The 2004-05 season will represent a year of "returns" for the Florida State women's tennis program. First and foremost is the return of former Tribe captain Jennifer Hyde, who this summer became Florida State's seventh head coach. Hyde was a student-athlete at FSU in the mid-1990s - an era that saw some of most successful women's tennis in Seminole history. Secondly, a core group of student-athletes, who have seen the top of the Atlantic Coast Conference, the NCAA South Region and are now aiming to be the best in the country, also return. Lastly, the roster is highlighted by the return of senior Mihaela Moldovan who went undefeated at the number two position in spring dual match play during the 2004 season.

"We do have a relatively experienced team with six upperclassmen and a tremendous amount of leadership," said Hyde. "It's nice to walk into a program where you have maturity and studentathletes who have been here for a while and have embraced the team concept and can lead the younger ones, who may not have as much knowledge or comfort with it."

Hyde inherits five student-athletes who played in the top six of the singles lineup for at least eleven matches last season. Including three veterans who bring experience to the team, the rookie Seminole head coach adds a transfer and two newcomers, who should make an impact once they adjust to their new environment at Florida State. Miranda Foley, who played at the number one singles position at Houston, played under Hyde for two seasons with the Cougars. Freshmen Tapiwa Marobela and Yana Stoeva will improve as they grow more comfortable with the system and gain match experience.

"Right now it's just a matter of making a few adjustments to more seasoned veterans' games and their mental approach to the game. With the younger players, it's teaching them how to play tennis in a different way than they have ever been taught before. We will use the fall season to tweak details of their strokes, their court strategy and approach to matches. Come spring these adjustments will enable the girls to peak in the most important part of the season."

Singles

Moldovan finished the 2004 spring dual match season with 26 wins and no losses at the number two position. The 2003 NCAA South Region Rookie of the Year became the first Seminole in women's tennis history to remain undefeated in spring dual match play. Moldovan returns for her final year and will most likely compete in one of the top two positions on the team.

"Right now, as far as the lineup goes, I have no idea who's going to play in what position," said Hyde. "Mihaela is more than prepared to step into the number one position after going 26-0 last year at number two. She is more than ready experience wise for the challenge of playing number one. It's going to require even more discipline and work on her part. One of the good things about Mickey is that she is not afraid to work. She embraces it and really enjoys pushing herself. She is never content with mediocrity."

Roxanne Clarke finished last season with 17 dual match spring season singles wins in the fourth and fifth positions including a match-clinching victory over the No. 9 UNC Tar Heels. In conference action, she lost only one match while picking up seven league singles victories. The rookie was not only a force in singles but played at the number one doubles position with Moldovan. Clarke and Moldovan won a combined 43 of the team's 103 singles matches last season.

"Roxy is definitely the spark plug of the team," said Hyde. "She makes people excited to be out there and I do expect her to continue to improve and to continue to succeed. She had a great deal of success in her freshman campaign and I look for her to continue that success during her playing career."

strokes, their court strategy and approach Lindsay Deason provides another 1-2 to matches. Come spring these adjust-and doubles positions. Deason picked up 14 wins last season in singles, with ten coming at the number four position. She returns with more experience and a hunger to face tougher competition. Deason spent the summer playing on the ITA Summer Circuit to stay in playing form for the upcoming season.

"I really look forward to working with her because she is so versatile," said Hyde. "It will be a challenge exploring the different things that she has the ability to do and adding more dimension to her game. Lindsay has so many things she can do, we just need to work on it."

Alina Mihailescu, Natalie Tirapelli and Amberly Tantee saw action in a number of matches, splitting time at the number six position. This season, both will look to remain constant at the bottom half of the lineup.

Despite the number of returnees, the lineup is ever changing as any of the nine Tribe members, including newcomers Foley, Marobela and Stoeva could step into the top six in both the singles or double. All bring talent and experience along with the eagerness to succeed in the system that head coach Jen Hyde and assistant coach Hayden Perez have in place.

Doubles

For the last few seasons, doubles has been the key for the Tribe. Coaches that have come and gone have preached the importance of the doubles point. This season should not be any different with the Seminoles relying on their experience in that area to carry them through the upcoming season. In 2004, FSU won 15 dual matches where they won the doubles point while losing seven matches when they lost the doubles point. In four matches, all against ACC teams, the doubles point was the deciding factor in a 4-3 victory. The contest against Duke was the only match where the Seminoles won the doubles point but lost the match during the course of the regular season. FSU had not had success when losing the doubles point but they snapped the streak against the Marshall Thundering Herd. The Garnet and Gold lost two of three doubles contests but picked up the NCAA 1st round victory to advance.

"Their individual efforts and commitments will determine the lineup at this point," continued Hyde. "We have a lot of depth and a tremendous amount of talent to work with. It's very difficult at this point in the fall season to pinpoint who might be playing where."

In 2003, Moldovan and Clarke played at the number one position in doubles, picking up 13 wins over the course of the season. The duo was a remarkable 6-2 against Atlantic Coast Conference opponents and recorded 12 wins in the top slot. The duo, who earned a preseason ranking of #58 in the nation, bring experience to the lineup and will join their teammates in vying for a doubles spot. Senior duo Brooke Cordell and Christina Denny along with No. 2 position starter Anca Dumitrescu, all have graduated. Junior Lindsay Deason, who played alongside Dumitrescu and Tantee, picked up the most wins of any Seminole last season and returns this season with more experience and higher expectations. Seniors Amberly Tantee and Natalie Tirapelli bring experience and will be looked upon to provide depth at the bottom of the doubles lineup.

New coach

"It's surreal to be back as head coach at FSU," said Hyde, who accepted her dream job in July of 2004. "It's an incredible thing to have started my collegiate playing career here 14 years ago and to now be back where it all began."

Hyde knows what it takes to be among the nation's elite because of her prior tenure in Tallahassee. She was a member of the 1994 team that earned a program-best No. 17 national ranking. Some of her teammates included Elke Juul, Audra Brannon, Lori Sowell and Laura Randmaa, some of the best women's tennis players in the FSU record books.

"I know the program is capable of very great things," said Hyde. "When I finished my senior year, we were ranked No. 17 in the country so I know what it takes to get there and how to lead a program to that level. My goal and the goal of those involved with the program is to go even higher. The team knows that the 1994 team finished 17th in the nation, so they want to do better than that. We have a lot of work to do to get there but those thoughts are very close in the back of our minds."

The Schedule

Every season, Florida State faces a tough schedule in and out of conference. Despite ending last season at No. 26 in the nation, the program is going through a transition with new coaches, new student-athletes and without three players from last year's lineup. FSU depends on the veterans remaining as well as the talented newcomers to fight the top teams in the nation and continue the tradition of being one of the most respectable programs in the country.

