FLORIDA STATE BEACH VOLLEYBALL

THE NATION'S NEWEST SPORT

- The NCAA added Beach Volleyball to its list of championship sports in 2016. It became the 90th and newest national championship sport recognized by the NCAA.
- The Seminoles reached the finals at the inaugural NCAA Championship in Gulf Shores, Ala., in May 2016, finishing with a school-record 32 wins as the national runner-ups.
- Florida State introduced what was then called sand volleyball as its 20th varsity sport in the spring of 2012 and competed as an emerging NCAA sport for four seasons.
- The sport changed names from sand to beach volleyball as it is known as the latter at all other levels of play throughout the world.
- Beach volleyball is the fastest-growing NCAA sport with 64 colleges and universities sponsoring the sport as of January 2017.

AN ELITE PROGRAM

- Since the inception of the program in 2012, Florida State advanced to the AVCA Championships in each of its first five seasons and the first two NCAA Championships in 2016 and 2017.
- The Seminoles finished as the national runner-up in 2014, falling to Pepperdine, 3-2, in the finals. FSU registered a pair of top-3 finishes at the AVCA Championships in 2012 and 2013.
- Florida State is one of just two beach volleyball programs (along with Pepperdine) to have played in every AVCA/NCAA Championships (2012-17).
- Since 2012, FSU has been recognized with 11 AVCA

Beach All-America honors from eight different players. The Seminoles' eight All-Americans are tied for the third most nationally.

- Through its first six seasons, Florida State boasts an all-time mark of 126-27 (.824 winning percentage), including a program record 32 dual match victories in 2016.
- FSU has recorded 39 wins against ranked opponents dating back to the 2013 campaign, including 22 earned in the 2017 season.
- One of those ranked wins came against then-No. 2 Southern Cal in Los Angeles, as the Seminoles snapped the Women of Troy's 19-match home win streak.
- The Noles took down No. 2 Pepperdine for the first time in school history, 3-2, in Tallahassee during the 2017 season.
- FSU earned the No. 1 overall seed at the 2016 NCAA Beach Volleyball Championship after claiming the Coastal Collegiate Sports Association (CCSA) conference title.
- The Seminoles gathered their second consecutive CCSA Conference title in 2017 as they took down No. 10 FIU.

NOLES IN CCSA

- Florida State became a charter member of the Coastal Collegiate Sports Association for beach volleyball only for prior to the start of the 2016 season.
- The Coastal Collegiate Sports Association expanded to 10 members in 2017, welcoming College of Charleston and UNC Wilmington to a league that also includes Florida State, UAB, Florida Atlantic, Florida International, Georgia State, LSU, South Carolina and Tulane.
- Florida State is the only school to sponsor beach volleyball in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

ATTRACTING TOP TALENT

- Third-year head coach Brooke Niles earned third team All-America honors in indoor volleyball at UC Santa Barbara before moving on to a successful professional beach volleyball career. She was named 2009 AVP Beach Defensive Player of the Year and spent four seasons as a member of the USA Beach National Team.
- Niles was named the 2016 AVCA Coach of the Year as she piloted the Seminoles to a school-record 32 dual-match victories, the CCSA league championship and a No. 1 seed in the inaugural NCAA Beach Volleyball Championship.
- Assistant coach Raul Papaleo has a wealth of experience both internationally and domestically as an indoor and beach volleyball coach. As head coach, he led American University in Bayamon, Puerto Rico to a runner up finish in the Puerto Rican National Championship. During his first season as an assistant at FSU he helped lead the Noles to 29 wins and their second straight CCSA title.
- FSU Beach Volleyball has historically attracted some of the nation's best players to the program. Among those include 2016 AVCA All-American Sarah Putt, who transferred to FSU and will begin play in the 2017-18 campaign and 2016 CCSA Freshman of the year Francesca Goncalves.
- New to the team in 2018 is volunteer assistant coach Nick Lucena. As one of the top-ranked professional beach players in the country, Lucena brings a plethora of talent and experience to FSU's expert coaching staff.

FLORIDA STATE

BEACH VOLLEYBALL

Through its first six seasons, Florida State boasts an all-time mark of 125-28 (.817 winning percentage), including a program record 32 dual match victories in 2016.

Florida State advanced to the AVCA Championships in each of its first five seasons and the NCAA Championship in 2016 and 2017.

