State Stymied

Again by Houston

Houston, sparked by three long touchdowns, sped to a 21-13 victory over Florida State in the opening tilt of 1966, despite a spirited scoring by the Tribe in the closing moments. The Cougars thus extended their mastery of the Seminoles and snapped FSU's unbeaten string at home, which dated back to 1963. Despite the final score, the Seminoles dominated the game, netting 20 first downs to Houston's seven. A fumble on the Cougars' three-yard line and a nullified TD toss to Ron Sellers cost the Tribe two bombs thrown by Burris, one of 80 yards to speedy Warren McVea.

Beginning what was billed as a rebuilding year, the young Seminole squad looked sharp on both offense and defense and gave promise of an exciting season.

Tribe Harnesses Miami's Hurricanes

KISSAM BLOCKS AND PAJIC MAKES THE PASS

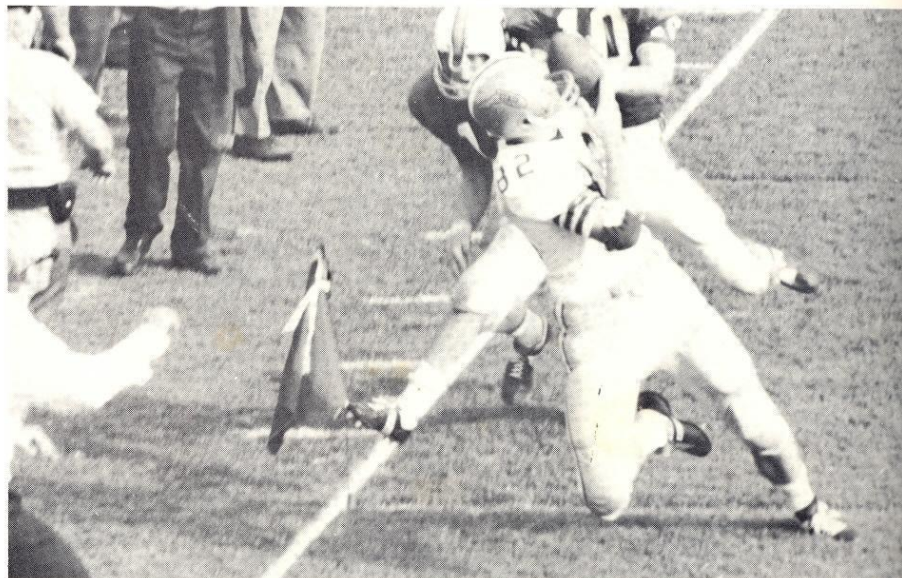

The Seminoles journeyed to Miami to take on the highly-touted Hurricanes. They emerged from the scuffle proving what people had suspected: the Tribe was a team to be reckoned with.

Florida State put on a great offensive show featuring the clutch passing of Gary Pajic and touchdown catches by Jim Mankins and Thurston Taylor, and quelled the Hurricanes 23-20. But in the end, it was the alert Seminole defense, snaring five enemy passes, which maintained the margin of victory.

Trialing 23-20 late in the fourth quarter, Miami drove deep into Florida State territory. With the Hurricanes three yards from paydirt, Dave Braggins forced Miami's fullback McGee to fumble, allowing the Tribe offense to take over and run out the clock.

Gators Gigged Again

LANE FENNER SCORES THE WINNING TD TO "GIG THE GATORS" 25-23

With 17 seconds remaining in the game and Florida State trailing by three points, Lane Fenner took a 45-yard touchdown pass from Gary Pajcic to give FSU a 25-22 win over Florida's mighty Gators.

A record crowd of nearly 48,000 packed Campbell stadium to witness a game that will be talked about as long as the two schools play football. The spirited contest featured a great aerial battle between Seminole Gary Pajcic and Heisman Trophy winner Steve Spurrier. Big Jim Mankins cracked over for FSU's first two touchdowns, and Pete Roberts added two field goals and an extra point. Spurrier connected on three scoring tosses for the Gators. Halfback Larry Smith took Spurrier's last payoff pitch late in the game to put Florida back in the lead and set the stage for the heroics of Pajcic and Fenner.

