#EMERGEFSU

Florida State Ready to EMERGE in 2014-15

Last year it was all about #BeMORE. This season, Florida State Women's Basketball is ready to take the next step and EMERGE, using #emergeFSU to let the world know each and every day that it strives to be better as players and people.

This season, witness Florida State Women's Basketball EMERGE as a collection of strong women of character. They have proven to BE MORE than just great basketball players. These strong, beautiful women are shaped by their experiences in the community and classroom and EMERGE empowered to positively impact others.

Every season the slogan changes under 18th-year head coach Sue Semrau, but the underlying theme stays the same – Seminole Women's Hoops is about the growth of its student-athletes, from on-the-court achievements to off-the-court successes that will help them live long and fulfilling lives.

Throughout the rest of the 2014-15 year, the #emergeFSU hashtag will be used to repeatedly blast out the team concepts and ideals as Florida State looks for its 10th NCAA Tournament appearance in the last 11 seasons. The Renaissance era that FSU Women's Basketball has experienced over the last decade is the product of a progressive improvement by Semrau's student-athletes not only as players, but as overall human beings.

Senior guard Maegan Conwright (pictured on the left), one of FSU's two seniors, has yet to play a regular-season game for the Noles after transferring from Kentucky and having to sit out the 2013-14 year due to NCAA transfer rules. Known as a cerebral player with a high basketball IQ, it didn't take the Arlington, Texas, native long to figure out how Semrau and the coaching staff want to mold their players into well-rounded women.

"Last year was Be More, and that meant be more than just a basketball player," Conwright said. "Be part of community service, get good grades, and things like that. This year, Emerge is about more than that - when we graduate we want to be a substance woman and a woman of character."

Redshirt junior Shakena Richardson is another talented guard who has yet to see regularseason action as a Seminole after sitting out last season following a transfer. But Kena's hard-working ways and competitive nature are what EMERGE is all about - how you become a strong voice in practice and earn respect from your teammates.

"We're focused on emerging not just as basketball players but as women, and growing from there and having the responsibilities that come with that," Richardson said. "(It's about) growing up and living outside this world not just in a basketball sense, but being able to prosper in other areas. When you're emerging, it's a team effort to do so - to come together."

Speaking of high IQ's, redshirt senior Lauren Coleman is a natural when it comes to spacing the floor, making good decisions with the ball, understanding offensive and defensive schemes and being someone for others to follow. Now in her fifth year at FSU, Coleman has truly emerged in all facets of her life thanks to having one of college basketball's best mentors.

"Emerge means we have to come together and learn together in order to blossom and grow," Coleman added. "It's definitely been a big part of our preseason and working out this summer. Being away from family, Coach Sue has been like a mother figure and she's the one you turn to and look for advice. She's been amazing."

New words, but virtually the same meaning. EMERGE is about our student-athletes growing, but it's not limited to just those competing on the floor. The concept applies to everyone who is part of the Florida State Women's Basketball program, from head coaches to members of the support staff. In the next year, look for the Seminole Hoopsters to once again show the Big Bend community, as well as the rest of their audience, the true meaning of EMERGE.

WNBA CONNECTIONS

There aren't many women's basketball teams that can tout nine-year WNBA veterans among its alumni. Florida State can count a couple during Sue Semrau's tenure. In addition to current assistant coach Brooke Wyckoff, who spent nine years in the WNBA, Roneeka Hodges just completed her 10th season in the American professional league.

The 2005 Florida State graduate began her career with the Houston Comets (2005-08) before spending time with the Minnesota Lynx (2009), San Antonio Silver Stars (2010-11), the Indiana Fever (2012) and the Tulsa Shock (2012-14).

Hodges, a 5-11 guard, was traded to the Shock halfway through the 2012 season, and started 16 games for the squad while averaging 10.5 ppg.

"I've been lucky," Hodges said. "I've had eight great seasons, and I'm very grateful for the opportunity. I'm thankful for the opportunity Coach Sue and FSU gave me. (Being the star at FSU) got me seen and got me known. It sparked my career."

Hodges transferred to the Seminoles from LSU in 2004. Her one season with the Noles was a memorable one. Hodges captured All-ACC First Team honors and led the Seminoles to a 24-8 record and a second-round appearance in the NCAA Tournament. She averaged 19.2 points per game and set a school record at the time for scoring in a game that still stands, dropping 39 points in a thrilling win over Maryland

"My time at Florida State was short, but it was amazing," Hodges said. "That season was great in general. We got to the tournament for the first time in awhile We started building something special at Florida State."

Hodges was selected 15th overall in the WNBA Draft right after her season completed. She gives credit to Seminoles' head coach Sue Semrau and Florida State for helping develop her game and gain the maturity that comes with a professional basketball career.

"At FSU I became more of an all-around player and I learned a lot about the game," she said. "I love Coach Sue and FSU. Coach Sue and the staff were great people. Florida State got me prepared for adversity and it made me stronger mentally."

Hodges has also carved out a career overseas, playing for a European club nearly every WNBA offseason. In 2011, Hodges averaged 15.5 points per game for Istanbul Universitesi om Turkey. She began the 2012 season with Perfumerias Avenida in Spain.

"It's great," Hodges said. "I've been able to experience so many different cultures and learn so many life lessons playing in different countries. I've taken a lot from my career over there. I've had a lot of unique experiences."

Hodges also spent a season earlier in her career playing with Wyckoff in the Canary Islands in Spain.

"Brooke and I played one year in Spain together," she said. "That was one of my best years – in the Canary

Islands.'

Hodges has no complaints about her profession and feels lucky to have a career she enjoys - whether its in the United States or overseas.

"I've grown a lot from playing overseas," she said. "It's been great getting to experience the world, and on top of it - getting paid to do something you love. It's a different lifestyle, but it's great to make a living playing basketball."

Hodges is part of a long line of FSU players who have played professionally in recent years. Recently, center Cierra Bravard earned a spot on the Seattle Storm, while Leonor Rodriguez and Chelsea Davis each are playing overseas in Spain. Natasha Howard finished her first season with the WNBAs Indiana Fever, and Cheetah Delgado is playing professionally in Puerto Rico.

In her case, Hodges said she doesn't plan on retiring from the game she loves anytime soon.

FLORIDA STATE BASKETBALL MILESTONES

Sue Semrau became the 10th head coach in Florida State women's basketball history in 1997-98 and quickly took the program to new heights, guiding the Seminoles to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 10 years in 2001 before leading FSU to an unprecedented seven-straight NCAA Tournaments from 2005-11. The three-time ACC Coach of the Year (2001, 2005, 2009) helped guide the United States U18 and U19 teams to gold medals in 2010 and 2011, respectively. Semrau is the all-time winningest coach in FSU history.

Led by senior star and current assistant coach Brooke Wyckoff, Florida State advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1991 in 2001. Wyckoff, Levys Torres and April Taylor all earned All-ACC honors for the 19-12 Seminoles. A highlight of the season came when the Noles upset No. 4 Duke, 71-69, in Durham for the first time since 1993. Led by Traylor's 30 points, FSU defeated Tulane, 72-70, in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

FLORIDA STATE BASKETBALL MILESTONES

The entertaining 2012-13 season was highlighted by a school-record three All-ACC First Team selections for FSU. They include guards Alexa Deluzio (pictured below) and Leonor Rodriguez and forward Natasha Howard.

Led by All-ACC performers Jacinta Monroe and Courtney Ward, Florida State won a school-record 29 games and advanced to its first-ever NCAA Elite Eight with a 74-71 win over Mississippi State in the 2010 Dayton Regional Sweet 16.

THREE-SEED-THREE-PEAT

In 2009, Florida State was awarded its highest ever seed in the NCAA Tournament – a No. 3 seed in the Duluth Region. A year later, in 2010, the Seminoles nabbed a No. 3 seed again – this time in the Dayton Region. In 2011, the Seminoles completed the No. 3 seed three-peat at the Dallas Region.

AN ALL-AMERICAN TRADITION

Numerous Seminoles have garnered All-America honors through the years, beginning with Sue Galkantas in 1983 and most recently by Natasha Howard in 2014. Other notable FSU All-Americans include: Bev Burnett (1988), Wanda Burns (1991), Tia Paschal (1993) and Brooke Wyckoff (2001).

The importance of success in academics is a pillar of the FSU women's basketball program as Seminole student-athletes have captured over 100 ACC Academic Honor Roll and Academic All-ACC selections. Three former FSU stars have even earned ACC Postgraduate Scholarships: Christy Derlak (1993-94), Brooke Wyckoff (2000-01) and Christian Hunnicutt (2010-11).

TUCKER CENTER RENOVATIONS

A staple in the Tallahassee community for 32 years, the Donald L. Tucker Center is about to become even more inviting with nearly $17 million in upgrades. The 2014-15 season for both FSU Women's and Men's Basketball will have an enhanced gameday atmosphere with the exciting changes taking place.

Among the changes coming to Florida State's premier multi-purpose facility:

- More spacious garnet seats have been added throughout the facility, with the upper bowl expected to be completed last. The seats will also have cupholders.
- A new state-of-the-art high definition scoreboard is being installed and hung at the center of the arena. The new jumbotron has been called a "multimedia center" with endless video capabilities run by Panasonic.
- A 360-degree ribbon board will run through the arena and provide statistics, advertising and video for in-game promotions.
- Four LED panels will be added to the upper corners of the Donald L. Tucker Center, providing clarity with statistics and other in-game functions.
- A brand-new sound system is expected to be completed eventually, providing high-quality acoustics for music, ingame announcements and other related activities. This will make an enormous difference for basketball games as well as concerts, musicals and other events that utilize the Donald L. Tucker Center.
- The game floor has been updated with the new FSU Garnet and Gold colors, further promoting the Seminole brand.
- The team entrance will undergo an updated look that features modern Seminole designs and better signage.
- Florida State University is committed to making the Donald L. Tucker Center district a popular hot-spot for students, fans, residents, tourists, etc. Moving forward, there are plans to add hotels and retail to make it an entertainment area.
- The expansion of the FSU Basketball Training Facility is another proposed plan that could surface in the coming years.

