THIS IS FSU WOMEN'S HOOPS

Florida State's 57 wins over the last two years is its most in a two-year period in program history.

The Seminoles are one of just EIGHT programs to make the NCAA Sweet 16 the last two years.

sons, FSU has spent 104 weeks in the AP Top 25.

Over the past nine seasons, FSU has spent 20 weeks in the AP Top 10.

just seven schools to reach 30 or more wins.

THIS IS FSU WOMEN'S HOOPS

The Seminoles have finished in the TOP 10 nationally in rebound margin and scoring margin in each of the last two years.

In the 2014-15 season, Florida State solidified its claim as one of the nation's top programs:

- Ranked seventh in the final USA Today Poll on April 8, marking FSU's highest final ranking ever.
- Reached the NCAA Elite Eight for the second time in school history with a 66-65 win over No. 3 seed Arizona State.
- Was the only Division I men's or women's team to out-rebound every opponent in the regular season. FSU outrebounded its opponents in 36 of its 37 games played overall.
- Finished 18-3 in non-conference play and boasted an average scoring margin of +20.2 against opponents outside of ACC play.
- The Seminoles held a double-digit lead in 25 of their last 27 games played, including a stretch of 22 straight games. Overall, FSU won 27 of their 32 games by double digits.
- The Seminoles earned a school-record six AP Top 25 victories (No. 13 Duke, No. 25 Syracuse, No. 4 Louisville, No. 10 Louisville, No. 20 FGCU and No. 9 Arizona State). Three of those nationally-ranked wins were against Top 10 opponents.

School records were shattered in what was an awe-inspiring 2014-15 season:

- Broke the school record for most wins after finishing 32-5. FSU broke the first Elite Eight team's 29-6 mark in 2009-10.
- Finished undefeated at the Donald L. Tucker Center in the regular season (14-0) for the first time in program history.
- Reached the ACC championship game for the first time in program history.
- Earned a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament, its highest seed ever.
- Shattered the single-season school records for total offensive rebounds (625), defensive rebounds (986) and total rebounds (1,611).
- Set a then-program record for its longest win streak in ACC play, winning nine consecutive conference games from Jan. 8-Feb. 8.

CREATING THE CULTURE

The Donald L. Tucker Center is an entertaining venue to watch women's basketball:

- Florida State is coming off a season where it drew over 50,000 fans (50,258) to its home venue at the Donald L. Tucker Center.
- The Seminoles averaged over 3,000 fans for the second straight season, averaging 3,141 in 2015-16.
- In 2014-15, FSU averaged 1,007 more fans than the previous season of 2013-14, the sixth largest increase in the nation. The great improvement is a sign that Seminole fans are fully embracing the quality play from the program.
- The Donald L. Tucker Center has been a difficult place for opponents to play, as evidenced by FSU winning 33 of its last 34 games played in Tallahassee.
- The 2014-15 season witnessed FSU going undefeated at home with a 16-0 record, including two wins in the NCAA First and Second Rounds where an average of 5,154 flooded the Tucker Center. FSU then finished 15-1 at its home venue in 2015-16.

The demand for FSU Women's Basketball is higher than ever:

- The Donald L. Tucker Center has become a trendy place in Tallahassee to watch FSU Women's Basketball. The success of the program has allowed gameday attendance to spike over the last two years.
- For the second straight season, reserved seating is being offered for fans who are looking to secure the best seats in the facility. By the team's season opener on Nov. 11 against Jacksonville State, reserved seating season tickets could surpass 1,500 purchases.
- Florida State has garnered its third highest USA TODAY preseason ranking, earning a No. 12 ranking on Oct. 27.

FSU Women's Hoops has generated plenty of publicity through local and national media:

- Through the consistent coverage of local media outlets such as The Tallahassee Democrat, WTXL, WCTV, the FSView, Seminoles.com and more, the Florida State Women's Basketball program is always in the news.
- During the season, FSU Women's Basketball student-athletes and coaches hold weekly interview sessions at the Basketball Training Center. The interviews serve as a way to fulfill demand by the media and a chance for student-athletes to refine their public speaking skills.
- In the 2014-15 season, national outlets including ESPNW spotlighted various Seminoles and featured FSU prominently on its run to the NCAA Elite Eight. Prominent coverage continued in the team's 2015-16 run to the NCAA Sweet 16.
- Two powerful stories have surfaced over the last two seasons: Former player Adut Bulgak's incredible journey from war-torn Sudan to Florida State, and Gabby Bevillard's "Shot of a Lifetime" for her mother in 2015.

Playing on ESPN-affiliated networks has become the norm at Florida State:

- The Seminoles enter the 2016-17 season having 77 of their last 103 games televised, equivalent to nearly 75 percent.
- This upcoming season features a regular-season slate where 21 of FSU's 30 regular-season games will be televised. FSU will have 14 games air exclusively on the ACC Network Extra/ESPN3, as well as three games on ESPN2, two on the ACC's regional sports networks, one on the Big Ten Network and one as part of the ESPN Flex package.
- FSU's exciting TV schedule includes two marquee home games: An ESPN2 contest vs. UConn on Nov. 14 that begins ESPN's College Basketball Tip-off Marathon, and a Big Monday ESPN2 game vs. Texas (Feb. 13).
- The 2016-17 ACC Tournament in Conway, S.C., will also be broadcast on the ACC Network, ESPNU and ESPN2.

WNBA CONNECTIONS

There aren't many women's basketball teams that can tout 10-year WNBA veterans among its alumni. Florida State can count a couple during Sue Semrau's tenure. In addition to current assistant coach Brooke Wyckoff, who spent nine years in the WNBA, Roneeka Hodges just completed her 11th season in the American professional league.

The 2005 Florida State graduate began her career with the Houston Comets (2005-08) before spending time with the Minnesota Lynx (2009), San Antonio Silver Stars (2010-11), the Indiana Fever (2012), the Tulsa Shock (2012-14) and the Atlanta Dream (2015).

Hodges, a 5-11 guard, was traded to the Shock halfway through the 2012 season, and started 16 games for the squad while averaging 10.5 ppg.

"I've been lucky," Hodges said. "I've had great seasons, and I'm very grateful for the opportunity. I'm thankful for the opportunity Coach Sue and FSU gave me. (Being the star at FSU) got me seen and got me known. It sparked my career."

Hodges transferred to the Seminoles from LSU in 2004. Her one season with the Noles was a memorable one. Hodges captured All-ACC First Team honors and led the Seminoles to a 24-8 record and a second-round appearance in the NCAA Tournament. She averaged 19.2 points per game and set a school record at the time for scoring in a game, dropping 39 points in a thrilling win over Maryland.

"My time at Florida State was short, but it was amazing," Hodges said. "That season was great in general. We got to the tournament for the first time in a while We started building something special at Florida State."

Hodges was selected 15th overall in the WNBA Draft right after her season completed. She gives credit to Seminoles' head coach Sue Semrau and Florida State for helping develop her game and gain the maturity that comes with a professional basketball career.

"At FSU I became more of an all-around player and I learned a lot about the game," she said. "I love Coach

FLORIDA STATE

Sue and FSU. Coach Sue and the staff were great people. Florida State got me prepared for adversity and it made me stronger mentally."

Hodges has also carved out a career overseas, playing for a European club nearly every WNBA offseason. In 2011, Hodges averaged 15.5 points per game for Istanbul Universitesi om Turkey. She began the 2012 season with Perfumerias Avenida in Spain.

"It's great," Hodges said. "I've been able to experience so many different cultures and learn so many life lessons playing in different countries. I've taken a lot from my career over there. I've had a lot of unique experiences."

Hodges also spent a season earlier in her career playing with Wyckoff in the Canary Islands in Spain.

"Brooke and I played one year in Spain together," she said. "That was one of my best years – in the Canary Islands."

Hodges has no complaints about her profession and feels lucky to have a career she enjoys - whether its in the United States or overseas.

"I've grown a lot from playing overseas," she said. "It's been great getting to experience the world, and on top of it - getting paid to do something you love. It's a different lifestyle, but it's great to make a living playing basketball."

Hodges is part of a long line of FSU players who have played professionally in recent years. Recently, center Cierra Bravard earned a spot on the Seattle Storm, while Leonor Rodriguez and Chelsea Davis each are playing overseas in Spain. Natasha Howard finished her third season in the WNBA, while Adut Bulgak played in her first.

FLORIDA STATE BASKETBALL MILESTONES

4-TIME ACC COACH OF THE YEAR

Sue Semrau became the 10th head coach in Florida State women's basketball history in 1997-98 and quickly took the program to new heights, guiding the Seminoles to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 10 years in 2001 before leading FSU to an unprecedented seven-straight NCAA Tournaments from 2005-11. The four-time ACC Coach of the Year (2001, 2005, 2009, 2015) helped guide the United States U18 and U19 teams to gold medals in 2010 and 2011, respectively. Semrau is the all-time winningest coach in FSU history.

FLORIDA'S FIRST

Led by all-time leading scorer, Sue Galkantas (2,323 points), the Seminoles advanced to their firstever NCAA Tournament during the 1982-83 season, becoming the first school from the state of Florida to advance to the "Big Dance."

BURNS THE BEST

Wanda Burns led FSU to one the greatest seasons in school history in 1991, guiding the Seminoles to a 25-7 record and the Metro Conference Championship in their final year in the league. Burns averaged 18.5 ppg and was named Metro Conference Player of the Year as FSU advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the second consecutive year.

WYCKOFF LEADS 2001 NOLES

Led by senior star and current assistant coach Brooke Wyckoff, Florida State advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1991 in 2001. Wyckoff, Levys Torres and April Taylor all earned All-ACC honors for the 19-12 Seminoles. A highlight of the season came when the Noles upset No. 4 Duke, 71-69, in Durham for the first time since 1993. Led by Traylor's 30 points, FSU defeated Tulane, 72-70, in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

FLORIDA STATE BASKETBALL MILESTONES 09-10 ACC CHAMPS

In 2009, the Seminoles finished with a 12-2 mark in conference play to capture their first regular season ACC title. A year later FSU did it again, compiling another 12-2 ACC mark to lead the conference in 2010. Florida State captured 11 different all-conference awards during the two-year streak.

HODGES HANGS 39 ON TERPS

Senior star Roneeka Hodges scored a then-school-record 39 points to lead FSU to a 95-91 overtime win over No. 15 Maryland on Jan. 16, 2005, in Tallahassee. The Seminoles came back from 12 down in the second half, and Hodges scored seven points in the extra frame.

The entertaining 2012-13 season was highlighted by a school-record three All-ACC First Team selections for FSU. They include guards Alexa Deluzio (pictured below) and Leonor Rodriguez and forward Natasha Howard.

