first season in the NBA.

As a coach and a player at the highest levels of college basketball during his career, Young has developed a shining reputation as one of the standout people in the coaching profession. He has crafted his reputation through hard work, a stellar eye for talent and the incredible ability to help each player he coaches become the best they can be at everything they want to accomplish - both on and off of the basketball court. As a player, he was an all-conference performer who played professionally. As a coach, he has made it his mission to help the players he coaches achieve the same lofty goals.

Prior to his arrival in Tallahassee, Young spent four seasons as the head coach at his alma mater, Georgia Southern. Georgia Southern won 15 games during the 2012 season - more wins than it had earned in any of the five previous seasons and won 29 games in his final two seasons. He led the Eagles to success in the Southern Conference as they won 12 conference games during the 2011-12 season to tie the school record for Southern Conference wins in a single season. Young coached five players who earned All-Southern Conference honors including two (Willie Powers in 2010 and Eric Ferguson in 2012) who earned all-conference first team honors

A 1994 graduate of Georgia Southern, Young led the Eagles to the 1992 Trans America Athletic Conference Championship - only the third conference championship in school history. The Eagles made the third NCAA Tournament appearance in school history in 1992 playing Oklahoma State at the Omni in Atlanta, Ga.

HEAD COACHING EXPERIENCE

Young was the head coach at his alma mater, Georgia Southern, from 2010-13 where he led the Eagles to the same success as their head coach as he did as a star player at the school from 1990-93. The Eagles were collectively and individually successful during his four seasons as the head coach at the Statesboro, Ga., school. He led the Eagles to a second place finish in the Southern Conference standings in 2012 as the team earned the second-best turnaround in league history. For his efforts, he was honored as the Southern Conference Coach of the Year by multiple publications (including rushthecourt.net) and was a finalist for the Ben Jobe Award which is presented annually to the top Division I minority head coach. Young coached five All-Southern Conference selections including Willie Powers (all-conference third team in 2010) and Eric Ferguson (all-conference first team in 2013, all-conference first-team and All-Southern Conference Tournament team in 2012 and the All-Freshman team in 2011). The selections of Powers and Ferguson to the all-conference team in 2013 marked the first time since 2007 that multiple Georgia Southern players had earned all-conference accolades in the same season. In 2013, he led the Eagles to a victory over Virginia Tech for the first win in program history over a team from the ACC.

Young also recruited Iman Shumpert (a current member of the Sacramento Kings who played for the Cleveland Cavaliers in the 2015 and 2016 NBA Finals) to the Atlanta-based ACC school. Shumpert was a member of the Cavaliers 2016 NBA World Championship team. Young also helped recruit Thaddeus Young (the 12th overall pick of the 2007 NBA Draft by the Philadelphia 76ers) and Javaris Crittenton (the 19th overall selection in the 2007 NBA Draft by the Los Angeles Lakers) to Georgia Tech while he was an assistant with the Yellow Jackets. Bacon was the only 5-star player to sign at an ACC school other than Duke for the 2015-16 season. Bacon earned ACC All-Freshman team honors and was named the ACC Rookie of the Week a school-record five times in his first season as a Seminole. Young was with Bacon at the Barclays Center when he was selected in the second round of the 2017 NBA Draft. He recruited Malik Beasley to play at Florida State. Beasley, the first one-and-done player in school history, was selected in the first round of the 2016 NBA Draft and is in his third season as member of the Denver Nuccets.

WHAT'S IN A NAME

PHIL COFER My full name is Phil Michael Cofer. Phil from Philippians in the Bible and Michael after my dad.

WHY I WEAR MY NUMBER

Phil Cofer – "I was very close to the members of my recruiting class at Tennessee. When we left Tennessee because of the coaching change, we all decided that we would all wear No. 0 wherever we decided to go to school. Larry Austin wore No. 0 at Xavier (before transferring to Vanderbilt) and CJ Turman wore No. 0 when he played at Florida Atlantic. Jordan Cornish was supposed to get No. 0 at UNLV (before transferring to Cal.) but another player already had the number."