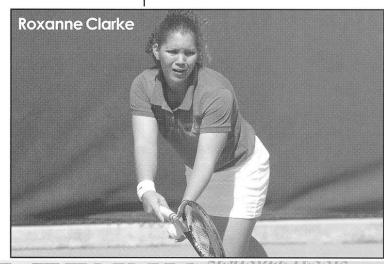

The Seminoles face nine teams who finished the 2004 season ranked in the top 40, six of which are in the ACC. Florida State faces its first ranked opponent when No. 3 Florida comes to Tallahassee for a midweek evening match. No. 11 Tulane and No. 20 LSU round out the non-conference, ranked opponents. FSU closes out 2005 facing five consecutive teams who were ranked in the top 40 programs in the nation in the final season poll with the final match set against No. 5 Clemson.

The first-ever match against new league teams come in March with the Tribe traveling to Miami (March 11) and hosting Virginia Tech (March 14). Miami is third in the preseason regional ranking, one spot above Florida State while the Hokies ended last year 13th in the NCAA East Region.

"In order for our program to get to the top of the rankings, we have to have the opportunity to play highly-ranked teams and that's what we'll do time and time again. We will have the opportunities to take advantage of being in one of the strongest conferences and regions in the nation. The region is one of the best in the country, if not the best and we're going to have a lot of regional matches on our schedule this year and years to follow."

During the preseason, FSU was ranked fourth behind Florida, Georgia and Miami in the region, respectively. Facing two of the three during the 2005 campaign, the garnet and gold look to gain respect and move through the rankings with wins over two of the top three programs in the region.

MINOLE THE ad Coach Jennifer Hydes EMINOL

In just 10 short years, Florida State women's tennis head coach Jennifer Hyde's career has come full circle. She returns to FSU to take over the program where she was a student-athlete in the early 1990s, nine seasons removed from her college graduation. Hyde was named to lead the Tribe's tennis program in July after five seasons as the head coach at the University of Houston. She brings with her a wealth of coaching experience after also assisting at four other universities in three different conferences - the SEC, the Big 10 and the ACC.

Hyde is the seventh head coach of the Seminole program, which began in the late 1970s, and only the second alum to return to her alma mater. She replaces Lise Gregory, who left Tallahassee to pursue other interests, after eight successful seasons at Florida State.

Hyde was a four-year letter winner for the Seminoles from 1991-94, a successful era for women's tennis at Florida State. During the 1993 season, Hyde and teammate Jenny Graf were runner-up ACC flight champions at number two doubles. She was a 1994 NCAA Championship participant and also served as the Seminoles' team captain that same season. FSU concluded the 1994 season with a final national ranking of No. 17, the highest finish to date for a Florida State women's tennis team. Hyde graduated from FSU with a degree in leisure services and studies with an emphasis in recreational management and a minor in psychol-

After her collegiate playing career at Florida State, Hyde began her coaching career at FSU, where she served as a graduate assistant coach. She went on to serve as an assistant coach with the women's programs at the University of Iowa (1995-97), the University of Alabama (1997-98) and the University of North Carolina (1998-99). At UNC, she was part of the most successful women's tennis season in the program's history at that point. Hyde was instrumental in progressing a previously unranked Tar Heel team to a top 25 national ranking and the school's first-ever tennis berth in the NCAA tournament, where the Tar Heels won their first-round match. As the recruiting coordinator at North Carolina, she identified and signed a top-five, nationally-ranked junior and a top-three nationally ranked Australian junior.

The 2003-04 campaign proved to be Hyde's most successful at Houston, on and off the court. Hyde led the Cougars to a third-place finish in Conference USA and the program's most dual match wins since 1997. The level of competition Houston played in 2003-04 was also the toughest the program had ever faced. In the classroom, her team achieved the highest GPA in the history of the athletics department and earned annual team academic All-America status.

An Alpharetta, Ga., native, Hyde, an ITA and NCAA Southwest Region Selection Committee member and an ITA Southern Section Committee member, enjoys playing golf, traveling, hiking and boating.

HYDE'S QUOTE:

"I am extremely excited to come back to FSU. Having my career come full circle and to be back where my collegiate playing and coaching experiences first began is such a thrill. I feel a great deal of pride to once again be associated with an athletics program of this caliber."

Hayden Perez joins the Florida State women's tennis team for his first season with the Garnet and Gold. He brings to the program experience in all realms of an intercollegiate tennis program, both as a former student-athlete at Cameron University and a professional in the industry.

Perez came to Tallahasee in August of 2004 via the University of Wyoming women's tennis program after spending two seasons as the assistant women's tennis coach. Prior to working at Wyoming, Perez was the Director of Player Development for the Intermountain Section of the United States Tennis Association in Denver, Colo., where he was responsible for all aspects of junior competition including rankings, endorsement opportunities and scheduling. During the 2002-03 season, he served as a volunteer coach with the Air Force Academy's women's program after serving as an assistant coach during the 2001-02 season.

In 2000-01, Perez served as an assistant teaching pro at Woodlake Racquet Club in Oklahoma City, before moving on to the Air Force Academy.

His experience also includes one season as a graduate assistant tennis coach at his alma mater Cameron University and as a tennis instructor at the United States Air Force Academy Sports Camps and Texas A&M University for two years (1997-98).

As a player, Perez was a two-time Most Valuable Player selection at Cameron and advanced to the finals of the ITA Rolex Midwest Region Division II finals in the fall of 1996. During his two year career, he also reached 17th in the nation among Division II doubles and earned a Men's Open USTA National Ranking of fourth.

Prior to his time at Cameron University, he spent two seasons at Collin County Community College in Plano, Texas, where he was a member of the Division II NJCAA National Champion doubles team and NJCAA national championship team in 1995. In the same season, he was a first-team NJCAA All-America selection. In 1996, he was ranked as high as seventh nationally in doubles and 27th in singles while earning honorable mention All-America NJCAA honors.

Perez earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from Cameron University (Lawton, Okla.) in 1999. He is married to the former Gretchen McGeough.

Anca Dumitrescu steps in as team manager this year after three successful seasons as Florida State's number one position singles player. Dumitrescu finished her career with one of her best campaigns in Tallahassee. She and partner Lindsay Deason won 15 matches at the number two doubles position. She recorded the most singles wins in her career (17) and earned a third individual trip to the NCAA tourney. The transfer, who originally intended to play out her career at VCU, ended her stint at FSU with a 66-34 career singles record, good for eighth on the all-time list.

Among the many honors and awards she recorded, Dumitrescu was named the 2004 co-ITA/Arthur Ashe Jr. Award for Leadership and Sportsmanship as well as the ITA South Region Senior Player of the Year. She was one of the members of the FSU senior class that became the glue for a talented lineup that climbed its way from a season-opening No. 54 to a season-ending No. 26.

Dumitrescu started at number one singles all three seasons in the Garnet and Gold. Dumitrescu earned a bachelor's degree in communications and continues studying at Florida State, working towards a masters degree in communications. She earned the Atlantic Coast Conference's James-Weaver-Corrigan Postgraduate Scholarship Award to help her continue her postgraduate education.

MINOLE TEN2003-04 Season Review SEMINOL

When the Seminoles got together for their first meeting at the start of 2004, there was an underlying feeling that the upcoming season would be a very special year. The team, composed of four returning seniors, four juniors, one sophomore and one freshmen, had tremendous depth as well as talent. What made this team different from the previous squads was the chemistry and communication between the student-athletes and coaches. Combine those factors with a successful 2003 fall season, Florida State's spring season would be one to remember.

