THIS IS FSU VOLLEYBALL - THE NOLES WILL "RISE ABOVE" IN 2015

Seniors Laura Dadowski, Karlie Hauer, Nicole Walch, Mercedes Vaughn and Caroline Dadowski

The ninth-ranked Florida State indoor volleyball team begins its 2015 season on Aug. 28 against Oklahoma. But before the Seminoles take the floor in what hopes to be another historical quest, the Seniors sat down to talk about this season's slogan...#RiseAbove. It was senior defensive specialist Laura Dadowski who came up with the idea to #RiseAbove.

Laura Dadowski on what she was thinking when she thought of the idea:

"We were experiencing a lot of different challenges this spring and we just wanted to put all of those behind us and rise above them. Also, when we do rise above we take it as being the best team we can be by overcoming any obstacles or conquering any problems we may face together."

Once she came up with the idea, the rest of the class agreed it was a perfect fit.

Outside hitter Nicole Walch on why it felt like it was a great slogan:

"We face a lot of adversity since we're all ranging from 18 -22 years old and being in that collegiate experience and we have the new players to gel with on and off the court. Being able to rise above everything that has happened and just leave everything out there."

On how the team is taking to the #RiseAbove standards:

Walch - "There are a little different circumstances this fall compared to last year but I think what we're going through now is going to shape us for the year."

Middle blocker Mercedes Vaughn: "We've done well so far this season. There is constant competition in practice and anyone on the team could easily come into a match and compete."

On how the theme will help them through the tough schedule:

Walch - "Starting off strong is key. The teams we face outside of the ACC are very tough and that prepares us for what we're going to see in the postseason. Which helps because if you play an easy schedule and you make the post season and see a tough team, you're going to go down in three sets. It just helps you know what you're going to see and we work hard all year in order to get there."

On what their goals are as seniors:

Outside hitter Karlie Hauer - "No regrets and leave it out on the court. Every practice, match, set, just leave it out there. It doesn't matter what I'm doing - every touch matters and step up when I'm needed and help the younger girls that are coming in to make sure they feel comfortable and help them with what they can expect for the next three or four years and hopefully they carry on the FSU legacy when we're gone."

Defensive specialist Caroline Dadowski - "I just want to take advantage of every experience. It's going to be my last time doing everything here at FSU and I want to make it special and have fun."

Walch - "Finishing off strong and a National Title and an ACC Championship would obviously make our season the best. I think playing every match like it's my last is key. That's my goal."

L.Dadowski- "I agree with everything that was just said. For me, just to make the most out of everything, every practice, knowing that this is my last year and last chance to have those opportunities and doing whatever I can to help the team in any way possible. I just want to make the most of everything and try and finish strong."

Vaughn - "This being my last season my goal is to cut down on my errors and to be a constant energy source for the team."

NUMBERS TO KNOW

Despite the nine wins that were produced in the month of November to close out the 2013 season, FSU fell just shy of its fifth ACC title after posting a 17-3 record in conference. Following the 3-0 sweep of Georgia Tech on Nov. 29, the Seminoles huddled around a computer (with captain Katie Mosher pushing the refresh button) awaiting the result of the Duke vs. North Carolina match. Needing the Tar Heels to pull out the win, the Blue Devils were able to come back after fending off several match points in the fourth set to claim a 3-2 win and the ACC title. This season, the Seminoles will be eyeing their fifth ACC title. In 2014, the Seminoles started off hot with a 24-0 streak, but a trip to Tobacco Road put the Seminoles behind the 8-ball for the ACC title with losses to North Carolina and Duke within 24 hours. Once again, the Seminoles had to wait out their fate, however the Tar Heels defeated the Blue Devils, 3-2 in Chapel Hill, taking the title.

Student-athletes that played with the US Collegiate National Teams this summer. Nicole Walch will represent the USA at the World University Games in Korea, while Katie Horton participated in the National Team Program in New Orleans.

38

The Seminoles have won 38-straight ACC matches in Tully Gym. Ever since the 3-2 loss to Miami on Nov. 26, 2010, FSU has been unbeatable on their home floor. They will look to defend that streak in 2014.