NUMBER FACT

Phil Cofer is just the second player in school history to wear the number 0. Pierre Jordan wore 0 during the 2010 and 2011 seasons. Tim Wooden was the first Seminole to play in a uniform number below 1 when he wore 00 during the 1995 and 1996 seasons.

I loved him as if he were my brother. It was an honor playing against him and being teammates with him."

LORIDA 3

WHAT'S IN A NAME

TRENT FORREST

My full name is Landon Trent Forrest. I was named after the actor Michael Landon because my family really enjoyed him as an actor. Trent is not a family name – it was the chosen middle name for me by my parents and one that I preferred as a child. My oldest brother is named Lester Tremaine Forest (LTF) and my parents wanted to keep the same initials for me.

WHY I WEAR MY NUMBER

Trent Forrest – "I wear No. 3 to honor two of my teammates who have passed away. Two of my former AAU teammates (Rod Scott) wore No. 3 and another (Herman Williams) wore No. 13. So with the No. 3 in common in both of their numbers I decided to change to that number at Florida State when it became available. Rod passed away after he was involved in a car crash in 2016 and Herman collapsed while playing in a pick-up game at his church just before his freshman year began at University of Louisiana Monroe."

NUMBER FACT

The No. 3 has been worn by 19 different players (including Forrest) in Florida State history. The most prominent Seminole to wear No. 3 was Bob Sura – the Seminoles' all-time leading scorer with 2,130 points. Sura was the first player in school history to be named the ACC Rookie of the Year (1992) and the first to earn All-ACC First Team honors (1994).

ON KABENGELE

His emergence as one of the Seminoles' top players has put Florida State in a position to be ranked among the nation's elite teams entering the 2018-19 season...his improvement, work ethic and play in the 2018 NCAA Tournament has put him on the brink of becoming one of the top players in all of college basketball...a member of Florida State's NCAA Tournament teams in both 2017 and 2018...his incredible work with Seminoles' Associate Head Coach Stan Jones during his redshirt season (2016-17) allowed him to gain confidence and increase his ability which allowed him to quickly become both an offensive and defensive force in his first season as a Seminole in the ACC and nationally...dedicated himself to the game as he lost weight, reshaped his body and increased his physicality which allowed him to show his dominating presence throughout the 2017-18 season...his redshirt season also allowed him to observe, learn and study the game of basketball for the first time in his career...his workouts with Jones consisted of conditioning, ball handling and learning how to take the basketball to the rim... said Kabengele during his redshirt season: "It was tough, the amount of reps we got in and the hours we put in. It was tough, especially on the body. Every time we did the workout, I always felt like I got a little better." ... his improvement also came quickly as he practiced with and against future NBA players Jonathan Isaac, Dwayne Bacon, and Xavier Rathan-Mayes during his redshirt season ... "It was great because every practice I had to guard Jon, Bake and X [Xavier Rathan Mayes] off ball screens and viceliversa, they had to guard me. I just tried to be aggressive and score over Michael Ojo, so I learned a lot. I learned how to be more mature. I learned how to stay competitive because those guys are really great players. It was really beneficial for me," he said as one of the great definitions of why the Seminole coaching staff asked Kabengele to consider a redshirt season upon his arrival as a true freshman in 2016.. he has since focused heavily on his diet and workout routine to lose weight and alleviate pain on his knees...quickly developed into one of the Seminoles' most versatile players

Wyatt Wilkes – "When I signed to play at Florida State and the coaches asked me which number I wanted to wear, I told them I care about wins and not about uniform numbers. There is no significance to the No. 31 that I will wear during my Florida State career. I wore No. 21 in high school."

Malik Osborne – "There is no real significance to why I will wear No. 10 during my Florida State career. My full name is Devin Anthony Vassell. I got my first name from my grandmother. My parents were going to name me Anthony, but my Grandmother preferred Devin, so that's what my family went with.