EXAMPLE 1 EXAMPLE 1 EXAMP

FLORIDA STATE BASKETBALL MILESTONES THREE-SEED-THREE-PEAT

AN ALL-AMERICAN TRADITION

Numerous Seminoles have garnered All-America honors through the years, beginning with Sue Galkantas in 1983 and most recently by Adut Bulgak, Leticia Romero and Shakayla Thomas in 2016. Other notable FSU All-Americans include: Bev Burnett (1988), Wanda Burns (1991), Tia Paschal (1993) and Brooke Wyckoff (2001).

In 2009, Florida State was awarded its then-highest ever seed in the NCAA Tournament - a No. 3 seed in the Duluth Region. A year later, in 2010, the Seminoles nabbed a No. 3 seed again - this time in the Dayton Region. In 2011, the Seminoles completed the No. 3 seed three-peat at the Dallas Region.

The importance of success in academics is a pillar of the FSU women's basketball program as Seminole student-athletes have captured over 100 ACC Academic Honor Roll and Academic All-ACC selections. Three former FSU stars have even earned ACC Postgraduate Scholarships: Christy Derlak (1993-94), Brooke Wyckoff (2000-01) and Christian Hunnicutt (2010-11).

POST-GRADUATE SCHOLARS

FLORIDA STATE BASKETBALL MILESTONES THE ACC'S BEST

Since joining the ACC in 1991, FSU has captured over 50 all-conference honors, including recent All-ACC First-Team award winners Jacinta Monroe (2010) and Cierra Bravard (2011), and 2011 ACC Defensive Player of the Year Christian Hunnicutt.

NCAA STREAK

From 2005 to 2011, the Florida State women's basketball team was a mainstay in the 'Big Dance,' not just advancing to the NCAA Tournament, but winning a game seven years in a row.

SECOND TIME ELITE

The 2014-15 season will go down as the best in school history with a program record 32 wins. FSU advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight once again, defeating No. 3-seeded Arizona State 66-65. The Noles had five players average double figures in their outstanding season.

FSU LEGEND SAYS GOODBYE

Natasha Howard cemented herself as arguably the greatest all-around player in Florida State women's basketball history with an unbelievable senior season. Included was a school-record 40-point game against Syracuse, establishing a school-record 41 career double-doubles and finishing fourth in school history with 20.5 points per game in 2013-14. As a senior, she produced FIVE 30-point games, becoming the first Seminole to accomplish the feat.

A PAIR OF SEMINOLES MAKE MEMORIES IN RIO

• Seminoles Leticia Romero and Leonor Rodriguez became members of Spain's first Olympic medalist basketball team, earning the silver at the 2016 Summer Olympic Games in Rio.

- Romero and Rodriguez became the 11th and 12th Olympic medalists at Florida State, and were the first FSU athletes to finish with a silver medal since former track & field athlete Kim Batten won silver at the 400 meter hurdles in 1996.
- Romero averaged 5.8 points off the bench, including a superb 16-point game (6-of-6 shooting) in 14 minutes of play vs. China.
- Rodriguez delivered 12 points in 14 minutes off the bench in a 97-43 win over Senegal, highlighting her breakthrough moment.

NOTABLES

- The Seminoles have five all-conference performers suiting up this season. They include: Leticia Romero (All-ACC), Shakayla Thomas (All-ACC; Sixth Player of the Year), Brittany Brown (All-ACC Defensive Team), Imani Wright (All-Big 12 HM) and Chatrice White (All-Big Ten).
- Two-time FSU All-American Leticia Romero is coming off a silver medal finish for Spain in the 2016 Summer Olympic Games in Rio. Entering her senior year, Romero is trying to become the first Seminole ever to be named a three-time All-American. She was an AP All-American in 2015 and a WBCA All-American in 2016.
- An impressive 2016 recruiting class is ready to make an impact for the Seminoles. Ranked as high as fourth by ESPNW, the current freshmen class is rated seventh nationally and includes: Nicole Ekhomu (21), A'Tyanna Gaulden (23), Jasmine Walker (25), Nausia Woolfolk (57) and Iho Lopez.
- Florida State Women's Hoops begins the 2016-17 season with high expec-tations once again. Lindy's has the Seminoles rated 11th in its preseason rankings, while Athlon Sports (12th) and the ESPNW Way-Too-Early Preseason Poll (15th) also have FSU pegged in the Top 15.

Up, up and away they go... The Florida State Women's Basketball program continues to ascend under the tutelage of head coach Sue Semrau. Now entering her 20th season with the Seminoles, Semrau has her program at its very peak and primed for another strong campaign in 2016-17.

Before looking ahead, it cannot be understated the success the women's basketball program has attained in recent years. Looking at the last two years combined, the Seminoles are one of just eight programs nationally who have made at least the NCAA Sweet 16 in each season. Its 57 victories are also the most over a two-year period in the program's history, and it has spent 32 straight weeks in the USA Today Top 25 Coaches Poll.

The list of accomplishments could fill up an entire Unconquered Magazine from pages A-Z. As she prepares for a milestone season coming up with women's hoops, Semrau continues to keep her expectations high.

"We've got a very talented team coming back with a group of freshmen who have great potential," Semrau said. "We've got excellent senior leadership in Leticia Romero, Ivey Slaughter, Brittany Brown and Kai James, as well as some key role players, to help add to what can be a very special group."

Creating most of the offseason buzz was Romero, who joined with FSU Women's Basketball alumna Leonor Rodriguez to win silver for Spain in the 2016 Summer Olympic Games in Rio. Romero earned significant playing time, averaging 5.8 points off the bench and enjoying a breakthrough moment when she delivered 16 points (6-of-6 shooting) in a crucial game vs. China.

The sensational Spaniard is trying to become the first FSU Women's Basketball performer to be named a three-time All-American, having earned the honor as a sophomore and junior.

"I'm so proud of (Leticia)", Semrau added. "She went into the Olympics with an attitude of, 'I'm going to give everything that I can for my country and I'm going to learn everything I can so I can be the future of España basketball."

Semrau admires Romero for returning to FSU for her final season, as Romero stressed the importance of getting one final season in with the Noles while also getting her Bachelor's Degree in international affairs. The Las Palmas, Spain, native joins an ultra-talented back-court that includes redshirt junior guard and Baylor transfer Imani Wright, who will have two years of eligibility left starting this year. An important part of the Bears' success, Wright has unlimited shooting range and can make an impact on the opposite end of the court.

Fans have grown quite accustomed to this year's senior class that includes Romero, Brown, Slaughter and James. Former player Gabby Bevillard remains a part of the 2017 class as well despite retiring two seasons ago following chronic knee injuries. As a student assistant, Bevillard continues to be around the team and remains a constant source of inspiration for never giving in despite her repeated knee injuries.

"This is a special senior class," Semrau said of the group that has gone 78-25 and won nearly 76 percent of its games. "They've all battled through their ups and downs and have helped us reach new heights as a program. It would be wonderful to send them out having accomplished even more things that haven't been reached yet."

Junior Shakayla Thomas has proven to be a near-unstoppable force when she gets the ball on the block or on the wing, and comes back looking to be a prolific scorer once again. She is joined by fellow junior and center Ama Degbeon, who is on track to provide substantial minutes this season.

On Sept. 23, transfer center Chatrice White was granted immediate eligibility by the NCAA to further bolster FSU's depth and talent. The former All-Big Ten player at Illinois will give the Seminoles added size and skill to compete with the nation's best.

Perhaps no greater improvement was made by a single player from start to finish last year than sophomore forward Maria Conde. The Madrid, Spain native became a reliable defensive presence who could get to the cup offensively. Her length and athleticism could pose more problems for opponents.

A standout freshman class includes talented guards Nicole Ekhomu, A'Tyanna Gaulden and Nausia Woolfolk. Combining with power forward Jasmine Walker and forward Iho Lopez, the group is ranked as the seventh best recruiting class nationally by ESPNW.

Based on ESPNW's Early Top 25 rankings, FSU faces eight teams on the list including seven at home. The highlighted home slate includes matchups with four-time defending national champion UConn (Nov. 14, 6 p.m., ESPN2), rival Florida (Dec. 8, 6 p.m., ACCNE), NC State (Jan. 2, 7 p.m., ACCNE), Louisville (Jan. 12, 7 p.m., ACCNE), Syracuse (Jan. 19, 7 p.m., ACCNE), Miami (Feb. 6, 7 p.m., RSN) and Texas (Feb. 13, 7 p.m., ESPN2).

"This is one of the most competitive home schedules we've ever put together. It may be the best ever," Semrau said. "To have seven preseason Top 25 opponents playing at your place, both in and out of conference, is tremendous for our fans. Every game at the Tucker Center will be full of excitement. In general, our schedule is tough whether it's at home, on the road or at our neutral site."

Rising to the challenge is nothing new for FSU Women's Basketball, especially after battling through several road blocks in year's past to get to where they are today. The goal of FSU has been to consistently build a Top-10 program and reach the NCAA Final Four and beyond. The Seminoles continue to take the steps in the right direction, with the 2016-17 season offering yet another possibility of a program crossing another major accomplishment off its checklist.

Florida State Women's Basketball Sue Semrau has shown unmatched loyalty to the Seminole program, preparing for her 20th season as head coach in Tallahassee in 2016-17. A four-time winner of the ACC Coach of the Year award and Florida State's all-time leader in wins, Semrau has earned a reputation as a coach that not only keeps her team in the national rankings by leading her players to victory but also one that helps foster the personal and professional growth of the student-athletes.

"Coach Sue" has guided the Seminoles to 12 NCAA Tournaments, including two Elite Eight appearances in 2010 and 2015, four NCAA Sweet 16s in 2007, 2010, 2015 and 2016, won a pair of gold medals with USA Basketball and has seen 30 student-athletes earn academic all-conference honors. Over the last eight years, Florida State has averaged over 24 wins per season and had 15 players sign professional contracts either in the WNBA or with a European club team. Six Seminoles have been selected in the WNBA Draft since 2009, most recently Adut Bulgak being chosen in the first round by the New York Liberty in 2016. FSU's last three WNBA Draft picks in Bulgak, Natasha Howard (fifth in 2014) and Jacinta Monroe (sixth in 2010) have all gone in the first round.

Semrau is so respected among her peers in the coaching community that she was named president of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association in the summer 2013 after serving as the vice president since 2010. Semrau recently finished up her tenure as WBCA President following the 2014-15 season.

This Past Season

The Seminoles made their second straight NCAA Sweet 16 appearance and finished with an overall record of 25-8. FSU's back-to-back round of 16 bids marked the first for the program in consecutive fashion, and the Seminoles were one of just eight programs who made it the regional semifinals in both 2015 and 2016.

