The Seminoles opened their season by downing Whiting Field by an almost unbelievable score of 74-0.

The ground attack rolled up 352 yards through the Flyer's forwards with Ernie Reddick scoring three times.

Irwin Hanson, one of the many freshmen on the team, booted eight extra points in the victory—more than in the entire 1948 season.

Whiting Field lost this one 74-0.

HARTLEY PRICE,
Head Gymnastic Coach.

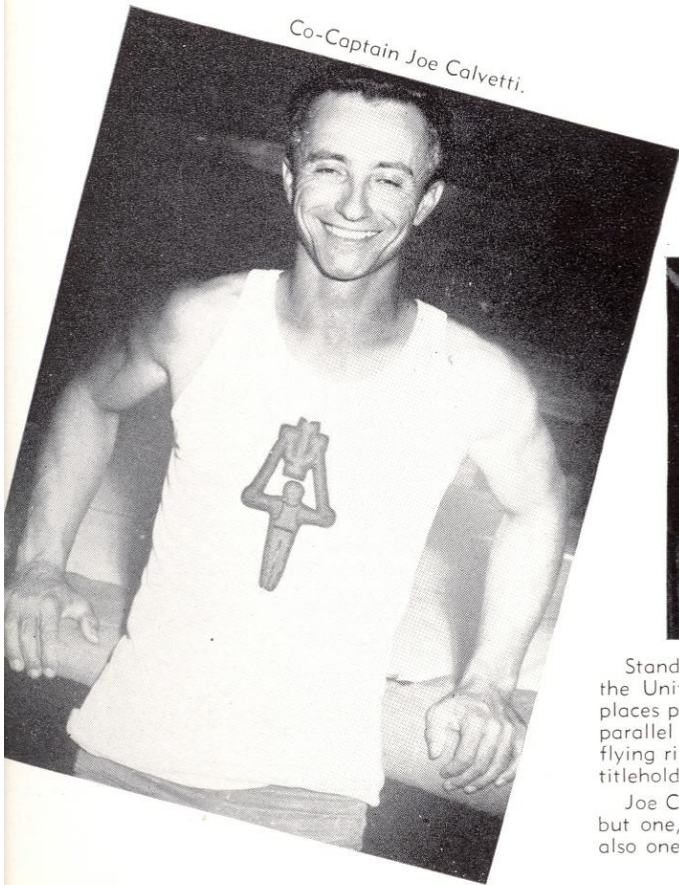

Co-Captain Bill Roetzheim.

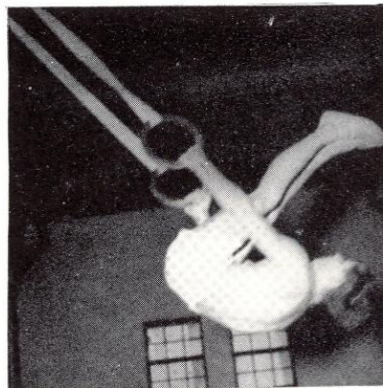

Undefeated in dual meets with Indiana, Georgia Tech, Illinois, and Maryland. Winners of three championship meets with the nation's best college teams. That's the record of the FSU gymnastics team under Coach Hartley Price in their maiden season.

At the National AAU meet Seminole co-captain Bill Roetzheim successfully defended his all-around title, and added another, the National high-bar championship. Also finishing in the first ten for all-around honors were Joe and Carmine Regna.

