NOTABLES

- For the first time in her 22-year head coaching career, FSU head coach Sue Semrau must replenish her entire starting five from a season ago as seniors AJ Alix, Chatrice White, Shakayla Thomas, Imani Wright and Ama Degbeon all graduated. Despite returning just four letterwinners from last year's team that finished 12-4 in the ACC, Semrau has plenty of talent waiting in the wings.
- The new foundation for Florida State Women's Basketball has a chance to be strong moving forward with the nation's sixth-ranked recruiting class that is very guard-heavy. The class includes four guards in Izabela Nicoletti (No. 16 overall; Brazil), Kourtney Weber (No. 51; New Orleans), Morgan Jones (No. 66; Jonesboro, Ga.) and Amaya Brown (No. 99; Albuquerque, N.M.) as well as power forward Valencia Myers (No. 63; Solon, Ohio). Nicoletti will sit out the season after sustaining a knee injury on July 25.
- A candidate for Florida State's breakthrough player of the year is sophomore shooting guard Savannah Wilkinson, a native of London, England, who has experience on Great Britain's National Team. Wilkinson had a very productive summer playing in the FIBA U20 Championships and is already a proven shooter who shot 43.3 percent from 3-point range last season in limited time. With a year under her belt at the collegiate level and a good adjustment to American culture, Wilkinson enters her second season with a lot of promise.
- For the first time in quite some time, Florida State Women's Basketball has brought in multiple new coaches who help form a very knowledgeable and experienced coaching staff. During the off-season, former FSU student-athlete and coach Brooke Wyckoff was elevated to Associate Head Coach as she begins her eighth season with her alma mater. Also, Head Coach Sue Semrau added Joy McCorvey from Michigan as well as JC Carter from Utah State as her assistant coaches.

21 YEARS OF COACH SUE

Sue Semrau became the 10th head coach in Florida State women's basketball history on June 13, 1997. At her introductory press conference, she said "I'd have to have a lot of faith that this (program) could be a sleeping giant."

Semrau guided Florida State to its first NCAA Tournament appearance in 10 years, and its first as a member of the ACC, in 2001. Current Associate Head Coach Brooke Wyckoff and FSU Senior Associate A.D./SWA Vanessa Fuchs were seniors on that team.

The native of Seattle, Wash., who took a major rebuilding job, is the active coaching leader in the conference in ACC Coach of the Year awards.

Semrau is a four-time winner of the honor, winning in 2001, 2005, 2009 and 2015.

In the 2005-06 season, Semrau became the winningest head coach in FSU Women's Basketball history.

She helped guide the United States U18 and U19 teams to gold medals in 2010 and 2011, respectively. Semrau most recently represented her country at the highest level as a USA Basketball Women's National Team Training Camp court coach in Sept. 2017.

The 10th season under Sue Semrau couldn't have been any sweeter as her 2006-07 squad made school history. A 68-61 victory over Stanford in the second round of the NCAA Tournament sent the Seminoles to their first NCAA Tournament Sweet 16.

The Seminoles were road warriors in 2008-09 as they posted a perfect 10-0 record on the road, including a 7-0 mark in the ACC which helped propel them to a share of the regular season title with Maryland. A year later FSU did it again, compiling another 12-2 ACC mark to lead the conference in 2010.

A then-school record 29 wins in the 2009-10 season was highlighted by FSU's first trip to the NCAA Elite Eight after defeating Mississippi State.

It was a three-peat of No. 3 seeds in the NCAA Tournament, as the Seminoles compiled a 24-8 record and an 11-3 mark in ACC play under Semrau.

In the 2012-13 season, Florida State had a leaguebest and a school-record three All-ACC First Team selections, advanced to the NCAA Tournament second round and tallied its eighth 20-win season with Semrau at the helm.

Semrau won the 2013 Kay Yow Heart of a Coach Award presented by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Semrau reached the pinnacle of her coaching career by winning three different national coach of the year honors in the 2014-15 season. The Seminoles finished with a school-record 32 wins (32-5) while advancing to their second NCAA Elite Eight. She also picked up her fourth ACC Coach of the Year award.

Back-to-back NCAA Sweet 16 appearances highlighted another strong season for the Seminoles in 2015-16. FSU finished 25-8 overall and went 13-3 in the ACC, its second-most wins in the conference ever.

Semrau helped set the standard once again in 2016-17, setting a program record with nine AP Top 25 wins and helping FSU reach its third NCAA Elite Eight.

WORLDWIDE SEMINOLES

Whether it's representing Spain on the Olympic Team or playing for USA Basketball, Florida State Women's Basketball has gone worldwide in its quest for bringing in the best players across the globe.

A PAIR OF SEMINOLES MAKE MEMORIES IN RIO

- Seminoles Leticia Romero and Leonor Rodriguez became members of Spain's first Olympic medalist basketball team, earning the silver at the 2016 Summer Olympic Games in Rio.
- Romero and Rodriguez became the 11th and 12th Olympic medalists at Florida State, and were the first FSU athletes to finish with a silver medal since former track & field athlete Kim Batten won silver at the 400 meter hurdles in 1996.
- Romero averaged 5.8 points off the bench, including a superb 16-point game (6-of-6 shooting) in 14 minutes of play vs. China.
- Rodriguez delivered 12 points in 14 minutes off the bench in a 97-43 win over Senegal, highlighting her breakthrough moment.