FSU finished 13-3 in the ACC in 2015-16. its second-most wins in the conference since joining in 1991-92. The Seminoles ended at 12th in the final USA Today Coaches Poll, its third-highest final ranking ever. FSU will enter the 2016-17 campaign having spent 32 consecutive weeks in the Top 25, and managed to stay in the Top 15 wire-to-wire for the first time ever in 2015-16. Three WBCA All-Americans emerged in Semrau's 19th season, including Bulgak, point guard Leticia Romero and forward Shakayla Thomas.

Molding True Student-Athletes

As successful as Florida State has been on the court. Semrau's commitment to community service is just as important to her program's identity. Once again in 2015-16, Semrau partnered the Seminoles with Samaritan's Feet, a non-profit organization dedicated to changing lives through shoe distributions around the world. Semrau annually coached a game barefoot in an effort to raise money, and the Seminoles took a break from the 2010 Junkanoo Jam in the Bahamas to give back on Thanksgiving. In 2016, FSU once again participated in this endeavor and held a shoe distribution in the Tallahassee community.

The 2014-15 Seminoles once again fulfilled their duties of giving back to the community and making strong connections within the Big Bend area. FSU influenced both children and adults by visiting schools, playgrounds and other locations that allowed it to positively impact and connect with the community. The sight of FSU Women's Basketball coaches and studentathletes performing good deeds around the community is not an uncommon one.

Additionally, the Seminoles have been known to extend a helping hand when on the road, making visits to the Boys and Girls Club at the Coalition for the Homeless in Orlando and elementary schools in Harlem, West Chester and Wadsworth, Ohio and Martinsville, Ind., as well as the Duke Hospital in Durham, N.C.

In August 2013, Semrau and the Seminoles held a basketball clinic for youth in Dakar, Senegal, in addition to visiting an orphanage during the team's 2013 Foreign Tour.

These efforts have molded countless Seminoles into superstars in the game of life following their hoops careers. Current assistant coach Brooke Wyckoff (Class of 2001) and Christian Hunnicutt (Class of 2011) each earned prestigious ACC Postgraduate Scholarships, while Vanessa Fuchs (Class of 2001) served as Interim Athletics Director at Florida State and is currently the Seminoles' Senior Women's Administrator.

Recent Success

The 2009-10 season served as the perfect example of just how strong the Florida State's women's basketball program has become under Semrau. The Seminoles captured their second consecutive regular-season ACC Co-Championship and made it all the way to the Elite Eight of the annual NCAA Tournament as a then-program-best No. 3 seed for the second straight season. Along the way, FSU set the school record for most wins in a season with 29, most conference triumphs ever with 12 and highest national ranking ever at No. 9. Those three school marks were all broken by the 2014-15 team.

After the 2009-10 season was complete, star forward Jacinta Monroe was taken sixth overall in the 2010 WNBA Draft by the Washington Mystics; a draft slot that was the highest ever for an FSU women's basketball player prior to Natasha Howard's selection as the fifth pick by the Indiana Fever in 2014.

During a 24-8 campaign in 2010-11, the Seminoles extended their NCAA Tournament streak to seven consecutive years, nabbing another No. 3 seed. Along the way, forward Cierra Bravard nabbed honorable mention All-America honors and teamed with point guard Courtney Ward to capture All-ACC accolades. Overall, Semrau has guided eight players to All-America honors in her 18 years.

It could be argued that Semrau's best coaching job occurred in the 2014-15 record-setting year where new accomplishments were being made seemingly every game. Florida State finished with a 32-5 overall record, shattering the school record for wins while also setting new records for ACC wins (14), Top 25 wins (6) and regular-season victories (27). For the first time ever, the Seminoles finished undefeated at the Donald L. Tucker Center, going 16-0. FSU highlighted its year by earning a 66-65 win over No. 3 seed Arizona State in the NCAA Sweet 16 in Greensboro, N.C., reaching its second Elite Eight appearance in program history. The Noles finished second in the ACC regular season with a 14-2 record, reached the ACC Tournament title game for the first time ever and garnered a program-best No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament before taking down Alabama State (91-49) and 20th-ranked FGCU (65-47) in the first two rounds at the Tucker Center.

Semrau earned several national and conference coaching honors after FSU was predicted to finish fifth in the ACC and ultimately steam-rolled most of its competition. She was named the ACC Coach of the Year by the Blue Ribbon Panel and the ACC coaches. Semrau was also named the ESPNW National Coach of the Year, the WBCA Coach of the Year and the Associated Press Coach of the Year. Many college basketball fans, media and other personnel took notice of the way Coach Sue was able to blend a team with six new players and create one of the most collective, team-oriented and entertaining groups in the sport.

Semrau's fourth ACC Coach of the Year honor gives her the distinction of having the most among active ACC coaches.

The fact that the 2014-15 team became the first in program history to average five double-figure scorers proves how well a new cast of faces played together under Semrau's system. Offensively, the Noles averaged 75.5 points which was their highest in the last 24 years. FSU also set the singleseason record for 3-point field goals made (216), offensive rebounds (625), defensive rebounds (986) and total rebounds (1,611). One of its most impressive feats was being the only Division I basketball team - men's or women's - to out-rebound every opponent during the regular season. Overall, FSU out-rebounde 36 of its 37 opponents.

Changed Culture

Semrau's 373 career win total with the Seminoles more than doubles the second-most victories by an FSU coach (Marynell Meadors, 132), and her tenure has accounted for 12 of FSU's 15 all-time NCAA Tournament appearances. Semrau basically built the Seminoles from scratch, as she inherited a program coming off a 5-22 record in 1996-97 and hadn't reached double figures in wins in four years.

By her fourth year, Semrau had completely turned the program around, capturing a 19-12 record and the first NCAA Tournament appearance in a decade. The 2000-01 season served as the jumpstart for unprecedented success.

FSU had only four 20-win seasons before Semrau guided the Noles to six 20-win seasons over a seven-year stretch beginning in 2004-05. She has now led the Noles to 10 20-win campaigns through 19 seasons, including a 32-win season in 2014-15.

A Respected and Seasoned Coach

Prior to coming to Florida State, Semrau served three years as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Wisconsin under Jane Albright. While in Madison, she contributed to the Badgers' three-straight winning seasons and two NCAA Tournament appearances, including the program's first ever back-to-back 20-win seasons. Semrau first joined Albright at Northern Illinois in 1991 where she assisted in leading NIU to three consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances.

Before her hiring at Northern Illinois, Semrau served as head women's basketball coach and assistant athletic director at Occidental College in Los Angeles for four years where she compiled a 51-47 overall record. She also coached soccer for two seasons and was responsible for the administrative duties of fundraising and promotions at the Division III institution.

Semrau also worked as the public relations and promotions director for the L.A. Heat professional soccer team from 1986-87, and as the public relations director for the Seattle Storm soccer team in the previous year.

A native of Seattle, Wash., Semrau is a graduate of Shorecrest High School. She went on to attend the University of Puget Sound for two years. Semrau transferred to the University of California-San Diego in 1984 where she was a team co-captain and Co-MVP. She graduated in 1985 with a bachelor's degree in communications and received her master's degree in athletic administration from the University of Southern California in 1988.

1997-98

SUE SEMRAU is hired as Florida State's head coach – the program's third new coach in three years. The program is coming off of a 5-22 season, including a winless season in ACC play at 0-16. In her first season at the helm of the program, Sue Semrau leads Florida State to its most victories since 1992-93 (9-18) and its best ACC record (5-11) and finish since 1992-93, including its largest victory by margin over an ACC opponent (88-53 over Georgia Tech). Latavia Coleman was named Second Team AIFACC while Brooke Wyckoff was named to the ACC AIF freshman Team.

1998-99

THE SEMINOLES were 5-5 when leading scorer Latavia Coleman was lost for the season with a torn ACL and the team won just two more games the rest of the season and finished 7-20. Sue Semrau and her staff signed the No. 8 ranked recruiting class in the nation. Brooke Wyckoff was named Third Team All-ACC while April Traylor was named to the ACC All-Freshman Team.

1999-00

SUE SEMRAU LED FSU to a 12-18 record while the Seminoles played 12 games against NCAA Tournament teams and eight nationally-ranked teams. The Seminoles were competitive as seven of the team's ACC losses were by five points or less. FSU won its first round game at the ACC Tournament with a 65-60 victory over Maryland marking the first time the Seminoles had won a game in the tournament. Latavia Coleman scored 31 points in that game and became the first Seminole since 1993 to earn ACC Tournament First Team honors. For the season, Coleman was named Second Team While April Traylor earned Honorable Mention honors. Coleman became the first Seminole to be drafted to the WNBA as a third round selection and the 48° pick overall.

2000-01

IN SUE SEMRAU'S fourth year, she led Florida State to the program's best season in a decade. What a year it was and it started early as the Seminoles practiced 10 days in August before embarking on a 10-day European adventure to France and Switzerland where they played four games and won them by an average of 47 points. The Seminoles went on to record the program's most wins (19-12) in 10 years, advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since the 1990-91 season and had their first winning season since 1991-92. FSU S 97-ACC record was the program's best record and finish (tied for 3rd) in league play. FSU finished ranked No. 25 nationally, the program's first national ranking since 1991-92. Semrau was named ACC Coach of the Year. Brooke Wyckoff was named a First Team AII-ACC selection and was the first FSU player since 1992-93 to garner such status. She also earned ACC AII-Defensive Team honors for the second straight season. Levys Torres and April Traylor were named Third Team AII-ACC. Wyckoff was selected in the second round as the 28° werall pick in the WMBA Draft while Torres was a third round selection [37° pick].

2001-02

THE SEMINOLES once again played some of the nation's toughest opponents with five games against Top 10 opponents, 11 games total against Top 25 teams and 12 games against NCAA Tournament teams. Six of FSU's losses (13-15) were by four points or less. Tasheika Morris earned Third Team All-ACC honors. April Traylor was Honorable Mention All-ACC while Genesis Choice was named to the ACC All-Freshman Team.

2002-03

FURTIDA STATE made its second post-season tournament appearance in three years, playing in the WNIT and advancing to the second round. Sue Semrau guided the Seminoles to another winning season [17-13], the second in three years, and to a fourth-place finish in the ACC, which was rated No. 2 among 32 conferences in RPI rankings. Tasheika Morris earned Second Team All-ACC honors while Ganiyat Adeduntan garnered Honorable Mention ACC All-Freshman Team honors.

2003-04

DESPITE THE LOSS of starter LaQuinta Neely just six games into the season, Sue Semrau led the Seminoles to another WNTI appearance, marking the third postseason tournament appearance in four years and to a 15-15 record. Tasheika (Morris) Allen was named Second Team All-ACC while rookie Shante Williams earned Honorable Mention All-ACC honors and All-Freshman Team accolades.