FSU is just one of two beach volleyball programs (along with Pepperdine) to have played in the first four AVCA Championships (2012-15) and the first two NCAA Championships.

Since 2012, FSU has been recognized with 11 AVCA Beach All-America Honors from eight different players. The Seminoles' eight All-Americans are tied for the most all-time).

Niles was named the 2016 AVCA Coach of the Year as she piloted the Seminoles to a CCSA Championship, the top seed in the NCAA Beach Volleyball Championship and a school-record 32 dual match victories.

SEMINOLE BEACH VOLLEYBALL COURTS

Completed in 2011, the Seminole Beach Volleyball courts was one of the first facilities to be built specifically for collegiate beach volleyball. Located north of the Seminole Soccer Complex and JoAnne Graf Field between Mike Long Track and the Spirit Way Parking Garage, the facility is wrapped in Florida State University graphics and logos highlighting the enormous success of the FSU Beach Volleyball team during the sport's first six years. The Seminole Beach Volleyball Courts remain one of the premier facilities in the nation.

There are three entrances where patrons can enter the facility, with seating for approximately 150 people on the bleachers at sand level. The multi-level parking garage adjacent to the courts can also be used for spectator viewing. Spectators are encouraged to bring their own lawn chairs to the event as well. The courts are also equipped with permanent lighting to allow matches to be played at night.

The Seminole Beach Volleyball Courts were built using two types of sand. The lower level of sand is more powdery to allow precipitation to filter through to the drainage system. The upper level of sand is more dense, allowing student-athletes a competitive playing surface each time out.

BEACH VOLLEYBALL LOCKER ROOM

- Tully Gymnasium is the home of the Florida State beach volleyball team, housing the coaches' offices, team lounge and locker room. Renovations to the Seminoles' new locker room were completed in January of 2016 thanks to the support of the FSU Athletics Department and Seminole Boosters.
- The locker room features individual lockers for each student-athlete identified with their own personal name plate, individual shower stalls and bathrooms. The lockers include plenty of storage for both hanging clothes and folded items along with power outlets that also feature USB ports.
- The team lounge provides ample space to hold team meetings, watch film or to give the beach volleyball student-athletes a quiet place to study. The lounge is equipped with a 64 inch HD-television screen, couches and chairs for plenty of comfort.
- A satellite workout facility is located just outside the beach volleyball office in Tully Gym featuring state-of-the-art equipment. The Tully Gym weight room is a clean and spacious 4,500 square foot facility equipped with mondo-rubber flooring, 10 squat racks, and houses 10 platforms for Olympic lifting. With an iPad on every rack and a change of facility design, Florida State continues to improve each of its strength and conditioning facilities.

THE CCSA

The FSU Beach Volleyball program joined the Coastal Collegiate Sports Association (CCSA) as a charter member prior to the spring 2016 season.

CCSA Beach Volleyball began play in the spring of 2016 with eight founding members: University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB), Florida Atlantic University, Florida International University, Florida State University, Georgia State University, Louisiana State University (LSU), the University of South Carolina and Tulane University. The CCSA announced the addition of College of Charleston and UNC Wilmington to the sport of beach volleyball, expanding the conference to 10 members for the spring 2017 championship.

The CCSA, which was formerly known as the Coastal Collegiate Swimming Association at the Division I level, rebranded to include beach volleyball for the upcoming season.

Beach Volleyball became the 90th championship sponsored by the NCAA in 2015-16 after being officially recognized as an NCAA sport for 2011-12. The first NCAA Beach Volleyball Championship in Gulf Shores, Alabama, was hosted by CCSA member UAB. The creation of CCSA Beach Volleyball provides student-athletes the opportunity to compete for conference honors and championships. The NCAA does not currently offer automatic qualification (AQ) into the beach volleyball championship for conference winners (a two-year championship history is required), but the CCSA will be in position to qualify for an AQ should they be offered in 2018.

The CCSA formed in 2007 as a partnership among swimming and diving programs in the Atlantic Sun Conference, Big South Conference, Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference and Southern Conference to provide championship opportunities for men's and women's swimming and diving student-athletes. Conference growth in swimming and diving now shows 15 institutions with competitors from eight separate Division I multisport conferences. With the addition of beach volleyball, the Coastal Collegiate Sports Association now has 22 member institutions with participants from 11 different NCAA Division I multisport conferences.