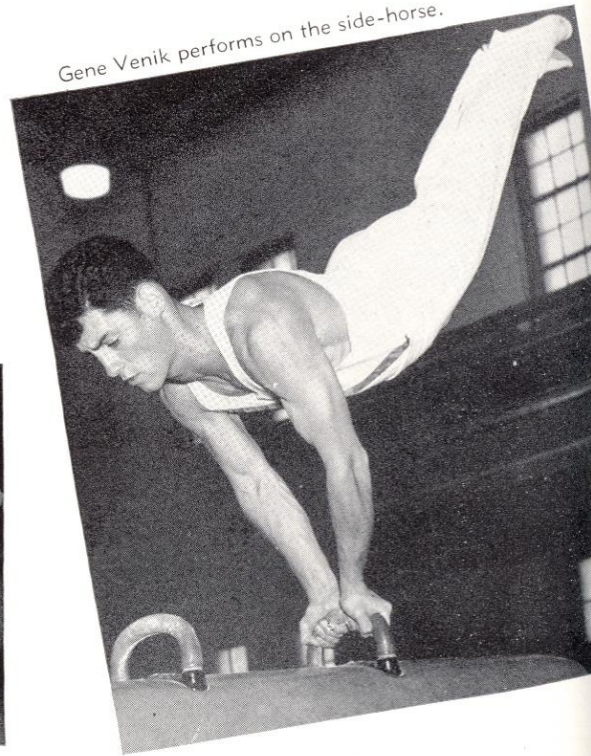

Members of the Southern Gymnastics League, this year's team was declared ineligible for the League championships, but members Georgia Tech and Maryland were decisively defeated in dual meets. Maryland won the league crown.

Co-Captain Joe Calvetti.

Gene Venik performs on the side-horse.

Standout star of the year was Roetzheim, who clinched his position as the best gymnast in the United States with the all-around victory in the Nationals. Averaging almost four first places per meet during the year, Roetzheim also is Midwestern all-around, side horse, high bar, parallel bars, and flying rings champion; Southeastern all-around, high bar, parallel bars and flying rings champion; and Florida all-around, side horse, high bar, parallel bars, and tumbling titleholder.

