

Seminoles' Greatest Year

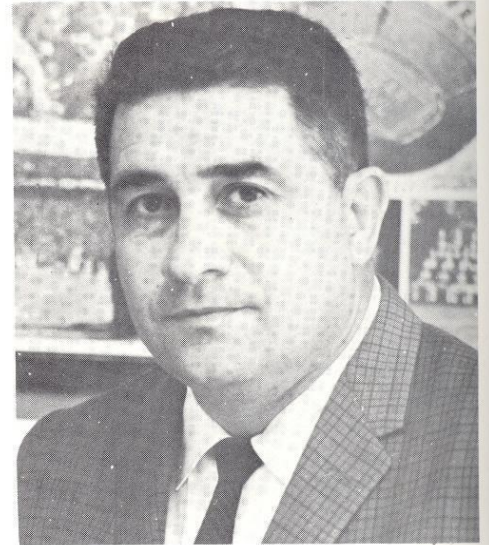

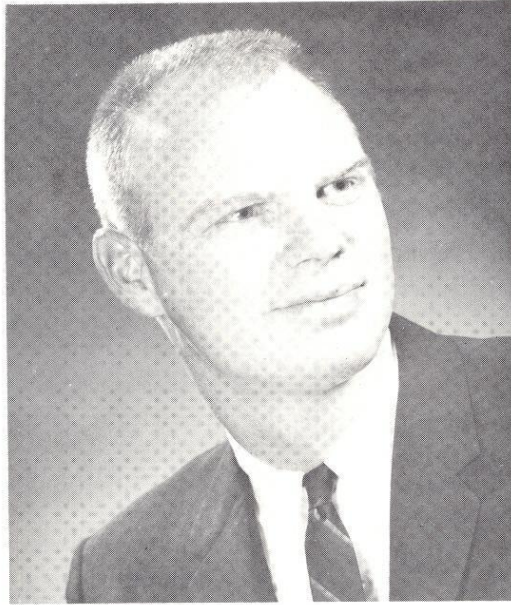

The school year 1964-65 goes into the record books indelibly marked with athletic success that is unprecedented at the Florida State University. Long anxious for an equitable place in the southeastern athletic sun, the Seminoles compiled an all-sports record that may not have its equal in the nation.

Eight teams won 95 contests, lost 28, and tied two--a winning percentage of .772. The list of accomplishments is long and impressive. Included are a major bowl victory, the school's first football All American, four undefeated teams, and two teams which competed for national championships.

Probably even more significant was the complete domination over cross-state rival Florida. While the Gators won the Southeastern Conference's all-sports championship, they played second fiddle in a composition destined to rework the entire collegiate athletic structure of the state. Following the first-ever football victory over the Gators, Florida State went on to win 13 decisions while losing only three. It was the first time Florida State ever won an all-sports title from Florida, and the most complete domination by one school over the other since athletic competition between the two began some ten years ago.

Win Starts Season For The Seminoles

In front of 51,608 rainsoaked fans, the surehanded and sensational Fred Biletnikoff pulled down nine passes, two for touchdowns, and led the Seminoles to an emphatic 14-0 trouncing of the University of Miami Hurricanes for the season's opener.

Steve Tensi, distinctly FSU's best quarterback, on that night, threw both touchdown strikes, one in the first quarter and one in the second. Tensi threw a total of 154 yards to break a 1,711 yard tie for passing yardage.

For the first time in FSU's history, football fans chartered a train named the "Seminole Engine." The trip is believed to be the longest intra-state journey by any organized group of football fans.

FSU's Seminoles Tie TCU

SEMINOLE Wayne McDuffie (82) easily grabs the ball from mid-air away from the hands of TCU's Dan Jones.

Sparked by the fine defensive play of linebacker Bill McDowell, the Magnificent Seven blanked a strong TCU team 10-0 in Ft. Worth. McDowell, voted "Seminole of the Week" against Miami, recovered two fumbles and blocked a fourth quarter field goal attempt which could have tied the score 3-3.

Tensi threw short tosses to ends, Floyd, Wachtel, and Dawson, and backs, Spooner and Narramore, in mounting the Seminole drives. Spooner ran in the day's only touchdown, and Les Murdock booted a 19 yard field goal to cap the day's scoring.