FLORIDA STATE STAYS CONNECTED TO USA BASKETBALL

- FSU Head Coach Sue Semrau spent three days as a court coach for the United States Women's National Team Training Camp held at Santa Barbara from Sept. 30-Oct. 2. It was Semrau's third stint with USA Basketball, and allowed her to coach some of the absolute best players in the world
- Semrau is one of 11 Seminoles whom have participated as a coach or played with USA Basketball.
- For the third straight year, FSU was represented on the United States' governing body of basketball. Shakayla Thomas played with the 2015 FIBA U19 World Championship Team, FSU alumna Natasha Howard participated on the 2016 USA Select Team and senior Chatrice White was involved in the FIBA 3X3 Team in 2016.
- Natasha Howard made quite an impression on the USA Select Team. One of FSU's all-time great dropped a game-high 24 points against the Olympic Team, including a blistering 18 points in the fourth quarter alone.

From Aug. 6-16,2017, Florida State Women's Basketball had the privilege of taking a tremendous team-bonding trip to Italy and Spain. The 10 days overseas provided an opportunity to experience a new culture, develop team chemistry and see what the rest of the world has to offer.

- The Seminoles spent time in Rome, Naples, the Amalfi Coast and Sicily in Italy. In Spain, FSU experienced the beautiful city of Barcelona and also traveled to Girona, the home area of redshirt freshman Iho Lopez.

- Won its 15th consecutive NCAA First Round game, defeating Little Rock a streak that dates back to 1991.
- The Seminoles averaged the second-most points in a season in program history with 81.0 points per game. It was also just the second time FSU averaged 80+ in a season.
- Finished the Associated Press Poll ranked 11th, securing a Top-15 finish for four straight seasons to join just seven other schools (UConn, Notre Dame, South Carolina, Baylor, Louisville, Oregon State and Stanford).
- Finished 4-0 against rivalry schools Miami (3-0) and Florida (1-0). Included in those wins was FSU's largest margin ever vs. the 'Canes (105-67) and its largest road win ever vs. UF (84-54)
- Led by the winningest senior class in program history with 111 wins (Ama Degbeon, Shakayla Thomas, AJ Alix, Chatrice White and Imani Wright).

186-138 (.574)

- Churned out multiple All-Americans for the fourth consecutive year (Shakayla Thomas and
- Had multiple All-ACC First Team performers for the second straight year (Thomas and
- Ranked in the Top 20 nationally in field goal percentage (20th), offensive rebounds per game (16th), rebound margin(sixth), rebounds per game (11th), scoring margin (10th) and scoring offense (13th).

MOLDING TRUE STUDENT-ATHLETES

- As successful as Florida State has been on the court, Semrau's commitment to community service is just as important to her program's identity.
- Once again in 2017-18, Semrau partnered the Seminoles with Samaritan's Feet, a non-profit organization dedicated to changing lives through shoe distributions around the world. Semrau annually coaches a game barefoot in an effort to raise money, and the Seminoles took a break from the 2010 Junkanoo Jam in the Bahamas to give back on Thanksgiving.
- In the summer 2017, Florida State went to Bainbridge, Ga., to participate in a Samaritan's Feet washing where coaches, student-athletes and support staff made a monumental impact to everyone involved
- FSU was also able to spread its message of hope and inspiration to the U.S. Virgin Islands around Thanksgiving in 2016, doing another shoe distribution overseas to an area middle school
- The 2016-17 Seminoles once again fulfilled their duties of giving back to the community and making strong connections within the Big Bend area. FSU influenced both children and adults by visiting schools, playgrounds and other locations that allowed it to positively impact and connect with the community. The sight of FSU Women's Basketball coaches and student-athletes performing good deeds around the community is not an uncommon one.
- Additionally, the Seminoles have been known to extend a helping hand when on the road, making visits to the Boys and Girls Club at the Coalition for the Homeless in Orlando and elementary schools in Harlem, West Chester and Wadsworth, Ohio and Martinsville, Ind., as well as the Duke Hospital in Durham, N.C.
- In August 2013, Semrau and the Seminoles held a basketball clinic for youth in Dakar, Senegal, in addition to visiting an orphanage during the team's 2013 Foreign Tour.
- These efforts have molded countless Seminoles into superstars in the game of life following their hoops careers. Current assistant coach Brooke Wyckoff (Class of 2001) and Christian Hunnicutt (Class of 2011) each earned prestigious ACC Postgraduate Scholarships, while Vanessa Fuchs (Class of 2001) served as Interim Athletics Director at Florida State and is currently the Seminoles' Senior Women's Administrator.
- For the third straight year in 2018, FSU tied or led the ACC with four All-ACC Academic Team