State Trounces Texas Tech

THE REFEREE CALLS ANOTHER T.D. FOR FSU

Florida State and Texas Tech unleashed their offensive guns at each other and staged a high-scoring battle before 28,000 thrilled spectators in a night game at Lubbock, Texas. When the fireworks were over, the Tribe had trounced the Red Raiders 42-33, and a host of offensive records for both schools had fallen by the wayside.

Jim Mankins, the hard-running Seminole fullback, played his greatest game, scoring four touchdowns and gaining 111 yards on the ground. Scoring passes of 58 yards from Pajcic to Green and 52 yards from Hammond to Sellers accounted for the other two FSU scores. Roberts split the uprights after each TD.

Both teams amassed over 500 yards in total offense, the Red Raiders being sparked by the running and passing of quarterback John Scovell. The accurate arm of Gary Pajcic placed the Seminoles among the top five teams in the nation in passing.

Tribe Bumps-Off Bulldogs

A savage Seminole defense, spearheaded by linebacker Mike Blatt, shut out Mississippi State and paved the way for a 10-0 Florida State triumph October 22 under the lights at Campbell Stadium.

The Tribe throttled the Bulldogs' dangerous Marcus Rhoden and held the determined but outclassed Mississippi to a minus yardage total on the ground. Midway through the second quarter, Blatt set up the first Seminole score when he tackled Bulldog Quarterback Don Saget, jarring loose the pigskin for a later Gary Pajcic cracked over from the one for his and later added a 25-yard field goal to round out the scoring. The passing of Pajcic and strong running of Jim Mankins enabled Florida State to control the ball most of the game.

V.P.I. HAS RUSHING LINEMEN, GREAT STRATEGY

V.P.I. Defeats Seminoles

Playing before a large TV audience on ABC, Florida State encountered an old nemesis in Virginia Tech. Before a partisan crowd in Blacksburg, the Seminoles were unable to shake a jinx that has long riddled opponents at Gobbler homecomings.

The Tribe started slowly as VPI's Mooney broke through to spill Hammond in his own end zone for a safety. A Stafford-to-Barefoot TD toss gave the Hokies a 9-0 lead at the half. Bill Moreman put the Seminoles in the lead with two scores early in the third quarter. Then lightning struck. Gobbler Frank Loria sped 75 yards to paydirt on a punt return. VPI recovered an onside kickoff, and several plays later, Stafford spotted Franciscus and connected for the score, giving VPI a 9-point bulge. FSU roared back with Moreman blasting six yards for his third TD. A fourth-down bid by Mankins early in the final period fell inches shy of the goal line, and the Gobblers squeaked by to win 23-21.

TRIBEMAN STIFLES A TECHMAN ON A PASS PLAY

MOREMAN (30) BREAKS THROUGH FOR A BIG GAIN

Florida State turned loose Bill Moreman and Jim Mankins against South Carolina and the pair ran wild as the Seminoles spoiled the Gamecocks homecoming, 32-10. Moreman tallied three times and Mankins once as they rolled up 150 yards on the ground.

Moreman began the scoring parade with a nine-yard burst through the Gamecock line early in the first quarter. Then the Tribe offense sputtered as USC roared back for ten quick points. Moreman's second TD gave FSU a 14-10 halftime lead.

The second half was all Florida State's. The "Meecees" picked off five enemy passes and held the Gamecock's scoreless as the hard-driving Seminole offense crossed the goal line three times. The final Tribe score came on a nine-yard end sweep by flashy halfback Larry Green.

Orangemen Peal Seminoles

OFFENSIVE TACKLING AND RUNNING PUT ORANGEMEN ON TOP 37-21

FSU STRUGGLES AGAINST THE TOP TEAM IN THE EAST

Florida State faced its biggest test of the season when it came up against a fearsome Syracuse eleven, winners of their last eight games and the Lambert trophy, symbolic of the top team in the East. The Orangemen sent a wounded Seminole squad home smarting from a 37-21 beating.