New Mexico Dazed By Seminoles

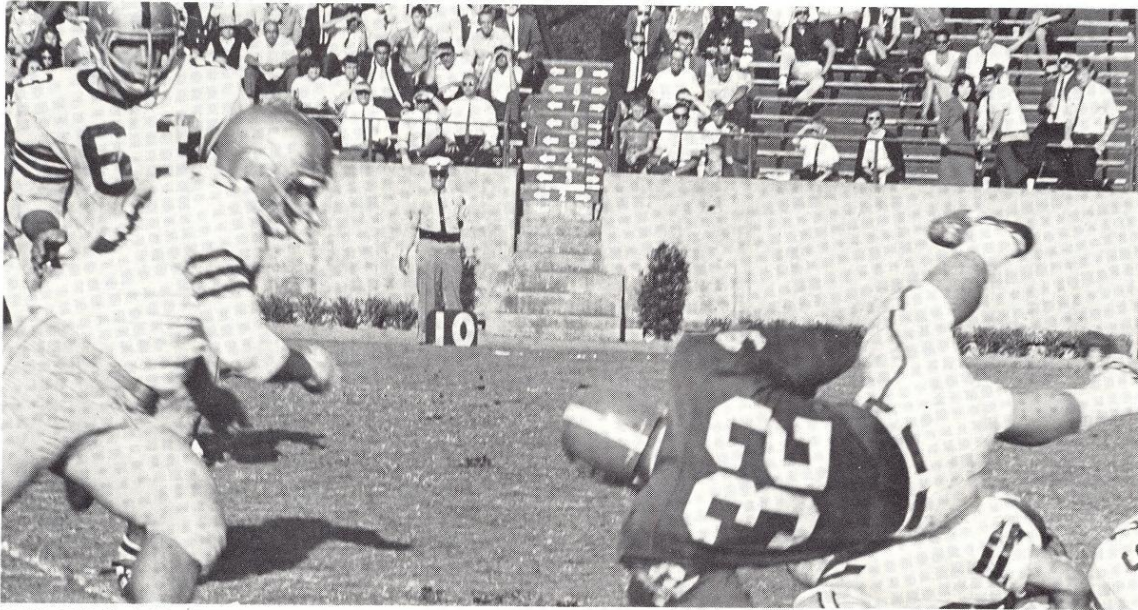

FLORIDA STATE'S quarterback Pritchett (16) hits the Aggies for a drive that helps put the Seminoles on the warpath for FSU.

FSU won its third straight victory with a 36-0 win over the New Mexico Aggies and became the only unbeaten, untied, and unscored upon major college team in the nation. In the newly expanded Campbell Stadium, a record crowd of 25,000 people watched as the Seminole offense scored in every quarter, despite the rain-soaked field.

The Magnificent Seven and Forgotten Four did their job as usual, allowing the Aggies inside their 20 yard line only once during the entire game. Brilliant passing and successful toe work carried the Seminoles to a 16-0 lead in the first half. By the end of the second half FSU had scored twenty more points, making the final tally 36-0.

THE FANS AND THE WILDCATS ARE STUNNED AS THE SEMINOLES BRING KENTUCKY TO A HALT.

Ready Seminoles Upset Wildcats

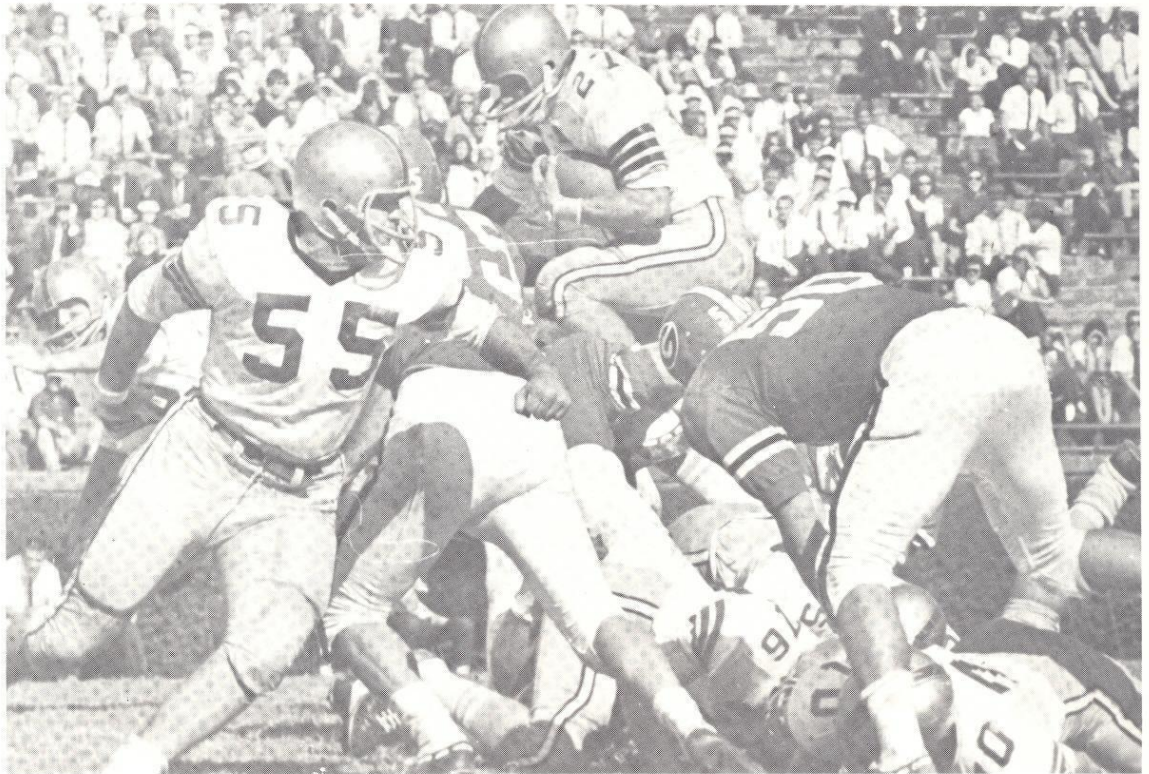

The crowd of 34,248 Homecoming fans were awe-struck as the Seminoles tore apart the University of Kentucky 48-6. What made the victory so outstanding was Kentucky's previous accomplishments; the Wildcats had, in successive weeks, knocked off Mississippi and Auburn, both ranked among the top ten.