RECENT SUCCESS

- The 2009-10 season served as the perfect example of just how strong the Florida State's women's basketball program has become under Semrau. The Seminoles captured their second consecutive regular-season ACC Co-Championship and made it all the way to the Elite Eight of the annual NCAA Tournament as a then-program-best No. 3 seed for the second straight season.
- Along the way, FSU set the school record for most wins in a season with 29. most conference triumphs ever with 12 and highest national ranking ever at No. 9. Those three school marks were all broken by the 2014-15 team.
- After the 2009-10 season was complete, star forward Jacinta Monroe was taken sixth overall in the 2010 WNBA Draft by the Washington Mystics; a draft slot that was the highest ever for an FSU women's basketball player prior to Natasha Howard's selection as the fifth pick by the Indiana Fever in

21 SEASONS

- During a 24-8 campaign in 2010-11, the Seminoles extended their NCAA Tournament streak to seven consecutive years, nabbing another No. 3 seed. Along the way, forward Cierra Bravard nabbed honorable mention All-America honors and teamed with point guard Courtney Ward to capture All-ACC accolades.
- Overall, Semrau has guided nine different players to All-America honors in her 21 years.

- It could be argued that Semrau's best coaching job occurred in the 2014-15 record-setting year where new accomplishments were being made seemingly every game. Florida State finished with a 32-5 overall record, shattering the school record for wins while also setting new records for ACC wins (14), Top 25 wins (6, since broken by the 2016-17 team) and regular-season victories (27). For the first time ever, the Seminoles finished undefeated at the Donald L. Tucker Center, going 16-0.
- FSU highlighted its 2014-15 year by earning a 66-65 win over No. 3 seed Arizona State in the NCAA Sweet 16 in Greensboro, N.C., reaching its second Elite Eight appearance in program history. The Noles finished second in the ACC regular season with a 14-2 record, reached the ACC Tournament title game for the first time ever and garnered a program-best No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament before taking down Alabama State (91-49) and 20thranked FGCU (65-47) in the first two rounds at the Tucker Center.
- Semrau earned several national and conference coaching honors in 2015 after FSU was predicted to finish fifth in the ACC and ultimately steam-rolled most of its competition. She was named the ACC Coach of the Year by the Blue Ribbon Panel and the ACC coaches. Semrau was also named the ESPNW National Coach of the Year, the WBCA Coach of the Year and the Associated Press Coach of the Year.
- Many college basketball fans, media and other personnel took notice of the way Coach Sue was able to blend a team with six new players and create one of the most collective, teamoriented and entertaining groups in the sport.
- Semrau's fourth ACC Coach of the Year honor gives her the distinction of having the most among active ACC coaches.
- The fact that the 2014-15 team became the first in program history to average five doublefigure scorers proves how well a new cast of faces played together under Semrau's system. Offensively, the Noles averaged 75.5 points which was their highest in the previous 24 years.
- In 2014-15, FSU also set the single-season record for 3-point field goals made (216). offensive rebounds (625), defensive rebounds (986) and total rebounds (1,611). One of its most impressive feats was being the only Division I basketball team - men's or women's - to out-rebound every opponent during the regular season. Overall, FSU out-rebounded 36 of its
- Florida State became one of just seven NCAA Division I programs to make the Elite Eight in two of the last three years in 2016-17, finishing with a 28-7 overall record. The Seminoles defeated a school-record nine AP Top 25 teams, including eighth-ranked and second-seeded Oregon State in the NCAA Sweet 16 in Stockton, Calif.
- FSU finished second in the ACC with a 13-3 conference record and tied its highest endof-season ranking in the USA Today Poll at seventh. The 28 wins tied for the third-most in program history, with 10 of those victories coming against RPI Top 50 opponents.
- Once again, there was no shortage of individual accolades for the Seminoles. Junior forward Shakayla Thomas became FSU's first ACC Player of the Year, while senior point guard Leticia Romero became the program's first three-time All-American. Both standouts were named Associated Press and WBCA All-Americans while being all-conference performers.

■ Junior center Chatrice White was honored as the ACC Sixth Player of the Year, the third straight for FSU, and senior Brittany Brown was named to the ACC All-Defensive Team for the second straight season.

CHANGED CULTURE

- Semrau's 405 career win total with the Seminoles more than doubles the second-most victories by an FSU coach (Marynell Meadors, 132), and her tenure has accounted for 14 of FSU's 17 all-time NCAA Tournament appearances.
- Semrau basically built the Seminoles from scratch, as she inherited a program coming off a 5-22 record in 1996-97 and hadn't reached double figures in wins in four years. She has accumulated 42 AP Top 25 wins in her 20 seasons. When she arrived in Tallahassee, FSU had not won vs. a nationally-ranked team in the previous four seasons.
- By her fourth year, Semrau had completely turned the program around, capturing a 19-12 record and the first NCAA Tournament appearance in a decade. The 2000-01 season served as the jumpstart for unprecedented success.
- FSU had only four 20-win seasons before Semrau guided the Noles to six 20-win seasons over a seven-year stretch beginning in 2004-05. She has now led the Noles to 12 20-win campaigns through 21 seasons, including a 32-win season in 2014-15.