The 2003-2004 women's tennis season was one of the most impressive in FSU history with the team recording the most wins since 1999, when the Tribe went 17-7. The Garnet and Gold posted an amazing 18-8 record against some of the top programs in the nation. Junior Mihaela Moldovan recorded Florida State's first undefeated singles season in dual match play. She went 26-0 during the season and 31-4 including the fall, tying Marina Raic's season win total.

The Seminoles started the spring with three 7-0 wins over Georgia Southern, Troy State and Stetson. Following impressive wins against Rice, UCF and UAB, the team's first loss came against a very motivated Alabama team in Tuscaloosa. Unfriendly weather conditions forced the Seminoles to play indoor, on a very rapid surface where they were outpaced by the hard hitting Crimson Tide. After a brief two-day stay in Tallahassee, FSU took the road again to face the country's top tennis team the Florida Gators.

The Seminoles started strong on all of their doubles matches but the Gators managed to clinch the doubles point in the end. In singles, Florida State put up a valiant effort with five out of the six matches going to three sets, before the Florida walked away with a 5-1 victory.

The Garnet and Gold returned to Tallahassee to for a six-match homestand in which the team went 4-2 including two losses to ranked teams. Against LSU, the Seminoles could not find their rhythm dropping a close match, 4-3. Despite the loss, senior Christina Denny began a streak of her own against the Tigers, running off 12 straight singles victories.

Shaking off the loss, FSU went on a tear, picking up eight victories in nine contests including wins against conference opponents Maryland, Virginia and Wake Forest. In that stretch, FSU outscored their opponents 50-13. Freshman Roxanne Clarke won six consecutive matches beginning with the match against Penn State on March 10.

After the Wake Forest match-up, the Seminoles, ranked at a season-high No. 35, returned to Tallahassee to face No. 9 UNC and No. 3 Duke. Florida State was winless against the Tar Heels in four seasons and were looking for a win at home. The Tribe held true to form, defeating the top-10ranked Tar Heels. The doubles point came down to the number one position after the teams split the first two matches at the two and three slots. At number two, senior Anca Dumitrescu and newcomer Lindsay Deason won against North Carolina's Bunn and Collins, 8-5. The pair battled until the end, winning on an unforced Tar Heel error that set up a rally that concluded with the ball dropping on UNC's half of the court, with no Carolina return. At the number three position, senior veterans Brooke Cordell and Denny lost to UNC's Anundsen and Long, 8-5, leaving both teams relying on the outcome of the match at the top of the lineup.

Junior Mihaela Moldovan and Clarke paired up to face #23 Aniela Mojzis and Kendall Cline. Despite being down several times during the set, the FSU pair showed calm and focus during the key points and managed to clinch the match in the tiebreaker. Riding the momentum of the doubles match victories, Florida State began to attack the singles court. Moldovan wrapped up her 19th consecutive singles match with a dominating win over Lee Bairos, 6-1, 6-0 in 50 minutes.

The rest of the Seminole corps continued to battle the Tar Heels, winning at the number three and five positions. With this win, the Seminoles were at the top of the ACC rankings. But more than that, the victory sent a message to all the teams in the intercollegiate tennis world - Florida State was ready to play.

Florida State lost two close matches to No. 4 Duke and No. 21 Clemson at home but defeated Georgia Tech to close out the regular season.

Heading into the Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament in Raleigh, N.C., Dumitrescu and Moldovan were named to the All-Atlantic Coast Conference Team and head coach Lise Gregory was selected as the ACC Coach of the Year.

FSU faced Wake Forest in the first round of the league championships, winning 4-

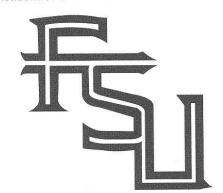

2. In the second round, the Tribe took on a tougher opponent in No. 4 Duke, losing 4-1. Moldovan's singles record was at 24-0 and counting, heading into the NCAA Women's Tennis Tournament.

The Seminoles took two weeks to practice for nationals before leaving for Nashville, Tenn., site of the first round of the tournament. FSU stepped on the court with the desire and persistence they showed the whole season and, facing Marshall, won their first tournament match, by a score of 4-2, since the 2000 postseason. Florida State was fortunate to win the match against the Thundering Herd because they lost the doubles point and still managed to take home a victory. The Seminoles were 0-7 prior to the contest in games in which they lost the doubles point.

In the second round, they faced No. 3 Vanderbilt and lost. Riding on the momentum from the match against Marshall, the Seminoles could not muster enough energy to defeat the top ranked Commodores team. FSU closed out a successful season with a 4-1 loss. Moldovan closed out her junior campaign with her 26th win of the dual match season.

Dumitrescu traveled to the individual singles championships with Gregory, losing a very close match to William & Mary's Megan Muth. She took the higher-ranked Muth to three sets before ending her career with a tally of 6-2, 5-7, 7-6.

Gregory, Dumitrescu and Moldovan were all awarded regional post season honors after wrapping up the 2003-04 season. Gregory was named the ITA South Region Coach of the Year while Dumitrescu earned the co-ITA/Arthur Ashe Jr. Award for Leadership and Sportsmanship as well as the ITA South Region Senior Player of the Year. Moldovan's honors included the women's tennis program's first CoSIDA Academic All-American.

FSU's student-athletes contributed over 4,000 volunteer hours in service to the community in 2003-2004. They also helped to raise thousands of dollars in direct support to charities.

Florida State student-athletes volunteered their time working with students from every elementary and middle school in Leon County as well as schools in nearby Wakulla and Gadsden counties.

Seven of Florida State's athletic teams currently have a 3.0 or better cumulative grade point average. In the spring 2004 semester, 204 Seminole student-athletes achieved a minimum 3.00 semester GPA while average team semester GPA was a 2.939.

Since joining the ACC in 1991, FSU has had six National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame National Scholar Athlete Award winners — the most among all ACC schools and a figure that ranks second nationally in the past 11 years.

Florida State student-athletes have earned $260,000 in post-graduate scholarships over the past nine years. They have also received 21 post-graduate scholarships from the ACC since 1992.

Florida State is the only NCAA school with three coaches in the top 10 for all-time victories in their sport and in the top five in wins and winning percentage among active coaches. Mike Martin (baseball), Bobby Bowden (football) and JoAnne Graf (softball) have combined for 2,956 wins and each coach appears in the top two for either active winning percentage (Martin), active wins (Graf), or all-time wins (Bowden).

In 1996, Seminole Daryl Bush was the first ever recipient of the State Farm National Scholar Athlete of the Year Award, now given annually.

Florida State boasts two NACDA Post-Graduate Award winners in the last four years. The scholarship, which was originated in 2001, grants $10,000 scholarships to its recipients.

In 2001, former Seminole Chris Weinke was the recipient of the first ever ACC Scholar Award which is given annually to an excellent athlete and top scholar who is not going on to graduate school. Football's Chris Hope (2002) and baseball's Matt Lynch (2003) have also earned the distinction.