Steve Tensi passed for two touchdowns, one 58 yard toss to Biletnikoff and Phil Spooner. Wayne Giardino, Lee Narramore and Ed Pritchett ran through the Wildcat defense for 187 yards and five more TD's. FSU's Magnificent Seven and Forgotten Four stopped Kentucky cold with outstanding line play and jarring tackles, which kept them constantly in the hole. As a result of his outstanding play, Steve Tensi was voted national "Back of the Week" and Bill Peterson was voted "Coach of the Week."

THE FIGHTING SEMINOLES led by halfback Green (20) charge down the field as they crash through the Wildcats.

Seminoles Edge Bulldogs

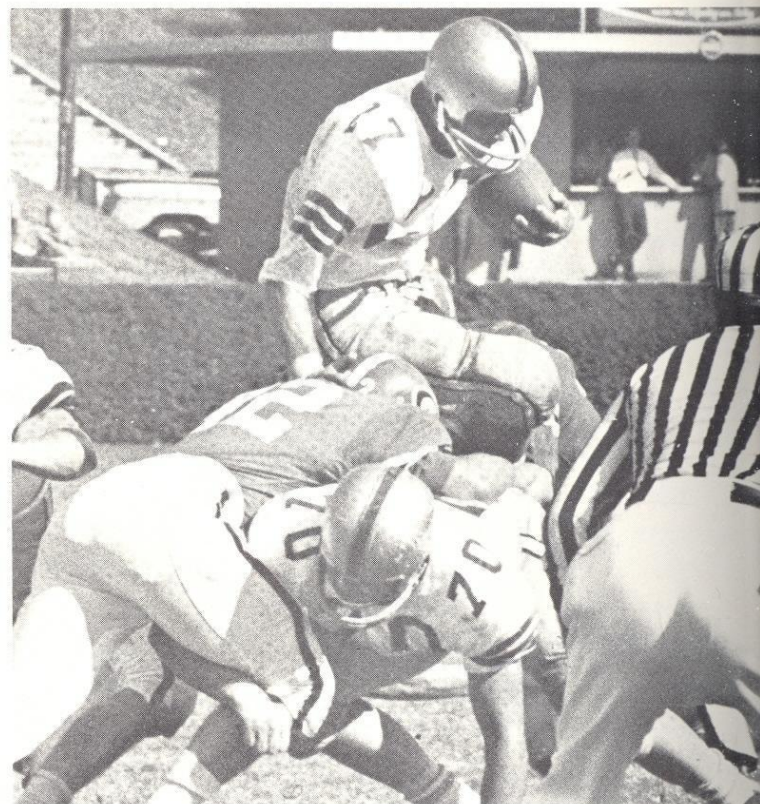

WITH BLOCKERS OPENING THE WAY, SPOONER (27) ONCE AGAIN GOES FOR ANOTHER FIRST DOWN.

After years of frustration, the Georgia Bulldogs initiated what seemed to be a rise from the squalid rubble of the bottom of the SEC pack. Following a large, hard-rushing line, the dogged Athens backs gained ground against a Seminole defense touted as one of the best in the nation.

Florida State realized early in the game that Georgia was not a whimpering litter of Bullpups, but a monstrous Bulldog, wanting and striving for national recognition. FSU was forced to recover a Georgia fumble at the Tribe 3 yard-line after the opening kick-off, but the Seminoles roared back to place the decisive 3-pointer through the uprights.

With 12:13 left in the game, the Bulldogs scored to capture the lead, but the Chiefs were destined to extend their winning football to a 5-0 season. Only 5 minutes and 52 seconds later field general Steve Tensi hit flankerback Fred Biletnikoff for the score, nudging the Bulldogs by the narrow margin of 17-14.

HALFBACK Phil Spooner (27) jumps over the Bulldog line with the help of part of the Tribe's line Del Williams (70).

FRED BILETNIKOFF gets his hands on the ball and he is off leaving a trail of hard-running Gobblers behind.