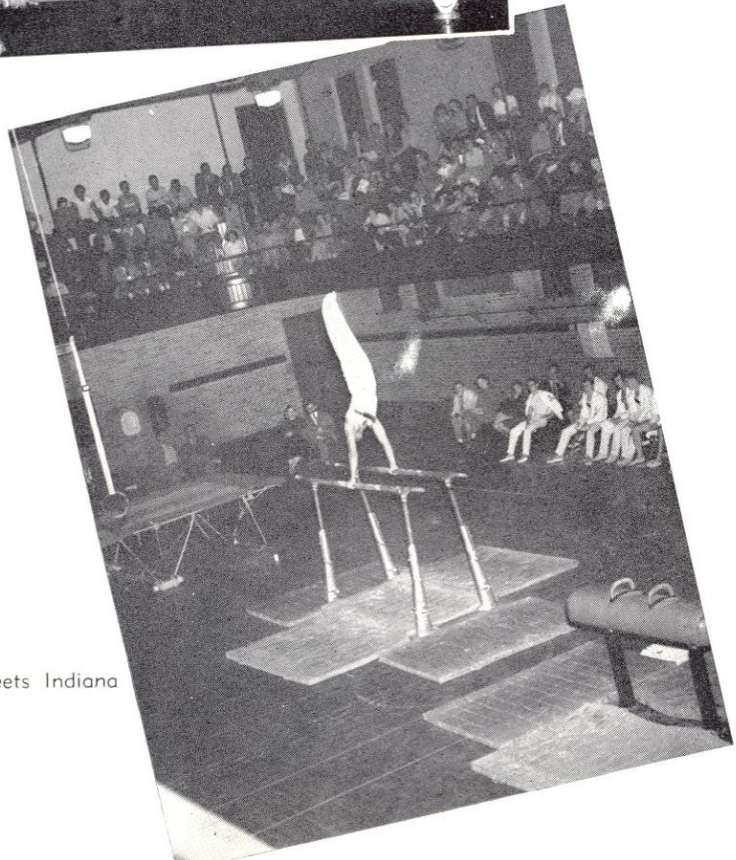

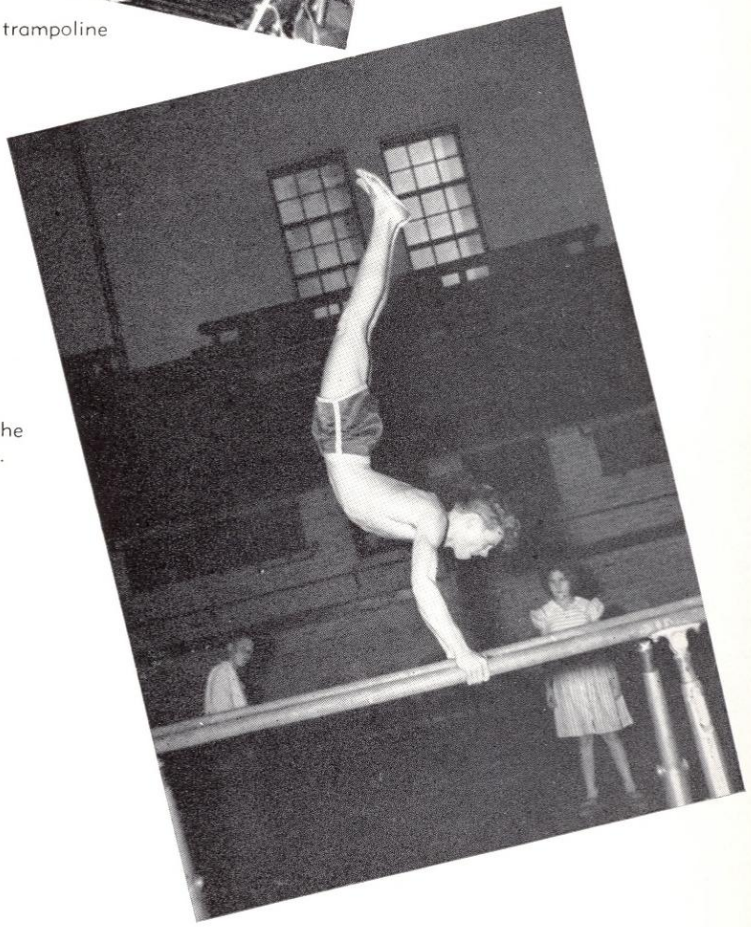

Joe Calvetti, the other co-captain, placed second to Roetzheim on the high bar in every meet but one, giving the Seminoles an almost sure-fire one-two finish in that event. Calvetti was also one of the team's best rope climbers.

Freshmen Joe and Carmine Regna were other consistent high finishers in four or five events, placing second and third to Roetzheim for all-around totals in the Southeastern championships and the Florida Open.

Among the other title winners on the gymnastics squad were Gene Vinik, Southeastern AAU side-horse champion, Carmine Regna, Florida AAU rope climb champion, and Eddie Fernald, Southeastern AAU trampoline titleholder.

Swimming Team

The Tribe tankers ended the season with a 7-2 record losing to Georgia by five points and Miami by one point. However, FSU defeated both teams later in the season.

The Miami victory, 40-35, was perhaps the most outstanding single meet of the year

Lettermen for the 1950 season include Dick Berndt, Mark Brown, Buddy Browning, Owen Boone, John Buettner, Mike Castagna, Tom Conway, Pete Dunn-Rankin, Pat Farrell, Jack Holmes, Walter Jardine, Wilton Jardine, Joe Mills, Roger Slater, Tony Stormont, Dick Wells, Jack White, Scott Ramsey, Bob Ensworth, Bob Wells, Bob May (manager) and Charlie Bradham (manager). Tom Campbell, Paul Caro and Bob Hudson received numerals.

Captain for the swimming team was Walter Jardine, the top long distance swimmer on the squad.

Stults is planning big things for his 1951 team, which will be practically the same as this year's. A number of big schools have already been lined up for next season.

THE 1950 DIXIE CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

Lamar Brown	Robert Trowbridge	August Pompelia
Ronald Nettles	Godfrey Knight	Edward Sessions
John S. Witt	Lee Bailey	Edward Lockhard
Glenn Gresham	Les R. Mullen	Harry Truluck
Ronald Melton	Lynn McKelvey, Jr.	William Teel

Managers: John McKeever, Fred Hoover.

Florida State University's baseball team enjoyed the most successful season in the school's history this past season.

The Seminole nine compiled a won-lost record of 13-7 and took the Dixie Conference title by downing Mercer University with a nine-run rally in the top of the ninth frame at Macon, Georgia.

The official 1950 batting crown went to Ronald Melton, regular first baseman. The veteran collected 30 hits in 83 times at bat for a .361 average. After going hitless in the first three contests, Melton got at least one hit in the last 17 games of the season, giving him the crown.