2004-05

THE FLORIDA STATE women's basketball program suffered a tragedy with the sudden death of rising sophomore Ronalda Pierce in June 2004. Sue Semrau provided the strength and leadership to pull her team through the devastation and introduced Phase Two of the program which was about personal responsibility, selflessness and a championship mentality. The Seminoles flourished in the new system and established the best start in school history [12:0] on their way to the program's first 20-win season (24:49) since 1990-91. With a second round appearance in the NCAA Tournament, FSU made its third straight postseason tournament appearance and fourth in a five-year stretch. FSU spent five weeks nationally-ranked and earned its first Associated Press ranking since 1991. Semrau, who guided FSU to another fourth-place ACC finish, was recognized with her second ACC Coach of the Year award while Roneeka Hodges became the third Seminole to earn First Team All-ACC honors. Ganiyat Adeduntan and Alicia Gladden earned Honorable Mention All-ACC recognition while Bladden was also named to the ACC All-Defensive Team. Hodges WMBA Draft pick as the first player called in the second round and heezen FSU's highest WMBA Draft pick as the first player called in the second round and the 15th pick overall.

2005-06

FOLLOWING A 10-DAY tour of Italy in August in which the Seminoles went 4-0 and averaged 97.8 points per game while holding opponents to 47.8 points per game, FSU continued the successi teinyed in 2004 PGE. For just the second time in program history, and first since 1990 and 1991, Florida State participated in back to back NCAA Tournaments as Sue Semrau guided the Seminoles to a 2010 and a second round NCAA Tourney appearance. The Seminoles also enjoyed back-to-back 20-win seasons for just the second time in program history. The Seminoles earned their most ACC wins with a 104 record and another fourthplace finish. Semrau became FSU women's basketball's winningest coach by victories. Alicia Gladden earned Third Team All-ACC honors and was named to the ACC All-Defensive Team for the second straight season. Britany Miller garnered ACC All-Freshman Team honors. FSU had a lot to celebrate with the Class of 2006. The first class to lead FSU to seven or more ACC victories in four consecutive seasons, this group led the team to a record fourth-straight postseason appearance and averaged 19 wins per season which is the most in the Semrau era and second most in FSU history.

2006-07

THE 10TH SEASON under Sue Semrau couldn't have been any sweeter as her 2006-07 squad made school history. A 68-61 victory over Stanford in the second round of the KDAA Tournament sent the Seminoles to their first KDAA Tournament Sweet 16. Florida State had its magical run cut short 55-43 by LSU in the semifinals of the Fresno Regional. The Seminoles ended the season with a 24-10 record to mark the first time in school history that the program put together three-straight 20-win seasons and went to the NCAA Tournament three years in a row. Florida State cracked the top 20 of the final USA Todayl Coaches Poll as its No. 19 ranking is the highest end-of-year ranking and matched the highest rating ever at any point in the season. Senior Alicia Gladden finished her career as the Seminoles if them leads in citals at 275 swipes on her way to her second Third-Team AlI-ACC selection. Rookie forward Jacinta Monroe swatted 63 balls - the third-highest total in school history - to earn her a spot on the ACC All-Freshman team. Within the league ranks, Florida State matched a program-best by finish the league ledger at 10-4.

2007-08

GOOD TIMES continued to roll along for the Florida State women's basketball program as Sue Semrau led the Noles to their fourth consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament where they won a first round game for the fourth consecutive season. The Seminoles downed nationally-ranked Ohio State by a score of 60-49 in Des Moines, Iowa to move Semrau to a perfect 5-0 in the NCAA First Round games. FSU had an All-ACC Honorable Mention pick in Tanae Davis-Cain as well as an All-ACC Academic selection in Mara Freshour while also picking up ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District honors as well. The Seminoles began the season ranked 19th in the country and went up to a program-best No. 18 during the course of the campaign. Semrau led the Seminoles to a 7-7 mark in the ACC, which placed them in a tie for fifth place in the league. Those seven victories gave Semrau a total of 75 ACC triumphs for her career, which is the eighth-best mark in the history of the league. In addition, senior Shante Williams broke the school record for career assists with 451, after putting together three seasons in which she tallied at least 100 dishes. Semrau continued to the lead FSU to in-state dominance as the Seminoles won 12 consecutive games against rivals from the Sunshine State, topped by a thrilling 50-49 victory over Miami during the final week of the regular season. Florida State was one of the top three-point shooting teams in the conference and dropped in a school-record 182 three-pointers, besting the old mark by 16. In addition to being prolific, the Seminoles were accurate from behind the arc, hitting 35.7 percent, which is the best rate since the 1988-89 squad set the record of 43.4 percent the year the three-point line was instituted. Setting the record was a team effort as seven players made at least one three pointers and five hit at least 10 three balls during the season.

2008-09

THE SEMINOLES returned to the tournament for a fifth consecutive time and turned in one of the best seasons in school history. Sue Semrau led her squad to a 26-8 record. Sue Semrau earned her third career ACC Coach of the Year honor for her performance on the bench as she once again helped lead the Seminoles to new heights. The Semi-noles earned their highest NCAA Tournament seed in Seminole annals as well when they earned the third seed in the Trenton Regional. Seniors Mara Freshour and Tanae Davis Cain wrapped up their impressive careers in 08-09 as the duo went out on top with one of the finest seasons for the Seminole program. Freshour and Davis-Cain each earned ACC All-Tournament Second Team honors for their roles in helping Florida State to the second round of the ACC Tournament. The Seminoles were road warriors in O8-O9 as they posted a perfect 10-0 record on the road, including a 7-0 mark in the ACC which helped propel them to a share of the regular season title with Maryland. Jacinta Monroe set a new school single-season blocks record with 84 and became FSU's all-time blocks leader with 225 in just three years. Monroe would be honored by the ACC when she was named to the ACC All-Defensive teams for her efforts on the defensive end of the floor. Also earning plaudits for the Seminoles was freshman Cierra Bravard who turned in a stellar opening campaign en route to being named to the ACC All-Freshman team. In addition to Monroe's defensive honors she was also named to the All-ACC Second Team, while Mara Freshour and Tanae Davis-Cain each earned third team honors. The Seminoles advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the seventh consecutive time

2009-10

FLORIDA STATE followed up its fantastic 2008-09 season with an even better year in 2009-10. When the year had finished, head coach Sue Semrau was able to look back on it as not just the best season in her career but in the history of the program. The Seminoles earned the second-straight regular-season ACC co-championship and advanced to the Big Dance for the sixth consecutive season. Tallahassee served as the host site for the Dayton Regional and FSU promptly dispatched SL John's and Louisiana Tech to advance to the Nevet 16. In Dayton, Semrau's Seminoles took down Mississippi State to earn an Elite Eight berth for the first time ever. Florida State finished the season with a school-record 29 wins to go along with just six losses. The team finished 12-2 in the very difficult ACC for the second year in a row and had two players - Courtney Ward (second team) and Jacinta Monroe (first team) - earn All-Conference accolades. After the season, Semrau's star pupil, Monroe, was selected sixth overall in the WNBA Draft by the Washington Mystics, which is the highest draft slot ever for an FSU women's basketball loaver.

2010-11

IN 2010-11, head coach Sue Semrau's 14th at Florida State, saw the Noles continue their run of successful seasons by advancing to their seventh consecutive NCAA Tournament, grabbing their second-straight No. 3 seed. FSU finished 24t8 - the sixth 20-win season under Semrau - and 11:3 in the ACC. Led by honorable mention All-American and All-ACC First Team honoree Cierra Bravard, the Garnet and Gold made it to the second round of the "Big Dance" and finished ranked No. 15 in the country. Senior guards Christian Humnicutt and Courtney Ward also wrapped up their careers with honors. Hunnicutt became the first Nole named ACC Defensive Player of the Year, while Ward captured third-team All-ACC accolades. Ward ended her career as FSU's all-time leader in three-pointers and assists. Freshman sensation Natasha Howard averaged 10.6 ppg en route to third-team Freshman All-America and All-ACC Freshman Team honors. Ward led the conference in three-point shouting, while sophomora Alexa Beluzio led the ACC in three-point percentage in conference play as FSU led the ACC in team field goal percentage and three-point percentage for the second straight year.

2011-12

THE SEMINOLES streak of seven consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances ended in 2011-12 as FSU finished with a 14-17 record. The Garnet & Gold felt the departure of all-conference point guard Courtney Ward and were forced to move its best scorer and shooter Alexa Deluzio to point guard. Deluzio, a junior, averaged 13.2 ppg and ended up leading the ACC in free throw percentage (91.9 percent) in conference games. She also set an FSU single-season mark from the charity stripe in all games (83.9 percent). Sophomore Natasha Howard had a breakout season, leading the conference in double doubles U2, while earning All-ACC Third Team and ACC All-Defensive Team acclades. Howard led the Seminoles in rebounds, blocks and steals. Her 9.4 rebound average in 16 ACC games led the conference. Senior post Cierra Bravard wrapped up her career with an All-ACC Third Team honor. She led the Seminoles in scoring for the second straight season (14.2 ppg) and ranked second in the ACC in field goal percentage (546).

2012-13

DURING THE 2012-13 SEASON, Horida State had a league-best and a school-record three All ACC First Team selections, advanced to the NCAA Tournament second round and tallied its eighth 20-win season with Semrau at the helm. Senior guards Leonor Rodriguez [14,9] points per game] and Alexa Beluzio [13,8 pog] led an FSU Offense that had five players averaging double figures at the end of the regular season and finished in the top 10 nationally in both scoring and filed goal percentage. The Seminoles '74.8 points per game average and .453 shooting percentage were their highest marks in over 20 years. Deluzio and Rodriguez joined junior Natasha Howard on the All-ACC First Team, while senior forward Chasity Clayton collected ACC Sixth Player of the Year honors. Horida State tallied a 23-10 record and placed fourth in the ACC. At the end of the season, Semrau was honored with the Kay Yow Heart of a Coach Award from the Fellowship of Christian Athletes at the WBCA Convention in New Orleans.

2013-14

ADVERSITY hit Florida State in the preseason when a few injuries hampered the team's depth heading into the season, but the Seminoles managed to make their ninth NCAA Tournament appearance in the last 1D seasons. F3D finished the 2013-14 campaign with a 21-12 overall record and reached the NCAA Second Round in its 11th straight NCAA Tournament appearance. FSU's string of 11 straight NCAA postseason appearances with ane victory is second in the current ACC behind only Duke (21). Senior forward Natasha Howard had an incredible season to lead FSU, averaging 20.5 points, 9.3 rebounds and shooting 59.4 percent from the floor. Howard ended her FSU career with All-America honors from the WBCA and Associated Press, was an All-ACC First Team member (Blue Ribbon and Coaches) and also a Wada Trophy finalist. Fellow senior Cheetah Delgado set the FSU single-season record for assists with 216, and broke the single-game assists record with 15 against Boston College on "Paint it Pink" Day. The dynamic duo helped FSU to a fulfilling season, highlighted by a 55-44 win over No. 7 seed Towa State in the first round of the NCAA fournament in Ames, Lowa. The Noles finished with 10 Top 100 RPI wins.