A RESPECTED AND SEASONED COACH

- Prior to coming to Florida State, Semrau served three years as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Wisconsin under Jane Albright. While in Madison, she contributed to the Badgers' three-straight winning seasons and two NCAA Tournament appearances, including the program's first ever back-to-back 20-win seasons.
- Semrau first joined Albright at Northern Illinois in 1991 where she assisted in leading NIU to three consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances.
- Before her hiring at Northern Illinois, Semrau served as head women's basketball coach and assistant athletic director at Occidental College in Los Angeles for four years where she compiled a 51-47 overall record.
- She also coached soccer for two seasons and was responsible for the administrative duties of fundraising and promotions at the Division III institution.
- Semrau also worked as the public relations and promotions director for the L.A. Heat professional soccer team from 1986-87, and as the public relations director for the Seattle Storm soccer team in the previous year.
- A native of Seattle, Wash., Semrau is a graduate of Shorecrest High School. She went on to attend the University of Puget Sound for two years. Semrau transferred to the University of California-San Diego in 1984 where she was a team co-captain and Co-MVP.
- She graduated in 1985 with a bachelor's degree in communications and received her master's degree in athletic administration from the University of Southern California in 1988.
- Coach Sue is the Godmother of assistant coach Brooke Wyckoff's daughter, Avery (4 ½).

BROOKE WYCKOFF

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

- 8th Season at Florida State
- Florida State, 2001

- She sparked the rise of the Florida State women's basketball program as a standout player on the court from 1997 to 2001. Ten years later, Brooke Wyckoff returned to the Seminoles this time on the bench, joining Sue Semrau's revamped staff beginning in the 2011-12 season.
- Through seven seasons, Wyckoff's tremendous results in defensive game planning, coaching the post players, recruiting, scouting and other areas resulted in a reward: Being named the team's associate head coach on May 1, 2018.
- In her four seasons of taking over the defense, FSU's sub-60 points allowed in three of the past four years mark the only three times the program has surrendered less than 60 in a season.
- In her most recent season in 2017-18, the Seminole standout helped FSU record 25+ wins for the fourth straight season, finishing with a 26-7 overall record. The Seminoles once again displayed their rebounding hallmark, ranking sixth nationally in rebound margin and 11th in rebounds per game.
- Inside players Shakayla Thomas, Ama Degbeon and Chatrice White each enjoyed banner senior seasons in 2017-18 – Thomas became FSU's second three-time All-American, while White and Degbeon developed into two of the ACC's most feared defensive post players.
- She has helped Florida State mark its territory in her native state of Ohio, signing McDonald's All-American Valencia Myers of Solon, Ohio. Myers helps compose another Top-5 recruiting class for the Seminoles in 2018.
- Wyckoff also helped post player Chatrice White have a strong first season with the Seminoles, earning ACC Sixth Player of the Year honors. Front-court performer Shakayla Thomas was named the ACC Player of the Year and earned All-America honors for the second straight season.
- Wyckoff's recent season in 2016-17 once again produced strong defensive results: The Seminoles went to their second NCAA Elite Eight in three years after allowing just 58.3 points per game, the third straight year they have held opponents to under 60 points per game. FSU led the ACC in rebound margin, rebounding defense, rebounding margin and offensive rebounding percentage. Since Wyckoff has taken control of the defensive game plan, FSU has put up record-setting numbers against the opposition.
- Her Spanish connections, being fluent in the Spanish language after enjoying a professional career overseas, resulted in point guard Leticia Romero finishing her career as the first three-time All-American in program history in 2016-17.
- In the 2015-16 season, Wyckoff's impact was felt once again. The Seminoles were one of eight programs nationally who enjoyed consecutive trips to the NCAA Sweet 16 and finished the season with a 25-8 overall record.
- Wyckoff's work on the defensive end yielded positive results in 15-16: FSU allowed just 57.5 points per game, which follows a 2014-15 season when it allowed only 57.3 points per game.
- FSU's dominance on the glass was evident again in 2015-16. The Seminoles finished first in the conference in rebounding defense (29.1), rebounding margin (+12.0), defensive rebounding percentage (73.2) and offensive rebounding percentage (44.1 percent). Of the 16 ACC opponents faced, 11 were held to under 40 percent shooting.
- She was an instrumental part of Florida State's 2014-15 campaign that included a school record for wins (32-5) and the program's second trip to the NCAA Elite Eight. The Seminoles finished the season with their highest final ranking ever at seventh in both the Associated Press and USA Today Polls as well as the RPI.
- Wyckoff's work with the post players proved to be beneficial for two-time All-American Adut Bulgak. The Edmonton, Canada, native flourished in her senior year as a WBCA All-American, the Team MVP, an All-ACC performer and a Senior CLASS All-American. Bulgak was selected with the 12th pick in the first round of the WNBA Draft to the New York Liberty, giving FSU a run of three straight first-round selections (all post players in Bulgak, Natasha Howard and Jacinta Monroe).
- Wyckoff's primary scouting duties shifted to the defense and her hard work in game preparation paid dividends for the Seminoles. The 2014-15 Seminoles allowed just 57.3 points per game, which is the lowest they've ever surrendered. Florida State ranked third nationally with a +12.3 rebound margin and held nearly half (18 of 37) of their opponents to under 35 percent shooting. In each of the last two seasons (2015-16 and 2014-15), FSU has finished in the Top 5 in rebounding margin.