2018 SEASON PREVIEW

The phrase “National Championship” is something the Florida State beach volleyball team isn’t afraid to throw around this season. After coming so close to the championship for the second year in a row and taking home another conference title in 2017, the Seminoles have upped the pressure and set their sights on the 2018 National Championship.

“It’s something we want to remind ourselves every day to work for,” head coach Brooke Niles said. “They’ve shown a lot of discipline in practice and they definitely have that goal on their minds.”

In just two seasons at the helm, Niles has set a number of records and coached some of the best teams the program has ever seen, but she isn’t even close to being done. Although the team is looking forward to its ultimate goal of claiming the championship, right now the Seminoles are just looking forward to getting the season started.

“They’re just ready to compete,” Niles said. “We have one of the longest off-seasons of any sport, so by the time preseason training is over and we compete in our first scrimmage it’s been five and a half weeks. So I think they’re just ready to test themselves against competition and really get the season going.”

Expectations remain high for the team heading into the 2018 season, as the Seminoles will see a challenging schedule to prepare for what they hope is a deep postseason run.

Florida State opens the season in DeLand, Fla., at the Stetson Spring Fling, where it will face the hosting Hatters and three CCSA opponents – Florida Atlantic, South Carolina and Georgia State.

The Seminoles then return home for the earliest home event the team has ever seen, hosting St. Petersburg College, Stetson and conference opponent College of Charleston in the Hampton Inn Capitol-University Invitational.

The challenging schedule takes FSU out to Southern California for the East Meets West Challenge, where the team will face the four other top-5 opponents – Hawaii, Pepperdine, UCLA and USC. The Seminoles stay in California to take on Pepperdine again, along with Long Beach State and LMU in a set of midweek matches.

The Seminoles will then stay in Florida for the Hickory Point Lake Bash in Tavares and a Garnet and Gold scrimmage at home on March 24, before heading south for FIU’s Surf & Turf Invitational in South Beach Miami.

FSU will then host its third and final home event of the season, taking on FAU, UNC Wilmington, TCU, UAB and Georgia State in the Seminole Beach Battle in April. The regular season will conclude in Baton Rouge at LSU’s Battle on the Bayou, where the Noles will see conference opponents Georgia State and LSU, along with Jacksonville State and New Orleans before heading into the postseason.

Niles will return 14 letterwinners this season, as well as six of the nation’s top recruits and one indoor graduate transfer. Another major addition for the Seminoles this season is Volunteer Assistant Coach Nick Lucena.

Lucena returns to his alma mater in the midst of a highly successful career on the professional circuit. Since graduating from FSU in 2003, Lucena has picked up 17 overall first place finishes, including nine AVP gold medals and eight international titles. Alongside partner Phil Dalhausser, the duo finished fifth in the Rio de Janeiro Olympics in 2016.

“It’s kind of surreal having an Olympian on the court with you,” said sophomore Francesca Goncalves. “He sees things that other people just don’t see, and his input is very honest. He will just tell you how it is. We need that honesty in this game because we need to fix our weaknesses, and I think he is here to take us to the next level.”

On the courts, the Seminoles will look to seniors Vanessa Freire and Tory Paranagua to lead the team this season, after the duo clinched the 2017 CCSA Championship match and claimed the CCSA Tournament MVP title as a pair. Paranagua led the team with a 30-8 record last season, giving her an 84-21 career record – the eighth-most in program history. Freire sits right behind her classmate with a 29-5 record in 2017 – the second-most on the team – and a 77-20 career record, which is good for the ninth-most in program history.

Although the seniors will be expected to lead the team, an outstanding season from junior Brooke Kuhlman earns her a spot at the top of the lineup. Kuhlman became FSU's eighth AVCA All-American last season after going 18-11 with partner Leigh Andrew. The two defeated 18 ranked opponents and recorded the match point in FSU's first win over Pepperdine. Her successful sophomore season also landed her a DiG Magazine All-American honor and a spot on the All-CCSA First Team.

Returning for her sophomore season is FSU's 2017 breakout star – Francesca Goncalves. In her freshman campaign, Goncalves picked up 29 wins on her way to becoming the CCSA Freshman of the Year, the DiG Magazine Freshman of the Year, as well as earning a DiG Magazine All-American honor and a spot on the CCSA All-Tournament Team. Her 29-7 record was good for the second-most on the team and the 16th-most by an individual in a single season.