CHECKING UP ON MORGAN JONES

Redshirt junior guard Morgan Jones offers her opinions on how the 2014-15 Florida State Seminoles look as well as the opportunity she had to meet NBA superstar LeBron James this summer:

1. Talk about the upcoming 2014-15 season and what kind of team Florida State has coming back

"I think we're a team of depth and we have a lot of versatility. I think, in comparison to last team when we were shorter on players, this year we have a lot of tools and it's going to be hard to stop us because we have so many different tools and threats and our scoring this year should be a lot more even. I'm looking forward to it."

2. How productive was your summer in preparing for this season?

"The summer went great for me and the whole team. It's great to get in there with the freshmen and actually work on our system stuff and what we look for. The summer allows you to do that. And just getting a feel for how we play so when we get into preseason practice we're already two steps ahead."

3. Looking at all the depth FSU has, do you sense the competition for starting spots will be really heavy?

"I think practice will be very competitive, games will be very competitive, and ultimately the coaches are going to put the people on the floor who are going to produce and give us what we need. I think day in and day out it will make each of us better."

4. What are your thoughts on the opponents you face this season?

"I'm really looking forward to the Cancun Challenge, to go out there and play three games in three days. To play in Cancun will be a lot of fun, as well as playing Purdue and Notre Dame. That's kind of next to my Midwest family. I'm excited to go out there."

5. Talk about your experience at the LeBron James Skills Academy in Las Vegas

"I was really looking forward to going to the LeBron James camp, being able to help there with Rachel Baker who helped organize the whole camp. I had a chance to meet tons of great athletes and announcers in the men's basketball world, and I think that really was a great experience. I'm kind of at a loss for words as how to describe it, but being able to talk with LeBron James and pick at his brain...Now he knows about Florida State Women's Basketball."

6. What was it like for you to be around him when "The Decision Part II" was going on?

"We were joking about coming to our game in Miami; I even told him I would get him tickets. He was laughing about it and obviously now he won't need a ticket. Being able to talk to the best player in the world and even around these elite high school athletes, and just to see how Nike is so elite and builds relationships with these players...Nike is top of the line."

7. Were you a little star-struck talking to LeBron, or did you throw yourself into the conversation?

"I definitely threw myself in there. Everyone got a chance to take a picture with LeBron James, and it's funny because there was like a million guys there. And of course I walk up and he was like 'Oh, there's a girl here!' So I took a picture with him and then he went to do a QGA at the banquet that first night. Jay Bilas interviewed him and opened it up for any questions, and no one was saying anything so I was like 'How do you not have a question to ask the best player in the world right now?' One of the kids asked about his shoes, and then I raised my hand and asked him how he dealt with his criticism when he left Cleveland. He went on to answer my question for about four minutes and that was an awesome experience. I'm in a room full of people with all types of statuses, and for him to acknowledge my question and go in-depth about it was great. I threw myself (into talking with him), I wasn't shy."

"I would probably do the Shmoney dance because it's pretty simple and basic. The FIBA team did that dance when they won gold."

9. Last year you got to be an active player after redshirting you first season. What was that experience like and how does it help you for this season?

"The experience sitting out was definitely a tough one. You don't realize how much you love the game and how much it means to you until you don't play. Coming back this past year I was really excited. A lot was thrown at me, everything was new, the opponents were new, the style of play was new, we didn't have many numbers. I tried to grasp as much as I could. This year I know what to expect of our opponents and the standard of Florida State basketball - how to practice, train and eat. I think that's going to benefit me in the long run."

THE FSU OFFSEASON

Cold Water Challenge Florida State

#Chillin4Charity

For much of the nation, the summer of 2014 was all about ice bucket challenges for a worthy cause. The same can be said for Florida State Women's Basketball and the entire women's basketball community, as the #Chillin4Charity ice bucket challenge was performed to help raise funds for the Kay Yow Cancer Foundation.

Florida State Women's Basketball student-athletes and coaches challenged fellow coaches and players from across the country to help raise awareness for breast cancer and make donations. The initiative was an enormous success and helped spark a worldwide phenomenon for the well-known ALS Ice Bucket Challenge.

Taking it to the Streets

Community Service is a major priority for the FSU Women's Basketball team. This summer, the 'Noles performed many activities highlighted by their playerrun "Taking it to the Streets" program.

Throughout Tallahassee's hottest month, the Seminoles made visits to both the Lawrence-Gregory Community Center and the LeVerne Payne Community Center in Leon County. They interacted with the next generation by playing different sports, serving food and being mentors and role models.

Spear-heading the program was sophomore Kai James and redshirt seniors Maegan Conwright and Lauren Coleman.

THE FSU OFFSEASON

Big Additions

A couple of key signees in junior center Adut Bulgak and sophomore guard Leticia Romero added to the great blend of talent that already accompanies the 2014-15 FSU roster.

Bulgak is a JUCO transfer from Trinity Valley College who was named the NJCAA and WBCA National Player of the Year in 2014. The 6-foot-4 athletic presence is expected to help the 'Noles right away and add some versatility in the low post.

Romero will sit out the 2014-15 season after transferring from Kansas State. The native of Las Palmas, Spain, led the Wildcats in 10 statistical categories a season ago and gives FSU an excellent shooter at the guard spot.

Overseas Success

Newcomers Ama Degbeon of Germany and Leticia Romero from Spain participated at the European U2O Championships in July. Both players guided their teams to much success at the European competition.

Degbeon helped Germany to a gold medal in the Division B championship in Bulgaria. She averaged 11 points and 7.2 boards over the nine-game slate, including 26 points against Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Romero helped Spain to a second-place finish in Italy. She earned a spot on the all-tournament team after ranking in the top 10 among all players in average assists, steals and field goals made. She had double figures in seven of her nine games.

THE FSU OFFSEASON

TM

Coach Santos

On June 3, FSU Women's Basketball announced the hiring of assistant coach Danielle Santos. The young and knowledgeable coach comes to FSU after being at Kentucky, and is seen as one of the rising stars in the profession.

Santos has developed a reputation as a tremendous recruiter, making strong connections in the North, South and Midwest. She helped the Wildcats land the 17th-ranked 2014 recruiting class according to ESPNW.

She will be FSU's head of recruiting and will also have a role in the team's game plans throughout the season. Santos has enjoyed success at Kentucky, Illinois State and Hofstra.

The Big Game

FSU freshman Shakayla Thomas had the honor of playing in the 2014 McDonald's All-American Game held at the United Center in Chicago on April 2. She was the fourth Seminole to play in the game after signing directly with Florida State out of high school.

Thomas finished with a game-high 19 points as she led the East team in an 80-78 loss to the West. Using a combination of slashing drives and accurate pull-up jumpers, Thomas showed off her extreme athleticism as she finished 9-of-15 from the floor and added four rebounds.

Thomas joins fellow FSU McDonald's All-Americans Kai James and Morgan Jones on the 2014-15 roster.

THE FSU OFFSEASON

Fashion Show

Big things happened for Florida State Athletics this offseason, including a whole new re-branding effort by Nike. One of the many perks for the coaches and studentathletes are new uniforms for the 2014-15 season.

Ivey Slaughter and Morgan Jones were selected from the FSU women's basketball team to participate in a fashion show in Downtown Tallahassee as selected student-athletes unveiled and modeled off their new uniforms.

Both student-athletes did a splendid job of showing off their new jerseys and shorts, highlighted by the new Seminole Head on the shorts and the back of the jersey top.

Oh Canada!

Newcomer Adut Bulgak, a junior center from Edmonton, Alberta, represented her country in fine fashion at the William Jones Cup. The Canadian resident helped her squad to a 5-O showing at the Jones Cup in Taiwan en route to a title.

Bulgak finished the tournament averaging nine points and 8.6 rebounds coming off the bench. She recorded three double-digit rebounding games for Canada, highlighting arguably her biggest skill set.

The 6-foot-4 center who grew up in Sudan and Kenya will add another talented low-post presence for the 'Noles. If her play over the summer provides any indication of things to come, FSU fans have plenty to look forward to.

SEMINOLE SPANIARDS

Current Seminole sophomore Leticia Romero and former FSU player Leonor Rodriguez made their alma mater proud by participating with the Spanish National Team at the 2014 FIBA World Championship in Turkey. The two players helped the Spaniards to an impressive runner-up finish at the worldwide event, moving Spain up to No. 3 in the updated FIBA World Rankings following the silver medal finish.

FIBA World Championship 1. United States (6-0) 2. Spain (5-1) 3. Australia (5-1)

*Will sit out the 2014-15 season per NCAA transfer rules

NOTABLES

- FSU Head Coach Sue Semrau begins her 18th season with one of her deepest groups ever. This year, the 'Noles have 14 roster players, tied for the third most in the Semrau era at FSU (1997-present). Top-notch sophomore guard Leticia Romero will redshirt due to NCAA transfer rules.
- The Seminoles boast some talented newcomers, including junior Adut Bulgak, sophomore Leticia Romero and freshman Ama Degbeon. All three begin their FSU careers after spending the summer playing in high-level FIBA competition overseas.
- Sophomore Brittany Brown is the top returning ACC player in steals per game with 2.3 last season. She anchors a defensive unit that finished second in the league behind only UNC with 10.2 steals per game in 2013-14.
- Among the team's talented newcomers are freshman McDonald's All-American forward Shakayla Thomas and Top 100 guard Chania Ray. Thomas is one of seven McDonald's All-Americans entering the ACC this season.