- FSU's defense, anchored by Bulgak as a junior, set a school record for total rebounds with 1,611, and allowed just 0.77 points per possession in 2014-15. The Seminoles never allowed more than 80 points scored.
- Wyckoff's efforts on the recruiting trail once again loomed large. Having played professionally in the Canary Islands, she is fluent in Spanish and was a big reason for the arrival of Romero in the 2014 summer. Romero enjoyed an All-America season for the Seminoles in 2014-15 and added more All-America honors as a junior and senior, being granted immediate eligibility mid-season and sparking FSU to a record-setting run.
- In 2013-14, FSU finished 21-12 and reached the NCAA postseason for the ninth time in the previous 10 years. A group that was short on depth due to transfers and injuries at the beginning of the season found a way to reach the second round of the NCAA Tournament and earn 10 Top 100 RPI wins. Senior forward Natasha Howard emerged as one of the top players in the country, averaging 20.5 points, 9.3 rebounds and 59.4 percent shooting.
- Wyckoff has been an influential figure in Howard's life both on and off the court, admired because of her personable nature and ability to connect well with her student-athletes. Under Wyckoff's tutelage, Howard had one of the most dominant seasons in school history as a senior, which included averaging 23.3 points and 9.6 rebounds against top-notch ACC competition. Howard was rewarded with the fifth overall selection by the Indiana Fever in the 2014 WNBA Draft, the highest in school history. Howard went on to win a WNBA Championship with the Minnesota Lynx in 2017.
- In the 2012-13 year, FSU posted a 23-10 record, finished fourth in the ACC and advanced to its eighth NCAA Tournament in nine years. Along the way, Wyckoff, a star forward during her playing career, helped the Seminoles land a school-record and a conference-best three players on the All-ACC First Team, as senior guards Alexa Deluzio and Leo Rodriguez and junior forward Natasha Howard collected honors from the conference office.
- Four years later, Rodriguez would join fellow Canary Islands native Romero in the 2016 Summer Olympic Games and earn a silver medal in Rio – the country's first medal in women's basketball.
- Senior forward Chasity Clayton also nabbed ACC Sixth Player of the Year accolades, as Florida State finished in the top 10 nationally in both scoring and field goal percentage. FSU's 74.8 points per game average and .453 shooting percentage were its highest marks in 20 years.
- Without a doubt, Wyckoff was one of the greatest Seminoles ever to wear the Garnet and Gold on the hardwood before playing nine seasons in the WNBA. Wyckoff's experience at the professional level has given the Seminoles a rare commodity on the bench.
- Along with the immediate credibility her hoops career provides, Wyckoff possesses an amiable personality that has made her an immediate hit on the recruiting trail. Her efforts led the Seminoles to sign one of the nation's top incoming recruiting classes in 2013. Led by four-star McDonald's All-America center Kai James as well as Ivey Slaughter, Brittany Brown and Gabby Bevillard, the Noles' 2013 signing class featured three Top 100 players and ranked as the nation's No. 7 class by All-Star Girls Report and No. 11 by ESPNW HoopGurlz. That senior class won 106 games at FSU, the most in program history.
- Wyckoff's recruiting abilities shone through once again with the 2014 class, signing highly-touted prospects Shakayla Thomas, Chania Ray and Ama Degbeon. The addition of the No. 1 junior college center in the nation, Adut Bulgak, once again provided the Noles with an abundance of talent as she garnered All-America honors as a junior and senior at FSU.
- Wyckoff also serves as the Seminoles' program's liaison with the FSU academic support staff in addition to her on-court duties. In each of the last three years (2016, 2017, 2018), FSU has either led or tied for the conference lead in All-ACC Academic Team selections.
- In her first year back at FSU, Wyckoff, a star versatile forward during her career, helped tutor all-conference forwards Cierra Bravard and Howard. Bravard later signed a professional contract with the WNBA's San Antonio SilverStars and played the 2013 WNBA season with the Seattle Storm. Howard led the ACC in double-doubles in 2012, then set a single-season school record with 15 double-doubles as a senior.
- A native of West Chester, Ohio, the talented post/wing was one of the top high school players in the country before signing a National Letter of Intent with FSU in 1997 in what was Semrau's first season in Tallahassee.
- In her freshman year, Wyckoff made an immediate impact as she set a single-season record at the time with 80 blocks on her way to earning ACC All-Freshman Team honors. Conference accolades continued to roll in during her next three years with a pair of All-ACC Third Team selections (1999 and 2000) and finally an All-ACC First Team honor as a senior in 2001.
- Wyckoff's 1,350 career points is the 14th-most in school history and her 804 rebounds rank seventh. She ranks No. 2 at FSU in career blocks with 209. She averaged 12.4 ppg and 7.4 rpg while starting all 109 games she played in her career.
- Perhaps most importantly, Wyckoff was the cornerstone of the Seminoles' first winning season in nine years as the team posted a 19-12 record in 2001 and finished fourth in the ACC. That season culminated in the school's first trip to the NCAA Tournament in 10 years and All-America honors for Wyckoff, which was the first national accolade for an FSU women's basketball player since 1993. She capped her career by scoring 14.6 ppg and pulling down 6.6 rpg that final season.
- In addition to boasting the honor of being just one of four former 'Noles to have their jerseys' retired, Wyckoff was also an outstanding performer in the classroom. She is the only Seminole to ever earn four All-ACC Academic Women's Basketball Team honors as well as four nods to the ACC Academic Honor Roll.