Two-time All-American Floyd Little swept into paydirt three times from 24 yards out. Little and giant 240-lb. fullback Larry Csonka ran relentlessly around and through the FSU line as Syracuse amassed 330 yards rushing on the muddy turf. Gary Pajcic, pressed by the big Orange linemen, had one pass stolen by Tony Kyasky, who returned it all the way for a touchdown.

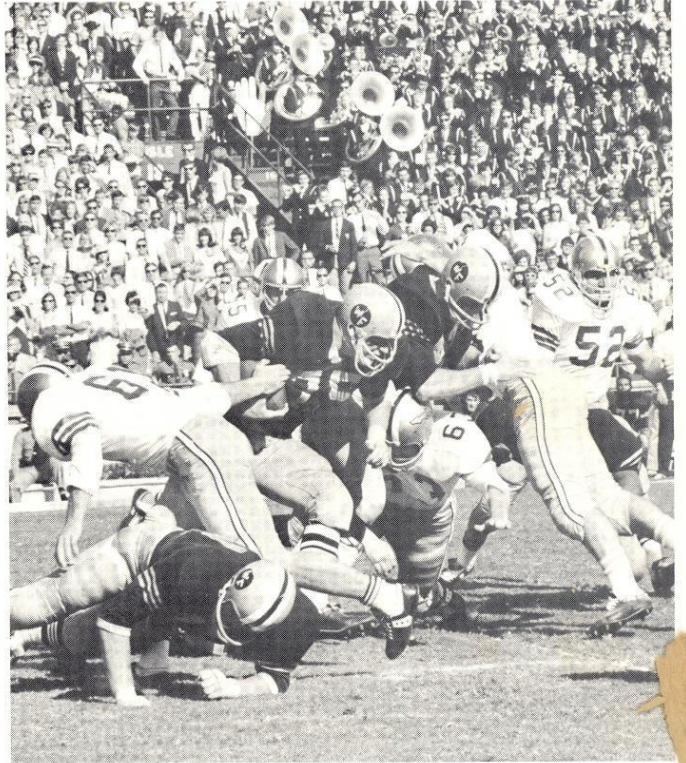

Kim Hammond came off the bench late in the contest to spark the Tribe to its last two scores, with Larry Green and John Hurst doing the honors.