2014-15

IT IS VERY LIKELY that the 2014-15 season was the best year in Florida State Women's Basketball history. The Seminoles finished with a school-record 32 wins (32-5) while advancing to their second NCAA Elite Eight. FSU finished the season ranked seventh in the final USA TODAV Coaches Pollon April 8, and became the first team in school history to have five players averaging double figures. One of the trademarks for the Seminoles was interior toughness, as through the regular season FSU was the only Division I men's or women's team to out-rebound all its opponents. Junior center Adut Bulgak and sophomore guard Leticia Romero were named Associated Press All-Americans, while Bulgak also was named an All-American by the WBCA. In addition to their selection to the All-ACC first and second teams, respectively, freshman forward Shakayla Thomas was the ACC Sixth Player of the Year and an All-ACC freshman Team member. Unranked in the preseason, the Seminoles came out of nowhere to finish perfect at home (16-0), earn a No. 2 seed in the ACC Tournament and also get selected as a No. 2 seed for the NCAA Tournament. Head Coach Sue Semrau was rewarded for her magnificent effort, being namet 2015 National Coach of the Year by the Kasociated Press. SPNW and the WBCA.

2015-16

BACKTO-BACK NCAA Sweet 16 appearances highlighted another strong season for the Seminoles. FSU finished 25:8 overall and went 13:3 in the ACC, its second-most wins in the conference ever. FSU finished 12th in the final USA Today Coaches Poll, marking the third highest final ranking ever for the program. Three WBCA All-Americans were honored in center Adut Bulgak, point guard Leticia Romero and forward Shakayla Thomas, with Romero and Bulgak aming All-America status for the second time in their FSU careers. The Seminoles ranked in the nation's Top 10 in two key categories: rebound margin [fifth] and scoring margin [10th]. One of their most impressive feats of the 2015-16 season was a dominant 11-game win streak in ACC play from Jan. 7-feb. 14, 2016. During the stretch, SU led for 415 minutes and 18 seconds of the 440 total minutes played. FSU aemed a No. 5 seed in the NCAA Tournament and won the first-and-second round quadrant in College Station, Texas. The Seminoles upended No. 4 seed Texas ABM on its home floor, 74-56, to become one of just eight programs to make NCAA Sweet 16 appearances in each of the last two seasons.

SINCE HIS ARRIVAL, FLORIDA STATE IS 296-131 (.693) IN THE LAST 13 SEASONS

Horida State women's basketball associate head coach Lance White has developed a reputation as one of college basketball's best game-planners and recruiters. It's no secret that his connection with the Seminoles over the last 13 years has resulted in a dramatic rise in the program's success.

During his 13 years with the Garnet and Gold, FSU has gone 296-131 (.693) and recorded 10 20win seasons. Responsible for Florida State's offensive principles, White had another strong showing on the sidelines in FSU's 25-8 campaign in 2015-16.

Last year's Seminole squad reached the NCAA Sweet 16 for the second consecutive year, shooting 45.6 percent from the floor to mark its highest field goal percentage in a season since the 1992-93 year. FSU's marksmanship from the field was the 15th-best nationally.

Led by all-conference seasons once again from Shakayla Thomas and Adut Bulgak, FSU eclipsed 900 field goals made for the eighth time in program history and just the fourth time as ACC members.

What is known as the best season in school history in 2014-15, Florida State emerged as one of the most entertaining teams to watch in college basketball. White's emphasis on spacing the floor, sharing the ball and looking for the fast break culminated in FSU averaging 75.5 points per game - its highest point production in 24 years.

One of White's seemingly hardest tasks to tackle at the start of the season was to create a cohesive offense with several new faces. He accomplished that and plenty more, as the Seminoles became the first team in program history to average five double-figure scorers. The Noles finished in the Top 15 nationally in scoring margin (eighth, 18.2), field goal percentage (13th, 45.0) and offensive rebounds per game (13th, 17.0). The Noles' team-oriented offensive attack was also highlighted by their 585 total assists, the fifth time they recorded 500⁺ assists in a season and just the second time since 1994-95.

FSU ended its tremendous 2014-15 campaign making 1,053 field goals, the second-most in school history. The offense of junior center All-American Adut Bulgak and sophomore guard All-American Leticia Romero sparked a unit that looked as if it had played together for several years prior. Bulgak added an All-ACC First Team selection, Romero earned second-team honors and freshman forward Shakayla Thomas was the ACC Sixth Player of the Year and an All-ACC freshman Team member.

The 2014:15 group set endless program marks that will be hard to top, including most wins (32), most 3-point field goals made (216), highest final ranking (seventh), most ACC wins (14), most Top 25 wins (6) and most home wins at the Donald L. Tucker Center (16).

White played a vital part in the development of several Florida State student-athletes in the 2013-14 season, most notably Natasha Howard and Cheetah Delgado. Howard posted five 3D-point games en route to earning All-America honors from the Associated Press and Women's Basketball Coaches Association. Delgado had a remarkable year at the point guard spot, breaking the single-season record for assists at FSU with 216 and averaging the most by an ACC player (743) since the 2007-08 season.

The blue-collar, hard-working nature of the 2013-14 team resulted in a 21-12 overall record and the program's 11th straight appearance in the NCAA Tournament Second Round following a win at No. 7 seed Iowa State in the Stanford Regional.

FSU has won at least one game in its last 13 NCAA Tournament appearances, the secondlongest active win streak in the ACC behind Duke.

White was promoted to associate head coach prior to the 2012-13 season and his game planning and strategy took the Garnet and Gold offense to heights it hadn't seen in over 20 years.

Florida State finished in the top 10 nationally in both scoring and field goal percentage. The Seminoles' 74.8 points per game average and .453 shooting percentage were their highest marks since the 1991 92 and 1992-93 seasons, respectively. Senior guards Alexa Deluzio and Leonor Rodriguez and junior forward Natasha Howard gave FSU a school-record and an ACCleading three All-ACC First Team selections, while senior forward Chasity Clayton captured ACC Sixth Player of the Year honors. The Seminoles finished fourth in the league.

Additionally, Florida State captured back-to-back regular season ACC titles in 2010 and 2011, and advanced to the 2010 NCAA Tournament Elite Eight. The 2010-11 season was a culmination of seven consecutive NCAA postseason appearances, all with White on the bench.

Considered by head coach Sue Semrau to be one of the rising stars of the coaching profession when she hired him in 2003, White has helped FSU reach new levels of success and brought an infectious energy to the program.

White has directed the FSU defense and offense during his tenure as well as been one of the country's top recruiters. In 2012, CollegeInsider.com named him one of the nation's Top 20 assistant coaches in the country.

The defensive coordinator for most of his tenure, White added the Seminoles' offense to his direction in 2011. He continues to hold responsibilities with recruiting, film and opponent breakdown in addition to assisting with camps each summer.

Florida State has experienced two of its greatest defensive seasons under White's tutelage as the team set a school record during the 2008-09 campaign by limiting opponents to 61.1 points per game. The Seminoles then broke that record in 2009-10 with a season that saw them hold opponents to just 60.8 points per contest. In 2012-13, the 'Noles outscored opponents by 9.8 points per game.

Since White's arrival, many Seminoles have captured unprecedented individual success. Seven players have been picked in the WNBA Draft, eight Seminoles have earned ACC All-Defensive team honors and F3U has nabbed 33 all-conference awards. In addition to the four All-ACC honorees in 2012-13, Christian Hunnicutt was named the ACC Defensive Player of the Year in 2011 and Jacinta Morroe was selected No. 5 by the Washington Mystics in the 2010 WNBA Draft. Monroe's election was surpassed by Howard's No. 5 pick in the 2014 WNBA

Draft by the Indiana Fever.

White was well prepared when he arrived at Florida State. He came from Texas Tech where he spent 10 seasons, including seven years as an assistant coach, with the Lady Raiders' top-10 program under legendary head coach Marsha Sharp.

Some of White's responsibilities at Texas Tech included individual workouts, scouting reports, perimeter and post player development and all aspects of recruiting, including mail correspondence and recruiting visits. White also served as the academic liaison for the women's basketball team, directing study hall and monitoring academic progress while also handling player relations.

During White's time in Lubbock, Texas Tech won three Big 12 Championships and advanced to seven-straight NCAA Tournaments, including five Sweet 16 and two Elite Eight appearances. He was a student assistant on Tech's 1993 National Championship team and a graduate assistant coach for two seasons before being elevated to a full-time coach.

While in Lubbock, Texas, White worked with some of the best players the game has ever seen. Among the players he influenced were National Player of the Year and three-time WNBA Player of the Year Sheryl Swoopes and also Plenette Pierson, who was named 2007 WNBA Sixth Woman of the Year.

A 1996 graduate of Texas Tech, White earned his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science. He went on to receive a Master's Degree in sports administration in August of 1998. He attended Lubbock Christian University for three semesters before transferring to Texas Tech in January of 1993. As a high school athlete in Spur, he was a three time All-District selection, two-time All-Region, and two-time third team all-state choice in basketball. His high school basketball and football teams advanced to the regional round both his junior and senior years. In addition to his football and basketball accolades, he was listed in the Spalding Top 100 tennis players in 1991.

White is an NCAA certified recruiter and member of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association. He is married to the former Melanie Smith, who is a professor at Florida AGM University. The Whites are the proud parents of Quentin and Vivian.

She sparked the rise of the Florida State women's basketball program as a standout player on the court from 1997 to 2001. Ten years later, Brooke Wyckoff returned to the Seminoles - this time on the bench, joining Sue Semrau's revamped staff beginning in the 2011-12 season.

Five years later the results speak for themselves. Wyckoff was an instrumental part of Florida State's 2014-15 campaign that included a school record for wins [32-5] and the program's second trip to the NCAA Elite Eight. The Seminoles finished the season with their highest final ranking ever at seventh in both the Associated Press and USA Today Polls as well as the RP1.

In her most recent coaching stint in the 2015-16 season, Wyckoff's impact was felt once again. The Seminoles were one of eight programs nationally who enjoyed consecutive trips to the NCAA Sweet 16 and finished the season with a 25-8 overall record.

Wyckoff's work on the defensive end yielded positive results in 15-16: FSU allowed just 57.5 points per game, which follows a 2014-15 season when it allowed only 57.3 points per game. In the two years Wyckoff has taken command of FSU's defensive strategies, the Seminoles have surrendered less than 60 points per game in each season, the only two times FSU has held opponents below the 60-point threshold in a year.

FSU's dominance on the glass was evident again in 2015-16. The Seminoles finished first in the conference in rebounding defense (29.1), rebounding margin (+12.0), defensive rebounding percentage (73.2) and offensive rebounding percentage (44.1 percent). Of the 16 ACC opponents faced, 11 were held to under 40 percent shooting.