WHY I WEAR MY NUMBER

Devin Vassell - "I wear No. 24 because it is my favorite number and I'm also a big Kobe fan. I wore the number throughout my high school and my AAU career, and really grew to like that number. I was happy to be able to get No. 24 when I was being recruited by Coach Ham and the coaching staff."

NUMBER FACT

Uniform No. 24 was first worn by a Seminole player during the 1953-54 season when Duane Gordon switched from No. 44 after two years to No. 24 for what turned out to be the final season of his Florida State basketball career. He played in 56 games as a member of the Seminole basketball team and averaged 6.8 points scored per game. Gordon was also a member of the Florida State volleyball team in 1952 as well as the tennis team in 1954.

GAME 4 -- FLORIDA STATE 98, KENNESAW STATE 79

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. -- Phil Cofer matched a career high with 21 points and fell just one rebound short of a double-double as Florida State raced past

Kennesaw State, 98-79, in a Wednesday matinee. Cofer scored the game's first six points on the way to a 9-of-11 shooting effort, and his 28 minutes were the most since he logged 29 at NC State on Jan. 17, 2015. And he did it from all over the floor - Cofer threw down a dunk and a handful of layups, was 2 for 2 from the free-throw line and even drained his only 3-point attempt. Braian Angola (17 points, seven rebounds), Terance Mann (13 points), C.J. Walker (12) and M.J. Walker all joined Cofer in double-figures, and the Seminoles shot a season-best 42.3 percent from 3-point range. That includes a 2-of-3 mark from Angola and 3-of-5 effort from M.J. Walker, the freshman who has scored at least 11 points in three of his first four games. The Seminoles needed less than five minutes to claim their first double-digit lead, and that advantage ballooned to 25 points when Angola finished off a three-point play early in the second half. Senior guard James Scott led Kennesaw State with 17 points, 15 of which came in the second half

GAME 7 -- FLORIDA STATE 83, FLORIDA 66

GAINESVILLE, Fla. – Florida State convincingly beat No. 5 Florida 83-66 on the road to secure its fourth-consecutive win over the Gators. Terance Mann led the Noles with 25 points and eight rebounds as FSU ran away with a big non-conference win in front of an over-capacity crowd of 10,425 at Exactech Arena. Florida State got out to a hot start, opening on a 10-1 run thanks to early 3-pointers by CJ Walker and Braian Angola. The Gators re-took the lead at 18-14 after an Egor Koulechov triple, but the Seminoles quickly responded with a 7-0 run thanks to Mann. An and-one finish from the junior was followed up with another layup and an alley-oop to give FSU a 24-18 lead with 7:30 left in the first half. The Noles would hold the lead for most of the half as they routinely got into the passing lanes and forced the Gators into turnovers. Trailing 35-34, FSU exploded on an 8-0 run, capped by a monstrous alley-oop dunk by Phil Cofer. The senior grabbed a lob from MJ Walker and slammed it home with one hand to emphatically end the half as the Noles led 42-35 heading into the break. Early in the second half the Noles continued to push the pace, going on an 8-0 run to extend their lead to 56-44 with 13:39 left, a stretch ignited by back-to-back deep shots from CJ Walker. FSU switched into a 2-3 zone to mix up looks and stymie the Gators early in the half. CJ Walker added 17 points in the victory, while Phil Cofer recorded a double-double with 10 zonts and 12 rebounds.

GAME 18 -- BOSTON COLLEGE 81, FLORIDA STATE 75

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. – Ky Bowman scored 19 points and grabbed 13 rebounds, Jerome Robinson also had 19 points and Boston College beat Florida State 81-75. Nik Popovic and Jordan Chatman each added 14 points and Steffon Mitchell had 13 with nine boards for the Eagles. Terance Mann scored 21 points, CJ Walker 19 and Braian Angola 17 for Florida State. The Eagles led by 16 at halftime and pushed it to 21 early in the second half. Switching to zone midway into the opening half, the Eagles' defense flustered the Seminoles, causing rushed shots from the outside and many contested misses in the lane. Chatman nailed consecutive 35 just over a minute apart, capping an Eagles' 12-0 run late in the half that carried them to a 41-25 edge at intermission. BC then scored the first five points of the second half — with Bowman hitting a 3 from the left wing — and opened its largest lead of the game. The Eagles maintained a double-digit lead until the final five in the closing minute.