Florida State has more all-time ACC Honor Roll selections (1,671) than all-time All-ACC honorees (1,529). On top of that number, 24 Seminoles have been named Academic All-Americans and 21 Florida State athletes have received post-graduate scholarships.

Kia Asberg – Kia is currently in her fourth year of graduate school, pursuing a doctoral degree in Clinical Psychology at the University of Central Florida.

Most Memorable experience:

"My most memorable tennis-moment from FSU was when we defeated (read crushed) Miami my senior year. Getting revenge against lowa, who we had lost to in the NCAA tournament the year before, by clinching the doubles together with Marina Raic, also ranks highly in my book."

Buffy Baker – Buffy is entering her fifth season as head coach at Penn State University, having already guided the Nittany Lions to its best ever Big Ten regular season showing and its first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament.

Natalie Carratalla – Natalie is currently teaching a leadership course at Felix Varela Senior High School in Miami. She has been teaching English and coaching the school's tennis team for the past 2 years. This is experience has been by far her most rewarding. She will be applying to law school for the fall of 2005.

Most memorable experience:

"Playing for Florida State University was a wonderful experience. It allowed me to grow as person and established friendships that I will cherish throughout my lifetime."

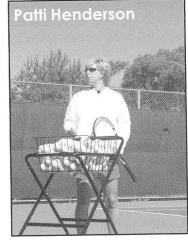

Nanette Duxin- Nanette lives in Nice, France and works for the ATP in Monaco as a communications coordinator.

Patti Henderson

Patti Henderson is in her 10th year as the head coach of the Wisconsin women's tennis program. She has guided the Badgers to five NCAA tournament appearances and the school's only Big Ten Conference championship in 1996. Henderson began her collegiate coaching career at her alma mater, Florida State, where she served as the head coach from 1986-91. During her tenure, the Seminoles captured two Metro Conference championships (1988-89 and 1990-91), two runner-up finishes, and Henderson earned conference Coach of the Year honors in 1989 and 1991. Under Henderson, Florida State tallied a 51-44 (.537) mark.

Helena Karlsson – Helena received her masters a few years ago and is a successful pharmaceutical representative for Eli Lilly in Stockholm, Sweden, specializing in Oncology.

Ann Olsson – Ann Olsson is now Ann Fogelgren Pedersen. She is married and lives in Denmark with her husband and son (Oliver), born January 16, 2003. Ann has an MBA and is pursuing her doctorate preparing to defend her dissertation soon.

Ali Pool – Ali is the branch manager for the Port Charlotte Division of Brown & Brown Insurance. Brown & Brown is an independent insurance agency and they sell and service both commercial and personal insurance. Brown & Brown is currently the largest insurance broker in Florida & 8th largest in the United States. She still plays tennis but unfortunately only has time to hit about once every 2 weeks.

Most memorable experience:

"I do not have a specific event that stands out as my most memorable experience at FSU. I would have to say that the fondest memories I have come from the road trips and time with my team mates. Tennis is an individual sport however at the college level everyone has to come together as a team in order to be successful. Individual wins were exciting however they became very meaningless unless the team as a whole won at the end of the day."

Marina Raic - Marina completed her MBA in Miami and worked for the NASDAQ-100 Open before heading to Europe to work with Fischer Tennis in Austria. She is responsible for International Sales Promotion and Public Relations.

Florida State University, a graduate research institution, stands among the nation's elite in both academics and athletics. Located on the oldest continuous site of higher education in Florida, the university is situated in the heart of the state's capital city. The university's main campus blends Jacobean Re vival and modern styles of architecture with the oaks, pines, dogwoods and azaleas of North Florida.

As the university has progressed and grown - from its pre-Civil War beginnings as the Seminary West of the Suwannee, to the Florida State College for Women and, finally, returning to coeducational status as a university in 1947 - it has developed into an ac claimed re search in stitution, a top-ranked com petitor in inter collegiate athletics and a standardsetter in the basic sciences and the performing

The university has entered the 21st cen tury with excellence in all areas of its mission - teaching, research and public service, including many noteworthy milestones over the past year.

• In May 2004, Vice President Dick Cheney became the first U.S. vice president and the highest ranking government official ever to deliver a commencement address at FSU.

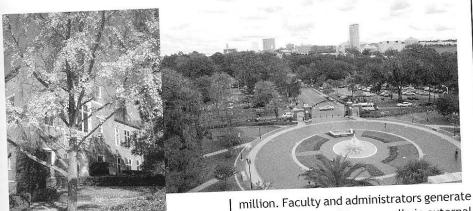

- In the 2005 edition of the U.S. News & World Report guidebook "America's Best Graduate Schools," published in April 2004, the university's master's programs in public affairs were ranked 26th overall, and the specialty of public
- man age ment administration ranked even higher at 15th. Also, public af fairs master's programs in city man age ment and urban policy ranked 24th, and public finance and budgeting ranked 26th.
- In March 2004, Hispanic Magazine ranked FSU 22nd among its "Top 25 Colleges for Latinos." Among only public schools, FSU ranked 11th.
- · FSU's art therapy program has received national approval, similar to accreditation, for its master's level program from the American Art Therapy Association. FSU is only the 31st school nationally to achieve this recognition.
- In the spring of 2004, FSU made available its public service video "Avoiding the Credit Card Monster, "10 minutes of basic financial advice to youth ful credit novices, to every high school and K-12 institution in the na tion.
- In March 2004, FSU celebrated the National High Magnetic Field Laboratory's 10th anniversary of scien tific research and educa tional outreach. FSU operates the lab, unique to the Western Hemisphere, inconjunction with the University of Florida and the Los Alamos National Laboratory.

- · The FSU department of psychology was recog nized by the American Psychological Association for its clinic that provides mental health services to the community and training and research opportunities for students.
- Faculty members in the FSU School of Information Studies began editing Library Quarterly, the pre-eminent scholarly journal of research in the library and information studies community, with its October 2003 issue.
- · The FSU College of Medicine added a doctoral program in biomedical sciences in the fall of 2003, with the first seven students recruited to begin this fall.
- · President T.K. Wetherell and his wife, Virginia B. Wetherell, made the largest personal donation to a public university in the United States by a sitting president. Through their estate, the Wetherells will leave to FSU their 1,000-acre Oak Hill Plantation in Jefferson County, worth $7.5 million.
- In October 2003, the FSU athletic training/sports medicine major received na tional accreditation by the Commission on Accreditation of Allied Health Education Programs. The major is offered in the department of nutrition, food and exercise sciences in the College of Human Sciences.
- · In October 2003, the Chinese Ministry of Education gave 1,000 new Chinese books to FSU in recognition of the university's growing Chinese studies program.

- The FSU Museum of Fine Arts achieved the highest honor for a museum accreditation by the American Association of Museums.
- On Aug. 29, 2003, FSU launched its "everythingFSU" gateway on the World Wide Web at fsu.com. The gate way showcases the best of the university each day, including news and features, and offers users a unique electronic postcard service.

Under the leadership of FSU's 13th presi dent, T.K. Wetherell, who took office in January 2003, and its 13-member Board of Trustees, the university continues to build on the foundation of its history of excellence in scholarship, research and service.