Pitcher John Witt followed with a .346 average, 9 hits in 26 trips to the plate.

Last year's batting champion, Lamar Brown, started in a slump, but snapped out in time to end with a .329 average, 24 for 73. Brown led in stolen bases with 10, leading second place Lee Bailey by 5.

Glenn Gresham, who finished the season with a .333 batting average, led in runs batted in with 15. Melton and Bob Trowbridge followed with 13 each.

The home run king for the 1950 diamond season was Augie Pompelia, who pounded out 3. Bailey blasted two for the runner-up spot.

Bailey was also the best target for opposing hurlers. He was hit five times by pitched balls.

Trowbridge and Ronnie Nettles worked opposing pitchers for 17 and 16 bases on balls, respectively. Nettles took the "booby prize" with 10 strike-outs to his credit.

In fielding, Les Mullen and Pompelia took "booby prizes" with 12 and 11 errors, respectively.

Freshman Ed Lockhard took the pitching crown with a perfect 3-0 record. The big right hander fanned 32 batters during the season and walked 25, leading in both departments.

Witt, who hurled in 8 of the 20 games, followed with 27 strikeouts and a 3-3 won-lost record.

Bill Lanier, the lone left hander on the pitching staff, saw service in 7 games and ended with a 3-1 mark. He was the most consistent moundsman on the team.

Sebben.

Golf . . .

THE DIXIE CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS OF 1950

Jimmy James, Miami.

The 1950 golf season was a success from the standpoint of the won and lost column. The record stands at 6 wins, 2 ties and 2 defeats.

The team participated in three tournaments during the season: the Florida Intercollegiate, the Southern Intercollegiate, and the Dixie Conference Tournament.

The team members who performed for FSU during the 1950 season were:

Ted Hewitt, an outstanding all-around athlete, who has great ability on the putting greens.

Dick Montney, the man with many nicknames. His greatest honor this season was touring the Tallahassee course with the Duke of Windsor.

Joe Bassett, who some day will be famous for his ability in using the pitching wedge.

Jimmy James, a student of the game.

Sonny Tinney, who is probably one of the outstanding southern collegiate golfers.

Next season promises to be a great one, with a schedule of several large collegiate tournaments and dual matches with some of the larger universities and colleges.

Sonny Tinney, Tallahassee, Dixie Conference Medalist of 1949, holder of amateur record for Tallahassee course.

Tennis . . .

1950 DIXIE CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

The hard-driving Seminole netters successfully defended the net championship at the second Annual Dixie Conference tournament at Macon, Georgia.

Living up to their season record of no conference defeats, the Tribe copped the crown with very little trouble. The final team standings: Florida State University 19, Florida Southern College 11, Mercer University 4, Oglethorpe University 2.

Individual tennis honors were taken by Herb Quay of FSU in the Class B singles, Bob Lanigan of FSU in the Class C singles, and Quay and Don Seiffert in the doubles.

George Winchell of Florida Southern successfully defended his Class A singles crown by edging Seiffert in a three-set match. Seiffert had previously beaten the FSC netter in regular seasonal play.

In Conference play this season the Seminole netters could not be subdued, winning seven and losing one. Outside the loop, however, playing against top-notch opposition, FSU's racketmen were less successful, dropping six and winning two. Among these non-loop opponents were such powerhouses as Indiana University, a "Big Ten" team; Presbyterian, South Carolina State Champions for the last ten years; and the strong Pensacola Navy squad.

Eleven netters were awarded letters this season, making up what Coach Don Loucks rates as "the strongest tennis team the school has ever had."

Herb Quay and Bob Lanigan are the only two members slated to graduate before next season's play. During the entire season play, Quay lost only one of 15 singles contests. Both Quay and Lanigan were among the top six netters and their loss will be keenly felt.

Other lettermen, also turning in outstanding performances, are Don Seiffert, Larry Dickson, Sam Smith, Don Boda, Tom Babione, Sid Stringer, Richard Bradley, George Martin and Jesse Stokes. These men will probably carry the bulk of the load next year.