GAME 25 -- NOTRE DAME 84, FLORIDA STATE 69

NOTRE DAME, Ind. -- Matt Farrell scored a career-high 28 points to lead Notre Dame's potent three-guard attack in an 84-69 victory over Florida State. Rex Pfluger added a career-high 19 points and T.J. Gibbs matched him with 19 after a poor-shooting first half (2 of 12) as Mike Brey's Irish won their second straight. C.J. Walker had 16 points, Phil Cofer, 12 and PJ Savoy, 11 -- all in the first half -- for the Seminoles. Both teams struggled shooting early -- Florida State went 5 1/2 minutes between field goals and Notre Dame nearly 5 minutes -- before the Irish found their stroke from 3-point range hitting six of its first 12 on way to its biggest lead of the half, 32-22, with 3.42 before the half. The Irish then answered a 6-0 Seminoler run and took a 40-34 halftime lead on the fourth 3-pointer by Farrell, who had 14 points. Florida State's height began to wear down the Irish on the boards in the second half. The Seminoles had a 16-9 edge and eventually caught the Irish 52-52 with 10:29 left on Walker's 3-pointer. But Gibbs made three free throws to give the Irish a 61-56 lead with 7:49 left. His driving bucket, combined with FSU's 3 1/2-minute scoring, gave the Irish a 70-58 lead with 3-57 remaining.

GAME 26 -- FLORIDA STATE 81, CLEMSON 79 (OT)

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Leonard Hamilton's 500th win as a college head coach will be one he is going to remember for a long time. Hamilton's Florida State team trailed 11th-ranked Clemson by 18 early in the second half but rallied to send it into overtime before winning 81-79. Florida State tied the game twice in the second half but didn't take its first lead until 1:05 remaining in overtime when Trent Forrest made a layup to put them up 75-74. The 6-foot-5 sophomore guard, who came into the game averaging 6.0 points, scored a career-high 16 with eight coming in the final 5:08 of the game. After Clemson was called for a 5-second violation on the inbounds, Forrest came up big with another driving layup to put Florida State up by three. Clemson scored four of the next six points to get within 79-78 but For-rest made both free throws with 5.3 seconds remaining to extend the margin to three. Reed was fouled with 3 seconds remaining. He made the first and missed the second. Clemson was unable to get off a last-second shot though to send it to another overtime. Phil Cofer, who scored all 17 of his points after halftime, said the key to the rally was being more aggressive driving into the paint along with turning up the defensive pressure. An Aamir Simms 3-pointer gave the Tigers a 49-31 lead with 18:06 remaining before Florida State was able to start battling back as it went on a 17-2 run. Clemson would score four straight to go up 55-48 but the Seminoles eventually fought back to tie it at 59 on Cofer's jumper with 6:59 remaining. The Tigers scored seven straight points and appeared to regain control. They were up 70-64 with 2:24 remaining, but missed their final four shots in regulation. Florida State made its last three shots to send it into overtime, including a driving off-balance layup by Forrest with eight seconds remaining. Marcquise Reed scored 23 points while Gabe Devoe had 11 and David Skara had nine for Clemson.