"We're definitely going to rely on our experience this year," Niles said. "But we also have a crop of really athletic freshmen that came in.

So we're going to try to combine the two and see where that takes us."

While all six freshmen this season are bound to make an impact for the Noles on the sand, one local name stands out the most – Tallahassee's own Madison Fitzpatrick. Her success as both an athlete and a student earned Fitzpatrick Lincoln High School's Trojan of the Year award and the Wendy's Heisman award in 2017, and shortly after graduation she was named an AVCA High School Beach All-American.

"In the past we've had a lot of great experience on this team, and this program is a top team for a reason," Niles said. "Part of that is what we do on the recruiting side and then how we train them as athletes when they're here. I'm just excited to put all these tools together."

Also stepping onto the sand for the first time this season for the Seminoles will be redshirt sophomore Sara Putt and graduate transfer Lauren Anderson. A transfer from Stetson, Putt became an AVCA All-American as a freshman in 2016, going 32-3 at the No. 1 position to claim the Atlantic Sun Freshman of the Year honor. Anderson comes to the Seminoles after a four-year indoor career at Utah State and Pittsburgh. She finished her senior campaign ranked nationally in six major statistical categories and set a number of USU records.

With some of the most talent the program has seen on one roster, FSU is hoping to finalize its starting lineup this Saturday, February 17 at the Garnet and Gold scrimmage in Jacksonville Beach. The Seminoles play on the sand in between 6th and 7th Ave. North, and first serve is set for noon.

After enduring a long off-season and training harder than they ever have before, the team is eager to get back in the sand and start competing. Although it is important to focus on each opponent individually, the team has no plans to stop talking about that National Championship title.

"We have a certain standard we hold ourselves up to," Niles said. "I think other programs are different in that they just want to get someplace or get a certain amount of wins. We know what we're capable of, and I don't think there's anything wrong with voicing those opinions."

Florida State University athletics announced the hiring of U.S. beach volleyball professional Brooke Niles as the Seminoles beach volleyball head coach on June 16, 2015. Niles, a California native who earned All-America honors as a player, has coached at the collegiate, junior college, club and high school levels working with both indoor and sand volleyball teams.

In 2016, Niles led the Seminoles to unprecedented heights during the program's first season as an official NCAA Championship sport. Her first year in Tallahassee was highlighted by a series of program firsts including a school-record for dual-match victories (32), a conference championship, the top-seed in the inaugural NCAA Beach Volleyball Championship and a national runner-up finish.

Florida State hit the ground running under Niles, winning its first 14 matches, all on the road, with eight of those victories coming against ranked foes including five ranked in the top-10. One of those wins came against then-No. 2 Southern California in Los Angeles as the Seminoles snapped the Women of Troy's 19-match home win streak. FSU went on to earn the No. 1 overall seed at the NCAA Beach Volleyball Championship after claiming the 2016 Coastal Collegiate Sports Association (CCSA) Conference title.

The Seminoles finished the 2016 campaign as the national runner-up at the NCAA Beach Volleyball Championship in Gulf Shores, Ala. after posting a 3-2 record at the tournament. FSU went on to set the single-season school record for victories in a season with 32 and ranked in the Top 5 of the AVCA national poll all year. Along with their 14-match win streak, the Seminoles also put together a school-record 17-match win streak which saw Florida State outscore the opposition 71-10. At season's end, Florida State registered 19 victories over ranked schools, while posting an 11-3 mark against teams ranked in the Top 10.

In her second year under the helm Niles continued the winning tradition of Florida State beach volleyball. The team finished with the second most wins in school history and the third most in the country (29). Niles and the Noles secured back-to-back CCSA Championships after they defeated FIU 3-0 in 34 minutes. Florida State reached their second consecutive NCAA Beach Volleyball Championship appearance and sixth straight post season appearance, tied for most of any school.

The Seminoles finished the 2017 season in fourth place at the NCAA Beach Volleyball Championship in Gulf Shore, Ala. after going 2-2 at the tournament. The Noles defeated a school record 22 ranked teams during the 2017 season, including 13 wins over top-10 teams and three over top-5 teams. The 2017 season saw the Garnet and Gold defeat Pepperdine for the first time in school history as they took down the second-ranked wave in Tallahassee.