Wyckoff's work with the post players proved to be beneficial for two-time All-American Adut Bulgak. The Edmonton, Canada, native flourished in her senior year as a WBCA All-American, the Team MVP, an All-ACC performer and a Senior CLASS All-American. Bulgak was selected with the 12th pick in the first round of the WNBA Draft to the New York Liberty, giving FDJ arun of three straight first-round selections (all post players in Bulgak, Natasha Howard and Jacinta Monroe).

Wyckoff's primary scouting duties shifted to the defense and her hard work in game preparation paid dividends for the Seminoles. The 2014-15 Seminoles allowed just 57.3 points per game, which is the lowest they've ever surrendered. Florida State ranked third nationally with a +12.3 rebound margin and held nearly half (18 of 37) of their opponents to under 35 percent shooting. In each of the last two seasons (2015-16 and 2014-15), FSU has finished in the Top 5 in rebounding margin.

FSU's defense, anchored by Bulgak as a junior, set a school record for total rebounds with 1,611, and allowed just 0.77 points per possession in 2014-15. The Seminoles never allowed more than 80 points scored.

Wyckoff's efforts on the recruiting trail once again loomed large. Having played professionally in the Canary Islands, she is fluent in Spanish and was a big reason for the arrival of guard Leticia Romero in the 2014 summer. Romero enjoyed an All-America season for the Seminoles in 2014-15 and added another All-America honor as a junior, being granted immediate eligibility mid-season and sparking FSU to a record-setting run.

In 2013-14, FSU finished 21-12 and reached the NCAA postseason for the ninth time in the previous 10 years. A group that was short on depth due to transfers and injuries at the beginning of the season found a way to reach the second round of the NCAA Tournament and earn 10 Top 100 RPI wins. Senior forward Natasha Howard emerged as one of the top players in the country, averaging 20.5 points, 9.3 rebounds and 59.4 percent shooting.

Wyckoff has been an influential figure in Howard's life both on and off the court, admired because of her personable nature and ability to connect well with her student-athletes. Under Wyckoff's tutelage, Howard had one of the most dominant seasons in school history as a senior, which included averaging 23.3 points and 9.6 rebounds against top-notch ACC competition. Howard was rewarded with the fifth overall selection by the Indiana Fever in the 2014 WNBA Draft, the highest in school history.

In the 2012-13 year, FSU posted a 23-10 record, finished fourth in the ACC and advanced to its eighth NCAA Tournament in nine years. Along the way, Wyckoff, a star forward during her playing career, helped the Seminoles land a school-record and a conference-best three players on the All-ACC First Team, as senior guards Alexa Deluzio and Leo Rodriguez and junior forward Natasha Howard collected honors from the conference office.

Senior forward Chasity Clayton also nabbed ACC Sixth Player of the Year accolades, as Florida State finished in the top 10 nationally in both scoring and field goal percentage. FSU's 74.8 points per game average and .453 shooting percentage were its highest marks in 20 years.

Without a doubt, Wyckoff was one of the greatest Seminoles ever to wear the Garnet and Gold on the hardwood before playing nine seasons in the WNBA. Wyckoff's experience at the professional level has given the Seminoles a rare commodity on the bench.

Along with the immediate credibility her hoops career provides, Wyckoff possesses an amiable personality that has made her an immediate hit on the recruiting trail. Her efforts led the Seminoles to sign one of the nation's top incoming recruiting classes in 2013. Led by four-star McDonald's All-America center Kai James as well as Ivey Slaughter, Brittany Brown and Gabby Bevillard, the Noles' 2013 signing class featured three Top 10D players and ranked as the nation's No. 7 class by All-Star Girls Report and No. 11 by ESPNW HoopGurlz.

Wyckoff's recruiting abilities shone through once again with the 2014 class, signing highly-touted prospects Shakayla Thomas, Chania Ray and Ama Degbeon. The addition of the No. 1 junior college center in the nation, Adut Bulgak, once again provided the Noles with an abundance of talent as she garnered All-America honors as a junior and senior at FSU.

Wyckoff also serves as the Seminoles' program's liaison with the FSU academic support staff in addition to her on-court duties.

In her first year back at FSU, Wyckoff, a star versatile forward during her career, helped tutor all-conference forwards Cierra Bravard and Howard. Bravard later signed a professional contract with the WNBA's San Antonio SilverStars and played the 2013 WNBA season with the Seattle Storm. Howard led the ACC in doubledoubles in 2012, then set a single-season school record with 15 double-doubles as a senior.

A native of West Chester, Ohio, the talented post/wing was one of the top high school players in the country before signing a National Letter of Intent with FSU in 1997 in what was Semrau's first season in Tallahassee.

In her freshman year, Wyckoff made an immediate impact as she set a single-season record at the time with 80 blocks on her way to earning ACC All-Freshman Team honors. Conference accolades continued to roll in during her next three years with a pair of All-ACC Third Team selections (1999 and 2000) and finally an All-ACC First Team honor as a senior in 2001.

Wyckoff's 1,350 career points is the 14th-most in school history and her 804 rebounds rank seventh. She ranks No. 2 at FSU in career blocks with 209. She averaged 12.4 ppg and 7.4 rpg while starting all 109 games she played in her career.

Perhaps most importantly, Wyckoff was the cornerstone of the Seminoles' first winning season in nine years as the team posted a 19-12 record in 2001 and finished fourth in the ACC. That season culminated in the school's first trip to the NCAA Tournament in 10 years and All-America honors for Wyckoff, which was the first national accolade for an FSU women's basketball player since 1993. She capped her career by scoring 14.6 ppg and pulling down 6.6 rpg that final season.

In addition to boasting the honor of being just one of four former 'Noles to have their jerseys' retired, Wyckoff was also an outstanding performer in the classroom. She is the only Seminole to ever earn four All-ACC Academic Women's Basketball Team honors as well as four nods to the ACC Academic Honor Roll.

In 2001, she earned an ACC Postgraduate scholarship and was named to the ACC Legends Class of 2010. In 2002, she was named to the 51-member ACC 50th Anniversary Women's Basketball Team.

She also played with the USA Women's Basketball Select Team for three consecutive summers.

In 2011, Wyckoff was inducted into the Butler County Sports Hall of Fame as well as the Florida State Athletic Hall of Fame and the Greater Cincinnati Basketball Hall of Fame.

Following her senior year, Wyckoff was selected by the Orlando Miracle in the second round of the WNBA Draft. She spent two seasons in Orlando before the team moved to Connecticut where she played another three seasons with the Sun.

She was then selected by the Chicago Sky in the 2006 WNBA Expansion draft and played for that franchise until 2009.

During her nine-year WNBA career, Wyckoff appeared in 242 games.

After concluding her professional basketball career, Wyckoff served as an assistant girls basketball coach at Lakota East High School in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Wyckoff has one daughter, Avery (2 ½).

DANIELLE ATKINSON

Assistant Coach Third Season Florida '06

Florida State assistant coach Danielle Atkinson finished her second season at FSU in 2015-16, helping the Seminoles to a 25-8 overall record and a second consecutive NCAA Sweet 16 appearance. Her individual work with guard Leticia Romero helped the Spaniard to a second straight All-America season, while her excellent recruiting work has given FSU the No. 4 signing class in the nation according to ESPNW.

Headed by Atkinson's ability to connect with the younger generation, five talented freshmen comprise FSU's 2016 recruiting class: Nicole Ekhomu (No. 19 overall; Guard; Bolingbrook, Ill.), A'Tyanna Gaulden (No. 21 overall; Guard; Ocilla, Ga.), Jasmine Walker (No. 23 overall; Forward; Montgomery, Ala.) as well as Nausia Woolfolk (No. 53 overall; Guard; Fort Valley, Ga.) and Iho Lopez (Forward; Spain).

Illinois transfer Chatrice White, a talented center, also joins the Seminoles and will have two years of eligibility remaining in the 2017-18 and 2018-19 seasons.

Another rising star in the coaching profession, Atkinson continues to help FSU stay among the nation's best programs through her work on the practice courts, in the games and on the recruiting trail.

Atkinson wrapped up her first year at FSU by playing a huge part in the team's record-breaking 2014-15 season. Her immense devotion toward game preparation and scouting, practice planning, in-game adjustments and recruiting connections has already benefitted the Seminole program immeasurably.

Possessed with a great coaching demeanor and hard-working attitude, Atkinson fit in with the FSU coaching staff and studentathletes right away. The Seminoles' season-long success included several of Atkinson's scout games, and her ability to prepare the team so well in various situations such as out-of-bounds plays aided the group tremendously.

She worked individually with several players, helping junior center Adut Bulgak and sophomore guard Leticia Romero enjoy All-America seasons while freshman standout Shakayla Thomas earned ACC Sixth Player of the Year and All-ACC Freshman Team honors. Atkinson's tutelage helped Florida State to a school-record 32 wins, including 27 by double digit points.

Florida State women's basketball head coach Sue Semrau announced the hiring of Danielle Atkinson (formerly Danielle Santos) as the team's newest assistant coach on June 3, 2014.

Known as an experienced coach with a great deal of knowledge in a variety of coaching realms, Atkinson has risen through the coaching ranks since starting her career as an assistant coach at Hofstra from 2006 to 2010. She has enjoyed successful stops with the Pride, Illinois State (2010-2012) and most recently Kentucky (2012-14).

"Danielle is someone who has made a great impact in each of her stops at Hofstra, Illinois State and Kentucky," Semrau said upon the hiring of Atkinson. "Danielle brings both the knowledge and passion to excel in this profession and is a perfect complement to our staff. We are very excited to have her."

While at Kentucky in her two seasons, Atkinson played a large role in helping the Wildcats to an NCAA Elite Eight run in the 2012-13 season and a trip to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 2013-14. Responsible for coaching guard play, Atkinson was heavily involved in the progression of backcourt mates Jennifer O'Neill (All-SEC guard) and Linnae Harper (All-SEC freshman guard) in the 2013-14 year.

In Atkinson's first season in Lexington, former Kentucky guard A'dia Mathies was named the 2013 SEC Co-Player of the Year as well as a Wooden Award finalist under her watch.

Even before her arrival at FSU she was a tremendous recruiter, making strong connections in the North, South and Midwest. A large part of her successful coaching career has been her ability to develop tremendous relationships with student-athletes and their families through her engaging approach. She helped the Wildcats land the 17th-ranked 2014 recruiting class according to ESPNW.

Atkinson also presents a strong in-game mindset, assisting heavily with scouting reports and helping with game adjustments and substitutions. She also served in other capacities with Kentucky, running summer basketball camps and skill sessions as well as helping her teams reach their goals in the classroom as the academic coordinator.