24

With one of the toughest schedules in the country, the Seminoles put together 24 straight wins before dropping their first match to Duke in November in 2014. The 24-0 start was a school record.

7

After setting a school record for appearing in five-consecutive NCAA Tournaments, the Seminoles will look to extend that streak to seven in the 2015 season. The record breaks the streak of four that was set back during the 1987-90 squads that were led by Metro Conference legends Gabrielle Reece and Maggie Philgine.

58

Straight AVCA polls, climbing to a school record of No. 3 before finishing the season at No. 10 in 2014.

1,007

Nicole Walch will start her senior season with just over 1,000 career kills. Walch will look to climb up the record books. She needs 264 more kills to break into the top 10 in the FSU record book. Her 487 kills and average of 3.99 per set in 2014 was the eighth best season performances in Florida State history.

33

Wins over ranked opponents. The Seminoles followed up the record-setting year in 2013 of 6 with five wins over ranked teams in 2014. FSU first defeated No. 8 Nebraska, No. 11 Florida, No. 12 North Carolina and No. 21 Texas A&M twice.

8

The number of block assists that Sarah Burrington needs in order to crack the FSU top 10. With two seasons left, Burrington could be on pace to take over as the all-time blocks leader. She currently has 298 total block assists. All together, Burrington has 327 blocks after two seasons, and needs 66 more blocks to made the career top 10 list.

13

Florida State will play 13 matches in 2015 against teams that made the 2014 NCAA Tournament.

736

Coach Poole's career wins. Poole ranks 10th among the active NCAA Division I coaches, however he could move up in the ranks. Bob Bertucci of Lehigh has 738 while just in front of him is Matt Peck from Middle Tennessee State with 743. Lehigh produced 22 wins in 2014 while MTSU had nine. Just behind Coach Poole is North Carolina's Joe Sagula with 731.

2015 SEASON OUTLOOK

Walch Poised to Climb the Ranks

Senior outside hitter Nicole Walch enters the 2015 season with 1,007 career kills. After a season of 447 and 487 kills in 2013 and 2014 respectively, The Stuart, Fla. native will look to leave her mark on FSU history. She is on pace to finish fifth (1,436) or sixth (1,420) on the All-Time Kills list. Although she will likely finish in the middle of the top 10, she will be the only Seminole on that list from the rally scoring era, which is equally if not more impressive than the school record of 2,110 which was set by Maggie Philgence (1987-90) when scoring was different and teams played around 50 matches a season.

Walch Dons Red, White & Blue...PART 2

This summer, senior Nicole Walch became the first Seminole in history to compete in the World University Games. After falling 0-3 in a tough pool play, Walch helped the Americans rally to a 3-0 showing in the silver bracket for ninth place.

Joining the Coast

The Seminoles picked up two players that had previous stints with Big Ten teams. Junior middle Blocker Melanie Keil looks to make an impact in the lineup after spending two seasons with Nebraska. While in Lincoln, Keil helped the Huskers to back-to-back Elite Eight appearances by coming off a regular in the starting rotation towards the end of the season. She will look to compliment redshirt junior middle blocker Sarah Burrington on the front. In addition to Keil, redshirt freshman outside hitter Christina Ambrose joins the Seminoles after a year with Purdue. Ambrose will make her collegiate debut this season after sitting out her first year as a Boilermaker. She arrived in January.

Back to the Grind

It's not a secret that Florida State Volleyball goes after those RPI points. After finishing third in the RPI in 2013, Coach Poole has put together another tough schedule for the Seminoles in 2015.

FSU will play 12 matches against teams that finished in the top 50 of the 2014 RPI, including North Carolina and Florida who finished in the top 10.

In fact, in the first six matches of 2015, the Seminoles will face a team that was recognized in the preseason AVCA Coaches Poll or received votes.

Welcome Coach Jeff

With the departure of beloved associate head coach Ryan McGuyre to a head coaching position at Baylor, Coach Poole announced the hiring of Jeff Hulsmeier, who was the associate head coach at Kansas State.