- In 2001, she earned an ACC Postgraduate scholarship and was named to the ACC Legends Class of 2010. In 2002, she was named to the 51-member ACC 50th Anniversary Women's Basketball Team.
- She also played with the USA Women's Basketball Select Team for three consecutive summers.
- In 2011, Wyckoff was inducted into the Butler County Sports Hall of Fame as well as the Florida State Athletic Hall of Fame and the Greater Cincinnati Basketball Hall of Fame.
- Following her senior year, Wyckoff was selected by the Orlando Miracle in the second round of the WNBA Draft. She spent two seasons in Orlando before the team moved to Connecticut where she played another three seasons with the Sun.
- She was then selected by the Chicago Sky in the 2006 WNBA Expansion draft and played for that franchise until 2009.
- During her nine-year WNBA career, Wyckoff appeared in 242 games.
- After concluding her professional basketball career, Wyckoff served as an assistant girls basketball coach at Lakota East High School in Cincinnati, Ohio.
- Wyckoff has one daughter, Avery. She is also a founding member of Moms in Coaching, a group of mothers who coach basketball that meet every year at the NCAA Women's Final Four

MATTHEW SCHMAUCH LEADERSHIP AWARD

Matthew Schmauch, an Assistant Director of Academic Support who worked with the women's basketball program for four seasons, was instrumental in the academic success of FSU student-athletes. His influence went beyond the classroom. He was an ambassador, a mentor, a friend, a big brother, a fan — truly a shining example of where hard work and determination can take you. This award, established in his memory, is given annually to the women's basketball player who exemplifies these characteristics of leadership.

The Florida State Athletics Department lost a dear member of its Seminole family on June 13, 2003. Matt Schmauch, 29, an Assistant Director for the Athletic Academic Support Program at Florida State, died from anaphylaxis due to an allergic reaction to nuts while representing FSU at the N4A convention in St. Louis, Mo.

A native of Allen Park, Mich., Schmauch had been a valuable member of the athletic academic support staff since 1996. A glowing role model in the classroom, Schmauch earned a bachelor's degree in finance from Florida State in 1995 and went on to receive a master's degree in athletic administration from FSU in 1996.

In 2003-04, the Florida State women's basketball program created a special award in honor of Schmauch.

IN MEMORY

While Ronalda Pierce remains on the minds and in the hearts of those associated with Florida State women's basketball, the 2006-07 season had an even greater meaning as it would have represented Ronalda's senior season. Members of her recruiting class, Nikki Anthony, Shante Williams and Alicia Gladden, proudly hold up their hands signifying the No. 55; Ronalda's jersey number.

RONALDA PIERCE HEART AWARD

Daughter, sister, classmate, teammate, role model, friend and Seminole. Ronalda Pierce meant so much to so many people. Although with us a short time, Ronalda's memory will forever be etched in the hearts of the Seminole family. Ronalda represented courage, heart, determination, growth and joy. It was these characteristics that allowed her to blossom into the person that was cherished by all who knew her. The recipient of this award exemplifies these same qualities of perseverance and heart.

On June 8, 2004, the Florida State women's basketball program lost a special member of its family with the sudden death of Ronalda Pierce, a 6-5 post player from Ashburn, Ga. In 2004-05, the players wore #55 on their shoes in her honor.

The Seminoles paid tribute to Ronalda by celebrating the time, although too short, that they had with her. In 2005, an award was established in her memory.

ALICIA "ICE" GLADDEN

The Florida State women's basketball family suffered an immeasurable loss on April 19, 2013, when former standout guard Alicia "Ice" Gladden passed away at the age of 27 following a tragic car accident.

Nicknamed "Ice" because of her smooth style of play on the court, Gladden was an enormous part of Florida State's program-building trip to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 2007. The native of Orange Park, Fla., who always showcased a beautiful left-handed touch was known as someone who made you smile and carried an infectious personality.

In 2015, Florida State Women's Basketball established the Alicia Gladden Defensive Player of the Year Award in her honor.

CAREER ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Gladden became the only Seminole to capture ACC All-Defensive Team honors three times.
- At the time, she set the Florida State career record for steals (275) as well as the single-season record (101) in 2004-05.
- Led the Noles in scoring in her junior and senior seasons, culminating by averaging 13.5 points and leading FSU to its first-ever NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 in 2007.
- Two-Time All-ACC Third Team performer and an All-ACC Honorable Mention player who became the 20th member of Florida State's 1,000 point club, finishing with 1,403 career points which is currently 11th all-time

HALL OF FAMERS

The Florida State Athletics Hall of Fame enjoys a rich tradition. Florida State is fortunate to boast an athletics program that reflects the integrity achieved by an academic institution with over 150 years of success.