Under Niles, Florida State garnered two AVCA All-Americans, six CCSA All-Conference selections, a league-best three student-athletes named to the CCSA All-Academic team in 2016, the CCSA Scholar Athlete of the Year (Macy Jerger) in 2017, the CCSA Pair of the Year in 2016 (Julie Brown/Jace Pardon) and 10 Seminoles who earned a spot on the CCSA Academic Honor Roll.

Niles was recognized for her outstanding effort in her first season at the helm of the Seminole beach volleyball program as she was named National Coach of the Year by the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA).

Niles, who earned a law and society degree from UC Santa Barbara in 2003, was a third-team All-American while playing for the Gauchos where she also was a three-time All-Big West selection and named conference freshman of the year. Following her playing career at UCSB, Niles spent three years as an assistant indoor coach at her alma mater before beginning a successful professional beach volleyball career in 2007 that saw her win numerous pro tournaments along with being named the AVP Beach Defensive Player of the Year in 2009.

While climbing to a Top 5 ranking in the National Volleyball Beach League and spending 2010-13 as a member of the USA Beach National Team, Niles was a first alternate for the USA 2012 London Olympic Beach National team.

The Woodland Hills native returned to coaching in 2010 at Oxnard Junior College with the indoor team. In 2012, she began coaching professional beach volleyball teams competing on the FIVB World Tour from the USA, Costa Rica and the Netherlands. Most recently Niles coached at Mira Costa High School in California and she was the director, founder and head coach of The Beach Team Club in Hermosa.

"I'm very excited that Brooke joined our volleyball family," said FSU Volleyball Head Coach Chris Poole. "She played beach volleyball and indoor volleyball at the highest level. She has also coached indoor volleyball at a Top 10 level in the NCAA Division I and she has coached and trained with some of the best beach players in the world. The references we got from National Team level players, coaches, and Gold Medalists were outstanding. She had a very impressive resume and made an impact on everyone during her visit."

"Brooke will lead the squad in a fantastic way and help the ladies grow and learn in so many ways," said Kerri Walsh, a three-time Olympic gold medalist in beach volleyball. "Her competitiveness is truly an asset as it leads her to work hard and push for excellence. She practices what she preaches and this to me is what coaching/teaching is all about."

Niles is married to Nick Lucena, a Florida State graduate, professional beach volleyball player on the AVP Tour and Olympian in the 2016 Olympics in Rio. They have two sons, Gunnar and Cole.

ASSISTANT COACH

RAUL PAPALEO

SECOND SEASON • INDIANA UNIVERSITY - PURDUE UNIVERSITY AT FORT WAYNE

Raul Papaleo joined the Florida State beach volleyball program as assistant coach in December 2016.

Papaleo, a 2004 beach volleyball Olympian and standout indoor collegiate and professional beach volleyball player, began his coaching career in 1999-2001, where he served as the head men's coach at American University in Bayamon, Puerto Rico. He piloted American University to a runner-up finish in the Puerto Rican National Championship match.

During Papaleo's first year as an assistant at FSU he helped lead the Noles to a 29-9 record, a CCSA Championship and fourth place at the 2017 NCAA Beach Volleyball championship. Papaleo played a pivotal role in helping lead the Seminoles to 22 wins over ranked opponents, with 13 of those wins coming against top-10 teams and three over top-5 teams.

Papaleo's coaching career before Florida State came at the high school and club level in California, where he made his first stop at the Tstreet Volleyball Club in Irvine. He coached the 13U and 16U programs to a pair of Top 10 rankings in the Southern California Volleyball Association (SCVA) in 2011 and 2012. From there he led the 16U team to the No. 1 ranking in the SVCA, winning two silver medals at the Junior National Qualifiers and a seventh place finish in the National Open Division in 2013-14.

While serving as the head coach for the Tstreet Volleyball Club he was also an assistant coach for Corona del Mar High School in Newport Beach. In 2012, with Papaleo's assistance, Corona del Mar finished 28-7 and ranked 20th nationally.

In August 2013, Papaleo assumed the role as both the indoor and beach volleyball coach at Laguna Beach High School. Coaching one of the top programs in Orange County, he led the indoor team to three league titles and a 30-0 record from 2013-16. In 2015-16 the indoor team was a runner-up in the California Interscholastic Federation playoffs.

Papaleo helped start the Laguna Beach High School beach volleyball program in 2014, guiding the team to a conference championship in its first season. He followed that by guiding the beach team to a second place finish in the Southern California Region and 10th-place finish in the region according to Interscholastic Beach Volleyball League.