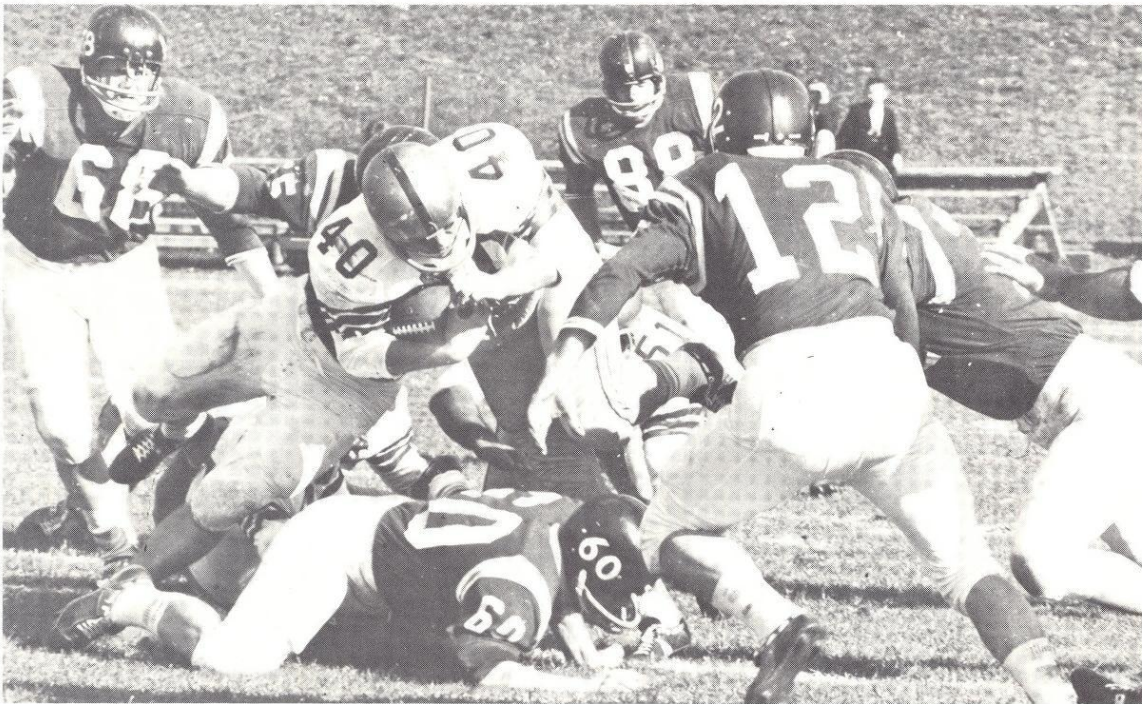

Tribe Scalped By The VPI's Gobblers

Virginia Tech rudely knocked the Seminoles from the undefeated ranks despite the school records set for passing and receiving by Tensi and Biletnikoff.

Playing before an aroused Homecoming crowd in Blacksburg, the Gobblers followed their excellent quarterback, Bob Schweickert, to their upset win. Exploiting an FSU fumble, Schweickert passed 19 yds. to an eligible tackler for their opening score and scored twice more in the closing period on two five yard runs. Tensi completed 21 of 39 passes for 290 yards and one T.D.—a four-yard toss to Biletnikoff. Fred caught 11 passes for 182 yards and one touch-down to set the FSU single game record for receiving.

The game knocked the Seminoles out of the top ten but reaffirmed their determination to prove themselves worthy of a Bowl Bid.