She developed many of her current skill sets while at Illinois State, helping the Redbirds to two postseason trips which included a 2011-12 team that was chosen sixth in the Missouri Valley Conference preseason poll and finished second with a 13-5 league record.

Atkinson got her start with Hofstra and spent four seasons in Hempstead, N.Y., including her final two years as the recruiting coordinator in addition to her assistant coach duties.

At Hofstra, she was responsible for implementing the team's offensive strategies which helped the Pride record two 20-win seasons in her tenure, including a school-record 26 games in her first season. Atkinson's influential coaching style helped nine of her former players at Hofstra earn All-Colonial Athletic Association honors, while four went on to play professionally overseas.

Atkinson is a Marietta, Ga., native who earned several academic honors while being a four-year letterwinner for the University of Florida from 2002-06. She was a three-time SEC Academic Honor Roll selection, an Arthur Ashe Jr. Scholar Athlete Second Team member and a District 3 CoSIDA Academic All-America Team member.

While in Gainesville, she graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Exercise and Sport Sciences with a concentration in Sport Management. Atkinson also minored in education and business administration.

Atkinson emerged as a cerebral guard who left her career at Florida with some worthy achievements - She finished her career seventh all-time at UF with 80 3-pointers, ranked 11th with 162 steals, 11th with 265 assists and fifth with a 78.2 free throw percentage.

On May 24, 2015, the former Danielle Santos married Cleveland Atkinson.

MELISSA BRUNER

Director of Basketball Operations 11th Season Coe College '94

In order to ensure that everything is running smoothly away from the basketball court, Florida State needs a "coach" behind the scenes. Now in her 11th season with the FSU women's basketball program, Melissa Bruner has the daunting task of keeping everyone on the same page as Director of Basketball Operations.

A former collegiate head coach and a foursport letterwinner in college, Bruner is able to deftly handle a wide range of responsibilities in all facets of the program. She coordinates all areas of team travel and is also in charge of facility usage and management of all practices and games.

She assists head coach Sue Semrau with scheduling and serves as the program's liaison with the athletics department's administration. Bruner oversees the equipment operations for the program and assists with the Seminole girls' summer camps. In addition to her administrative duties with the program, Bruner is also in her 10th season working as the color analyst for the radio broadcast of all FSU women's basketball games.

Bruner came to Florida State after serving four seasons as assistant athletics director and head women's basketball coach at Coe College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. The Kohawks reached the IIAC Tournament all four years of her tenure and advanced to the quarterfinals in her final season.

Bruner's players earned six all-conference honors. Bruner and Semrau previously worked together for two seasons at the University of Wisconsin-Madison while Semrau was an assistant coach.

Bruner was Director of Women's Basketball Operations for the Badgers for seven years where she assisted in public relations, team travel and practice arrangements. Prior to her duties at Wisconsin, Bruner earned a master's degree in physical education, with a concentration in athletic administration, from Ohio University in 1995. She received her business administration and accounting degree with a minor in physical education from Coe College in 1994.

As a Kohawk, Bruner earned Academic All-Midwest Conference honors in softball, basketball, tennis and volleyball.

In recognition for her athletic and academic achievements, she was named a national GTE Academic All-American her senior year of college.

FLORIDA STATE

2016-17 FLORIDA STATE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

• Finished 12th in the final USA Today Coaches Poll, the third-highest final ranking for FSU. The Seminoles have currently spent 32 consecutive weeks in the poll. The program record is 48 consecutive weeks from Jan. 19, 2009 to Nov. 14, 2011.

• Stayed in the Top 15 of the USA Today Coaches Poll for the entire 2015-16 season, a first for the program.

• Made its fourth NCAA Sweet 16 appearance and its second consecutive. FSU's back-to-back appearances in the regional semifinals was a first for the program.

• Went 13-3 in the Atlantic Coast Conference, marking the second-most wins in conference play since joining the ACC in 1991-92.

• Earned a double bye in the ACC Tournament for the second straight season, finishing fourth in the conference.

• Had three WBCA All-Americans in Leticia Romero, Adut Bulgak and Shakayla Thomas. It was the most All-America selections for FSU in one season since having four All-Americans in the 1992-93 year.

• The Seminoles shot 45.6 percent from the floor in 2015-16, their highest shooting percentage since shooting 46.6 percent in the 1992-93 year. FSU's high shooting mark was the 15th-best in the nation.

• FSU finished in the Top 10 nationally in rebound margin (fifth, +12.0 per game) and scoring margin (10th, +16.0) per game.

• In FSU's 25 wins, it outscored its opponents by 25.5 points per game.

• For the second straight year, FSU was the highest-ranked Florida-based institution in the final USA Today Coaches Poll. FSU also went the farthest of any Sunshine State school in the NCAA Tournament for the second straight season.

• FSU's 25 overall wins is tied for the fifth-most in program history, as well as the fourth-most since joining the competitive ACC in the 1991-92 academic year.

• From Jan. 7 to Feb. 14, the Seminoles enjoyed a dominant 11-game win streak in ACC play. The streak was a program record for consecutive conference wins. FSU led for 415 minutes, 18 seconds of the 440 total minutes played.

• Reached the NCAA Sweet 16 for the second time by way of an opponent's home court. No. 5 seed FSU defeated No. 4 seed Texas A&M 74-56 in College Station, Texas, in the NCAA Second Round.

• FSU's second-round win over No. 4 seed Texas A&M was its third-highest ranked NCAA Tournament win in terms of seeding and its eighth single-digit seeded win.

• Head Coach Sue Semrau expanded her NCAA Tournament record to 18-12 with first-and-second-round wins over No. 10 seed Middle Tennessee (72-55) and Texas A&M, respectively.

• Extended its impressive streak to 13 consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances where it records at least one win. The streak is the second-longest active stretch by an ACC team, trailing Duke's 22 straight wins.

• Was one of eight NCAA programs who made consecutive appearances in the NCAA Sweet 16 in 2015 and 2016, joining UConn, Texas, Tennessee, Notre Dame, Stanford, Baylor and South Carolina.

• Eclipsed 900 field goals made for just the eighth time in program history and only the fourth time as an ACC team. FSU finished with 921 made field goals.

• Earned three AP Top 25 wins over Miami (twice) and Texas A&M. Over the last two seasons FSU has garnered nine AP Top 25 victories.

• Finished with a strong 25-8 overall record against the 13th-toughest schedule in the nation. FSU's opponents this season combined to go 590-352 (.626 winning percentage).

• FSU went 15-1 at home in 2015-16, and owns a 31-1 home record in the last two seasons.

• Out-rebounded opponents in 27 of its 33 games played.

• Finished in the Top 25 nationally in six categories: Rebound margin (fifth), scoring margin (10th), field goal percentage (15th), turnovers forced (21st, 19.79 per game), total steals (23rd, 327) and offensive rebounds per game (20th, 16 per game).

• Surrendered just 29.1 rebounds per game, the third-fewest in the nation.

• Earned a No. 5 seed in the NCAA Tournament to mark the seventh time FSU has garnered a No. 5 seed or better in program history.

49

Finished first in the ACC in rebounding defense (29.1 rebounds allowed per game), rebounding margin (+12.0), defensive rebounding percentage (73.2 percent) and offensive rebounding percentage (44.1 percent).
Florida State's 57.5 points allowed per game is the second-lowest it has allowed in a season, only bettered by its 57.3 points allowed in 2014-15. Both years are the only seasons in which FSU has surrendered less than 60 points per game.

• Recorded 23 regular-season wins, the fourth-most regular season victories in program history.

• FSU's 527 assists is just the sixth time in program history it has totaled 500+ dimes, and just the third time since the 1994-95 season.

• Florida State has recorded a 32-game non-conference win streak at home. Its last loss to a non-ACC team in the Tucker Center came against Nebraska on Nov. 27, 2011 (66-63).

• Since the 2012-13 season, FSU is 22-3 against opponents from the Sunshine State.

• Elevated its game when it mattered most in the second half, shooting 47.9 percent (467-of-974) and averaging 37.7 points in the game's final 20 minutes.

• Has won 28 of its last 33 ACC games. Since 2008-09 season, FSU has gone 86-38 in ACC play, including 42-20 on the road and 44-18 at home.

• Outscored opponents in many specialty stats: Points off turnovers (20.8-15.2), second-chance points (15.5-7.9), points in the paint (37.6-23.0), fast-break points (8.4-4.8) and bench points (24.0-14.7).

• Delivered a clean sweep over all four North Carolina-based schools from the ACC. It is just the third time FSU has defeated all four schools (UNC, Duke, NC State, Wake Forest) in an academic year, joining the 1991-92 and 2008-09 teams.

• Held 11 of its 16 ACC opponents to under 40 percent shooting.

- With the new four periods format, FSU held its opponents to single digits in 25 different periods.
- Recorded its 10th 20-win season under head coach Sue Semrau.
- Shattered a program record with a 31-game home win streak before falling to Notre Dame on Feb. 22.
- Drew a crowd of 5,319 vs. Notre Dame, the largest home crowd since getting 6,440 on Dec. 28, 2009, vs. Connecticut.

• Totaled 17 different 20-point performances, led by eight from Shakayla Thomas, six from Adut Bulgak, two from Brittany Brown and one by Leticia Romero.

• Had six student-athletes score in double figures in a 94-63 win over North Carolina, the 14th time FSU has had six score in double figures.

• Doubled its assist/turnover ratio in two games against UNC (23-11) and Virginia (24-12).

Matthew Schmauch, an Assistant Director of Academic Support who worked with the women's basketball program for four seasons, was instrumental in the academic success of FSU student-athletes. His influence went beyond the classroom. He was an ambassador, a mentor, a friend, a big brother, a fan – truly a shining example of where hard work and determination can take you. This award, established in his memory, is given annually to the women's basketball player who exemplifies these characteristics of leadership.

The Florida State Athletics Department lost a dear member of its Seminole family on June 13, 2003. Matt Schmauch, 29, an Assistant Director for the Athletic Academic Support Program at Florida State, died from anaphylaxis due to an allergic reaction to nuts while representing FSU at the N4A convention in St. Louis, Mo.

A native of Allen Park, Mich., Schmauch had been a valuable member of the athletic academic support staff since 1996. A glowing role model in the classroom, Schmauch earned a bachelor's degree in finance from Florida State in 1995 and went on to receive a master's degree in athletic administration from FSU in 1996.

In 2003-04, the Florida State women's basketball program created a special award in honor of Schmauch.

Daughter, sister, classmate, teammate, role model, friend and Seminole. Ronalda Pierce meant so much to so many people. Although with us a short time, Ronalda's memory will forever be etched in the hearts of the Seminole family. Ronalda represented courage, heart, determination, growth and joy. It was these characteristics that allowed her to blossom into the person that was cherished by all who knew her. The recipient of this award exemplifies these same qualities of perseverance and heart.