Hulsmeier brings a wealth of coaching experience to Florida State after serving as an assistant at Kansas State for six seasons (2009-14), helping the Wildcats to three NCAA Tournament appearances including a Sweet 16 berth in 2011 after being selected to finish eighth in the Big 12.

Poole and Hulsmeier have been friends since the 1980's when both coaches were in the Sun Belt Conference.

Noles Participate in U.S. Programs

In 2015, junior outside hitter Katie Horton participated with the US Collegiate National Team program that ran in New Orleans.

Noles Ranked Ninth in AVCA Preseason Poll

The AVCA starts the season ranking the Seminoles ninth in the 2015 preseason poll. It is the first time in school history that the Seminoles have cracked the top 10 to begin the year. Although FSU is listed in the top 10, the 15 head coaches of the ACC chose FSU to finish second in the league behind North Carolina, who is listed at No. 5 in the poll. OH Nicole Walch, OH Katie Horton and MB Sarah Burrington all captured All-ACC Preseason Team honors.

Ready for a Showdown

Who doesn't love a rivalry match? When it comes to Florida State vs. Florida, there's always excitement. In 2013, the Seminoles lost 3-0 in the O'Connell Center on Sept. 17. Although it was a sweep, FSU dropped the first set 25-20, before falling 26-24 and 25-23 in the final two.

However, the Seminoles got their chance for revenge when they drew the Gainesville Regional in the NCAA Tournament for the fourth time in school history.

This time, FSU would pull off the biggest upset in school history by knocking out the sixth-ranked Gators, 3-2. Not only was it the highest-ranked win, it was the first time since Oct. 9, 1990 FSU defeated UF inside the O'Connell

2015 SEASON OUTLOOK

Center. In fact, each Seminole listed on the roster was not born yet at the time of the last win.

In 2014, Florida came to town for the home opener and in front of a record-setting crowd in Tully Gym, the Seminoles outlasted the Gators 3-2 in a five set thriller. It was the first time under Poole that the Noles were ranked ahead of the Gators at the time of the match. FSU was eighth in the AVCA Poll while Florida was 11th.

This year's contest is in Gainesville on Sept. 20 at 5 p.m. and it will be featured on the SEC Network.

The Highest EVER

FSU has made a habit of leading the ACC when it comes to monumental accomplishments. In 2011, the Seminoles became the first team to advance to the Final Four and yet another ACC first has been achieved by Chris Poole's squad in 2014.

Florida State becomes the first team in ACC history to receive an invitation to the AVCA Showcase - a preseason tournament that features tradition powerhouse volleyball schools.

In 2014, the Seminoles earned the highest ranking out of any ACC team in conference history when it rode a 24-match winning streak all the way to No. 3 in the AVCA poll.

Coach Mo'

After taking over as FSU All-Time Digs Leader, Katie Mosher enrolled in FSU's sport management grad school program and stayed on to take on the role as a volunteer assistant coach. This will be the first season in four years a new player will take over at libero and luckily Coach Mo' will be on the sides helping Coach Poole break in a new defensive beast.

IN THE POLLS

PRESEASON

FLORIDA STATE ENTERS THE 2015 SEASON WITH ITS HIGHEST PRESEASON RANKING IN SCHOOL HISTORY AT NO. 9. SINCE THE ARRIVAL OF HEAD COACH CHRIS POOLE IN 2008, THE SEMINOLES HAVE BEEN INCLUDED IN FIVE PRESEASON POLLS, INCLUDING THE LAST FOUR. IN FACT, THE ONLY OTHER PRESEASON RANKING PRIOR TO POOLE WAS IN 1998 AT NO. 24.

Healthy Noles

This season, Florida State athletics has beefed up its nutrition program - remodeling the Moore Center Weight Room to house a nutrition center, along with staffing a nutritionist with each team. The Seminoles started the season with nutrition plans and cooking classes in order to put the right fuel in their bodies for competition.

HEAD COACH CHRIS POOLE

The transformation has been thorough and quick.

When Chris Poole inherited the Florida State volleyball program in the summer of 2008, he took over a team that had failed to reach the 20-win plateau in five-straight seasons and hadn't been to the NCAA Tournament since 2002. It was a program looking for answers; a program looking to get back to the winning ways it had grown accustomed to in the 1980s and early '90s.