SEASON PREVIEW

Depth, depth and more depth! Florida State Women's Basketball has a roster full of student-athletes who have the athleticism, skill sets and overall talent to prolong a stay in the NCAA Tournament this season. There isn't a singular focus on the team, making it a no-name group that expects to share the burden of getting back to the second week of the NCAA Postseason.

The 2014-15 Florida State Women's Basketball season is one filled with renewed optimism. Coming off a season in which they perhaps overachieved by reaching the NCAA Second Round with so little student-athletes available, the Seminoles now boast plenty of depth with 14 talented roster players ready to earn time on the court.

"There's a lot of luxury in depth, not only for the coaching staff but for the players," FSU head coach Sue Semrau said as she approaches her 18th season with the Noles. "They're really able to hone in on their strengths and know that they're going to be counted on for their strengths. It feels great to have a full roster."

FSU's player total is tied for the third most in the Semrau era at FSU (1997-present). Top-notch sophomore guard Leticia Romero will redshirt this season due to NCAA transfer rules, but the Noles carry loads of talent in a variety of ways. Three starters return to the floor in sophomore guard Brittany Brown and power forward Ivey Slaughter, while redshirt junior guard Morgan Jones always poses as a long-range threat to extend the Seminole offense.

Six other players from last season return, including junior guard Emiah Bingley, sophomore center Kai James and redshirt senior forward Lauren Coleman. Redshirt senior guard Maegan Conwright and redshirt junior guard Shakena Richardson are coming off transfer seasons and will be among the point guard candidates, while redshirt freshman forward Gabby Bevillard endured a season-ending injury last year and will look to get back into the flow in 2014-15.

Aside from the returnees, the players and coaching staff are grinning ear-to-ear over the team's five newcomers. They include McDonald's All-American forward Shakayla Thomas, fellow freshman guard Chania Ray, freshman center Ama Degbeon, the No. 1 JUCO player in the country in center Adut Bulgak and Romero.

"The new players have been pretty good," Ivey Slaughter added. "Their transformation has been really good. A lot of people coming from high school to college really struggle, but our freshmen and transfers have done a good job."

Another difficult schedule awaits the Seminoles as they play nine NCAA Tournament teams from a year ago, and the always-difficult ACC gauntlet. Of Florida State's 30 regular-season games, 19 will be broadcast. Seven will air on the ACC regional sports networks, and 12 will be shown on ESPN3.

"We're really excited about playing nine teams in the NCAA Tournament, and almost all of our games are televised this season," Semrau said. "It really shows the direction of our program. The ACC is the premier conference in the country, so to be able to play in that, plus the great non-conference games, is huge."

And the Seminoles figure to be a worthwhile watch. Based on how well the team has meshed in the early going, the upcoming season could be a special year.

"I'm really impressed with how our team has been," Brittany Brown said. "We've been running faster times than we did last year as a team and everyone has been knocking off seconds from their times last year. We're already in better position."

COACHING STAFF

- 18th season
- Three-time ACC Coach of the Year
- FSU'S all-time winningest coach
- WBCA President
- ACC Regular Season Champions (2009-10)
 Seven Straight NCAA Tournament Appearances (2005-11)
 2010 Elite Eight
- Three Straight NCAA No. 3 Seeds (2009-10-11)

Entering her 18th season as the head women's basketball coach at Florida State, Sue Semrau, a three-time winner of the ACC Coach of the Year award and Florida State's all-time leader in wins, has earned a reputation as a coach that not only keeps her team in the national rankings by leading her players to victory but also one that helps foster the personal and professional growth of the student-athletes.

"Coach Sue" has guided the Seminoles to 10 NCAA Tournaments, including a 2010 Elite Eight appearance, won a pair of gold medals with USA Basketball and has seen 27 student-athletes earn academic all-conference honors. Over the last six years, Florida State has averaged nearly 23 wins per season and had 14 players sign professional contracts either in the WNBA or with a European club team. Nine Seminoles have been selected in the WNBA Draft in the last 10 years, most recently Natasha Howard who was chosen fifth overall by the Indiana Fever in 2014 to mark the highest pick in FSU history.

Semrau is so respected among her peers in the coaching community that she was named president of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association in the summer 2013 after serving as the vice president since 2010. Semrau's two-year term will last until the end of the 2014-15 season.

This Past Season

Semrau and the Seminoles were faced with a tough predicament entering the 2013-14 season, only having seven active scholarship players due to injuries and NCAA transfer rules forcing incoming players to sit out a year. However, Florida State managed to overcome those hurdles by finishing 21-12 and earning its ninth NCAA appearance in the last 10 seasons.

Florida State reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the 11th straight time, earning a No. 10 seed in the Stanford Regional and defeating No. 7 seed Iowa State in Ames, Iowa, by a 55-44 score. The win means that the `Noles have earned at least one victory in every NCAA Tournament they have participated in since 1991.

Semrau helped guide senior Natasha Howard to one of the best seasons and careers in school history. In 2013-14, Howard garnered multiple All-America honors from the Associated Press and WBCA, generating a single-season record 15 double-doubles and five 30-point games. Howard's dominance in the low post included an average of 20.5 points per game, the highest by a Seminole since Bev Burnett posted 21.3 points per game in the 1987-88 season.

Howard was not alone. She teamed with dynamic point quard

Cheetah Delgado, who finished her senior season shattering the school's single-season assists record with 216. Her average of 6.5 assists per game was the highest by an ACC player in six years.

Overall, Florida State earned 10 Top 100 RPI victories in the 2013-14 campaign and once again reached the Top 25 polls, peaking at No. 18 in the AP and No. 17 in the USA Today Poll.

Molding True Student-Athletes

As successful as Florida State has been on the court, Semrau's commitment to community service is just as important to her program's identity. For four years, Semrau partnered the Seminoles with Samaritan's Feet, a non-profit organization dedicated to changing lives through shoe distributions around the world. Semrau annually coached a game barefoot in an effort to raise money, and the Seminoles took a break from the 2010

Junkanoo Jam in the Bahamas to give back on Thanksgiving.

The 2013-14 Seminoles made a big impact in the community around the holiday season, visiting the Ronald McDonald House around Thanksgiving time and participating in the Soul Santa event in mid-December to help give presents to families.

Additionally, the Seminoles have performed a variety of services throughout the Tallahassee area and have been known to extend a helping hand when on the road, making visits to the Boys and Girls Club at the Coalition for the Homeless in Orlando and elementary schools in Harlem, West Chester and Wadsworth, Ohio and Martinsville, Ind., as well as the Duke Hospital in Durham, N.C.

In August 2013, Semrau and the Seminoles held a basketball clinic for youth in Dakar, Senegal, in addition to visiting an orphanage during the team's 2013 Foreign Tour.

These efforts have molded countless Seminoles into superstars in the game of life following their hoops careers. Current assistant coach Brooke Wyckoff (Class of 2001) and Christian Hunnicutt (Class of 2011) each earned prestigious ACC Postgraduate Scholarships, while Vanessa Fuchs (Class of 2001) served as Interim Athletics Director at Florida State and is currently the Seminoles' Senior Women's Administrator.

Recent Success

The 2009-10 season served as the perfect example of just how strong the Florida State's women's basketball program has become under Semrau. The Seminoles captured their second consecutive regular-season ACC Co-Championship and made it all the way to the Elite Eight of the annual NCAA Tournament as a program-best No. 3 seed for the second straight season.

Along the way, FSU set the school record for most wins in a season with 29, most conference triumphs ever with 12 and highest national ranking ever at No. 9.

After the season was complete, star forward Jacinta Monroe was taken sixth overall in the 2010 WNBA Draft by the Washington Mystics; a draft slot that was the highest ever for an FSU women's basketball player prior to Natasha Howard's selection as the fifth pick by the Indiana Fever in 2014.

During a 24-8 campaign in 2010-11, the Seminoles extended their NCAA Tournament streak to seven consecutive years, nabbing another No. 3 seed. Along the way, forward Cierra Bravard nabbed honorable mention All-America honors and teamed with point guard Courtney Ward to capture All-ACC accolades.

Changed Culture

Semrau's 316 career win total with the Seminoles more than doubles the second-most victories by an FSU coach (Marynell Meadors, 132), and her tenure has accounted for 10 of FSU's 13 all-time NCAA Tournament appearances.

Semrau basically built the Seminoles from scratch, as she inherited a program coming off of a 5-22 record in 1996-97 and hadn't reached double figures in wins in four years.

By her fourth year, Semrau had completely turned the program around, capturing a 19-12 record and the first NCAA Tournament appearance in a decade. The 2000-01 season served as the jumpstart for unprecedented success.

FSU had only four 20-win seasons before Semrau guided the Noles to six 20-win seasons over a seven-year stretch beginning in 2004-05. She has now led the `Noles to eight 20-win campaigns through 17 seasons.

A Respected and Seasoned Coach

Prior to coming to Florida State, Semrau served three years as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Wisconsin under Jane Albright. While in Madison, she contributed to the Badgers' three-straight winning seasons and two NCAA Tournament appearances, including the program's first ever back-to-back 20-win seasons. Semrau first joined Albright at Northern Illinois in 1991 where she assisted in leading NIU to three consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances.