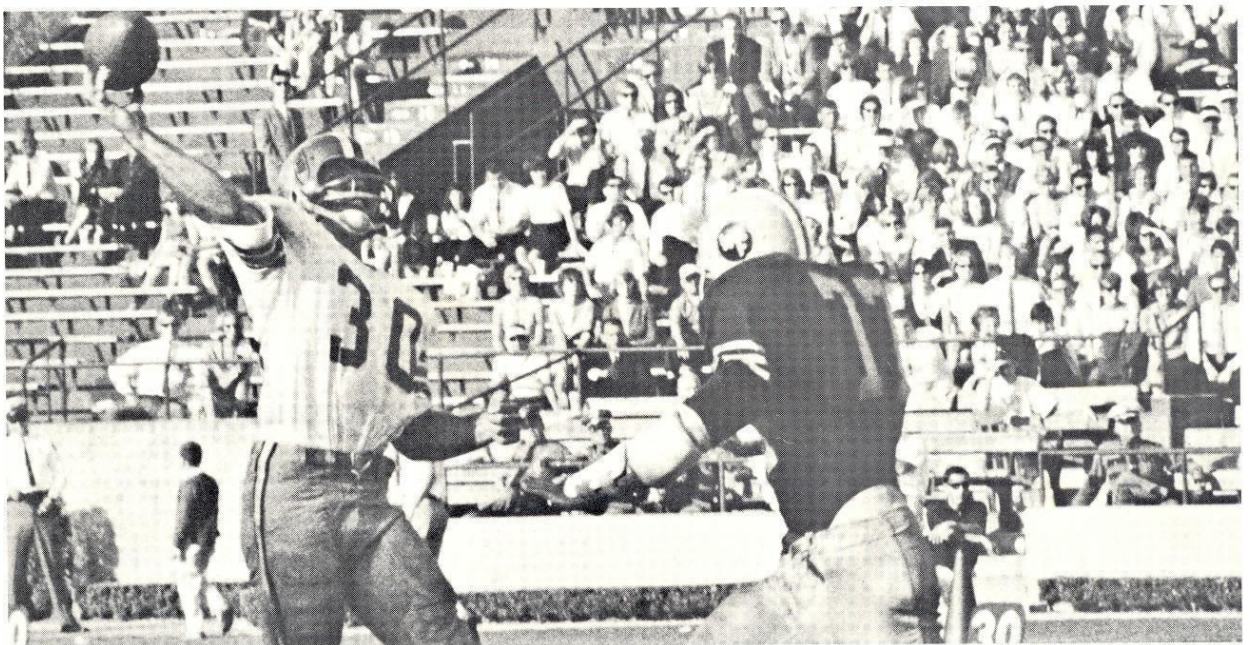

Winning 28-0, the Tribe notched its second straight Homecoming shutout over Wake Forrest. Fifteen quarters and six years have elapsed since the frustrated Deacons last scored on the Seminoles.

A spectacular 86-yard touchdown pass from Gary Pajcic to Ron Sellers highlighted a Florida State offensive show. Bill Moreman's seventh trip across the goal line this season, a one-yard plunge, started the FSU scoring. Early in the second quarter, T. K. Wetherell returned a Deacon Punt thirty-five yards to the Wake Forrest "four." Larry Green circled left end on the next play to put the Tribe fourteen points up at the half. In the next period, Pajcic rolled out from his own "fourteen," spotted Sellers in the clear, and hit the tall flanker for a score, breaking an FSU mark set in 1950. Fullback Jim Markins powered thirteen yards for the final Seminole TD, and Frank Loner added his fourth extra point of the day to cap the scoring.

Wake Forest KO'd at Homecoming

PAJCIC ON KEEPER SURGES THROUGH THE TERRAPIN LINE

Touchdowns, records, and trip to the Sun Bowl all belonged to Florida State when the Seminoles closed their regular season by pounding Maryland, 45-21. Twenty-thousand fans at Campbell Stadium watched Gary Pajcic crack Steve Tensi's 1964 records for a pass completions and total yardage. Kim Hammond was highly effective passing and running as he led the Tribe to its last four TD's.

FSU broke the game wide open in the second quarter with three quick scores on passes to Cox and Taylor and a two-yard burst by Green.

In the second half Mankins, Moreman and Hurst recorded the last three Tribe tallies as Maryland gamely fought back. Terrapin quarterback, Alan Pastrana entered the game and began to pick apart the Tribe secondary with his passes. Although Van Heusen hauled in two Pastrana scoring aeriels and Myrtle one, the Seminoles, assuring themselves of a winning season, matched the Terrapins score for score and set their sights on the Wyoming Cowboys.

Cagers Tumble Then Rebound

A rapier-quick, sniping defense complimented the deliberate, shuffle-style Seminole cage offense to produce a respectable 11-15 season chart against stiff opposition that included Kansas, Marshall (NIT finalists), North Carolina (NCAA semi-finalist), U of F, and Georgia Tech. Tribe cagers scored victories over Tulane, Memphis State, Rice, Miami, Citadel, and others.

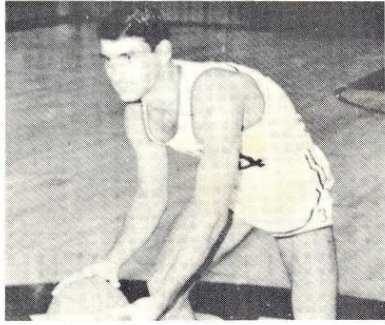

The unexpected passing of Head Coach Wallace "Bud" Kennedy, FSU basketball mentor for 18 successful years, left recent Tribe star Hugh Durham with the coaching reins. In an extensive attempt to vitalize the Seminole hardwood attack, Coach Durham employed certain resourceful variations of the shuffle, including a delayed-strike strategy called the "mongoose."