There are over 300 members of the FSU Athletics Hall of Fame. The first and largest class was inducted in 1977 and there has been a class inducted every fall since with the exception of 1996 when Florida State spent the year celebrating its 50th Anniversary of athletics.

Five former women's basketball greats - Sue Galkantas, Tia Paschal, Wanda Burns-Jackson, Brooke Wyckoff and Bev Burnett - are members of the Florida State Athletics Hall of Fame.

SUE GALKANTAS HALL OF FAME 1989

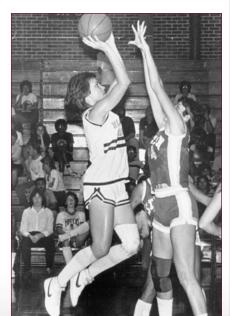

Florida State may never forget the scoring power of Sue Galkantas, who with an amazing 2,323 career points, is the most prolific scorer in Seminole basketball history. That total is the most points ever scored by a player, male or female — in Florida State history. Galkantas is currently one of just 157 players in NCAA history to amass 2,300 career points and 1,000 career rebounds.

By the time Galkantas graduated in 1984, her name was listed in nearly every statistical category in the FSU records book.

Averaging 19.4 points per game in her career — a mark that still ranks number one on the career lists — was just a glimpse of the impact that she had as a Seminole. In her rookie year, she broke the FSU freshman scoring record and was named a freshman

All-American in numerous publications. By her sophomore year, Galkantas had already scored her 1,000th point and established herself as one of the top 20 scorers in the nation. In her junior season, she led FSU to a 24-6 record and to its first trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Overall, she scored in double figures in 115 of 120 games and still holds 10 career and single-season records. In 1989, Galkantas also became the first female FSU athlete to have her number retired.

Sue Galkantas

TIA PASCHAL HALL OF FAME 1999

The Florida State women's basketball program previously enjoyed its greatest success during the four-year career of Tia Paschal, who lettered for the Seminoles from 1989 to 1993.

A forward from Thomson, Ga., Paschal was an immediate contributor for Florida State and was a three-year starter after averaging 20 minutes of play as a rookie. She ended her career averaging 19.4 points and 7.4 rebounds as a senior while earning first team All-ACC honors and second team All-America honors.

first team All-ACC honors and second team All-America honors by the American Women's Sports Federation. During her career, she helped lead the Seminoles to two consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances in 1989-90 and 1990-91 as well as a Metro Conference championship in the 1990-91 season.

Paschal's versatility made her a weapon in every facet of the game, which is evident by the records she still holds at Florida State. She nearly holds the records free throws made (14) in a game and is third for steals in a career (269). Paschal is also among FSU's top 10 in five season and six career records and ranks third all-time in scoring with 1,662 points.

Honors came in abundance for Paschal throughout her career. After redshirting the 1988-89 season with a knee injury, Paschal took the conference by storm as a freshman, earning Metro Conference All-Rookie Team honors. She earned Metro All-Tournament Team honors two seasons and was twice named the conference Player of the Week.

Paschal continued playing the game that she loves professionally. Since her graduation in criminology in 1993, Paschal's professional overseas experience included stops in Germany, Sweden and Spain. She also played one season with the Charlotte Sting of the WNBA.

Tia Paschal

HALL OF FAMERS

WANDA BURNS HALL OF FAME 2006

Wanda Burns overcame adversity to become a successful women's basketball player at Florida State. One of Marynell Meadors' first recruits, Burns was a highly-touted 5-foot-8 guard out of Macon, Georgia.

Though she carried a 3.0 GPA in high school, her SAT scores were below the required score to meet the new NCAA Prop 48 rule and she had to sit out her freshman season. Burns used the year to hit the books and get acclimated to campus life.

She took the court in 1988-89 with something to prove. She averaged 11 points a game and led the team with 92 assists, helping FSU to its first winning season since 1983.

She electrified the team in 1989-90 and sparked FSU to a 21-9 record and to the NCAA Tournament. Burns set an FSU record for free throw percentage and led the team in scoring, three pointers and steals.

In 1990-91, her final season, Burns was named Metro Conference Player of the Week, set a single game record with 10 steals in a game and led the team in three-point shooting. FSU enjoyed one of its most successful seasons with a record of 25-7. Burns led the Metro Conference in scoring at 18.5 points per game and scored double figures in 38 consecutive games. She was named Metro Conference Tournament MVP and Player of the Year and also earned Hanes Her Way NCAA Woman of the Year and Second Team All-American honors.

Burns still ranks among FSU's top 10 in two career and seven single-season statistical categories.

Wanda Burns

BROOKE WYCKOFF HALL OF FAME 2011

Florida State women's basketball assistant coach Brooke Wyckoff solidified her place among the all-time great 'Noles in September 2011 with her induction into the Florida State Athletic Hall of Fame.

Wyckoff, who was a star forward for head coach Sue Semrau's first hoops teams from 1997-2001, became the fourth women's basketball player to be inducted into the Hall of Fame on Sept. 2 at a ceremony at the University Center Club, joining Sue Galkantas (Class of 1989), Tia Paschal (Class of 1999) and Wanda Burns (Class of 2006).