FSU Takes Southern Miss. 36-0

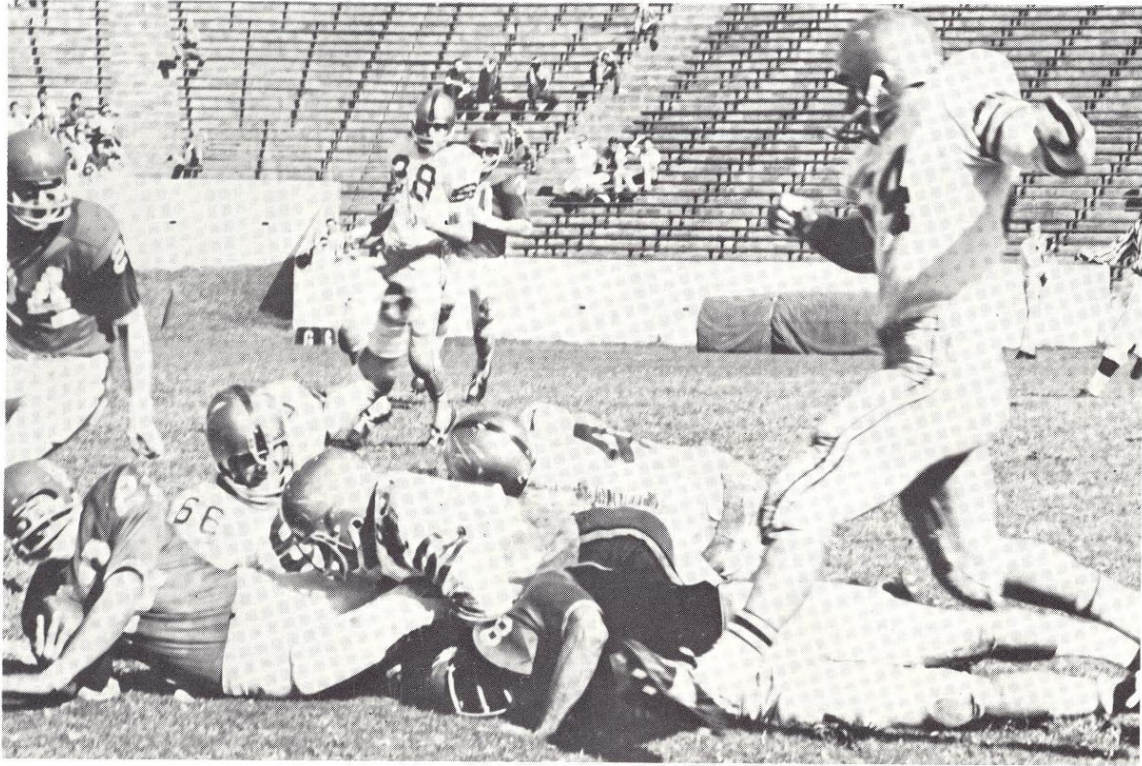

For Florida State, it was the first victory over Southern Mississippi since 1956. For Southern Mississippi the 36-0 drubbing by the Seminoles was a painful beating. The game was a rout from the beginning, but was different for two reasons. Steve Tensi, shocked 26,000 fans by running the ball over from the two-yard-line for the first touchdown of his career. The second surprise was the halfback pass utilizing the strong arm of Ed Pritchett, who passed 43 yards to Biletnikoff to set up Tensi's scoring run. Touchdowns by end Red Dawson, halfbacks Phil Spooner and Larry Green, and flankerback Fred Biletnikoff, coupled with the outstanding defensive play of the Magnificent Seven, gave Seminole fans plenty to cheer about.

Cougars Battle Tribe For A Tie

Without the services of Fred Biletnikoff due to an injured leg, FSU's offensive unit lacked its usual explosive punch. End, Don Floyd, took up some of the slack, catching eight passes which helped to build a 13-0 lead. Les Murdock put the Tribe ahead in the first part of the second quarter with a 34 yard field goal. Jack Shinholser recovered a Houston fumble on the Florida State's seven to hold Houston scoreless at the half. Winfred Bailey intercepted a pass in the third period, setting up a second field goal by Murdock. Minutes later Tensi completed two passes to Floyd for 35 yards and one to Red Dawson, setting up Wayne Giardino's one yard conversion. The Cougars took advantage of an interference penalty to score from the one. Later a pass interception led to Cougar Dick Post's 18 yard touchdown. Houston missed the point after touchdown, knotting the score at 13 all.

LEFT HALFBACK Phil Spooner (27) sweeps around right end with the blocking of the seven to back him up for a FSU first.

WOLFPACK'S NOGGLE (19) IS STOPPED DEAD IN HIS TRACKS BY SEMINOLE'S AVERY SUMNER (73).

Tribe Turns The Wolfpack Into Pups

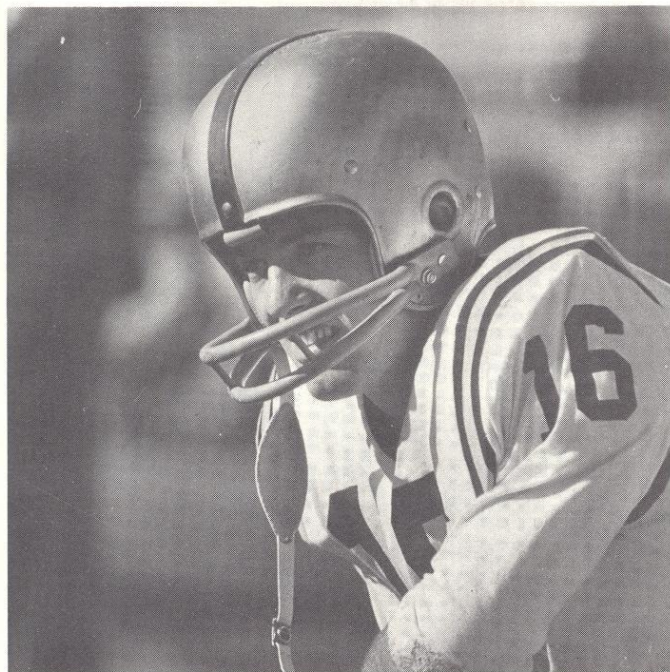

Phil Spooner and Wayne Giardino ran North Carolina State's Wolfpack ragged in a 28-6 Seminole victory. Capitalizing on three North Carolina fumbles, FSU ran up an impressive 21-0 halftime lead.

Spooner and Giardino ran for touchdowns of two and one yards respectively, and Tensi hit Biletnikoff with scoring tosses of 11 and 37 yards for two more. Les Murdock added four straight extra points to cap the scoring. With the first string out of action after the first half, the Seminoles played good football until the final minute, when the Wolfpack could not be denied and finally scored. A visiting team for the first time all year had penetrated the Florida State goal line.

FULLBACK Les Murdock (42) kicks another perfect extra pointer which made four straight extra points for the Chiefs.