Seven years later, Poole has made his mark, grabbing his 700th career win while rejuvenating a program that has built itself into a national contender. He has guided the Seminoles to an NCAA National Semifinal (2011), an NCAA Regional Semifinal (2013, 2014) and Final (2009), and two trips to the NCAA second round (2010, 2012).

In 2014, the Seminoles continued to produce history, riding a 24-0 match winning streak while climbing to a program and ACC best AVCA ranking of No. 3 as four athletes captured AVCA All-America honors en route to the second consecutive Sweet 16.

In 2013, Poole helped the Seminoles to a school-record setting six AVCA top-25 wins (Kentucky, Michigan, Western Kentucky, Duke, North Carolina, Florida), including two of the biggest wins in school history. On December 6, 2013, Poole guided the Seminoles to a 3-2, NCAA Second Round victory over No. 6 Florida lifting them to the NCAA Champaign Regional Semifinal. It marked the first time since 1990, FSU defeated UF inside the O'Connell Center. Florida State also picked up a 3-2 win over No. 7 Michigan on Sept. 14, 2013.

The Seminoles finished second in the Atlantic Coast Conference with an overall record of 26-8, while finishing the year ranked 11th in the AVCA poll and 12th in the RPI. FSU was led by AVCA All-America honorable mention players, Ashley Neff, Nicole Walch and Elise Walch. Neff earned All-ACC First Team honors, while both Walch sisters and Katie Mosher were awarded All-Second Team accolades.

On Nov. 17th in a 3-0 victory over Notre Dame, Poole picked up his 700th career win, becoming one of the most winningest active division I coaches in the country (10th-706 wins).

In 2012, the Seminoles won their third Atlantic Coast Conference title under Poole and the program's fourth overall. Florida State finished with a remarkable 28-4 overall record, earning back-to-back conference crowns for the first time in the ACC since Maryland achieved the feat in 2003 and 2004. The Seminoles tied a previous school record with the 2011 squad by defeating five AVCA Top 25 opponents, and one of just three teams (Southern California, Western Kentucky) who have garnered 28 wins or better in the last two seasons (2011 and 2012).

In Poole's fifth season Florida State obliterated the school record for consecutive wins at home, reaching 27 matches before falling to Purdue in the NCAA Second Round. Florida State also achieved a 16-match win streak and won 19 consecutive sets overall in the 2012 season to reflect its stellar play. The Seminoles finished 18th in the final AVCA Poll and 12th in the final RPI, while being led by AVCA Third-Team All-American and ACC Player of the Year Ashley Neff as well as honorable mention All-Americans Sareea Freeman and Fatma Yildirim.

Poole's most memorable year thus far came in 2011, when he led the Seminoles to their first-ever NCAA National Semifinal appearance in what was a startling year to say the least.

In 2011, FSU earned its third ACC title while finishing with a 28-7 overall record and an 18-2 mark within the conference. The Seminoles entered the NCAA Tournament as a No. 12 national seed and began the Field of 64 by defeating Albany and Cincinnati in Tully Gym. From there, FSU upset No. 5 Purdue in four sets in the Sweet 16 and defeated fourth-seeded Iowa State in five sets in the Elite Eight in Minneapolis to achieve a feat that many deemed unthinkable when Poole and his staff first arrived.

FSU became the first ACC volleyball team to ever advance to the final round of four, where it eventually lost to NCAA champion UCLA in the national semifinal at the Alamodome in San Antonio. FSU was the only team in the final four that had gotten through its regional in which both Sweet 16 and Elite Eight opponents were nationally-seeded. In his five seasons leading the Seminoles, Poole has compiled 11 of FSU's 12 NCAA postseason wins, showing a 11-5 mark in championship play.

As a result of FSU's historical 2011 campaign, Poole helped the Seminoles achieve their highest national ranking ever as they finished at No. 7 in the final AVCA Poll. FSU also finished with the seventh-best RPI in the nation. Poole capped his incredible season by being named the ACC Coach of the Year for the second time as well as the AVCA East Region Coach of the Year. He coached AVCA Second-Team All-American Jekaterina Stepanova to a career year as well as AVCA Honorable Mention All-Americans Visnja Djurdjevic and Neff.