His most recent stints on the club circuit came in 2014-15 with the A4 Volleyball Club in Foothill Ranch and 2015-16 with the Laguna Beach Volleyball Club. His A4 13U team reached the gold medal match of the LA Junior National Qualifier with an undefeated 10-0 record, earning a national tournament bid, while the 15U unit earned a silver at the Chicago Junior National Qualifier and a national tournament invitation.

Papaleo served as the head coach for the the Laguna Beach Volleyball Club 13U and 18U teams. He led the 13U team to a third-place showing in the SCVA as they qualified for the Junior National Tournament (Open Division). Meanwhile, his 18U squad captured a silver medal at the Junior Nationals (Open Division) and placed first in the SCVA.

Papaleo, a native of Caguas, Puerto Rico, competed in indoor volleyball for Indiana University-Purdue University at Fort Wayne (IPFW) while earning his degree in supervision. His IPFW team made back-to-back appearances in the Final Four (1991, 1992) as it captured the Midwest Intercollegiate Volleyball Association (MIVA) title in 1992. Papaleo was an integral part of the success at IPFW as he was named NCAA All-American (1992, 1993), 1992 MIVA Player of the Year, the school's 1993 Athlete of the Year and now has a spot in the IPFW Hall of Fame.

In 1995, following the closure of his collegiate indoor career Papaleo earned his first win on the Association of Volleyball Professionals (AVP) Tour event in Denver, Colo., alongside partner Greg Ryan on the beach circuit. He followed that by playing in the pre-qualifier for his native Puerto Rico and was named as the AVP Rookie of the Year in 1996.

During a four-year stint on the AVP Tour, 1995-98, Papaleo finished among the Top 10 on 14 occasions. That included four fifth-place outings, four seventh-place finishes and six ninth-place outings. Papaleo then returned to the Puerto Rico National Tour where he spent the next 10 years of his career (1999-2009). While in his native land Papaleo established the national record for tournament victories (25+) and was a five-time national champion.

Among the standout beach volleyball accomplishments in his career include a gold medal at the Central American & Caribbean Games (2002), ninth-place finish at the 2003 World Championships in Rio de Janeiro (2003), two NORCECA gold medals (2003, 2008) and one NORCECA silver medal (2006).

Papaleo and his teammate Ramon Hernandez brought home the bronze medal at the 2003 Pan-American Games when the combo downed the United States tandem of David Fischer and Brad Torsone. Papaleo and Hernandez went onto represent Puerto Rico in the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens marking the first time in the country's history that it was represented by a beach volleyball team at an Olympic competition.

On February 10, 2017 Indiana University-Purdue University at Fort Wayne retired Papaleo's number nine jersey.

Raul lives in Tallahassee with his girlfriend Marianelly Agosto and three kids; 12-year-old Raul Sebastiani, six-year-old Victoria and one-year-old Nicolas.

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH
NICK LUCENA
 FIRST SEASON • FLORIDA STATE (2003)

Florida State beach volleyball head coach Brooke Niles announced the hiring of Nick Lucena as a volunteer assistant coach on Sept. 15.

Lucena returns to his alma mater from the professional circuit, where he has received numerous accolades over his 16-year career. He and his partner, Phil Dalhausser, are currently the No. 1 ranked international team, while Lucena himself holds the No. 1 ranking in the world.

Most recently, Lucena and Dalhausser won their third gold medal of the 2017 FIVB season at the World Tour Finals. This was the pair's eighth FIVB gold medal and 16th podium finish. Entering the 2017 season, Lucena owned the second-longest active streak of reaching the semifinals, having done so at least once each year since 2007.

Lucena and Dalhausser first paired up in 2003, and reunited in 2015 on the pro circuit. Just a year later, the pair qualified for the 2016 Summer Olympics in Rio de Janeiro as a No. 3 seed, finishing fifth after being eliminated in the quarterfinals.

The same season, the pair earned eight international medals, which was the most on the Tour. They played in four AVP events, winning twice, and only losing three matches during the season due to injury forfeits.

In their three AVP tournaments together in 2015, Lucena and Dalhausser lost just two matches. They finished second, then won in Manhattan Beach, then placed third. Lucena ended the year with the most kills per set on Tour (7.34) and was fifth in digs per set (4.88). On the FIVB Tour Lucena played eight times with Brunner, earning his first medal, a bronze, in St. Petersburg, Fla. Lucena and Dalhausser played five FIVB tournaments together, getting three silvers (including two in the U.S.) and one gold medal.