Bill Glenn, a 6' 5" forward with a keen scoring touch, and 6' Jeff Hogan, a deft and daring shooting guard, paced FSU's 1967 scoring efforts with 20-point averages per game. The rebounding of 6' 9" Dick Danford and the slick, ballhawking defense of Darrel Stewart, plus Ian Morrison completed the FSU starting five players.

Swimming Seminoles

Up against its toughest schedule in its history, Florida State's swimming team, coached for the 19th straight year by highly regarded Bim Stults, rose to the occasion and fashioned a 9-2 season record. The Swimming Seminoles boasted the largest tank squad in Tribe history, and lost only three seniors for the 1968 campaign.

The hard ones came first. After a tune-up win, over Georgia Tech in Atlanta, the tankers outwrestled rival Florida in the Gators' own water. Nationally ranked North Carolina came next on the Seminoles' victory list, but the North Carolina State Wolfpack ended the winning streak, taming the Tribe in Union Pool.

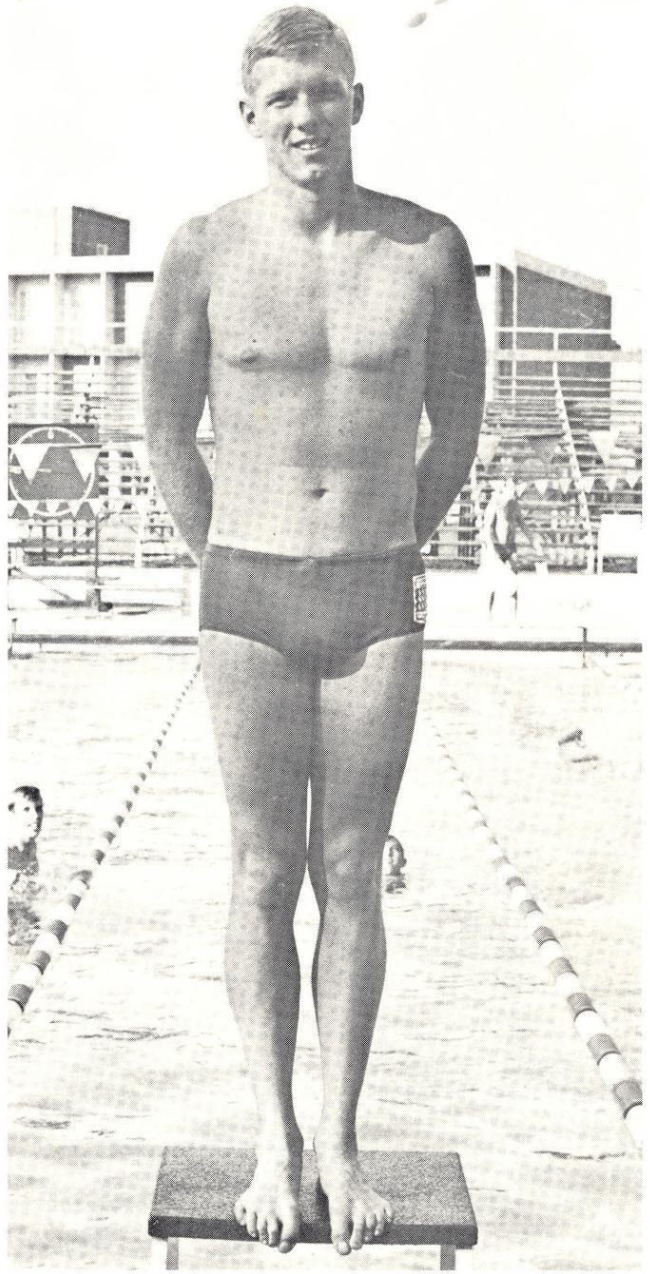

Bouncing back with wins over South Florida and Tulane, Florida State suffered a second heartbreaking loss when the Gators jumped on their hosts and submerged hopes for a sweep of their rivals.

The Seminoles were hampered by injuries the rest of the way, but were still strong enough to stop East Carolina, Miami, and South Florida again.