Before her hiring at Northern Illinois, Semrau served as head women's basketball coach and assistant athletic director at Occidental College in Los Angeles for four years where she compiled a 51-47 overall record. She also coached soccer for two seasons and was responsible for the administrative duties of fundraising and promotions at the Division III institution.

Semrau also worked as the public relations and promotions director for the L.A. Heat professional soccer team from 1986-87, and as the public relations director for the Seattle Storm soccer team in the previous year.

A native of Seattle, Wash., Semrau is a graduate of Shorecrest High School. She went on to attend the University of Puget Sound for two years. Semrau transferred to the University of California-San Diego in 1984 where she was a team co-captain and Co-MVP. She graduated in 1985 with a bachelor's degree in communications and received her master's degree in athletic administration from the University of Southern California in 1988.

SEMRAU THROUGH THE YEARS

SUE SEMRAU is hired as Florida State's head coach - the program's third new coach in three years. The program is coming off of a 5-22 season, including a winless season in ACC play at 0-16. In her first season at the helm of the program, Sue Semrau leads Florida State to its most victories since 1992-93 (9-18) and its best ACC record (5-11) and finish since 1992-93, including its largest victory by margin over an ACC opponent (88-53 over Georgia Tech). Latavia Coleman was named Second Team All-ACC while Brooke Wyckoff was named to the ACC

1998-99

THE SEMINOLES were 5-5 when leading scorer Latavia Coleman was lost for the season with a torn ACL and the team won just two more games the rest of the season and finished 7-20. Sue Semrau and her staff signed the No. 8 ranked recruiting class in the nation. Brooke Wyckoff was named Third Team All-ACC while April Traylor was named to the ACC All-Freshman Team.

SUE SEMRAU LED FSU to a 12-18 record while the Seminoles played 12 games against NCAA Tournament teams and eight nationally-ranked teams. The Seminoles were competitive as seven of the team's ACC losses were by five points or less. FSU won its first round game at the ACC Tournament with a 65-60 victory over Maryland marking the first time the Seminoles had won a game in the tournament. Latavia Coleman scored 31 points in that game and became the first Seminole since 1993 to earn ACC Tournament First Team honors. For the season. Coleman was named Second Team All-ACC. Brooke Wyckoff was named Third Team All-ACC and to the All-Defensive Team while April Traylor earned Honorable Mention honors. Coleman became the first Seminole to be drafted to the WNBA as a third round selection and the 48th pick overall.

2000-01

IN SUE SEMRAU'S fourth year, she led Florida State to the program's best season in a decade. What a year it was and it started early as the Seminoles practiced 10 days in August before embarking on a 10-day European adventure to France and Switzerland where they played four games and won them by an average of 47 points. The Seminoles went on to record the program's most wins (19-12) in $10\,\mbox{years},$ advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since the 1990-91 season and had their first winning season since 1991-92. FSU's 9-7 ACC record was the program's best record and finish (tied for 3rd) in league play. FSU finished ranked No. 25 nationally, the program's first national ranking since 1991. Semrau was named ACC Coach of the Year. Brooke Wyckoff was named a First Team All-ACC selection and was the first FSU player since 1992-93 to garner such status. She also earned ACC All-Defensive Team honors for the second straight season. Levys Torres and April Traylor were named Third Team All-ACC. Wyckoff was selected in the second round as the 26th overall pick in the WNBA Draft while Torres was a third round selection (37th pick).

2001-02

THE SEMINOLES once again played some of the nation's toughest opponents withfive games against Top 10 opponents, 11 games total against Top 25 teams and 12 games against NCAA Tournament teams. Six of FSU's losses (13-15) were by four points or less. Tasheika Morris earned Third Team All-ACC honors. April Traylor was Honorable Mention All-ACC while Genesis Choice was named to the

2002-03

FIGRIDA STATE made its second post-season tournament appearance in three years, playing in the WNIT and advancing to the second round. Sue Semrau guided the Seminoles to another winning season (17-13), the second in three years, and to a fourth-place finish in the ACC, which was rated No. 2 among 32 conferences in RPI rankings. Tasheika Morris earned Second Team All-ACC honors while Ganivat Adeduntan garnered Honorable Mention ACC All-Freshman Team honors.

DESPITE THE LOSS of starter LaQuinta Neely just six games into the season, Sue Semrau led the Seminoles to another WNIT appearance, marking the third postseason tournament appearance in four years and to a 15-15 record. Tasheika (Morris) Allen was named Second Team All-ACC while rookie Shante Williams earned Honorable Mention All-ACC honors and All-Freshman Team accolades.

THE FLORIDA STATE women's basketball program suffered a tragedy with the sudden death of rising sophomore Ronalda Pierce in June 2004. Sue Semrau provided the strength and leadership to pull her team through the devastation and introduced Phase Two of the program which was about personal responsibility, selflessness and a championship mentality. The Seminoles flourished in the new system and established the best start in school history (12-0) on their way to the program's first 20-win season (24-8) since 1990-91. With a second round appearance in the NCAA Tournament, FSU made its third straight postseason tournament appearance and fourth in a five-year stretch. FSU spent five weeks nationally-ranked and earned its first Associated Press ranking since 1991. Semrau, who guided FSU to another fourth-place ACC finish, was recognized with her second ACC Coach of the Year award while Roneeka Hodges became the third Seminole to earn First Team All-ACC honors. Ganiyat Adeduntan and Alicia Gladden earned Honorable Mention All-ACC recognition while Gladden was also named to the ACC All-Defensive Team. Hodges earned Kodak Region All-American honors, was a WBCA All Star and became FSU's highest WNBA Draft pick as the first player called in the second round and the 15th pick overall.

FOLLOWING A 10-DAY tour of Italy in August in which the Seminoles went 4-0 and averaged 97.8 points per game while holding opponents to 47.8 points per game, FSU continued the success it enjoyed in 2004-05. For just the second time in program history, and first since 1990 and 1991, Florida State participated in back-to-back NCAA Tournaments as Sue Semrau guided the Seminoles to a 20-10 and a second round NCAA Tourney appearance. The Seminoles also enjoyed back-to-back 20-win seasons for just the second time in program history. The Seminoles earned their most ACC wins with a 10-4 record and another fourth-place finish. Semrau became FSU women's basketball's winningest coach by victories. Alicia Gladden earned Third Team All-ACC honors and was named to the ACC All-Defensive Team for the second straight season. Britany Miller garnered ACC All-Freshman Team honors, ESII had a lot to celebrate with the Class of 2006. The first class to lead FSU to seven or more ACC victories in four consecutive seasons, this group led the team to a record fourth-straight postseason appearance and averaged 19 wins per season which is the most in the Semrau era and second most in FSU history.

THE 10TH SEASON under Sue Semrau couldn't have been any sweeter as her 2006-07 squad made school history. A 68-61 victory over Stanford in the second round of the NCAA Tournament sent the Seminoles to their first NCAA Tournament Sweet 16. Florida State had its magical run cut short 55-43 by LSU in the semifinals of the Fresno Regional. The Seminoles ended the season with a 24-10 record to mark the first time in school history that the program put together three-straight 20-win seasons and went to the NCAA Tournament three years in a row. Florida State cracked the top 20 of the final USA Today/Coaches Poll as its No. 19 ranking is the highest end-of-year ranking and matched the highest rating ever at any point in the season. Senior Alicia Gladden finished her career as the Seminoles' all-time leader in steals at 275 swipes on her way to her second Third-Team All-ACC selection. Rookie forward Jacinta Monroe swatted 63 halls - the third-highest total in school history - to earn her a snot on the ACC All-Freshman team. Within the league ranks, Florida State matched a program-best by finish the league ledger at 10-4.

GOOD TIMES continued to roll along for the Florida State women's basketball program as Sue Semrau led the Noles to their fourth consecutive trip to the NCAA . Tournament where they won a first round game for the fourth consecutive season. The Seminoles downed nationally-ranked Ohio State by a score of 60-49 in Des Moines, Iowa to move Semrau to a perfect 5-0 in the NCAA First Round games. FSU had an All-ACC Honorable Mention pick in Tanae Davis-Cain as well as an All-ACC Academic selection in Mara Freshour while also picking up ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District honors as well. The Seminoles began the season ranked 19th in the country and went up to a program-best No. 18 during the course of the campaign. Semrau led the Seminoles to a 7-7 mark in the ACC, which placed them in a tie for fifth place in the league. Those seven victories gave Semrau a total of 75 ACC triumphs for her career, which is the eighth-best mark in the history of the league. In addition, senior Shante Williams broke the school record for career assists with 451, after putting together three seasons in which she tallied at least 100 dishes. Semral continued to the lead FSII to in-state dominance as the Seminoles won 12 consecutive games against rivals from the Sunshine State, topped by a thrilling 50-49 victory over Miami during the final week of the regular season. Florida State was one of the top three-point shooting teams in the conference and dropped in a school-record 182 three-pointers, besting the old mark by 16. In addition to being prolific, the Seminoles were accurate from behind the arc, hitting 35.7 percent, which is the best rate since the 1988-89 squad set the record of 43.4 percent the year the three-point line was instituted. Setting the record was a team effort as seven players made at least one three pointers and five hit at least 10 three balls during the season.