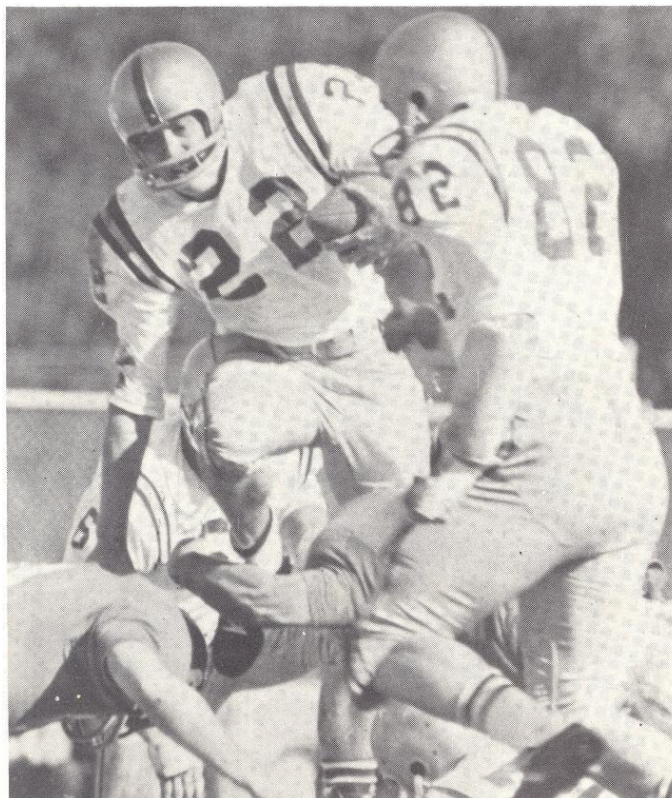

Never Say Never, Gators

SEMINOLE quarterback Ed Pritchett (16) watches from the side lines as the Chiefs smashed the Gator's line.

Fumbling themselves into a first quarter hole, the scrappy Seminoles surged into seven point advantage in the second quarter with a 55-yard touchdown pass to Fred Biletnikoff. From that point on, the Gator's would never be able to claim "Never, FSU, Never" again.

Florida State's offense was constantly knocking on the door of paydirt and the Magnificent Seven and Forgotten Four consistently restrained the vain attempts of the Gator team. Les Murdock, Tribe extra-point kicker, placed ten points between the up-rights in the Seminoles' decisive 16-7 victory over the hapless Gators. Florida's first appearance in Tallahassee's Doak S. Campbell Stadium resulted in a disastrous meeting with the Seminoles.

Seminoles Beat Sooners

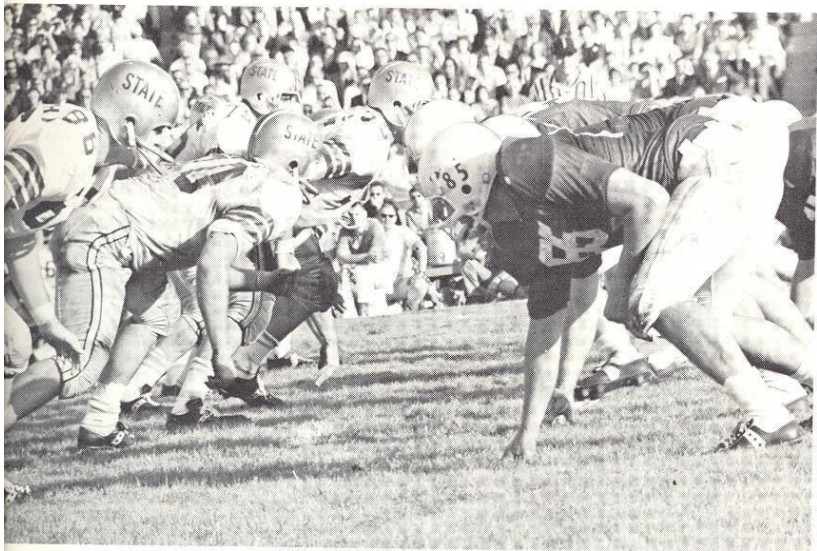

While a record of 50,408 fans and seven ABC television cameras looked on, Florida State smashed eleven Gator Bowl records and electrified the nation with its explosive brand of football. Steve Tensi completed 23 of 36 passes for 303 yards, Fred Biletnikoff caught 13 passes for 192 yards and four touchdowns, and the Tribe ran up 29 first downs, 17 through the air, in setting the records.

After intercepting a Tensi pass, Oklahoma was driving into Seminole territory when cornerback Howard Ehler picked off a Sooner pass and, with key blocks from Terry Garvin and Dick Herman, raced 69 yards for the T.D.

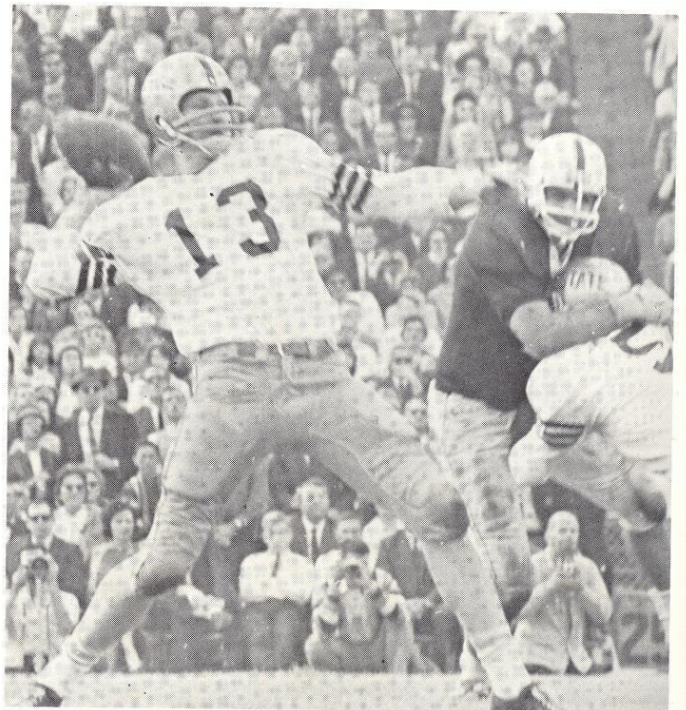

Three more touchdowns in the first half, sparked by the hard running backfield and fine defensive play of the Magnificent Seven gave FSU a 24-7 lead.