From 2007-2015, the Fort Lauderdale, Fla. native advanced to the AVP semifinals with eight different partners and reached the title match with six of them.

In 2010, Lucena started a new partnership with Matt Fuerbringer, and in their first tournament together they advanced to the finals in Fort Lauderdale. The duo collected their first win together in Virginia Beach. On the FIVB Tour Lucena and Fuerbringer advanced from four qualifiers in the first six events, with a best of fifth place twice, before winning silver in the Klagenfurt Grand Slam. That event marked the first ever FIVB semifinal for Lucena. The duo ended their season with a bronze medal in The Hague.

Lucena and Fuerbringer played in 14 FIVB events in 2011, winning a silver medal in Quebec after knocking off three straight teams seeded sixth or higher. The duo placed ninth in the World Championships in Rome, and ended the season with a fourth-place finish. They were the ninth-ranked team in the FIVB season points. The following season, the two placed second in the FIVB season opener, and advanced to the semifinals in both AVP events.

In 2008, Lucena was named both the AVP's Most Improved Player and Best Defensive Player. During the 2008 season, Lucena ended the year with 16 AVP top-5 finishes. In 2013, Lucena teamed with Theo Brunner and found some success, winning at Huntington Beach and ending the season with five top-3 finishes. Lucena has also found success internationally with sixteen top-5 finishes in FIVB competition.

Lucena made his AVP main draw debut in 2003 at Belmar, where he partnered with Dalhausser once again. In 2004, the pair started out the season with a seventh place finish in Ft. Lauderdale. In Huntington Beach they advanced to the first semifinal after knocking off top seeded Karch Kiraly and Mike Lambert, as well as both U.S. Olympic teams. In the last event of the season, Lucena had a 13th place finish with Chad Turner after being eliminated by Dalhausser. He ranked sixth in kills per game (7.23) and eighth in digs per game (4.54).

Lucena made his pro beach volleyball debut on the BVA Tour in Clearwater with Jason Aucoin, who played in his only event ever, and the duo did not advance from the qualifier.

Lucena graduated from Florida State in 2003 with a degree in Sport Management. He has three brothers and a sister, Lauren, who played soccer at Florida Atlantic. Lucena is married to head coach Brooke Niles, and they have two sons, Gunnar and Cole.

2017 SEASON IN REVIEW

2017 Florida State Beach Volleyball Team

AN ELITE PROGRAM

- Florida State remained in the AVCA Top-4 for the entire 2017 season, with its highest ranking coming in at No. 2. The Seminoles have now been ranked in the top four for 21 straight weeks, dating back to week one of 2016 (March 7).
- The program captured its 10th and 11th All-American Honors in 2017, which is tied with the most among any beach program.
- Florida State is one of just two programs to have made every AVCA/NCAA Championship since the sports inception in 2012.
- The Seminoles' fourth place finish in 2017 is the program's fifth Top-4 finish in its six years of competition.

NOLES GO 29-9 IN 2017

- Florida State finished the season with 29 wins, second-most in school history behind the 32 wins from the 2016 season.
- 31 of FSU's 38 matches came against ranked opponents.
- The Garnet and Gold won 21 matches against ranked opponents, including a win over No. 2 Pepperdine in Tallahassee for the first win against the Waves in school history.
- The Noles were 10-7 against opponents ranked in the Top-10.

BACK-TO-BACK CCSA CHAMPS

- The Noles went back-to-back and took the 2017 CCSA Championship after winning the inaugural CCSA Championship in 2016.
- The Garnet and Gold went a perfect 8-0 against conference opponents during the regular season.
- Florida State won by a combined 24-4 score against opponents in the CCSA Tournament including a 34-minute, 3-0 win over FIU in the championship match.
- Florida State's No. 4 duo of Francesca Goncalves and Katie Horton were honored with CCSA All-Tournament team honors. Victoria Paranagua and Vanessa Freire were name tournament MVP after going 6-0 and taking the final point against FIU in the championship match.