"Getting inducted into Florida State's Hall of Fame is the biggest honor I have ever received," Wyckoff said. "It's amazing. It's surreal and an honor to be among the amazing athletes that are in it. It was a great opportunity for me to reflect on my career here, and to thank everybody publicly made it so special."

Wyckoff and the rest of her illustrious class – Tony Brown, Sam Cowart, Marshall McDougall, Stephen Parry, Chris Weinke and Andy Miller – were also honored on Bobby Bowden Field at Doak Cambell Stadium during FSU football's 2011 season-opening football game versus Louisiana-Monroe.

A recent addition to Semrau's coaching staff, Wyckoff was hired by her alma mater in the summer 2011. Wyckoff spent nine years in the WNBA, playing for the Orlando Miracle, Connecticut Sun and the Chicago Sky.

Wyckoff was one of the top high school players in the country but chose to leave West Chester, Ohio, to play for Sue Semrau and Florida State. She made an immediate impact setting an FSU record with 80 blocked shots as a freshman in 1997.

She went on to earn All-ACC honors as a sophomore and junior and capped her senior season (2001) with first team All-ACC honors as well as All-America honors. She was also FSU's only four-time Academic All-ACC performer and received an ACC postgraduate scholarship.

Wyckoff scored 1,350 points over her storied FSU career and finished as the second best shot blocker the Seminoles have ever produced with 209. She grabbed 804 career rebounds to also rank among FSU's all-time Top 10.

Brooke Wyckoff

BEV BURNETT HALL OF FAME 2012

Tallahassee native Bev Burnett rounded out her Florida State career as one of the most prolific scorers in school history. A four-year letterwinner from 1985-89, Burnett finished her career with 1,509 points, a mark that ranks sixth in FSU history. She also ranks fifth all-time in scoring average at 15.6 points per game.

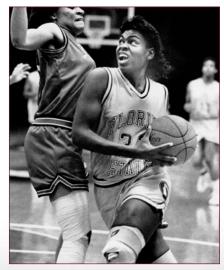

A team captain, the 5-foot-9 forward earned All-Metro Conference First Team honors in both 1988 and 1989 and led the Seminoles in scoring in each of those seasons with averages of 21.3 and 15.9

points per game, respectively. Her 21.3 points per game average in 1988 still ranks as the second highest single-season mark in Florida State women's basketball history.

Burnett is a six-time member of the FSU 30-point club and her 34 points vs. both Florida A&M (1986) and Virginia Tech (1988) is tied for the eighth-most points scored in a game by a Seminole. She was also named a third team All-American by the American Women's Sports Federation in 1988 and has numerous conference player of the week honors to her credit.

She became the fifth women's basketball player inducted into the FSU Hall of Fame.

Bev Burnett

RETIRED JERSEYS

The Florida State Women's Basketball has enjoyed a long and rich tradition. Part of that legacy includes honoring some of the top players in program history by retiring their jerseys. Four Seminoles in Sue Galkantas (1980-84), Tia Paschal (1988-93), Wanda Burns (1988-91) and Brooke Wyckoff (1997-01) have had their jerseys retired, with Burns and Paschal being the most recent in a joint jersey retirement ceremony on Jan. 28, 2007.

2018-19 FSU WOMEN'S BASKETBALL ON THE RADIO AT WOTL-FM 106.1

Tallahassee, Fla.

Florida State fans can follow the Seminoles whether on the road or at home on the radio station for FSU Women's Basketball - WQTL (106.1 FM). Every regular season and postseason game can be heard throughout the season, as well as pre-game talk and post-game interviews with head coach Sue Semrau, her coaching staff and a few selected student-athletes.

Ariya Massoudi begins his second full season as the official play-by-play man of the Florida State Women's Basketball team. For Massoudi, who has received both his Bachelors of Arts in Digital Media Production and Sports Management, he gets a chance to work with a program that he is quite familiar with.

He is no stranger to the game day setup that is involved from many angles, having worked for Seminole Productions as a playby-play announcer, color analyst, side-line reporter, game day host and on the production team. Like many aspiring students who look to gain experience in sports and media production. Massoudi has taken advantage of what Florida State Athletics has to offer. His play-by-play experience on the ACC Network Extra includes calling Florida State football, men's and women's basketball, tennis, baseball and other sports. He has called well over 100 games on the ACC Network Extra, which is produced by Seminole Productions, over the last four Massoudi will also be the host of the Sue Semrau Show this upcoming season, which airs regularly on FOX Sports Sun/Florida. Massoudi, who is from Tallahassee and attended Lincoln High School, has also worked as a studio host and halftime analyst for the ACC Network Extra. He gained valuable experience as a student working on video features about Florida State Athletics that were aired as part of the weekly Seminole Sports Magazine show on Saturday mornings on Sun Sports.

Joining Massoudi will be color analyst Melissa Bruner. Bruner is the women's basketball Director of Basketball Operations and is in her 12th season providing radio and TV analysis for the Seminoles. Bruner also serves as a color analyst for many of Florida State's ACC Network Extra matchups at home, breaking down each game and giving off her insightful and introspective knowledge of FSU Women's Basketball.