In the second half the Tribe scored twice on sprints by Spooner and Giardino, capped by passes to Biletnikoff. The Magnificent Seven, led by Avery Sumner and Jack Shinholser, continually stopped Sooner drives and prevented a last ditch scoring effort by holding Oklahoma on four plays from the one yard line in the last seconds.

For Florida State, the Gator Bowl victory brought enormous prestige. The credit for this glory must go to our players and coaches.

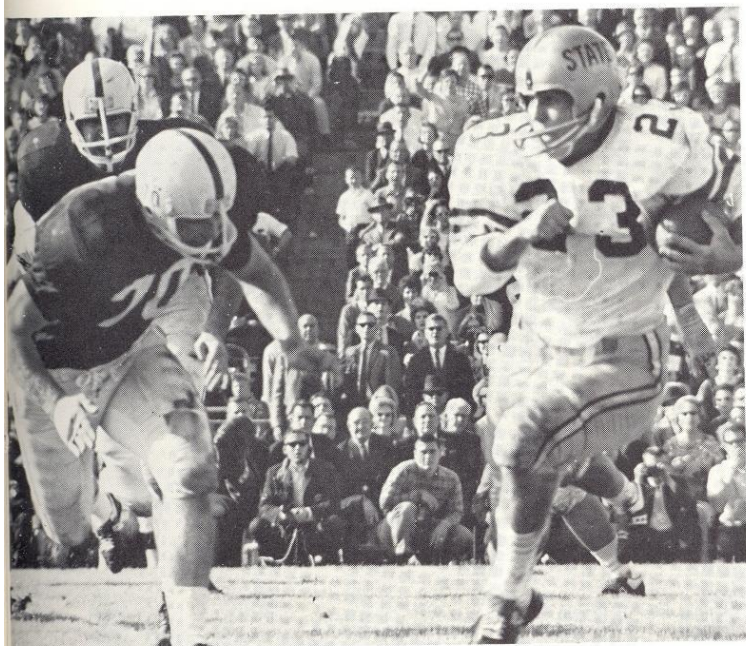

THE SEMINOLES' Magnificent Seven line up to charge the Oklahoma Sooners to stop the drive on the FSU one yard line.

SEMINOLE John Rogers puts on a strong drive against Joe Newton of Auburn as the Chiefs win one more game.

Bud Kennedy turned in his seventeenth year at the helm, and seniors Bob Lovell, Pete Gonzalez, and Jerry Shirley played important roles as the Seminoles ran up FSU's best record since 1956.

The Tribe's 16 victories were the most by an FSU team in eight years. It was the recovery of Shirley, 6-6 forward, from a mediocre junior season and an early-season illness, and the leadership of guards Lovell and Gonzalez that led the Tribe to wins over Baylor, Georgia, Miami, Memphis State, Georgia Tech, Auburn and Duquesne.

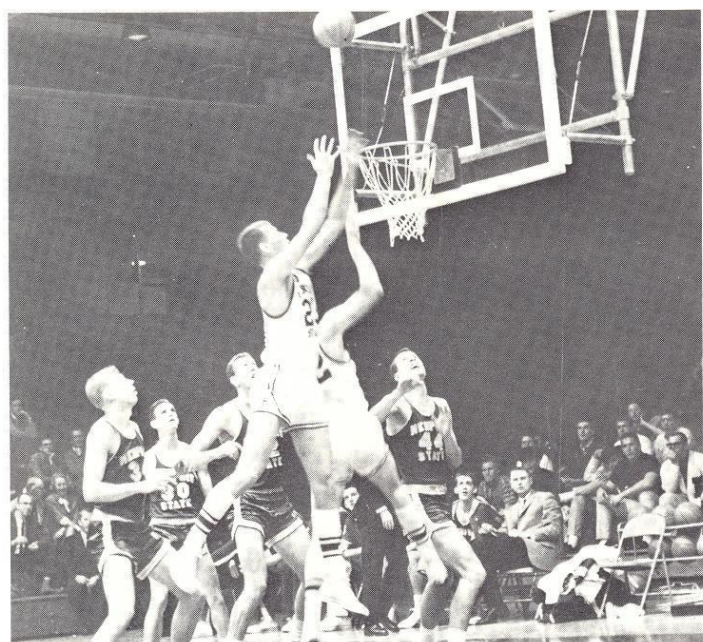

Junior forward Gary Schull provided early heroics, then yielded the year's points title to Shirley. Schull beat Florida and Tulsa with last second baskets, and scored 20 or more in three straight games at mid-season.