THE SEMINOLES returned to the tournament for a fifth consecutive time and turned in one of the best seasons in school history. Sue Semrau led her squad to a 26-8 record. Sue Semrau earned her third career ACC Coach of the Year honor for her performance on the bench as she once again helped lead the Seminoles to new heights. The Seminoles earned their highest NCAA Tournament seed in Seminole annals as well when they earned the third seed in the Trenton Regional. Seniors Mara Freshour and Tanae Davis-Cain wrapped up their impressive careers in N8-09 as the dun went out on ton with one of the finest seasons for the Seminole program. Freshour and Davis-Cain each earned ACC All-Tournament Second Team honors for their roles in helping Florida State to the second round of the ACC Tournament. The Seminoles were road warriors in 08-09 as they posted a perfect 10-0 record on the road, including a 7-0 mark in the ACC which helped propel them to a share of the regular season title with Maryland, Jacinta Monroe set a new school single-season blocks record with 84 and became FSU's all-time blocks leader with 225 in just three years. Monroe would be honored by the ACC when she was named to the ACC All-Defensive teams for her efforts on the defensive end of the floor. Also earning plaudits for the Seminoles was freshman Cierra Bravard who turned in a stellar opening campaign en route to being named to the ACC All-Freshman team. In addition to Monroe's defensive honors she was also named to the All-ACC Second Team. while Mara Freshour and Tanae Davis-Cain each earned third team honors. The Seminoles advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the sev-

FLORIDA STATE followed up its fantastic 2008-09 season with an even better year in 2009-10. When the year had finished, head coach Sue Semrau was able to look back on it as not just the best season in her career but in the history of the program. The Seminoles earned the second-straight regular-season ACC cochampionship and advanced to the Big Dance for the sixth consecutive season. Tallahassee served as the host site for the Dayton Regional and FSU promptly dispatched St. John's and Louisiana Tech to advance to the Sweet 16. In Dayton, Semrau's Seminoles took down Mississippi State to earn an Elite Eight berth for the first time ever. Florida State finished the season with a school-record 29 wins to go along with just six losses. The team finished 12-2 in the very difficult ACC for the second year in a row and had two players - Courtney Ward (second team) and Jacinta Monroe (first team) - earn All-Conference accolades. After the season, Semrau's star pupil, Monroe, was selected sixth overall in the WNBA Draft by the Washington Mystics, which is the highest draft slot ever for an FSU

IN 2010-11, head coach Sue Semrau's 14th at Florida State, saw the Noles continue their run of successful seasons by advancing to their seventh consecutive NCAA Tournament, grabbing their second-straight No. 3 seed. FSU finished 24-8 the sixth 20-win season under Semrau - and 11-3 in the ACC. Led by honorable mention All-American and All-ACC First Team honoree Cierra Bravard, the Garnet and Gold made it to the second round of the "Big Dance" and finished ranked No. 15 in the country. Senior guards Christian Hunnicutt and Courtney Ward also wrapped up their careers with honors. Hunnicutt became the first Nole named ACC Defensive Player of the Year, while Ward captured third-team All-ACC accolades. Ward ended her career as FSU's all-time leader in three-pointers and assists. Freshman sensation Natasha Howard averaged 10.6 ppg en route to third-team Freshman All-America and All-ACC Freshman Team honors. Ward led the conference in three-point shooting, while sophomore Alexa Deluzio led the ACC in three-point percentage in conference play as FSU led the ACC in team field goal percentage and three-point percentage for the second straight year.

THE SEMINOLES streak of seven consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances ended in 2011-12 as FSU finished with a 14-17 record. The Garnet & Gold felt the departure of all-conference point guard Courtney Ward and were forced to move its best scorer and shooter Alexa Deluzio to point guard. Deluzio, a junior, averaged 13.2 ppg and ended up leading the ACC in free throw percentage (91.9 percent) in conference games. She also set an FSU single-season mark from the charity stripe in all games (83.9 percent). Sophomore Natasha Howard had a breakout season, leading the conference in double-doubles (12), while earning All-ACC Third Team and ACC All-Defensive Team accolades. Howard led the Seminoles in rebounds, blocks and steals. Her 9.4 rebound average in 16 ACC games led the conference. Senior post Cierra Bravard wrapped up her career with an All-ACC Third Team honor. She led the Seminoles in scoring for the second straight season (14.2 ppg) and ranked second in the ACC in field goal percentage (.546).

DURING THE 2012-13 SEASON, Florida State had a league-best and a schoolrecord three All-ACC First Team selections, advanced to the NCAA Tournament second round and tallied its eighth 20-win season with Semrau at the helm. Senior guards Leonor Rodriguez (14.9 points per game) and Alexa Deluzio (13.8 ppg) led an FSU offense that had five players averaging double figures at the end of the regular season and finished in the top 10 nationally in both scoring and field goal percentage. The Seminoles' 74.8 points per game average and .453 shooting percentage were their highest marks in over 20 years. Deluzio and Rodriguez joined junior Natasha Howard on the All-ACC First Team, while senior forward Chasity Clayton collected ACC Sixth Player of the Year honors. Florida State tallied a 23-10 record and placed fourth in the ACC. At the end of the season. Semrau was honored with the Kay Yow Heart of a Coach Award from the Fellowship of Christian Athletes at the WBCA Convention in New Orleans.

ADVERSITY hit Florida State in the preseason when a few injuries hampered the team's depth heading into the season, but the Seminoles managed to make their ninth NCAA Tournament appearance in the last 10 seasons. FSU finished the 2013-14 campaign with a 21-12 overall record and reached the NCAA Second Round in its 11th straight NCAA Tournament appearance. FSU's string of 11 straight NCAA postseason appearances with one victory is second in the current ACC behind only Duke (21). Senior forward Natasha Howard had an incredible season to lead FSU, averaging 20.5 points, 9.3 rebounds and shooting 59.4 percent from the floor. Howard ended her FSU career with All-America honors from the WBCA and Associated Press. was an All-ACC First Team member (Blue Ribbon and Coaches) and also a Wade Trophy finalist. Fellow senior Cheetah Delgado set the FSU single-season record for assists with 216, and broke the single-game assists record with 15 against Boston College on "Paint it Pink" Day. The dynamic duo helped FSU to a fulfilling season, highlighted by a 55-44 win over No. 7 seed Iowa State in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in Ames, Iowa, The Noles finished with 10 Top 100 RPI wins.

COACHING STAFF

LANCE WHITE

Associate Head Coach 12th Season Texas Tech '96

Heading into the 2014-15 season, Florida State women's basketball associate head coach Lance White has helped put together the most successful decade-long stretch in program history.

During his 11 years with the Garnet and Gold, FSU has a 67 percent winning percentage and has averaged nearly 22 wins per season. In 2013-14, Florida State reached its ninth NCAA Tournament under the assistance of White and achieved its eighth 20-win season since he ventured to Tallahassee prior to the 2003-04 year.

White played a vital part in the development of several Florida State student-athletes in the 2013-14 season, most notably Natasha Howard and Cheetah Delgado. Howard posted five 30-point games en route to earning All-America honors from the Associated Press and Women's Basketball Coaches Association. Delgado had a remarkable year at the point guard spot, breaking the single-season record for assists at FSU with 216 and averaging the most by an ACC player (7.43) since the 2007-08 season.

The blue-collar, hard-working nature of last year's team resulted in a 21-12 overall record and the program's 11th straight appearance in the NCAA Tournament Second Round following a win at No. 7 seed Iowa State in the Stanford Regional.

White was promoted to associate head coach prior to the 2012-13 season and his game planning and strategy took the Garnet and Gold offense to heights it hadn't seen in over 20 years.

Florida State finished in the top 10 nationally in both scoring and field goal percentage. The Seminoles' 74.8 points per game average and .453 shooting percentage were their highest marks since the 1991-92 and 1992-93 seasons, respectively. Senior guards Alexa Deluzio and Leonor Rodriguez and junior forward Natasha Howard gave FSU a school-record and an ACC-leading three All-ACC First Team selections, while senior forward Chasity Clayton captured ACC Sixth Player of the Year honors. The Seminoles finished fourth in the league - their seventh top-four finish with White.

Additionally, Florida State captured back-to-back regular season ACC titles in 2010 and 2011, and advanced to the 2010 NCAA Tournament Elite Eight. The 2010-11 season was a culmination of seven consecutive NCAA postseason appearances, all with White on the Considered by head coach Sue Semrau to be one of the rising stars of the coaching profession when she hired him in 2003, White has helped FSU reach new levels of success and brought an infectious energy to the program.

White has directed the FSU defense and offense during his tenure as well as been one of the country's top recruiters. In 2012, CollegeInsider.com named him one of the nation's Top 20 assistant coaches in the country.

The defensive coordinator for most of his tenure. White added the Seminoles' offense to his direction in 2011. He continues to hold responsibilities with recruiting, film and opponent breakdown in addition to assisting with camps each summer.

Florida State has experienced two of its greatest defensive seasons under White's tutelage as the team set a school record during the 2008-09 campaign by limiting opponents to 61.1 points per game. The Seminoles then broke that record in 2009-10 with a season that saw them hold opponents to just 60.8 points per contest. In 2012-13, the `Noles outscored opponents by 9.8 points per game.

Since White's arrival, many Seminoles have captured unprecedented individual success. Six players have been picked in the WNBA Draft, seven Seminoles have earned ACC All-Defensive team honors and FSU has nabbed 28 all-conference awards. In addition to the four All-ACC honorees in 2012-13, Christian Hunnicutt was named the ACC Defensive Player of the Year in 2011 and Jacinta Monroe was selected No. 6 by the Washington Wizards in the 2010 WNBA Draft. Monroe's selection was surpassed by Howard's No. 5 pick in the 2014 WNBA Draft by the Indiana Fever.

White was well prepared when he arrived at Florida State. He came from Texas Tech where he spent 10 seasons, including seven years as an assistant coach, with the Lady Raiders' top-10 program under legendary head coach Marsha Sharp.