GAME 32 -- FLORIDA STATE 67, MISSOURI 54

NASHVILLE, Tenn. -- No 9 seeded Florida State beat No. 8 Missouri 67-54 in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. A total of 10 different Seminoles scored at least two points — by halftime – as they wore out a Missouri team with only eight players available for the game. Forward Michael Porter, the highly touted freshman considered by many to be an NBA lottery pick, came off the bench for his third game, and likely last, for Missouri. He finished with 16 points, scoring 13 in the second half as the Tigers tried to rally. But they got within 50-44 only to see the Seminoles reel off 15 straight points. PJ Savoy had 12 points and Phil Cofer scored 11 to pace Florida State. Kassius Robertson had 19 points for Missouri. The Tigers pulled within 52-44 on a pair of free throws by Porter as Missouri opened the second half by outscoring Florida State 24-8. Cofer hit two of three free throws to start a 15-0 spurt that pushed the lead back to double digits. By the time Missouri scored again, Jontay Porter's jumper with 5:08 left only pulled the Tigers within 65-46

GAME 34 -- FLORIDA STATE 75, GONZAGA 60

LOS ANGELES, Calif. -- Terance Mann scored 18 points and ninth-seeded Florida State advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament for just the third time in school history with a 75-60 victory over fourth-seeded Gonzaga in the West Region semifinal at the Staples Center. Mann was the only double-digit scorer for the Seminoles as they coolly knocked off a third straight higher-seeded opponent in the NCAA Tournament — one with a 16-game winning streak. Florida State is in the Elite Eight for the first time since 1993 with a chance at its first Final Four berth since 1972 — coincidentally. Coach Leonard Hamilton's best postseason run in his 16 years at Florida State as extended, s the Seminoles will face third-seeded Michigan for a trip to the Final Four in San Antonio. The Wolverines advanced with a 99-72 rout of Texas A&M. Rui Hachimura scored 16 points and Zach Norvell Jr. added 14 for the Zags, who hadn't lost since Jan. 18. Already playing without injured forward Killian Tillie, the Zags struggled when forwards Johnathan Williams and Hachimura got into early foul trouble.

GAME 35 -- MICHIGAN 58, FLORIDA STATE 54

LOS ANGELES, Calif. -- Charles Matthews scored 17 points and Michigan earned its first Final Four berth since 2013 with a 58-54 victory over Florida State at the Staples Center. Phil Cofer scored 16 points for the ninth-seeded Seminoles who missed advancing to the second Final Four in school history by mere seconds. The Wolverines held off a late charge from the Seminoles, who had already knocked off three higher-seeded opponents on their school's longest NCAA Tournament run since 1993. Seminole junior PJ Savoy trimmed the Wolverines' lead to 55-52 on a 3-pointer with 1:17 to play. With Michigan fans holding their breath, Savoy then missed a potential game-tying 3-pointer under pressure with 12 seconds left.

NCAA Tournament appearance during the 1967-68 season. The Seminoles finished the year with a 19-8 record after a 79-69 loss to East Tennessee State in the first round of the Mideast Regional. Cowens had an outstanding season averaging 18.8 points and 17.0 rebounds per game while hitting 53.8 percent (206-of-383) from the floor. Junior Jeff Hogan (15.8 ppg) and sophomore Jan Gies (12.7 ppg) also averaged in double figures for head coach Hugh Durham's second FSU team.

1971-72: THE UPSTART SEMINOLES SHOCK THE College Basketball World

Entering the 1971-72 season, Florida State head coach Hugh Durham had one primary goal for his players. Said Durham, "I want to get our players to play to their potential. If they do that, the wins will take care of themselves." By any standard, Durham succeeded. That season, Florida State fielded its most successful team in school history. The season culminated with an NCAA Mideast Regional Championship, a trip to the Final Four and a date with fivetime defending national champion UCLA and legendary coach John Wooden in the national championship game. Along the way to the title game, Florida State knocked off perennial powers Minnesota, Kentucky and North Carolina. In the championship game, FSU fell just five points short of a national title, going down 81-76 to the Bruins.

1977-78: COACH DURHAM TAKES HIS FINAL FSU Team back to the tournament

Florida State found its way back to the NCAA Tournament in head coach Hugh Durham's final season at FSU, 1977-78. The Seminoles rolled through the Metro Conference to win the league's regular season title with an 11-1 record before falling in the conference tournament title game to Louisville 94-93. FSU's season ended in the NCAA Mideast Regional when it lost to eventual national champion Kentucky 85-76. Harry Davis capped his Seminole career by leading Florida State in scoring (19.5 ppg) and rebounding (7.4 rpg).