Nothing thrilled Seminole fans, though, like the Tribe's annual mid-year fling. After outscoring Georgia nine points in overtime for a 64-55 victory at Athens, Kennedy's shuffling team came home and won five straight, then knocked off Duquesne and Memphis on Seminole home ground.

Thinclads On Top Again

The track team at Florida State hardly drew a deep breath en route to its second straight undefeated season.

Led by co-captains Jerry McDaniel and Al Cato, the Seminoles easily defeated Miami, Furman, South Carolina, Auburn, and Florida in dual competition.

The Florida State cross-country team also had five victories, no losses, and the Seminoles tied for first place in the Montgomery, Alabama Coliseum Relays during the indoor season. McDaniel, who competed in the NCAA championships along with broad jumper Sid Gainey and Triple jumper Don Casteel, was undefeated in the 220 yard dash during three seasons of dual competition.

Gainey and Casteel set school records in their specialties, as did McDaniel in the 220 and 440, Cato and Ken White in the 100 yard dash, and Steve Landis in the 330 intermediate hurdles.

A sudden batting slump brought disaster to Florida State at the College World Series in Omaha, Nebraska, but elimination did little to dim the record of Fred Hatfield in his second season as Seminole baseball coach. Florida State finished fifth nationally in the poll conducted by Collegiate Baseball, sport's official newspaper. Highlight of the season was the fourth District III championship won by Florida State teams in eight trips to Gastonia, N.C., traditional site of the tournament. The Seminoles lost the first game of the double-elimination affair to Mississippi State, but came back to defeat Maryland State, and Furman twice for the title. In the opening round of the World Series, eventual runner-up Ohio State beat FSU 2-1, but Hatfield's team came back with a 12-inning 4-3 victory over Texas before falling to St. Louis, 5-3 to finish the season with a 32-11-1 record.

THE NEW SWIMMING pool offers many advantages such as the underwater windows which allow a different view.

The 1965 Florida State swimming team settled the issue once and for all -- the Seminoles are Dixie's best swimmers. Other pretenders to the title were North Carolina, North Carolina State, and Florida, perennial Champion of the Southeastern Conference.

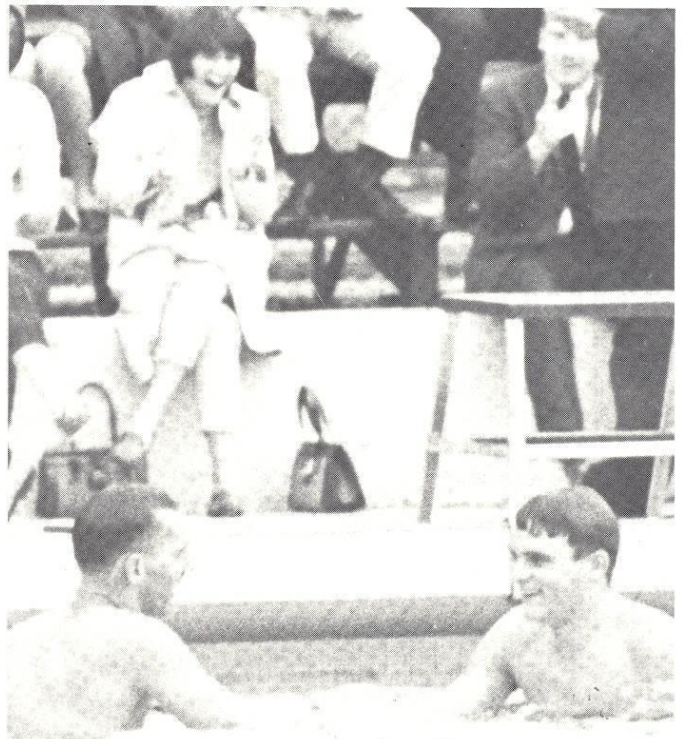

Coach Bim Stults' Seminoles took on Carolina and N. C. State in a single weekend and important victories by Doug Kruger and Mike Koch in the breast-stroke and record-breaking laps by Dick Abbott and Dick Acosta gave Florida State 55-40 and 56-39 wins.

If that wasn't enough, Stults pulled a rare feat -- he swam his best men in every event, and wrecked Florida, 72-23 in one of the most humiliating defeats ever handed the Gators by the Tribe.

The Seminoles nine dual meet victories ran their unbeaten string to 16 and wrapped up Stults' sixth no-losses in 16 at Florida State University. His record --won 132, lost 22.

Golfers Earn NCAA Invitational

Florida State's golfers, undefeated since early 1963, climaxed their season with an invitation to the NCAA championships in Knoxville, Tennessee.

Under Coach Hugh Durham, Florida State has won 25 straight dual meets over the past three seasons.

This year the Seminoles defeated Florida, Ball State and Auburn twice each, and added victories over Georgia Tech and Kentucky, for an 8-0 record.

In tournament competition the golfers finished second in both the Florida Intercollegiates and the Miami Invitational, and tied for fifth in the Southern Intercollegiates Tournament.