The trustees are: Chairman John Thrasher of Orange Park; Harold Knowles, J. Stanley Marshall and Jim Smith, all of Tallahassee; Emily "June" Duda of Oveido; David Ford of Rosemont, Pa.; Dr. Jessie Furlow of Quincy; Manuel "Manny" Garcia III of Winter Springs; William "Andy" Haggard of Coral Gables; E. Ann McGee of Winter Springs; Derrick Brooks of Tampa; FSU Faculty Senate President Valliere Richard Auzenne and Student Government Association President Jarrett Eady.

A senior member of the State University System, FSU was founded as an institution of higher learning in 1851 by legislative act. It began in Tallahassee with its first class of male students in 1857 and added women in 1858. FSU's operating budget is $857 more than $160 million annually in external funding to supplement state-sponsored direct-support Three research. organizations serve to bolster the university: the Seminole Boosters, the FSU Alumni Association and the FSU Foundation.

The main campus is spread over 448.3 acres in Tallahassee; FSU, which has one of the smallest campuses in the SUS, has been actively acquiring land in the 1990s. FSU encompasses 1,445.2 acres in Leon, Bay, Franklin, Gadsden and Sarasota counties.

Within the state, the university maintains facilities at its 25-acre campus in Panama City, its Marine Laboratory at Turkey Point on the Gulf of Mexico and the Asolo Perform ing Arts Center in Sarasota. The Center for Professional Development and Public Service, housed in the Augustus B. Turnbull III Florida Conference Center on the edge of the campus, provides extensive credit and non-credit continuing education programs statewide.

For years, FSU has reached far beyond Florida through international programs in Switzerland, France, Panama, Costa Rica, Spain, Russia, Vietnam, the Czech Republic, Greece, Croatia, Ireland, South Africa, Ghana and the Caribbean. FSU's student centers in Florence, Italy, and London, England, are considered by many to be the nation's best in Europe.

Florida State offers 300 graduate and undergraduate degree programs through its nine colleges — Arts and Sciences; Business; Communication; Education; Engineering (operated jointly with Florida A&M University); Human Sciences; Law; Medicine; and Social Sciences (which also in corporates the Reubin O'D Askew School of Public Administration and Policy) - and eight schools — Criminology and Criminal Justice; Information Studies; Motion Picture, Television and Recording Arts; Music; Nursing; Social Work; Theatre; and Visual Arts and Dance.

With 2,119 members, the FSU faculty has included 10 National Academy of Sciences elected members, four American Academy of Arts and Sciences members and five Nobel laureates. It is backed by 3,682 administrative and support staff members.

Library holdings at Florida State include 2.6 million book titles and 9 million micro forms. The main library facility, the Robert M. Strozier Library, is linked by computer to other state university and national research libraries. The Paul A.M. Dirac Science Library is located at the heart of the university's science research complex. FSU also maintains music, library science and law libraries, and the Mildred and Claude Pepper Library.

FSU's 6,851 graduate students pursue advanced degrees in fields as diverse as business administration and theoretical particle physics. A majority of research done at FSU is the direct result of student effort, culminating in numerous books, monographs and journal articles relating to the whole spectrum of intellectual interests and the practical needs of society.

Of FSU's 37,328-student population, 56.3 percent are female, 43.7 percent are male, 27.6 percent are minorities, and 3.8 percent are foreign students.

TENThis is Tallahassee

A mong low, rolling hills, down moss draped canopy roads, within picturesque historical districts, and across seas of flowering azaleas lies a magical part of the Sunshine State-Tallahassee, Florida's capital city. With its intriguing combination of power-play politics and classic character splashed with a twist of Southern beauty and charm, Tallahassee is a side of Florida few expect to find.

With the Gulf of Mexico just 25 miles south and the Georgia border only 14 miles north, Tallahassee rests between the foothills of the Appalachian Mountains and the juncture of Florida's panhandle and peninsula in an area known as "The Big Bend." Nearer in miles to Atlanta than to Miami, Tallahassee more closely resembles its Georgia neighbor than Florida in topography, climate and lifestyle.

Like the city itself, the story of how Tallahassee was chosen as the state capital is rich in history. In 1823, two explorers set out - one on horseback from St. Augustine and the other by boat from Pensacola — to establish a permanent, central location for the seat of government. The two met at a beautiful site that the Creek and Seminole Indians called "tallahassee" derived from the words "talwa," meaning town, and "ahassee," meaning old. This historic meeting place remains Florida's capital today.

Boasting more than 145 properties listed on the National Register of Historic Places, Tallahassee is a living showcase of Florida history and heritage. The crowning jewel of Florida's historic "Capitol Hill" is the Old Capitol, beautifully restored to its 1902 splendor complete with the red-and-white striped awnings, a dome adorned with stained glass, antique furnishings and political memorabilia. The 22nd-floor observatory of the New Capitol Building offers a breathtaking view of this surprising Southern city, awash in flowering azaleas, snowy dogwoods, towering pines, fragrant magnolias, and hundreds of lakes, springs, swamps, rivers and sink holes. Charming downtown historic districts graced with lush linear parks lead visitors to the Knott House Museum, The Columns, First Presbyterian Church, John G. Riley House Museum and Old City Cemetery. # CLIMATE

Tallahassee has the mild, moist climate characteristics of the Gulf States and experiences a subtropical summer similar to the rest of Florida. In contrast to the Florida peninsula, however, the panhandle, of which Tallahassee is a part, experiences four seasons.

TALLAHASSEE

In 1823, the first civilian governor, William Pope DuVal, desired a central location for the legislature to meet. He sent one explorer on horseback from St. Augustine and another by boat from Pensacola — their rendezvous point was declared Florida's capital. Nestled among the rolling foothills of the Appalachian Mountains and located in a region of the Gulf of Mexico known as the Big Bend, the Capital region is known for its Southern characteristics, gracious hospitality and lush topography.

The Tallahassee-Leon County Civic Center is a multi-purpose convention and entertainment facility featuring a 13,500 seat arena, Luxury Suites and Club Seats and over 52,000 sq. ft. of meeting and exhibition space plus an arena view restaurant, Spotlight Grille. The Civic Center hosts a wide variety of concerts, family shows, Broadway shows, ice shows sporting events including FSU basketball.

It is easy to understand why over one million people a year flock to the Tallahassee-Leon County Civic Center, what with the varied array of attractions it offers. Some people go to the Civic Center to enjoy the sounds of rock, country, pop and urban concerts. Some go for the thrills of basketball, rodeos and threering spectaculars. While others come for

PHYSIOGRA

Tallahassee's rolling landscape, typical of regions further north, is unique among the major cities of Florida. Some areas of the county, including the downtown ridge encompassing the Capitol complex, City Hall and the County Courthouse, exceed elevations of 200 feet. The highest elevation in Leon County is 288 feet, found in then or thern part of the county. To the south of the city, the hills yield to the flat terrain that is typical throughout the peninsula of Florida.

History, where they are greeted by a giant 12,000-year-old mastodon pulled from nearby Wakulla Springs.