1979-80: COACH JOE WILLIAMS GUIDES THE Seminoles to the tournament in HIS second season

The trio of guard Mickey Dillard, forward Murray Brown and center Elvis Rolle helped Florida State to its second postseason appearance in three seasons with its trip to the 1980 NCAA Tournament. The Seminoles posted a 22-9 record and finished as Metro Conference runners-up. FSU beat Toledo 94-91 in the first round of the NCAA Mideast Regional for its first postseason win in eight years before being eliminated by Kentucky. Dillard led Florida State with a 20.4 points per game scoring average while Brown (18.6) and Rolle (15.3) also averaged in double figures for head coach Joe Williams' club.

1987-88: COACH PAT KENNEDY'S CINDERELLA Seminoles Return to the NCAA show After Seven Years

Head coach Pat Kennedy's second team at Florida State returned to the NCAA Tournament after a seven-year absence. The Seminoles' Cinderella season began with low expectations as the Tribe had been picked to finish near the basement of the Metro Conference standings. But two personnel decisions turned the season into a satisfying one for Seminole fans. The first was to move a previously overweight, seldom-used forward to point guard and the other was to offer a scholarship to a junior college transfer whose left leg was shorter than his right. The twosome – George McCloud (point guard) and Tony Dawson (junior college transfer) – transformed FSU into an NCAA Tournament club that earned the 12th seed in the West Regional before falling to Iowa 102-98 in the first round. McCloud (18.2 ppg) and Dawson (17.9 ppg) both averaged more than 17 points per game for the 19-11 Seminoles.

1988-89: FSU RETURNS TO THE TOURNAMENT FOR The second year in a row

Florida State used the 1988-89 season to serve as a national coming-out party. The Seminoles topped one outstanding season with another, making the NCAA Tournament in consecutive seasons for the first time in school history. FSU, which returned four starters from the previous year, opened the season by winning 16 of its first 17 games, the best start in school history, and rose to as high as No. 8 in the national polls. The Seminoles also won the Metro Conference regular season crown, earned the fourth seed in the NCAA Southeast Regional and finished with a 22-8 record. George McCloud (22.8 pg) and Tony Dawson (21.0 pp) again led FSU by both averaging at least 21.0 points per game.

1990-91: CHARLIE WARD MAKES THE DIFFERENCE, AS SEMINOLES ADVANCE TO SECOND ROUND

After a one-year absence, Florida State returned to the NCAA Tournament in 1990-91. Heading into the season, most experts thought that it would be head coach Pat Kennedy's most challenging since coming to Tallahassee. The Seminoles struggled early in the season and opened the year just 5-5. But in game 11 head coach Pat Kennedy inserted Charlie Ward in the starting lineup at point guard and FSU began to surge. Florida State won 12 of its final 17 games and rolled through the Metro Conference Tournament in three games to claim its first tournament title in its final season in the league. The Seminoles were the seventh seed in the NCAA Tournament's Midwest Regional and defeated USC in the first round 75-72, for FSU's first tournament win since 1980. Florida State's season would end with a 21-11 record after a second-round loss to Indiana.

1991-92: ANOTHER SEMINOLE CINDERELLA Souad makes the sweet 16

Not many college basketball experts predicted that Florida State's first game and season in the Atlantic Coast Conference would be so successful. The Seminoles' first game turned out to be one of the greatest wins in school history and the season was one of the finest in program annals. FSU's ACC opener at North Carolina would provide a glimpse of what was to follow that season. Playing without star forward Doug Edwards and with just one senior on the roster, the Seminoles went into the Dean Smith Center and stunned the fifth-ranked Tar Heels 86-74 before more than 19,000. Florida State rolled on to a 22-10 record, an 11-5 conference record and second- place finish, and an appearance in the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16. Seeded third in the West Regional, FSU defeated Montana and Georgetown before giving Indiana everything it could handle in defeat.

NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY

1992-93: ANOTHER STEP UP THE LADDER: The elite eight

One year after advancing to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament, the 1992-93 Seminoles did their predecessor one better – a trip to the Elite Eight. The second-most successful season in Florida State basketball history ended just 40 minutes shy of the Final Four with a loss to Kentucky in the Southeast Regional Championship Game. Led by the quintet of Sam Cassell, Rodney Dobard, Doug Edwards, Bob Sura and Charlie Ward, the Seminoles went 25-10, including a 12-4 mark in the ACC. Florida State's 25 wins were the second most in school history.

1997-98: COACH STEVE ROBINSON TAKES THE Seminoles back to the Big Show

Steve Robinson's first season as the Seminoles' head coach was a successful one as he took his team back to the NCAA Tournament. Florida State opened the season by winning 12 of its first 14 games, including an 84-79 win over defending national champion Arizona in Tallahassee. After a late season stumble, FSU picked itself back up in the first round of the NCAA Tournament's Midwest Regional. The Seminoles, seeded 12th, played one of their best games of the year in beating No. 5 Texas Christian 96-87. Florida State's season would end in the second round with a heart-breaking 83-77 overtime loss to Valparaiso and an 18-14 record.

2008-09: LEONARD HAMILTON RETURNS Seminoles to NCAA Tournament

Leonard Hamilton, who was named the 2009 National Coach of the Year by Basketball Times and the ACC Coach of the Year by the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association, guided the Florida State men's basketball team to one of the most successful seasons in school history in 2009. The Seminoles finished the season with a 25-10 record, a No. 5 seed in the NCAA Tournament and the first ACC Championship game appearance in school history. The Seminoles defeated four ranked teams including No. 1 North Carolina in the semifinals of the ACC Tournament during the season. The Seminoles faced No. 12 seed Wisconsin in a dreaded five-12 game and lost in the first round to the Badgers, 61-59 in overtime in Boise, Idaho.

2010-11: SEMINOLES WIN THEIR WAY BACK TO THE SWEET SIXTEEN

With victories over No. 2 seeded and No. 5 ranked Notre Dame and No. 7 seeded and No. 20 ranked Texas A&M, the Seminoles advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament for the fourth time in school history and the first time since 1993. It marked the second time in school history that Florida State had defeated two ranked teams in the same NCAA Tournament. With four victories over ranked teams during the season - including No. 1 Duke - the Seminoles finished the season with a 23-11 overall record and an 11-5 mark in the ACC. Florida State was the best defensive team in the nation for the second consecutive season as it led the nation in field goal percentage defense and ranked fifth nationally in blocked shots. The Seminoles defeated Texas A&M and Notre Dame in the second and third rounds of the NCAA Tournament before falling to VCU in the Southeast Regional semifinals.

2011-12: SEMINOLES REACH NCAA TOURNEY For Fourth Straight Season

Coach Leonard Hamilton's Seminoles reached the NCAA Tournament for the fourth straight year in 2012. Florida State earned the third seed in the NCAA Tournament's East Regional, after capturing the first ACC Tournament Championship in school history by defeating Miami, Duke and North Carolina in Atlanta, Georgia. The win over the Tar Heels was the second of the year for Florida State versus UNC, as FSU also handed the third-ranked Tar Heels a 90-57 destruction in Tallahassee on January 14, 2012. The third-seeded St. Bonaventure. Two days later, Florida State was upset by the No. 6 seeded Cincinnati Bearcats.