Some of White's responsibilities at Texas Tech included individual workouts, scouting reports, perimeter and post player development and all aspects of recruiting, including mail correspondence and recruiting visits. White also served as the academic liaison for the women's basketball team, directing study hall and monitoring academic progress while also handling player relations.

During White's time in Lubbock, Texas Tech won three Big 12 Championships and advanced to seven-straight NCAA Tournaments, including five Sweet 16 and two Elite Eight appearances. He was a student assistant on Tech's 1993 National Championship team and a graduate assistant coach for two seasons before being elevated to a full-time coach.

While in Lubbock, Texas, White worked with some of the best players the game has ever seen. Among the players he influenced were National Player of the Year and three-time WNBA Player of the Year Sheryl Swoopes and also Plenette Pierson, who was named 2007 WNBA Sixth Woman of the Year.

A 1996 graduate of Texas Tech, White earned his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science. He went on to receive a Master's Degree in sports administration in August of 1998. He attended Lubbock Christian University for three semesters before transferring to Texas Tech in January of 1993. As a high school athlete in Spur, he was a three-time All-District selection, two-time All-Region, and two-time third team all-state choice in basketball. His high school basketball and football teams advanced to the regional round both his junior and senior years. In addition to his football and basketball accolades, he was listed in the Spalding Top 100 tennis players in 1991

White is an NCAA certified recruiter and member of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association. He is married to the former Melanie Smith, who is a professor at Florida A&M University. The Whites are the proud parents of Quentin and Vivian.

BROOKE WYCKOFF

Assistant Coach Fourth Season Florida State '01

She sparked the rise of the Florida State women's basketball program as a standout player on the court from 1997 to 2001. Ten years later, Brooke Wyckoff returned to the Seminoles this time on the bench, joining Sue Semrau's revamped staff for the 2011-12 season.

Three years later, the results speak for themselves. In 2013-14, FSU finished 21-12 and reached the NCAA postseason for the ninth time in the last 10 years. A group that was short on depth due to transfers and injuries at the beginning of the season found a way to reach the second round of the NCAA Tournament and earn 10 Top 100 RPI wins. Senior forward Natasha Howard emerged as one of the top players in the country, averaging 20.5 points, 9.3 rebounds and 59.4 percent shooting.

Wyckoff has been an influential figure in Howard's life both on and off the court, admired because of her personable nature and ability to connect well with her student-athletes. Under Wyckoff's tutelage, Howard had one of the most dominant seasons in school history as a senior, which included averaging 23.3 points and 9.6 rebounds against top-notch ACC competition. Howard was rewarded with the fifth overall selection by the Indiana Fever in the 2014 WNBA Draft, the highest in school history.

In the 2012-13 year, FSU posted a 23-10 record, finished fourth in the ACC and advanced to its eighth NCAA Tournament in nine years. Along the way, Wyckoff, a star forward during her playing career, helped the Seminoles land a school-record and a conference-best three players on the All-ACC First Team, as senior guards Alexa Deluzio and Leo Rodriguez and junior forward Natasha Howard collected honors from the conference office.

Senior forward Chasity Clayton also nabbed ACC Sixth Player of the Year accolades, as Florida State finished in the top 10 nationally in both scoring and field goal percentage. FSU's 74.8 points per game average and .453 shooting percentage were its highest marks in 20 years.

Without a doubt, Wyckoff was one of the greatest Seminoles ever to wear the Garnet and Gold on the hardwood before playing nine seasons in the WNBA. Wyckoff's experience at the professional level has given the Seminoles a rare commodity on the bench.

Along with the immediate credibility her hoops career provides, Wyckoff possesses an amiable personality that has made her an immediate hit on the recruiting trail. Her efforts led the Seminoles to sign one of the nation's top incoming recruiting classes in 2013. Led by four-star McDoanld's All-America center Kai James, the Noles' 2013 signing class featured three Top 100 players and ranked as the nation's No. 7 class by

All-Star Girls Report and No. 11 by ESPNW HoopGurlz.

Wyckoff's recruiting abilities shone through once again with the 2014 class, signing highly-touted prospects Shakayla Thomas, Chania Ray and Ama Degbeon. The addition of the No. 1 junior college center in the nation, Adut Bulgak, once again provides the 'Noles with an abundance of talent moving forward.

Wyckoff also serves as the Seminoles' program's liaison with the FSU academic support staff in addition to her on-court duties, which include preparing the team's defense.

In her first year back at FSU, Wyckoff, a star versatile forward during her career, helped tutor all-conference forwards Cierra Bravard and Howard. Bravard later signed a professional contract with the WNBA's San Antonio SilverStars and played the 2013 WNBA season with the Seattle Storm. Howard led the ACC in double-doubles in 2012, then set a single-season school record with 15 double-doubles as a senior.

A native of West Chester, Ohio, the talented post/wing was one of the top high school players in the country before signing a National Letter of Intent with FSU in 1997 in what was Semrau's first season in Tallahassee.

In her freshman year, Wyckoff made an immediate impact as she set a single-season record at the time with 80 blocks on her way to earning ACC All-Freshman Team honors. Conference accolades continued to roll in during her next three years with a pair of All-ACC Third Team selections (1999 and 2000) and finally an All-ACC First Team honor as a senior in 2001.

Wyckoff's 1,350 career points is the 14th-most in school history and her 804 rebounds rank seventh. She ranks No. 2 at FSU in career blocks with 209. She averaged 12.4 ppg and 7.4 rpg while starting all 109 games she played in her career.

Perhaps most importantly, Wyckoff was the cornerstone of the Seminoles' first winning season in nine years as the team posted a 19-12 record in 2001 and finished fourth in the ACC. That season culminated in the school's first trip to the NCAA Tournament in 10 years and All-America honors for Wyckoff, which was the first national accolade for an FSU women's basketball player since 1993. She capped her career by scoring 14.6 ppg and pulling down 6.6 rpg that final season.

In addition to boasting the honor of being just one of four former 'Noles to have their jerseys' retired, Wyckoff was also an outstanding performer in the classroom. She is the only Seminole to ever earn four All-ACC Academic Women's Basketball Team honors as well as four nods to the ACC Academic Honor Roll. In 2001, she earned an ACC Postgraduate scholarship and was named to the ACC Legends Class of 2010. In 2002, she was named to the 51-member ACC 50th Anniversary Women's Basketball Team.

She also played with the USA Women's Basketball Select Team for three consecutive summers.

In 2011, Wyckoff was inducted into the Butler County Sports Hall of Fame as well as the Florida State Athletic Hall of Fame and the Greater Cincinnati Basketball Hall of Fame.

Following her senior year, Wyckoff was selected by the Orlando Miracle in the second round of the WNBA Draft. She spent two seasons in Orlando before the team moved to Connecticut where she played another three seasons with the Sun.

She was then selected by the Chicago Sky in the 2006 WNBA Expansion draft and played for that franchise until 2009.

During her nine-year WNBA career, Wyckoff appeared in 242

After concluding her professional basketball career, Wyckoff served as an assistant girls basketball coach at Lakota East High School in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Wyckoff has one daughter, Avery

DANIELLE SANTOS

Assistant Coach First Season Florida '06

Florida State women's basketball head coach Sue Semrau announced the hiring of Danielle Santos as the team's newest assistant coach on June 3, 2014.

Known as a young coach with a great deal of knowledge in a variety of coaching realms, Santos has risen through the coaching ranks since starting her career as an assistant coach at Hofstra from 2006 to 2010. She has enjoyed successful stops with the Pride, Illinois State (2010-2012) and most recently Kentucky (2012-14).

"I look at Danielle as one of the young stars in our coaching profession," Semrau said. "She is someone who has made a great impact in each of her stops at Hofstra, Illinois State and Kentucky. Danielle brings both the knowledge and passion to excel in this profession and is a perfect complement to our staff. We are very excited to have her."

While at Kentucky in her two seasons, Santos played a large role in helping the Wildcats to an NCAA Elite Eight run in the 2012-13 season and a trip to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 2013-14. Responsible for coaching guard play, Santos was heavily involved in the progression of backcourt mates Jennifer O'Neill (All-SEC guard) and Linnae Harper (All-SEC freshman guard) in the 2013-14 year.

In Santos' first season in Lexington, former Kentucky guard A'dia Mathies was named the 2013 SEC Co-Player of the Year as well as a Wooden Award finalist under her watch.

Santos has developed a reputation as a tremendous recruiter, making strong connections in the North, South and Midwest. A large part of her successful coaching career has been her ability to develop tremendous relationships with student-athletes and their families through her engaging approach. She helped the Wildcats land the 17th-ranked 2014 recruiting class according to ESPNW.

Santos also presents a strong in-game mindset, assisting heavily with scouting reports and helping with game adjustments and substitutions. She also served in other capacities with Kentucky, running summer basketball camps and skill sessions as well as helping her teams reach their goals in the classroom as the academic coordinator.

She developed many of her current skill sets while at Illinois State, helping the Redbirds to two postseason trips which included a 2011-12 team that was chosen sixth in the Missouri Valley Conference preseason poll and finished second with a 13-5 league record.

Santos got her start with Hofstra and spent four seasons in Hempstead, N.Y., including her final two years as the recruiting coordinator in addition to her assistant coach duties.

At Hofstra, she was responsible for implementing the team's offensive strategies which helped the Pride record two 20-win seasons in her tenure, including a school-record 26 games in her first season. Santos' influential coaching style helped nine of her former players at Hofstra earn All-Colonial Athletic Association honors, while four went on to play professionally overseas.