On the shores of Wakulla Springs, alligators still laze under the watchful eyes of "snake birds" perched on twisted cypress trees. masterpiece of Alfred B. Maclay State Gardens; Bradley's Country Store; FAMU Black Archives; and the Tallahassee Antique Car Museum. Nearby small towns offer fascinating excursions to places such as Pebble Hill Plantation, Florida Caverns State Park, Monticello Opera House and St. George Island.

Tallahassee is almost as rich in cultural treasures as it is in history. A widely-acclaimed collection of art, science and history museums and galleries, year-round festivals and nonstop entertainment at the 14,000-seat

Other sightseeing favorites include the floral

Tallahassee-Leon County Civic Center, feed a variety of cultural appetites.

Visitors with a hunger for the great outdoors will find Tallahassee ideal for all types of outdoor recreation-from canoeing down dark, cypresslined rivers and biking up steep slopes to exploring backcountry wildernesses and hunting for bobwhite quail. Area lakes, rivers, ponds and the Gulf — just 30 minutes away — offer a paradise for boating and fishing. Lakes Jackson and Talquin are renowned in the bass fishing world for yielding the "big ones." Local wildlife areas, such as the St. Marks National Wildlife Refuge and Apalachicola National Forest, are perfect spots for camping, picnicking, swimming, biking and exploring.

And while Tallahassee also features eight golf courses and plenty of places to raise a racquet, it's a wild array of spectator sports that leave the crowds screaming for more. The Florida State Seminoles and Florida A&M Rattlers provide collegiate action. And always a sure bet are the nearby greyhound races.

For another favorite "sport" — shopping — two large regional malls and many specialty centers offer an array of "playing options," from popular chains to curiosity and antique shops. Unique shopping locales include downtown parks, lakeside cottages and small Southern towns. Tallahassee serves a scrumptious selection of tantalizing restaurants ranging from fast food to five-star. Local specialties include homemade country sausage, melt-in-yourmouth steaks, wild game and succulent seafood fresh from the Gulf.

From luxury to economy, accommodations are plentiful and include restored bed and breakfast's, rustic "gentlemen" lodges, beachside escapes and comfortable chain hotels. For those who choose to follow in the footsteps of early travelers, Tallahassee also boasts beautiful campsites. Continuous air service, Amtrak and four major highways make it easy for visitors to get to Tallahassee. But no matter how you arrive, the history hospitality of Tallahassee make it difficult to ever leave for long.

The federal Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS) named the Tallahassee Museum of History and Natural Science as one of the nation's exemplary museums on September 19, 2000. The Tallahassee Museum, along with 176 other museums, was selected out of a field of 823 applications from museums throughout the nation in a highly competitive competition. The museum features a 52-acre natural habitat zoo, nature trails, authentic 1880s farmstead, hands-on Discovery Center, birds of prey aviary, reptile exhibits, annual events and more!

Other points of interest include:

The Capitol

One of five tower Capitols in the U.S. features panoramic view from 22-floor observatory/art gallery, House and Senate viewing galleries.

Challenger Learning Center

The Challenger Learning Center of Tallahassee is a 32,000 square foot facility located on beautiful Kleman Plaza in downtown Tallahassee. The Challenger Learning Center is the K-12 outreach facility of the Florida A&M University — Florida State University College of Engineering and a visitor destination. The Center features a state-of-the-art Space Mission Simulator and utilizes the immersiveness of an IMAX theatre and a digital domed planetarium to create an unforgettable experience for all.

Maclay State Gardens

Enchanting floral architecture surrounds 1930s home of NY financier Alfred B. Maclay. Impressive grounds feature 200+ floral varieties plus hiking, biking and nature trails, swimming, fishing and boating.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 91 national champion-ships, including 47 in women's competition and 44 in men's. In addition, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC studentathletes 116 times in men's competition and 57 times in women's action.

2003-04 in Review

The 2003-04 academic year concluded with the league pocketing three more national team titles and six individual NCAA crowns. In all, the ACC has won 48 national team titles over the last 14 years.

The ACC's 2003-04 national champions were Wake Forest in field hockey, North Carolina in women's soccer and Virginia in women's lacrosse.

The Championships

The conference will conduct championship competition in 25 sports during the 2004-05 academic year - 12 for men and 13 for women.

The 12 sports for men include football, cross country, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, wrestling, baseball, tennis, golf and lacrosse. Fencing, which was started in 1971, was discontinued in 1981.

Women's sports were initiated in 1977 with the first championship meet being held in tennis at Wake Forest University.

currently conducted in cross country, volleyball, field hockey, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, tennis, golf, lacrosse, softball and rowing.

A History

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, N.C., with seven charter members -Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest - drawing up the conference by-laws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, N.C., where a set of bylaws was adopted and the name became officially the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Suggestions from fans for the name of the new conference appeared in the region's newspapers prior to the meeting in Raleigh. Some of the names suggested were: Dixie, Mid South, Mid Atlantic, East Coast, Seaboard, Colonial, Tobacco, Blue-Gray, Piedmont, Southern Seven and the Shoreline.

Cameron Duke's Eddie recommended that the name of the conference be the Atlantic Coast Conference, and the motion was passed unanimously. The meeting concluded with each member institution assessed $200.00 to pay for conference expenses.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted the University of Virginia as the league's eighth member. The first, and only, withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971, when the University of South Carolina tendered its resignation.

The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978, when the Georgia Institute of Technology was admitted. The Atlanta school had withdrawn from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

members on July 1, 1991, with the addition of Florida State University.

The conference expanded to 11 members on July 1, 2004, with the addition of the University of Miami and Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. On October 17, 2004, Boston College accepted an invitation to become the league's 12th member starting with the 2005-06 academic year.

Weight Room

The Seminoles train in one of the best facilities in the country. In the summer of 2003, FSU Athletics moved into the state-of-the-art, 20,000 square foot Champions Training Center located at Doak Walker Stadium. The facility includes 24 self-contained Powerlift work stations, 12 Olympic lifting platforms and more than 50 machines for specific training of any and every body part.

Florida State also utilizes the Tully Gymnasium weight room. In 1996, the weight room was completely renovated and every year since additional improvements have been made to the facility. The weight room went from 1,500 square feet to 3,500 square feet in size in 1996 and most recently 4,500 in addition to a new stereo system, drop ceiling, lighting, mondo rubber flooring and over $140,000 worth of new exercise equipment.

Strength/Conditioning

Michael Bradley is in his third season as an assistant director of strength and conditioning at Florida State University. He coordinates the training efforts of the Seminoles' women's tennis and men's basketball teams.

Bradley came to Florida State from Stanford University where he worked directly with the men's basketball, men's swimming and field hockey teams. In addition, he assisted with the strength and conditioning efforts for the nationally ranked football, women's basketball, women's swimming and softball teams.

Bradley also worked at the University of Miami from 1995-98, assisting eight teams, which included one NCAA tournament, and one NIT men's basketball team coached by current FSU head coach Leonard Hamilton.

Bradley has also worked at the U.S. Military Academy (1994-95), South Carolina (1993-94), Southern Methodist (1990-93) and was an assistant football coach at UC Santa Barbara (1989-90).