On June 8, 2004, the Florida State women's basketball program lost a special member of its family with the sudden death of Ronalda Pierce, a 6-5 post player from Ashburn, Ga. In 2004-05, the players wore #55 on their shoes in her honor.

The Seminoles paid tribute to Ronalda by celebrating the time, although too short, that they had with her. In 2005, an award was established in her memory.

While Ronalda Pierce remains on the minds and in the hearts of those associated with Florida State women's basketball, the 2006-07 season had an even greater meaning as it would have represented Ronalda's senior season. Members of her recruiting class, Nikki Anthony, Shante Williams and Alicia Gladden, proudly hold up their hands signifying the No. 55; Ronalda's jersey

ALICIA "ICE" GLADDEN

The Florida State women's basketball family suffered an immeasurable loss on April 19, 2013, when former standout guard Alicia "Ice" Gladden passed away at the age of 27 following a tragic car accident.

Nicknamed "Ice" because of her smooth style of play on the court, Gladden was an enormous part of Florida State's program-building trip to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 2007. The native of Orange Park, Fla., who always showcased a beautiful left-handed touch was known as someone who made you smile and carried an infectious personality.

CAREER ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Going into the 2015-16 season, Gladden is the only Seminole to capture ACC All-Defensive Team honors three times.
- Holds the Florida State career record for steals (275) as well as the single-season record (101) in 2004-05.
- Led the 'Noles in scoring in her junior and senior seasons, culminating by averaging 13.5 points and leading FSU to its first-ever NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 in 2007.
- Two-Time All-ACC Third Team performer and an All-ACC Honorable Mention player who became the 20th member of Florida State's 1,000 point club, finishing with 1,403 career points which is currently 11th all-time.

The Florida State Athletics Hall of Fame enjoys a rich tradition. Florida State is fortunate to boast an athletics program that reflects the integrity achieved by an academic institution with over 150 years of success.

There are 304 members of the FSU Athletics Hall of Fame. The first and largest class was inducted in 1977 and there has been a class inducted every fall since with the exception of 1996 when Florida State spent the year celebrating its 50th Anniversary of athletics.

Five former women's basketball greats - Sue Galkantas, Tia Paschal, Wanda Burns-Jackson, Brooke Wyckoff and Bev Burnett - are members of the Florida State Athletics Hall of Fame.

Sue Galkantas Hall of Fame 1989

Florida State may never forget the scoring power of Sue Galkantas, who with an amazing 2,323 career points, is the most prolific scorer in Seminole basketball history. That total is the most points ever scored by a player, male or female – in Florida State history. Galkantas is currently one of just 64 players in NCAA history to amass 2,300 career points and 1,000 career rebounds.

By the time Galkantas graduated in 1984, her name was listed in nearly every statistical category in the FSU records book. Averaging 19.4 points per game in her career – a mark that still ranks number one on the career lists – was just a glimpse of the impact that she had as a Seminole. In her rookie year, she broke the FSU freshman scoring record and was named a freshman All-American in numerous publications. By her sophomore year, Galkantas had already scored her 1,000th point and established herself as one of the top 20 scorers in the nation. In her junior season, she led FSU to a 24-6 record and to its first trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Overall, she scored in double figures in 115 of 120 games and still holds six career and single-season records. In 1989, Galkantas also became the first female FSU athlete to have her number retired.

Tia Paschal Hall of Fame 1999

The Florida State women's basketball program previously enjoyed its greatest success during the four-year career of Tia Paschal, who lettered for the Seminoles from 1989 to 1993.

A forward from Thomson, Ga., Paschal was an immediate contributor for Florida State and was a three-year starter after averaging 20 minutes of play as a rookie. She ended her career averaging 19.4 points and 7.4 rebounds as a senior while earning first team All-ACC honors and second team All-America honors by the American Women's Sports Federation. During her career, she helped lead the Seminoles to two consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances in 1989-90 and 1990-91 as well as a Metro Conference championship in the 1990-91 season.

Paschal's versatility made her a weapon in every facet of the game, which is evident by the records she still holds at Florida State. She nearly holds the records free throws made (14) in a game and is second for steals in a career (269). Paschal is also among FSU's top 10 in five season and six career records and ranks third all-time in scoring with 1,662 points.

Honors came in abundance for Paschal throughout her career. After redshirting the 1988-89 season with a knee injury, Paschal took the conference by storm as a freshman, earning Metro Conference All-Rookie Team honors. She earned Metro All-Tournament Team honors two seasons and was twice named the conference Player of the Week.

Paschal continued playing the game that she loves professionally. Since her graduation in criminology in 1993, Paschal's professional overseas experience included stops in Germany, Sweden and Spain. She also played one season with the Charlotte Sting of the WNBA.

WANDA BURNS Hall of Fame 2006

Wanda Burns overcame adversity to become a successful women's basketball player at Florida State. One of Marynell Meadors' first recruits, Burns was a highlytouted 5-foot-8 guard out of Macon, Georgia.

Though she carried a 3.0 GPA in high school, her SAT scores were below the required score to meet the new NCAA Prop 48 rule and she had to sit out her freshman season. Burns used the year to hit the books and get acclimated to campus life.

She took the court in 1988-89 with something to prove. She averaged 11 points a game and led the team with 92 assists, helping FSU to its first winning season since 1983.

She electrified the team in 1989-90 and sparked FSU to a 21-9 record and to the NCAA Tournament. Burns set an FSU record for free throw percentage and led the team in scoring, three pointers and steals.

In 1990-91, her final season, Burns was named Metro Conference Player of the Week, set a single game record with 10 steals in a game and led the team in three-point shooting. FSU enjoyed one of its most successful seasons with a record of 25-7. Burns led the Metro Conference in scoring at 18.5 points per game and scored double figures in 38 consecutive games. She was named Metro Conference Tournament MVP and Player of the Year and also earned Hanes Her Way NCAA Woman of the Year and Second Team All-American honors.

Burns still ranks among FSU's top 10 in two career and seven singleseason statistical categories.

BROOKE WYCKOFF Hall of Fame 2011

Florida State women's basketball assistant coach Brooke Wyckoff solidified her place among the all-time great 'Noles in September 2011 with her induction into the Florida State Athletic Hall of Fame.

Wyckoff, who was a star forward for head coach Sue Semrau's first hoops teams from 1997-2001, became the fourth women's basketball player to be inducted into the Hall of Fame on Sept. 2 at a ceremony at the University Center Club, joining Sue Galkantas (Class of 1989), Tia

Paschal (Class of 1999) and Wanda Burns (Class of 2006).

"Getting inducted into Florida State's Hall of Fame is the biggest honor I have ever received," Wyckoff said. "It's amazing. It's surreal and an honor to be among the amazing athletes that are in it. It was a great opportunity for me to reflect on my career here, and to thank everybody publicly made it so special."

Wyckoff and the rest of her illustrious class - Tony Brown, Sam Cowart, Marshall McDougall, Stephen Parry, Chris Weinke and Andy Miller - were also honored on Bobby Bowden Field at Doak Cambell Stadium during FSU football's 2011 season-opening football game versus Louisiana-Monroe.

A recent addition to Semrau's coaching staff, Wyckoff was hired by her alma mater in the summer 2011. Wyckoff spent nine years in the WNBA, playing for the Orlando Miracle, Connecticut Sun and the Chicago Sky.

Wyckoff was one of the top high school players in the country but chose to leave West Chester, Ohio, to play for Sue Semrau and Florida State. She made an immediate impact setting an FSU record with 80 blocked shots as a freshman in 1997.

She went on to earn All-ACC honors as a sophomore and junior and capped her senior season (2001) with first team All-ACC honors as well as All-America honors. She was also FSU's only four-time Academic All-ACC performer and received an ACC postgraduate scholarship.

Wyckoff scored 1,350 points over her storied FSU career and finished as the second best shot blocker the Seminoles have ever produced with 209. She grabbed 804 career rebounds to also rank among FSU's all-time Top 10.

BEV BURNETT Hall of Fame 2012

Tallahassee native Bev Burnett rounded out her Florida State career as one of the most prolific scorers in school history. A four-year letterwinner from 1985-89, Burnett finished her career with 1,509 points, a mark that ranks seventh in FSU history. She also ranks sixth all-time in scoring average at 15.6 points per game.

A team captain, the 5-foot-9 forward earned All-Metro Conference First Team honors in both 1988 and 1989 and led the Seminoles in scoring in each of those seasons with averages of 21.3 and 15.9 points per game, respectively. Her 21.3 points per game average in 1988 still ranks as the second highest single-season mark in Florida State women's basketball history.

Burnett is a six-time member of the FSU 30-point club and her 34 points vs. both Florida A&M (1986) and Virginia Tech (1988) is tied for the eighth-most points scored in a game by a Seminole. She was also named a third team All-American by the American Women's Sports Federation in 1988 and has numerous conference player of the week honors to her credit.

She became the fifth women's basketball player inducted into the FSU Hall of Fame.

2016-17 FSU Women's Basketball on the radio at WQTL-FM 106.1

Florida State fans can follow the Seminoles whether on the road or at home on the radio station for FSU Women's Basketball - WQTL (106.1 FM). Every regular season and postseason game can be heard throughout the season, as well as pregame talk and post-game interviews with head coach Sue Semrau and a few selected student-athletes.

Jonathan Schillace is in his fourth season as the play-by-play broadcaster. However, Schillace is no stranger to the program; in 2011, he called preseason games and in 2012 called 10 home games as well as the San Juan Shootout in Puerto Rico before completing his first full season in 2013-14. He is the co-host of the "Sue Semrau TV Show" and is in his fourth year as the coordinating producer for the Seminole IMG Sports Network football broadcasts, which includes football games and the Jimbo Fisher call-in show every Wednesday night throughout football season.

Three years ago, Schillace was promoted to Assistant Director in the Digital Media Department. Schillace produces video content for the university's official athletics website, Seminoles. com. He is the creative mind behind the wildly-popular "Schillace in Your Face" online videos. He is a graduate of Florida State University where he earned his undergraduate degree in business management in the spring of 2012 and a Master's in sport management in the summer of 2013.

In addition to providing play-by-play for the FSU women's basketball team, Schillace has also done color commentary for FSU baseball, play-by-play for FSU soccer, and ESPN3 play-by-play for Seminole softball and volleyball.

Prior to his work with Seminoles.com, Schillace was an anchor with WFSU, a reporter/producer with FSU Headlines and interned with WTSP, the CBS affiliate in the Tampa Bay area.

Joining Schillace will be color analyst Melissa Bruner. Bruner is the women's basketball Director of Basketball Operations and is in her 10th season providing radio and TV analysis for the Seminoles. Bruner also serves as a color analyst for many of Florida State's ACC Network Extra matchups at home, breaking down each game and giving off her insightful and introspective knowledge of FSU Women's Basketball.
