All balled up!

The "47" Seminoles played a "makeshift" five-game schedule and came through without a victory. After a late kickoff in the season, the team, coached by Ed Williamson and Jack Haskins, started by losing a close one to Stetson 14-6. In a "mud battle," the Indians fell before Cumberland, 6-0 in Lebanon, Tennessee.

Returning home, a powerful TPI eleven rolled over the home club 27-6. On Thanksgiving afternoon the Seminoles took the worst beating of the season, 36-6, from the Red Wave of Troy. In the season final, a favored Alabama State team nosed out the Redmen by a 13-6 count. As the Brooklyn Dodgers say, "Wait till next year."

BASKETBALL

The Seminole cagers started and ended the season with a bang. The team, coached by Donald Loucks, had a 5-13 won-lost column for the season. After taking Spring Hill and Troy State Teachers into camp, the Indians went on to lose 13 in a row. They ended the season with consecutive wins over Stetson, Southern and Erskine. The FSU hoopsters played some of the better small college teams in the South with Mercer and Wofford being on the 18-game schedule. Bill Kratzert was the team's leading scorer with 164 points for the season.

At the close of the season, 11 players and 2 student managers were awarded major letters.

SWIMMING

The FSU swimming team, with Coach Bim Stults at the head, took part in three meets this year. After losing a meet to the University of Miami at home the Seminoles took part in the Southeastern AAU meet in Atlanta, Georgia. Then in a return meet with the U of Miami in the "Magic City," went down to their third and final defeat of the year.

With a 22-man squad and all lettermen returning the Seminoles are looking forward to bigger and better schedule next year.

THE 1947-48 VOLLEYBALL TEAM

As Florida State University is one of the few schools in the South who have volleyball as a varsity sport, the team had a limited schedule. Most of the Seminoles' opponents were YMCA teams who are "past masters" in the art of playing volleyball and therefore FSU was out of their class most of the time.

The Indians, who were coached by Dr. Danford, participated in three meets. They led off by finishing second in the State AAU meet in Miami. Then they journeyed to Montgomery, Alabama, for a meet with the Montgomery YMCA. There the Seminoles won 2 games and lost 8. In a triangle meet in Macon, Ga., FSU was beaten by one of the best volleyball teams in the South, the Macon YMCA.

The following men received letters and sweaters for the 1947-48 season: Newton Sayers, William Leonard, Walter Wells, Emerson Kramer, Al Bassett (captain), Leon Bowman, Leon Parsey, Robert Greene, Orri Blackburn, and R. L. Massey. Harvey Barber was the student manager.

GOLF

Florida State University fielded its first intercollegiate golf team this year under the leadership of Coach Ed Burrelson. With a squad of eight men the FSU linksmen participated in 13 matches. Playing their home matches at the Tallahassee Country Club, the Seminole golfers met such formidable foes as Rollins, Stetson, Southern, and Emory.

Captaining the golf team was Eddie Andrews. Sonnie Tinney, member of the team, won recognition during the year by becoming state intercollegiate champion. Other members of the team included: Walter Wells, Hank Mercer, Bill Rice, Ralph Cowart, Richard Mead, and Jack Campbell.