The Seminoles earned 21 wins in Poole's first season in 2008 and then followed that up with an incredible 2009 campaign. FSU not only posted a 31-3 overall record, but under Poole's tutelage the 'Noles captured their first outright regular-season Atlantic Coast Conference championship in school history (second overall) and made it to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament for the first time ever.

In addition to those program firsts, Poole's Seminoles also set the school standard for most conference wins in a season with 19 and ACC wins in a row with 16, which was then tied by the 2011 team. A national ranking of No. 11 in the entire country was the highest ever for a Florida State volleyball team at the time and its No. 3 national seed in the Big Dance continues to be the highest ever. Poole's 2012 team reached the program's highest AVCA ranking at No. 6 on Sept. 3, 2012.

For his squad's multiple successes, Poole garnered ACC Coach of the Year and AVCA Division I East Region Coach of the Year honors in 2009.

He also coached a handful of players that generated quite a few accolades. Brianna Barry became the first Seminole to ever be named the ACC's Player of the Year and she also garnered AVCA Division I Second-Team All-American honors. Barry, an ESPN The Magazine Academic All First-Team member, was joined by Jordana Price, Mira Djuric and Rachael Morgan on the 2009 All-ACC Team - a record at FSU for most players on that list in one season. Price, Djuric and Morgan also each achieved an AVCA Division I Honorable Mention All-American nod. Poole also coached an ACC All-Freshman Team performer in Yildirim.

The 2010 season featured several roadblocks for the Seminoles, ranging from life-altering misfortunes off the court to devastating injuries that inhibited the team's continuity. Despite all the hardships, the gutsy FSU squad finished 22-11, including 12-8 within the ACC. Several program feats were accomplished - making back-to-back postseason appearances for the first time in over a decade, advancing to the second round of the NCAA Championship in consecutive years for the first time in school history and finishing with at least 20 wins for the third straight season.

Veterans Jenna Romanelli and Stephanie Neville capped off their four-year careers in excellent fashion. Junior outside hitter Djurdjevic was one of the top transfers in the country, being named an AVCA Honorable Mention All-American and an AVCA Honorable Mention All-East Region member. She joined Neville as members of the

All-ACC Team as well.

The fact that Poole has breathed life in the FSU volleyball program should come as no surprise as he brought a wealth of knowledge and experience to the school after heading the program at the University of Arkansas for 14 accomplished seasons.

Poole started Arkansas' volleyball program in 1994 and was not only successful, but led the Lady Razorbacks to 11 Southeastern Conference Western Division titles. Add to that 11 postseason appearances - two NIVC and nine NCAA - along with an SEC Tournament title and numerous individual player honors.

Upon arriving in Fayetteville, Ark. in 1993, Poole personally handled every element of building the program from buying the first pieces of equipment, hiring the assistants and recruiting the players, to renovating the court and building locker room facilities.

With head coaching stints at Arkansas, Arkansas State and Arkansas Tech, Poole earned a 550-230 career record in 21 seasons prior to his hiring at FSU and had been named conference coach of the year seven times and was pegged the South Region Coach of the Year in 1997.

During his 14 seasons at Arkansas, in which he compiled a 316-161 record, Poole produced two AVCA All-Americans, three AVCA honorable mention All-Americans, 24 players with 44 All-SEC honors, three SEC Freshmen of the Year and 25 AVCA All-District/All-Region honorees. In addition to the success on the court, Poole's Arkansas teams excelled in the classroom as well with 67 SEC Academic Honor Roll selections, 10 CoSIDA All-District selections, two H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athlete finalists and one McWhorter winner.

Poole certainly made his mark in the SEC as he guided Arkansas to a 159-65 record in the SEC regular season for a 71 percent league-winning mark. Poole and the Lady Razorbacks were even more impressive against the Western Division, winning 11 of 14 titles.