Santos is a Marietta, Ga., native who earned several academic honors while being a four-year letterwinner for the University of Florida from 2002-06. She was a three-time SEC Academic Honor Roll selection, an Arthur Ashe Jr. Scholar Athlete Second Team member and a District 3 CoSIDA

Academic All-America Team member. While in Gainesville, she graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Exercise and Sport Sciences with a concentration in Sport Management. Santos also minored in education and business administration.

Santos emerged as a cerebral guard who left her career at Florida with some worthy achievements - She finished her career seventh all-time at UF with 80 3-pointers, ranked 11th with 162 steals, 11th with 265 assists and fifth with a 78.2 free throw percentage.

MELISSA BRUNER

Director of Basketball Operations Ninth Season Coe College '94

In order to ensure that everything is running smoothly away from the basketball court, Florida State needs a "coach" behind the scenes. Now in her ninth season with the FSU women's basketball program, Melissa Bruner has the daunting task of keeping everyone on the same page as Director of Basketball Operations.

A former collegiate head coach and a foursport letterwinner in college, Bruner is able to deftly handle a wide range of responsibilities in all facets of the program. She coordinates all areas of team travel and is also in charge of facility usage and management of all practices and games.

She assists head coach Sue Semrau with scheduling and serves as the program's liaison with the athletics department's administration. Bruner oversees the equipment operations for the program and assists with the Seminole girls' summer camps.

In addition to her administrative duties with the program, Bruner is also in her eighth season working as the color analyst for the radio broadcast of all FSU women's basketball games.

Bruner came to Florida State after serving four seasons as assistant athletics director and head women's basketball coach at Coe College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. The Kohawks reached the IIAC Tournament all four years of her tenure and advanced to the quarterfinals in her final season.

Bruner's players earned six all-conference honors. Bruner and Semrau previously worked together for two seasons at the University of Wisconsin-Madison while Semrau was an assistant coach. Bruner was Director of Women's Basketball Operations for the Badgers for seven years where she assisted in public relations, team travel and practice arrangements. Prior to her duties at Wisconsin, Bruner earned a master's degree in physical education, with a concentration in athletic administration, from Ohio University in 1995. She received her business administration and accounting degree with a minor in physical education from Coe College in 1994.

As a Kohawk, Bruner earned Academic All-Midwest Conference honors in softball, basketball, tennis and volleyball.

In recognition for her athletic and academic achievements, she was named a national GTE Academic All-American her senior year of college.

2013-14 SEASON FEATS

- Despite starting the year with just seven active scholarship players, FSU made its ninth NCAA postseason appearance in the last 10 seasons.
- Won its first-round game in the NCAA Tournament for the 11th straight time, defeating No. 7 seed Iowa State on its home floor, 55-44. FSU has won a game in the NCAA Tournament in its last 11 appearances dating back to 1991.
- Finished the 2013-14 season with 10 Top 100 RPI wins, defeating Syracuse, Michigan State, Iowa State, Stetson, Florida, Pacific, UT-Martin, Virginia and Miami twice.
- Played a daunting non-conference schedule but finished 13-2 against non-ACC schools. In the regular season, FSU finished 12-1 in non-conference play, just the third time since joining the ACC it finished the pre-season portion of its schedule with one loss.
- Defeated arch-rival Florida for the fourth time in the last five years, upending the Gators on Nov. 21, 2013, by a 76-68 score in Gainesville.
- Earned a big win for the ACC in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge, defeating then-No. 25 Michigan State, 61-58, on Dec. 4, 2013.
- Recorded a 10-game win streak from Nov. 29-Jan. 12, tying for the second-longest in program history. FSU only trails the 2004-05 team's 12-game win streak.
- Earned a No. 14 national ranking by All-Star Girls Report for its 2014 recruiting class that includes McDonald's All-American Shakayla Thomas and outstanding guard Chania Ray as well as Ama Degbeon. FSU has signed four McDonald's All-Americans out of high school which leads every college from the state of Florida.
- FSU's 14-1 start to the 2013-14 season was the best in program history since also starting 14-1 as a member of the Metro Conference in the 1982-83 season.
- FSU currently holds a 16-game win streak against non-conference teams at home, finishing 7-0 in 2013-14.
- Held opponents to below 70 points for the first 16 games of the 2013-14 season, being the only ACC school in that time span to show such a standout defensive effort.
- Peaked in the polls this season at No. 18 in the AP and No. 17 in the USA Today Poll on Jan. 6, 2014. It was the eighth consecutive season FSU has earned a spot in either of the polls.
- Achieved their eighth 20-win season under FSU head coach Sue Semrau, who also coached in her 500th game at FSU on Nov. 21, 2013, in a 76-68 win at Florida.
- Developed an identity as a blue-collar group that scrapped for points on the inside. For the season, FSU outscored the opposition on average, 34.3-24.3, on points in the paint. FSU also outscored opponents on average, 14.3-9.5, on second-chance points.
- In conference play, FSU led the ACC in offensive rebounds per game with 17.4. FSU also held Top five marks in ACC play in rebounding offense (2nd), offensive rebound percentage (2nd), rebounding margin (4th), assists (5th) and defensive rebounding percentage (5th).
- Finished the season with 336 steals, its most since totaling 364 steals in the 1990-91 season.
- Finished the 2013-14 year in the national Top 50 in three key areas: Steals per game (20th), personal fouls per game (30th) and rebound margin (34th).
- Had a 10-game win streak against teams from the state of Florida, and are now 11-1 vs. Florida-based opponents over the last two seasons.
- Won a game in the ACC Tournament for the second consecutive season, defeating rival Miami once again in overtime, 72-67, on March 6, 2014.
- Shot a season-best 61.1 percent against Virginia on March 2, 2014. It was FSU's best shooting percentage in its last 80 games.
- Had 21 of its 33 games played televised or live streamed on either an ESPN platform or through the ACC's Regional Sports Network package.
- Finished 9-5 in road games, defeating Cincinnati, Florida, Miami-Ohio, Long Beach State, Pitt, Miami,

2013-14 SEASON FEATS

Syracuse, Clemson and Iowa State away from home.

- Recorded a season-best 56 rebounds against Clemson on Feb. 23, its most since the 2012 season. FSU had 30 offensive rebounds in the game, the most ever allowed by the Tigers.
- Shared the basketball well in 2013-14, recording 464 assists on 852 field goals made which equals an assist on nearly 55 percent of its makes.
- Did not allow an opponent to shoot 50 percent or better through its first 20 games played.
- Forced 20 or more turnovers in 17 of its 33 games played, including 10 of its 14 non-conference opponents.
- FSU forced 17 opposing players to foul out, while the 'Noles had just 11 players disqualified.
- Registered a season-high 64 points in the paint in its season opener against UNC Greensboro, a 93-59 win that also included a season high in points scored.
- Won the Long Beach Classic Championship by defeating Long Beach State, 72-57, on Dec. 21. Since the 2010-11 season, FSU has won three non-conference tournaments including the Junkanoo Jam in 2010 as well as the San Juan Shootout (2012).
- The 'Noles are 10-2 in regular-season tournament games since the 2009-10 season.
- Finished 7-0 in the month of December, and is 11-1 in the year's final month over the last two seasons.
- Won four games by 30+ points, including a 51-point win over Prairie View A&M (88-37) that is the ninth-biggest win in school history.
- Out-rebounded opponents in 24 of 33 games played.

MATTHEW SCHMAUCH LEADERSHIP AWARD

Matthew Schmauch, an Assistant Director of Academic Support who worked with the women's basketball program for four seasons, was instrumental in the academic success of FSU student-athletes. His influence went beyond the classroom. He was an ambassador, a mentor, a friend, a big brother, a fan — truly a shining example of where hard work and determination can take you. This award, established in his memory, is given annually to the women's basketball player who exemplifies these characteristics of leadership.

The Florida State Athletics Department lost a dear member of its Seminole family on June 13, 2003. Matt Schmauch, 29, an Assistant Director for the Athletic Academic Support Program at Florida State, died from anaphylaxis due to an allergic reaction to nuts while representing FSU at the N4A convention in St. Louis, Mo.

A native of Allen Park, Mich., Schmauch had been a valuable member of the athletic academic support staff since 1996. A glowing role model in the classroom, Schmauch earned a bachelor's degree in finance from Florida State in 1995 and went on to receive a master's degree in athletic administration from FSU in 1996.

In 2003-04, the Florida State women's basketball program created a special award in honor of Schmauch.

RONALDA PIERCE HEART AWARD

Daughter, sister, classmate, teammate, role model, friend and Seminole. Ronalda Pierce meant so much to so many people. Although with us a short time, Ronalda's memory will forever be etched in the hearts of the Seminole family. Ronalda represented courage, heart, determination, growth and joy. It was these characteristics that allowed her to blossom into the person that was cherished by all who knew her. The recipient of this award exemplifies these same qualities of perseverance and heart.

On June 8, 2004, the Florida State women's basketball program lost a special member of its family with the sudden death of Ronalda Pierce, a 6-5 post player from Ashburn, Ga. In 2004-05, the players wore #55 on their shoes in her honor.

The Seminoles paid tribute to Ronalda by celebrating the time, although too short, that they had with her. In 2005, an award was established in her memory.

While Ronalda Pierce remains on the minds and in the hearts of those associated with Florida State women's basketball, the 2006-07 season had an even greater meaning as it would have represented Ronalda's senior season. Members of her recruiting class, Nikki Anthony, Shante Williams and Alicia Gladden, proudly hold up their hands signifying the No. 55; Ronalda's jersey

IN MEMORY

ALICIA "ICE" GLADDEN

The Florida State women's basketball family suffered an immeasurable loss on April 19, 2013, when former standout guard Alicia "Ice" Gladden passed away at the age of 27 following a tragic car accident.