INDOOR PLAYERS MAKING AN IMPACT

- After finishing their indoor careers with a Sweet 16 finish in the 2016 NCAA Indoor Volleyball Tournament, Katie Horton and Hailey Luke got back in the sand to make an impact for the beach team.
- Horton went 24-10 on the season with 18 of those wins coming in the No. 4 position. She made an impact as an every match starter for the Noles.
- Luke was also a constant starter as she went 22-8 in 2017 with 18 wins coming on court five.

NEWCOMERS MAKE A SPLASH

- FSU received great production from its newcomers this past season. The Noles had three athletes make a significant impact that were not a part of the team a season ago, graduate transfer Leigh Andrew, redshirt freshman Eva Torruella and freshman Francesca Goncalves.
- Andrew finished the season with a 21-16 record with all of her matches at the No. 1 or 2 position.
- Torruella capped the season off with a 17-6 record, with all of her matches played at the No. 5 position with redshirt junior Hailey Luke.
- Goncalves wrapped up her season with a 29-7 record, which was good for the second most wins on the team.
- Florida State's three newcomers finished the season with a 67-29 (0.698) record and made an immediate impact on the courts after losing seven seniors a year ago.

AWARD WINNERS

- Florida State earned two AVCA All-Americans in 2017. Graduate Leigh Andrew and sophomore Brooke Kuhlman are the seventh and eighth beach volleyball athletes in FSU history to achieve All-American honors.
- The Noles earned CCSA Pair of the Week honors four times this year. Goncalves and Horton won the award twice (March 21/April 18). Goncalves and Freire won the award once (April 11), and junior Tory Paranagua and sophomore Macy Jerger won the award once (March 14).
- Goncalves and Freire were named DIG Magazine National Pair of the Week on April 11.
- Paranagua and Freire were named CCSA Tournament MVP with Goncalves and Horton making the CCSA All-Tournament team.
- Andrew and Kuhlman were named to the CCSA All-Conference First Team for going 11-9 (4-1) in the regular season. The pair went 7-2 in the post season including a 4-1 record in the conference tournament and 3-1 record in the NCAA Tournament.
- Jerger was name CCSA Scholar Athlete of the Year for her performance on and off the beach. She had a 3.808 GPA as a biology major and was fourth on the team in wins with a 27-10 record.
- Goncalves was named CCSA Freshman of the year. She was tied for second on the team in wins with 29. This was the second straight year that a Seminole was a part of this award, as Nikki Esposito was named co-Freshman of the Year in 2016.

FOUR PARTICIPATE IN USAV COLLEGIATE BEACH CHAMPIONSHIP

- Andrew and Kuhlman, along with Paranagua and Freire, participated in the inaugural USA Volleyball Collegiate Beach Championship in Hermosa Beach, Calif., with a shot at making it onto the USA Collegiate team.
- Andrew and Kuhlman went 3-3 finishing with a loss in the quarterfinal. The pair defeated Katie Smith and Adrianna Culbert from South Carolina 22-20, 21-16 to make it to the quarterfinals.

PLAYERS & COACHES INTERVIEWS

All players and coaches interviews must be arranged through the sports information office by contacting Kelsey Bibik (kbibik@fsu.edu / 850.644.5656) at least 24 hours in advance. Student-athlete's phone numbers will not be released. Media may not contact any student-athlete through the use of social media, including Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.

HOW TO COVER THE SEMINOLES

Members of the media are supplied with weekly press releases, including updated statistics, as well as conference and national rankings and information on upcoming matches. This information may be obtained in the sports information office and will be updated after every match at www.seminoles.com.

HOME MATCH LOCATIONS

All of the 2018 beach volleyball matches take place on the Seminole Beach Volleyball Courts. Media should notify the sports information office prior to home matches if they plan to attend. Any accredited photographer wishing to shoot the matches must check in with Kelsey Bibik prior to match day.

FSU ON THE WEB

All the game stories, updated stats, weekly releases and Seminole beach volleyball news you could ever ask for is available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year at Seminoles.com. The official FSU athletics Web site is your first stop for all the information you could ever need on the Seminole volleyball team and is updated immediately following each match.

FSU SOCIAL MEDIA

Media and fans are encouraged to follow FSU Beach Volleyball on the team's official Twitter page (FSU_BeachVB) Instagram Page (fsubeachvolleyball) and Facebook (Facebook.com/FSUBeachVB) for instantaneous information surrounding the squad. Throughout the 2017 regular season, in-match tweeting will be provided in addition to Game Tracker for live statistics.