Poole spent an entire year away from competition preparing for the Razorback's inaugural season in 1994 and it was time well spent as he led Arkansas to a 19-17 overall record, a 10-5 SEC mark and an SEC Western Division title with a perfect 10-0 divisional record in the first year of competition. The Lady Razorbacks finished third overall in the league that year and played well enough to earn a postseason bid to the National Invitational Volleyball Coaches tournament in Kansas City where they finished seventh in a field of 20 teams. Poole was selected as the 1994 SEC Coach of the Year while two of his players earned All-SEC honors and one player earned All-District honors.

Poole's ability to build a program was proven first with Arkansas Tech then at Arkansas State. He took over days prior to the 1987 season at ASU and his first team showed the effects with an 8-24 record. But with one season under Poole's careful tutelage, virtually the same team was 41-1 the next year, launching a five-year run of winning seasons for the Lady Indians.

His 1988 team had a 33-match win streak, longest in the nation, and posted a school-record 41-1 overall mark. The next year, ASU had a 34-match win streak, notched a Lady Indian record with 43 wins (43-6 overall) and was ranked ninth in the South Region.

In his last season at ASU, the Lady Indians were 41-6 and received an automatic bid into the NCAA Tournament in 1992. ASU entered the 32-team NCAA field with the most wins of any team, but lost a tough four-game match to the Northwest Region's top-seeded team, Long Beach State.

Prior to ASU, Poole was an assistant and later head coach at Arkansas Tech. In two seasons as head coach at ATU, he posted a 53-20 record, winning the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference title in 1985 as co-head coach and finishing runner-up as head coach in 1986. He started his collegiate career in 1983 as a graduate assistant for the nationally ranked Arkansas

Tech Golden Suns. Tech was 58-9 with a perfect 24-0 conference mark in two seasons with Poole as an assistant coach.

A native of Heber Springs in north-central Arkansas, Poole is a 1983 graduate of Arkansas Tech and earned a master's degree from there in 1989. He is a member of the American Volleyball Coaches Association and has served on the AVCA's All-American, All-South Region and All-South Region Ranking committees and is also an AVCA Top 25 voter.

Poole and his wife, Toni, a former Arkansas State track and field standout, have two children, son Joshua and daughter Taylor.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH JEFF HULSMEYER

Florida State indoor volleyball head coach Chris Poole announced the hiring of Jeff Hulsmeyer as the associate head coach. Hulsmeyer will replace Ryan McGuyre, who was named the head coach at Baylor in December.

Hulsmeyer will fulfill the responsibilities of training and recruiting coordinator.

"I have been very blessed with great assistants," Poole said. "Holly Watts, Gokhan Yilmaz and now Ryan McGuyre have all moved to a head coaching positions at the Division I level. I am now excited to welcome Jeff and his family to the Florida State Volleyball program and looking forward to another great season. Jeff has spent about 25 years coaching and recruiting and we expect him to make an impact. Jeff is also known as an exceptional trainer and focuses on the small details of being a great individual player."

Hulsmeyer brings a wealth of coaching experience to Florida State after serving as an assistant at Kansas State for six seasons (2009-14), helping the Wildcats to three NCAA Tournament appearances including a Sweet 16 berth in 2011 after being selected to finish eighth in the Big 12.

In 2014, the Wildcats teetered in and out of the AVCA Top 25, finishing with a record of 22-9 after falling in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, 3-0 to Utah. Hulsmeyer served as the offensive and recruiting coordinator at Kansas State, working heavily with the setters in practice while acquiring some of the top recruiting classes in the country according to PrepVolleyball.com.

"I am very honored and blessed to have this opportunity to work with Chris Poole at Florida State," Hulsmeyer said. "Coach Poole has established himself and Florida State volleyball as a national contender. Their goals are getting to the Final Four and being consistently ranked among the nation's elite programs. I'd like to thank Suzie Fritz and Kansas State University for six wonderful years in Manhattan and all the players and support staff that made our time there so memorable. My family and I are looking forward to making Tallahassee our home and getting immersed in the community."

Hulsmeyer served as the head coach for Georgetown College, where he produced a record of 75-14, leading the Tigers to a No. 5 national ranking in 2007. In both seasons at the helm he was named the conference and region coach of the year while helping a pair of players to NAIA All-America honors.