Nicknamed "Ice" because of her smooth style of play on the court, Gladden was an enormous part of Florida State's program-building trip to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 2007. The native of Orange Park, Fla., who always showcased a beautiful left-handed touch was known as someone who made you smile and carried an infectious personality.

CAREER ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Going into the 2014-15 season, Gladden is the only Seminole to capture ACC All-Defensive Team honors three times.
- Holds the Florida State career record for steals (275) as well as the singleseason record (101) in 2004-05.
- Led the 'Noles in scoring in her junior and senior seasons, culminating by averaging 13.5 points and leading FSU to its first-ever NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 in 2007.
- Two-Time All-ACC Third Team performer and an All-ACC Honorable Mention player who became the 20th member of Florida State's 1,000 point club, finishing with 1,403 career points which is currently 11th all-time.

HALL OF FAME

The Florida State Athletics Hall of Fame enjoys a rich tradition. Florida State is fortunate to boast an athletics program that reflects the integrity achieved by an academic institution with over 150 years of success.

There are 296 members of the FSU Athletics Hall of Fame. The first and largest class was inducted in 1977 and there has been a class inducted every fall since with the exception of 1996 when Florida State spent the year celebrating its 50th Anniversary of athletics.

Five former women's basketball greats - Sue Galkantas, Tia Paschal, Wanda Burns-Jackson, Brooke Wyckoff and Bev Burnett - are members of the Florida State Athletics Hall of Fame.

SUE GALKANTAS HALL OF FAME 1989

Florida State may never forget the scoring power of Sue Galkantas, who with an amazing 2,323 career points, is the most prolific scorer in Seminole basketball history. That total is the most points ever scored by a player, male or female — in Florida State history. Galkantas is currently one of just 64 players in NCAA history to amass 2,300 career points and 1,000 career rebounds.

By the time Galkantas graduated in 1984, her name was listed in nearly every statistical category

Overall, she scored in double figures in 115 of 120 games and still holds six career and single-season records. In 1989, Galkantas also became the first female FSU athlete to have her number retired.

TIA PASCHAL HALL OF FAME 1999

The Florida State women's basketball program enjoyed its greatest success during the four-year career of Tia Paschal, who lettered for the Seminoles from 1989 to 1993.

A forward from Thomson, Ga., Paschal was an immediate contributor for Florida State and was a three-year starter after averaging 20 minutes of play as a rookie. She ended her career averaging 19.4 points and 7.4 rebounds as a senior while earning first team All-ACC honors and second team All-America honors by the American Women's Sports Federation. During her career, she helped lead the Seminoles to two consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances in 1989-90 and 1990-91 as well as a Metro Conference championship in the 1990-91 season.

Paschal's versatility made her a weapon in every facet of the game, which is evident by the records she still holds at Florida State. She nearly holds the records free throws made (14) in a game and is second for steals in a career (269). Paschal is also among FSU's top 10 in five season and six career records and ranks third all-time in scoring with 1,662 points.

Honors came in abundance for Paschal throughout her career. After redshirting the 1988-89 season with a knee injury, Paschal took the conference by storm as a freshman, earning Metro Conference All-Rookie Team honors. She earned Metro All-Tournament Team honors two seasons and was twice named the conference Player of the Week.

Paschal continued playing the game that she loves professionally. Since her graduation in criminology in 1993, Paschal's professional overseas experience included stops in Germany, Sweden and Spain. She also played one season with the Charlotte Sting of the WNBA.

HALL OF FAME

WANDA BURNS HALL OF FAME 2006

Wanda Burns overcame adversity to become a successful women's basketball player at Florida State. One of Marynell Meadors' first recruits, Burns was a highly-touted 5-foot-8 guard out of Macon, Georgia.

Though she carried a 3.0 GPA in high school, her SAT scores were below the required score to meet the new NCAA Prop 48 rule and she had to sit out her freshman season. Burns used the year to hit the books and get acclimated to campus life.

She took the court in 1988-89 with something to prove. She averaged 11 points a game and led the team with 92 assists, helping FSU to its first winning season since 1983.

She electrified the team in 1989-90 and sparked FSU to a 21-9 record and to the NCAA Tournament. Burns set an FSU record for free throw percentage and led the team in scoring, three pointers and steals.

In 1990-91, her final season, Burns was named Metro Conference Player of the Week, set a single game record with 10 steals in a game and led the team in three-point shooting. FSU enjoyed one of its most successful seasons with a record of 25-7. Burns led the Metro Conference in scoring at 18.5 points per game and scored double figures in 38 consecutive games. She was named Metro Conference Tournament MVP and Player of the Year and also earned Hanes Her BROOKE WYCHOFF Way NCAA Woman of the Year and Second Team All-American honors.

Burns still ranks among FSU's top 10 in two career and seven single-season statistical categories.

HALL OF FAME 2011

Florida State women's basketball assistant coach Brooke Wyckoff solidified her place among the all-time great 'Noles in September 2011 with her induction into the Florida State Athletic Hall of Wyckoff, who was a star forward for head coach Sue Semrau's first hoops teams from 1997-2001, became the fourth women's basketball player to be inducted into the Hall of Fame on Sept. 2 at a ceremony at the University Center Club, joining Sue Galkantas (Class of 1989), Tia Paschal (Class of 1999) and Wanda Burns (Class of 2006).

"Getting inducted into Florida State's Hall of Fame is the biggest honor I have ever received," Wyckoff said. "It's amazing. It's surreal and an honor to be among the amazing athletes that are in it. It was a great opportunity for me to reflect on my career here, and to thank everybody publicly made it so special."

Wyckoff and the rest of her illustrious class - Tony Brown, Sam Cowart, Marshall McDougall, Stephen Parry, Chris Weinke and Andy Miller - were also honored on Bobby Bowden Field at Doak Cambell Stadium during FSU football's 2011 season-opening football game versus Louisiana-Monroe.

A recent addition to Semrau's coaching staff, Wyckoff was hired by her alma mater in the summer 2011. Wyckoff spent nine years in the WNBA, playing for the Orlando Miracle, Connecticut Sun and the Chicago Sky.

Wyckoff was one of the top high school players in the country but chose to leave West Chester, Ohio, to play for Sue Semrau and Florida State. She made an immediate impact setting an FSU record with 80 blocked shots as a freshman in 1997.

She went on to earn All-ACC honors as a sophomore and junior and capped her senior season (2001) with first team All-ACC honors as well as All-America honors. She was also FSU's only four-time Academic All-ACC performer and received an ACC postgraduate scholarship.

Wyckoff scored 1,350 points over her storied FSU career and finished as the second best shot blocker the Seminoles have ever produced with 209. She grabbed 804 career rebounds to also rank among FSU's all-time Top 10.

HALL OF FAME

BEV BURNETT HALL OF FAME 2012

Tallahassee native Bev Burnett rounded out her Florida State career as one of the most prolific scorers in school history. A four-year letterwinner from 1985-89, Burnett finished her career with 1,509 points, a mark that ranks seventh in FSU history. She also ranks sixth all-time in scoring average at 15.6 points per game.

A team captain, the 5-foot-9 forward earned All-Metro Conference First Team honors in both

Burnett is a six-time member of the FSU 30-point club and her 34 points vs. both Florida A&M (1986) and Virginia Tech (1988) is tied for the eighth-most points scored in a game by a Seminole. She was also named a third team All-American by the American Women's Sports Federation in 1988 and has numerous conference player of the week honors to her credit.

She became the fifth women's basketball player inducted into the FSU Hall of Fame.

2014-15 FSU WOMEN'S BASKETBALL ON THE RADIO AT WQTL-FM 106.1

JONATHAN SCHILLACE

Florida State fans can follow the Seminoles whether on the road or at home on the new radio station for FSU Women's Basketball - WQTL (106.1 FM). Every regular season and postseason game can be heard throughout the season, as well as pre-game talk and post-game interviews with head coach Sue Semrau and a few selected student-athletes.

Every game will also be broadcast for free this season over the internet on Seminoles.com, the official athletics website of Florida State University.

Jonathan Schillace is in his second season as the play-by-play broadcaster. However, Schillace is no stranger to the program; in 2011, he called preseason games and in 2012 called 10 home games as well as the San Juan Shootout in Puerto Rico before completing his first full season in 2013-14. He is the co-host of the "Sue Semrau TV Show" and enters his second year as the coordinating producer for the Seminole IMG Sports Network football broadcasts, which includes football games and the Jimbo Fisher call-in show every Wednesday night throughout football season.

Last year, Schillace was promoted to Assistant Director in the Digital Media Department. Schillace produces video content for the university's official athletics website, Seminoles.com. He is the creative mind behind the wildly-popular "Schillace in Your Face" online videos. He is a recent graduate of Florida State University where he earned his undergraduate degree in business management in the spring of 2012 and a Master's in sport management in the summer of 2013.

In addition to providing play-by-play for the FSU women's basketball team, Schillace has also done color commentary for FSU baseball, play-by-play for FSU soccer, and ESPN3 play-by-play for Seminole softball.

Prior to his work with Seminoles.com, Schillace was an anchor with WFSU, a reporter/producer with FSU Headlines and interned with WTSP, the CBS affiliate in the Tampa Bay area.

Joining Schillace will be color analyst Melissa Bruner. Bruner is the women's basketball Director of Basketball Operations and is in her eighth season providing radio and TV analysis for the Seminoles. Bruner also serves as a color analyst for many of Florida State's ESPN3 matchups at home, breaking down each game and giving off her insightful and introspective knowledge of FSU Women's Basketball.