Bradley earned a B.S. in chemistry from San Diego State in 1989 and a M.A. in chemistry from UC Santa Barbara in 1990.

Medical Care and Treatment

An athlete can expect to receive the best care and treatment possible from the athletic training staff at Florida State University. Prior to competition, all FSU student-athletes undergo screening in order to detect any potential injuries. If a problem is detected, the athlete may be placed on a prevention care system which may include any kind of treatment from icing to exercising.

Athletic trainer Ajaya Williams is there every step of the way for the men's and women's tennis programs. Williams is in her first year as a graduate assistant trainer at Florida State University.

Prior to joining the staff at Florida State, the Brooklyn, N.Y., native earned her bachelor's degree in athletic training, with a minor in physical education, at Hofstra University in Hempstead, NY.

As an undergrad, Williams worked with a number of the Pride's varsity sports, including football, men's basketball, softball, field hockey, men's lacrosse and wrestling. During her third three-year, the softball program won its third Colonial Athletic Association title.

Away from her responsibilities at Hofstra, Williams was very active in athletic training in the New York City area. Certified in first aid and CPR, she worked at the World Fencing Tournament as a medical provider and in the same capacity for the New York Dragons of the Arena Football League.

Currently pursuing a master's degree in sports administration, Williams was an athlete herself, playing basketball and volleyball at New Utrecht High School. Athleticism runs in the Williams family as her father Eugene played football at St. John's University.

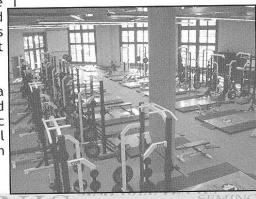

Facility Management

Scott Smith starts his third year with Facilities and Event Management. Smith earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice in 1993 and his master's in sport administration in 2004 from the United States Sports Academy.

Prior to joining facilities, Smith spent one year as a marketing assistant. In addition to overseeing tennis, he is also responsible for the golf facilities. In 2003, he was realm included the Basketball Training Center.

Smith worked at the University of Central Florida in compliance for five years before moving to Tallahassee.

Smith has a wife Michele and they are the proud parents of three children, Conall, Caroline and David.

The following information is provided by the Florida State Office of Compliance for prospective student athletes. It is intended as a guideline to introduce some of the rules governing NCAA athletic involvement.

Who Is Permitted to Recruit for FSU? Only Florida State University coaches who have successfully completed the NCAA Recruiting Rules Examination on an annual basis may be involved in the recruitment process. Representatives of our athletics interests may not make any recruiting contacts. This includes letters, telephone calls or face-to-face contact on or off campus with a prospect or the prospect's parents.

Key Terms You Should Know

You become a prospective student-athlete if you have started classes for the ninth grade. Before the ninth grade, you become a prospective student-athlete if the college provides you (or your relatives or friends) any financial aid or other benefits that the college does not provide to prospective students generally.

A contact is any face-to-face encounter between a prospect or the prospect's legal guardian and an institutional staff member or athletic representative during which any dialogue occurs in excess of an exchange of greeting. NOTE: At the Division I level, athletic representatives (boosters) may not ontact you for the purpose of recruiting. A college coach may contact you in person off the college campus beginning July 1 after completion of your junior year in high school.

An evaluation is any off-campus activity designed to access your academic qualifications or athletic ability, including any visit to your high school (during which no contact occurs) or the observation of any practice or competition in which you participate.

During your senior year, you can have one expense-paid official visit to a particular campus. You may receive no more than five visits. During your official visit, which may not exceed 48 hours, you may receive round-trip transportation between your home and the campus, and you (and your parents) may receive meals, lodging and complimentary admission to campus athletics events.

Phone Calls and Letters

Phone calls from faculty members and coaches (but not boosters) are permitted beginning July 1 after completion of your junior year. A college coach or faculty member is limited to one telephone call per week except when it is:

- During the five days immediately before your official visit to the university
- On the day of a coach's off-campus contact with you
- During the time beginning with the initial National Letter of Intent signing date in your sport through the two days after signing date

Letters from coaches and faculty members (but not boosters) are not permitted until September 1 at the beginning of your junior year in high school. A Division I university may provide you with the following printed materials:

- General correspondence, including letters, U.S. Postal Service post cards and institutional note cards
- Game programs, which may not include posters and one Student Athlete Handbook, can be provided only during official or unofficial visits to the university's campus
  - NCAA educational information
- Pre-enrollment information subsequent to signing a National Letter of Intent with the university
- One athletic publication which may include only one color of printing inside the covers
- Official academic, admissions and student services publications published or videotapes produced by the institution and available to all students

- Schedule cards
- Questionnaires that may be provided prior to your junior year
- Summer camp brochures, which may be provided prior to your junior year.

Alumni Boosters Do's And Don'ts

You may forward information about prospective student-athletes to the appropriate coaches.

You may have contact with a prospect regarding permissible pre-enrollment activities such as summer employment, provided the prospect has already signed a National Letter of Intent and the Compliance Office is aware that you are making these contacts in regard to employment.

You may have a telephone conversation with a prospect only if the prospect initiates the call. Such a call may not be prearranged by an institutional staff member and you are not permitted to have a recruiting conversation, but may exhibit normal civility. You must refer any questions about our athletics programs to an athletics department staff member/coach.

You may view a prospect's con test at your own initiative provided you do not contact the prospect or his/her parents. In addition, you may not contact a prospect's coach, principal, or counselor in an attempt to evaluate the prospect.

You may continue established family relationships with friends and neighbors. Contacts with sons and daughters of these families are permitted as long as they are not made for recruiting purposes or encouraged by Florida State University coaches.

You may not become involved in making arrangements to receive money or financial aid of any kind for a prospect or the prospect's family and friends.

You may not make contact with a prospective, student-athlete and his/her parents when the prospect is on campus for an official or unofficial recruiting visit.

You may not transport, pay or arrange for payment of transportation costs for a prospect, and his/her relatives or friends to visit campus (or elsewhere).

You may not pay or arrange for payment of summer camp registration fees for a prospect.

You may not provide anything to a prospect, the prospect's family or friends without prior approval from the athletics' Compliance Office.

THE N.O.L.E.S. PROGRAM New Opportunity for Leadership, Education and Service

LIFE SKILLS

Developed by the Florida State University Department of Athletics, the NOLES program represents a commitment to the total growth and development of the student-athlete. This program establishes an administrative commitment to academic and athletic excellence. Those efforts will be supported with programs and services in personal development, career development and community service.

John Lata Coordinator

PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

Fostering the development of personal growth is a fundamental component of the NOLES program. These support programs ensure that the student-athlete will be provided opportunities to focus on personal growth issues such as values clarification, goal setting, fiscal planning, decision-making and personal responsibility. Programming focuses on helping student-athletes develop a healthy lifestyle while they are at Florida State and habits that will benefit them for life.