Prior to an assistant coaching job at Illinois (1996-98) and a four-year head coaching stint at Purdue (1999-2002), Hulsmeyer worked for Arkansas State and Western Kentucky - two teams in the Sun Belt Conference, capturing three titles and two Coach of the Year awards.

While at the helm of Arkansas State (1993-95) he led his team to the crown in all three seasons while remaining perfect in regular season conference play in addition to a pair of NCAA Tournament bids.

After a season at Western Kentucky as a graduate assistant, Hulsmeyer took over as the head coach in 1990, turning the program around and finishing with a 32-9 record following a season that had a losing record. While at the helm (1990-93) Hulsmeyer led Western Kentucky to a pair of runner-up finishes in the Sun Belt Conference.

"I have personally known Jeff since he started coaching," Poole said. "We both got into Division I Volleyball about the same time in the late 80's. In fact, we coached against each other in the Sun Belt Conference. His teams were always exceptionally well prepared for matches."

During parts of his coaching career began, Hulsmeyer played indoor and professional beach volleyball from 1989-95 while recruiting on the East Coast.

Hulsmeyer graduated from Kentucky in 1988 with a degree in political science. He is married to the former Michelle Hall of Halstead, Kan. She was a two-time All-American volleyball player for Barton County Community College before she went on to play at Arkansas State where she helped her team to the NCAA Tournament in both seasons. The couple have four children, Zach, Ben, Hannah and Jack.

ASSISTANT COACH GANNA KHRYSTENKO

Ganna “Anna” Khrystenko is tremendously dedicated to the sport of volleyball. She has enjoyed success as both a player and a coach at the most elite level in Europe. She brings that wealth of knowledge and experience to FSU while entering her second season as the Assistant Coach for the indoor volleyball team.

In 2014, Khrystenko took charge of coaching blocking, helping Sarah Burrington to an AVCA All-America honorable mention accolade and All-ACC First Team nod while Kiara Wright finished with All-ACC Second team honors.

Khrystenko arrived in Tallahassee in March (2014) and assists heavily in international recruiting while coaching in her area of expertise - blocking.

The native of Ukraine, Khrystenko played five seasons on the Ukrainian National Team while playing professionally in her country from 1995-2008. During a three year junior career (1995-1997) she gained valuable international experience by competing at a pair of Junior World Championships and European Championships.

Khrystenko won a plethora of accolades as a player, including a four-time Ukrainian Championship, where she was awarded the ‘Best Blocker’ multiple times. She is a four-time winner of the Cup of Ukraine and was seen in the Elite Eight of the European CEV Cup and Top Teams Cups. In 2002 where she was awarded the ‘Best Server’ for the Top Teams Cup.

She helped Ukraine take fifth place at the World University Games in 2003.

Following her athletic career, Khrystenko began coaching in 2008 as a manager of the Ukrainian Girls’ Team before being promoted to assistant coach of the Junior Team in 2009. During that time, Khrystenko essentially served as a general manager of the club by selecting coaches and players for the teams while working with advanced volleyball development in her country.

Her role in the Ukraine expands further than just a coach. In 2008, Khrystenko was named as the Chairman of the Athletic Commission for the Ukrainian Volleyball Federation and was a member of the Executive Committee and National Olympic Committee as well. She also spent five years as a General Volleyball Manager at the Ukrainian Government.

Recently, Khrystenko took her career to the United States in December of 2013 where she had been coaching the USA NY AAU Volleyball teams, which are based out of New York and are members of the New England Amateur Athletic Union.

THE ACC

The Tradition

Consistency. It is the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

In today's intercollegiate athletics, competition is so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency. Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds.

Now, in its 63rd year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 141 NCAA team championships, including 72 in women's competition and 69 in men's. In addition, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 159 times in men's competition and 120 times in women's action. Given the ACC's strong history and the strengthening of its ranks with the additions of Notre Dame, Pitt and Syracuse in 2013, followed by Louisville in 2014, those numbers – and the league's longstanding tradition of excellence – appear destined to grow in the years ahead.