2016-17: HAMILTON'S YOUNG SEMINOLE TEAM Earns ncaa tournament bid after Five-year absence

For the first time in five years, coach Leonard Hamilton guided a young FSU Seminole squad to an NCAA Tournament appearance and number three seed in the West Regional. It was a memorable season for the Seminoles, with a 26-9 final record that left them one win short of matching the school's all-time mark for single season victories. FSU posted seven wins over ranked opponents, finished tied for second in the brutal Atlantic Coast Conference and matched its highest-ever seeding in the NCAA tournament. After dispatching in-state neighbor Florida Gulf Coast in Orlando in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, the Seminoles fell to a hot-shooting 11thseeded Xavier group after the Musketeers made 11 of 17 shots from beyond the arc. Two players from the 2016-17 Seminoles were later picked in the NBA draft: Dwayne Bacon and Jonathan Isaac

2017-18: SEMINOLES ADVANCE TO THE ELITE Eight for the first time in a quarter of a Century

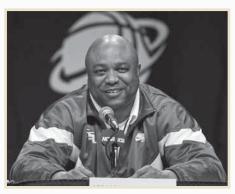

Florida State advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament for the first time under Leonard Hamilton and for only the third time in school history. The Seminoles finished with a 23-12 record, a 9-9 mark in ACC play, won the Jamaica Classic and played in the NCAA Tournament for the second consecutive season and for the sixth time in the last 10 years. Florida State was one of two ACC teams which advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament, defeated a near school-record six nationally ranked teams and three teams seeded higher than them in the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history. The Seminoles won three games in the NCAA Tournament with victories over No. 9 Missouri (67-54), No. 1 Xavier (75-70) and No. 4 Gonzaga (74-60) to advance to the Elite Eight for the first time in a quarter of a century. The Seminoles' victory over No. 1 seeded Xavier in the second round of the West Regional Championship marked the first time in school history they had defeated a No. 1 seed in NCAA Tournament play.

Tony Dawson led Florida State to the NCAA Tournament in both 1988 and 1989.

Bob Sura, Florida State's all-time leading scorer, played in the 1992 and 1993 NCAA Tournaments.

Leonard Hamilton led FSU to a No. 5 seed in the 2009 NCAA Tournament and a No. 3 seed in the 2012 NCAA Tournament.

Florida State defeated three higher seeds in the 2018 NCAA Tournament and advanced to the Elite Eight-- just one win shy of playing in the second NCAA Final Four in school history.

all-time winningest coach and is the eighth winningest coach in ACC history. He became the Seminoles' winningest coach as Florida State defeated Pittsburgh on March 7, 2015 and became the eighth all-time winningest coach in ACC history as he guided the Seminoles past Samford on Dec. 19, 2016. Hamilton enters the 2018-19 season only 21 wins behind Terry Holland of Virginia for seventh highest win total in the nation's most storied and illustrious conference - the ACC. With 305 wins in the ACC and at Florida State, he is only 21 wins shy of tying Holland who won 326 games at Virginia. Hamilton is: Florida State's all-time winningest coach with 305 career victories. He has 67 more wins than Bud Kennedy, who coached the Seminoles from 1949-66; Florida State's all-time winningest coach with 125 ACC victories. He has 80 more victories than Pat Kennedy who coached the Seminoles from 1992-97; Florida State's all-time winningest coach with 11 ACC Tournament victories. He has eight more ACC Tournament victories than Steve Robinson who coached the Seminoles from 1998-2002: Florida State's all-time leader for NCAA Tournament appearances with six. He surpassed Pat Kennedy with the Seminoles' appearance in the 2018 NCAA Tournament. Hamilton won his 300th game at Florida State and his 500th overall in Florida State's 81-79 overtime win over No. 11 ranked Clemson on Feb. 14, 2018 - the 42nd win over a ranked team during his tenure in Tallahassee. Hamilton guided the Seminoles to one of the most successful seasons in school history in 2017-18. Florida State advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament for the first time under Hamilton and for only the third time in school history during the 2017-18 season. The Seminoles finished with a 23-12 record, a 9-9 mark in ACC play, won the Jamaica Classic and played in the NCAA Tournament for the second consecutive season and for the sixth time in the last 10 years. Florida State was one of two ACC teams which advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament, defeated a near school-record six nationally ranked teams and three teams seeded higher than them in the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history.