CAREER DEVELOPMENT

Preparing for life after college sports is a major focus of the NOLES Career Development program. The program is designed to work cooperatively with the University's Career Services to acquaint students with the job search process, provide networking opportunities and ultimately assist with job placement. This program places a priority on the development of the total person, with the goal of developing individuals who will have rewarding careers and productive lifestyles after they leave Florida State.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Serving the community is the focus of our Seminole Spirit program. Student-athletes are challenged to give service to our community and individuals who are in need. With a clearly defined program of service, student-athletes are given the opportunity to develop the foundation for a lifelong commitment develop effective communication and impact the lives of others through their service as role models in our community.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

The Florida State University Department of Athletics is committed to developing programs of excellence that foster leadership development. The foundation of the leadership development program is the Seminole Leadership Institutes that are held four times a year. These Institutes offer student-athletes the opportunity to learn skills that will benefit them as students, as athletes, and as they pursue their goals after leaving Florida State. The Institutes are based on building communication skills. Students have the opportunity to use the values and work ethic taught by athletic participation as the framework for their leadership development. The Institutes attract outstanding guest speakers who challenge Seminole student-athletes to achieve their greatest potential and use their leadership skills to positively influence others.

The Student-Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC) serves as the advisory board to the NOLES program and the athletics administration. The prestigious board comprised of two representatives of each athletic team at FSU, also recommends programming and serves as a liaison between student-athletes and the athletic administration. The Advisory Council plans and implements various events for student-athletes and serves as the department's most visible ambassadors. The SAAC hosts the annual Golden Nole banquet and plans such events as orientation for incoming student-athletes and the back-to-school picnic.

SEMINOLE TENI EMINOLE TSeminole Academic Support EMIN

Academic Overview

Academic, personal professional support are essential to college success. At The Florida State University, we have developed an outstanding support program that enables studentathletes to reach their full potential. Director, Mark Meleney states, "Our philosophy is to offer an academic support program integrated with the total University that will assist all student-athletes with transition into college and provide continued support in all phases of professional academic and development, culminating with graduation, job placement or graduate school." Our program operates on a "proactive" rather than "reactive" approach. Our academic staff does not wait for crises to occur. We gather important background information on each entering student-athlete, build an academic profile, and develop individualized support programs which are tailored to the unique needs of each studentathlete. We also stay informed on the daily progress of the studentathletes through consistent communication with our faculty. The academic support unit is housed in the $126 million dollar, state-of-the-art University Center Complex. It includes private study carrels, a tutorial study area, and a computer lab outfitted with 20 IBM compatible computers and laser jet printers. In addition, the athletic skyboxes are used for group and individualized tutorial instruction. The academic support staff is comprised of a Director, an Administrative Assistant, five Academic Counselors, several graduate assistants, individualized learning specialists and a cadre of approximately 50 tutors and mentors.

Mark Meleney Director

Mark Meleney is in his eighth year as the Director of the Athletic Academic Support Program. He brings to the position 18 years of advising experience at FSU. Over the past eight years, Meleney has played an integral role in the development of a comprehensive program of student athlete support, which in 1996 won an "Award of Excellence" (from Athletic Management Magazine). Meleney directs a staff of six professional counselors, two graduate assistants, and an administrative assistant.

In addition to his duties directing the Academic Support Program, Meleney evaluates all recruits for their academic potential, monitors academic progress and eligibility for student athletes and serves as a liaison to the academic com-munity. He also serves as a member of the administrative team for both the Ath-letic Department and the Division of Undergraduate Studies.

A native of Iowa, Meleney began his college education at Buena Vista College, where he earned varsity letters in football and baseball. Upon transferring to Florida State University, he earned bachelor's degrees in management and finance in 1986 and received his M.S. degree in athletic administration in April 1997. A member of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletes (N4A), Meleney is married to the former Sarah Cawthon and they have a ten-year-old daughter, Montana Shea.

D'Wayne Robinson

D'Wayne Robinson is in his first year with the Florida State Athletic Academic Support Program as a counselor for the defensive unit of the football program. He brings 10 years of teaching, counseling and administrative experience to the FSU program. Robinson's duties include monitoring academic eligibility, advisement and assisting in the recruitment of all prospective student-athletes.

Prior to his appointment at FSU, Robinson served as Assistant Athletics Director for Internal Operations and Head Golf Coach at Alcorn State University. He has also done extensive work in community and youth development while serving as a teacher and Director of the Educational Opportunities and Scholarship Program at Chicago H.S. for Agricultural Sciences in Chicago, Illinois. As Academic Advisor director, he developed and implemented several programs that supported career aspirations of underprivileged youth.

A native of Mississippi, Robinson received a bachelor's of science degree in chemistry from Tougaloo College in 1989. He did further studies at the University of Illinois-Chicago in Public Health and later received his master's degree in education from Alcorn State. A member of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletes (N4A), Robinson is working towards his Ph.D. in higher education at FSU.

With the first stage of construction completed in the summer of 1993, the Scott Speicher Tennis Center at the Donald Loucks Courts opened its gates to the public for the first time at a Children's Miracle Network charity tournament. Since then, many successful tournaments including the 1996 NCAA Women's Championships, have graced the courts at one of Florida State University's premier athletic facilities.

Costing $1.2 million to build and then another $800,000 for recent additions, Florida State's Speicher Tennis Center has become an example of the increasing dedication and commitment the University has to all of its 17 varsity athletic programs.

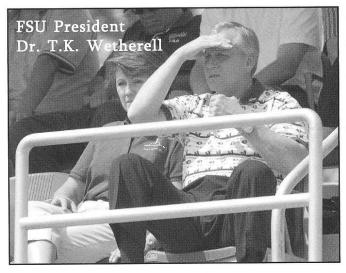

The Speicher Tennis Center houses 12 lighted hard courts, over 1,000 court level seats, coaching offices, men's and women's locker rooms, equipment and storage rooms, a team lounge and a public address system. The growing pride Florida State has for its tennis program and its premier tennis center was honored just after it's opening in 1994, when the United States Tennis Association (USTA) awarded the structure with its "Top Notch" facility award.

The Speicher Tennis Center was named in honor of Lieutenant Commander Michael Scott Speicher, a graduate of Florida State University, Speicher was considered the first Ameri-

State University. Speicher was considered the first American casualty during Operation Desert Storm, but was later reclassified by the United State's government as missing in action in 2001 and missing/captured a year later. By Presidential directive, the facility bears the name the "Scott Speicher Tennis Center."

In 1947, Loucks became Florida State's first basketball coach and a year later was named the school's first tennis coach. His tennis team was the first athletic team. The varsity tennis courts were named for Loucks in 1981. He served as Dean of men from 1957-1967 and was known as a servant of leadership, service and devotion to manny worthy causes.

The Speicher Tennis Center was designed by EMO/Architects, Inc., a Tallahassee-based architectural firm, in collaboration with Global Consult Group, Inc., an internationally recognized Tennis Facility Design Consultant. The complex was funded by private sources and supervised through the state university system of Florida.

Through its nine year existence, the Scott Speicher Tennis Center at the Donald Loucks Courts has served as the home courts for all Florida State men's and women's home dual matches, the annual Seminole Fall Classics, City of Tallahassee tennis championships, various USTA regional and zonal tournaments, the 1994 and 1995 Men's Intercollegiate tournament and the annual Children's Miracle Network Charity Invitational benefiting Shands Hospital in Gainesville.