ACC Football enjoyed another banner year in 2014 as Florida State posted a 13-1 record, won its third straight ACC crown, won 29 straight games—which tied for the 12th-longest streak in college football history—and earned a berth in the first College Football Playoff. Two ACC teams were ranked in the final Associated Press Top 10 as Capital One Orange Bowl champion Georgia Tech (8th) joined the Seminoles (5th). The ACC finished with four teams ranked in the final AP and Coaches polls, with Clemson (15th) and Louisville (24th) also being recognized, and became the first Conference in history to send 11 teams to bowl games in back-to-back seasons. ACC teams defeated five Top 10 non-conference teams in 2014, the most in a single season in league history.

Over the past two seasons, ACC athletes have captured 14 of the 17 major national football awards, including the Heisman, the Outland Trophy, The Nagurski Trophy, the Lombardi Award and the National Football Foundation's Campbell Trophy—the nation's academic Heisman—which was awarded to Duke linebacker David Helton. Louisville's Gerod Holliman tied the NCAA record for most pass interceptions in a season (14) and was named winner of the Jim Thorpe Award while Florida State's Nick O'Leary captured the John Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end. In all, the conference tied its all-time high with six consensus first-team All-Americans.

The ACC total of nine first-round draft picks in the 2015 NFL Draft tied for the most among all conferences, including the overall No. 1 pick in Florida State quarterback Jameis Winston. The ACC also had 47 players selected in 2015, the second-highest total in league history and the second-highest of any conference.

2014-15 Review

The 2014-15 academic year saw ACC teams capture five more national team titles and 16 individual NCAA crowns. In all, the ACC has won 72 national team titles over the last 18 years and has won two or more NCAA titles in 32 of the past 34 years.

Academically, the member institutions of the Atlantic Coast Conference again led the way among Power 5 conferences in the latest "Best Colleges" rankings released by US News & World Report. ACC member institutions combined for an average rank of 54.8, marking the eighth straight year that the ACC led all Power 5 conferences.

The Championships

The conference will conduct championship competition in 27 sports during the 2015-16 academic year--13 for men and 14 for women. The first ACC championship was held in swimming on February 25, 1954.

The 13 sports for men include football, cross country, soccer, basketball, fencing, swimming and diving, indoor and outdoor track & field, wrestling, baseball, tennis, golf and lacrosse. Women's sports were initiated in 1977 with the first championship meet held in tennis at Wake Forest University. Championships for women are currently conducted in cross country, field hockey, soccer, basketball, fencing, swimming and diving, indoor and outdoor track & field, tennis, golf, lacrosse, softball and rowing, with volleyball deciding its champion by regular-season play.

A History

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, North Carolina with seven charter members - Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest - drawing up the conference by-laws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, North Carolina, where a set of bylaws was adopted and the name became officially the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Suggestions from fans for the name of the new conference appeared in the region's newspapers prior to the meeting in Raleigh. Some of the names suggested were:

Dixie, Mid-South, Mid-Atlantic, East Coast, Seaboard, Colonial, Tobacco, Blue-Gray, Piedmont, Southern Seven and the Shoreline.

Duke's Eddie Cameron recommended that the name of the conference be the Atlantic Coast Conference, and the motion was passed unanimously. The meeting concluded with each member institution assessed $200.00 to pay for conference expenses.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted Virginia as the league's eighth member. The first withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971, when the University of South Carolina tendered its resignation. The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978, when Georgia Tech was admitted. The Atlanta school had withdrawn from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1, 1991, with the addition of Florida State.

The conference expanded to 11 members on July 1, 2004, with the addition of Miami and Virginia Tech. On October 17, 2003, Boston College accepted an invitation to become the league's 12th member starting July 1, 2005.

The ACC added its 13th and 14th members on Sept. 18, 2011, when Pittsburgh and Syracuse accepted invitations to join the conference. The two schools officially join the ACC on July 1, 2013. Notre Dame also officially joined the ACC on July 1, 2013, after announcing on Sept. 12, 2012 its intention to enter the league for competition in all sports but football, bringing the membership of the conference to 15. The Fighting Irish will play five games with ACC schools each year.

On July 1, 2014, Louisville entered the ACC on the same day Maryland withdrew, keeping the conference's membership at 15 institutions.