Baseball's Year

FRED HATFIELD
Coach

It was supposed to be a rebuilding year for the Florida State diamond players, but Coach Fred Hatfield's men used the foundation of a strong pitching corps and "built" themselves to their third straight bid to the NCAA District III baseball tournament at Gastonia, North Carolina.

The going was rough at first, with the strong arms of the likes of lefthander Wayne Vincent and righthander LaDon Boyd keeping the opposition in check when the Tribe bats were silent.

The hitting jelled with the pitching on a road trip between Trimesters II and III, however, and the Seminoles were on to a 14-game winning streak before Florida abruptly ended it on the Seminole diamond.

Largely on the basis of this late-season surge, the Tribe was invited to Gastonia, but the Seminoles couldn't carry over the momentum and were counted out by Auburn and Clemson. They finished the season with a 32-14 record.

Seminole cindermen experienced a sub-par 1-4 season which was, nevertheless, highlighted by numerous crack individual performances.

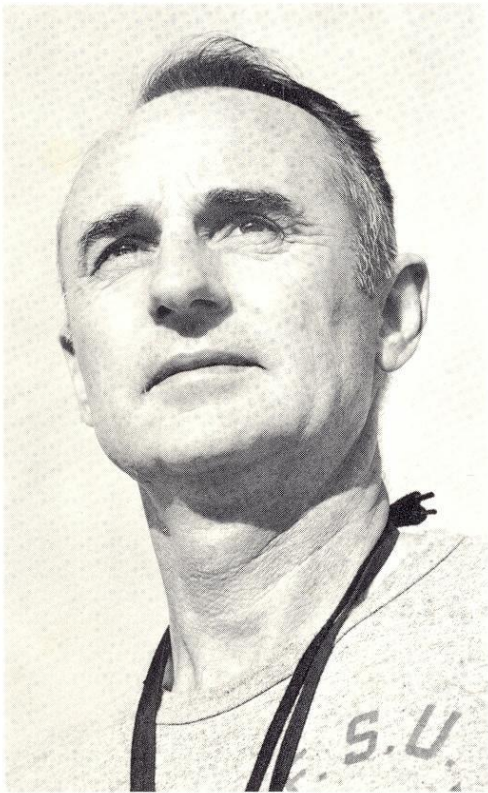

FSU claimed a whopping 98-47 victory over Miami for the year's only dual meet win, and dropped decisions to Auburn, Alabama, U of F, and SEC champion Tennessee. The Tribe's 77-68 hairling finish marked the Auburn competition.

Sid Gainey, 7th ranked broad jumper in the nation (24 feet, 7 inches), placed at the Penn Relays and captured several dual meet wins. High jumper Bud Manning lofted himself 6-71/2 in the air to establish a new FSU record.

Hurdlers Mike Kelly and Charlie Vickers both placed at the Penn Relays and posted new school records in the process: Kelly--120-yd. highs (14 .1); Vickers--440-yd. intermediate (52.3).

Marcus Williamson lowered the Seminole two-mile record with a 9:29.9 clocking.

Manning nearly wrote a new javelin mark by tossing the spear 220 feet, 8 inches.

Coach Lex Wood's racquet squad, fortified by a dozen able strokemakers, produced a 16-7 season record from stiff intersectional opposition.

Wood's netters forged victories over Michigan State, Rollins, DePaul, Auburn, Amherst, and Alabama in attaining a season mark of notable prominence. Losses to nationally ranked teams--Miami, Mississippi State, Tennessee and others--were the only flaws in FSU's net record.

Clint Murphy and Dave Danielson paced the singles play with 15-4 personal marks, while No. 1 Paul DeZeew and No. 2 Stewart Bruner scored several triumphs with their "power game" styles. Roberto Marcher, Randy Jobson, Herb Rapp, and Al Procopio contributed to the successful season.

Hubert Green, Southern Amateur champ from Birmingham, paced the squad along with Carl DiCesare, Ron Philo and Jim Conace.

Coach Keith Pitchford's team earned second place in the State tournament and swept a 30-stroke team victory in the Buckhaults Invitational at Mobile. DiCesare lopped 17 strokes from par, while Green chopped 12, in this key southern tourney.
