WELCOME TO FLORIDA STATE

THE 21st CENTURY'S GOALPOST: FLORIDA STATE

Florida State's position on the 30-yard-line of the 21st Century, in terms of academic research and instruction, places the University within field-goal distance of international distinction in 1970.

Already nationally recognized as a center of excellence in vital areas of scientific and technological progress, Florida State enters the decade of the 1970's with a momentum gained in more than a century of service to the state and nation. Founded in 1857 as the Seminary West of the Suwannee, and elevated to coeducational university status in 1947, the University has a current enrollment approaching 18,000 students in its 10 schools and colleges.

Its $100 million physical plant creates a skyline of research towers on the western quadrangle of the campus—visible from the west stands of Campbell Stadium—and reaches eastward to a stone's-throw of the State Supreme Court, where the new College of Law Building is under construction. Now graduating some 5,000 students each year, Florida State is one of only two dozen universities in the country annually producing more than 100 doctorates.

The University's role as a senior leader among the State's nine-institution University System is one in which it takes great pride. More than 100 specialized fields of study are represented in the University's schools and colleges of arts and sciences, business, education, engineering science, home economics, law, library science, music, nursing and social welfare.

A SALUTE TO THE FRIENDS OF THE SEMINOLES

There are many reasons for the outstanding record of growth and achievement of the Florida State University in intercollegiate athletics during the past 23 years. Paramount among these are the loyal Seminole fans who fill the stands of Campbell Stadium for our home football games. The University is deeply grateful for the strong support our athletic programs have enjoyed through the years.

Seminole fans have responded magnificently to the University's need for additional financial support during this period of increased athletic costs. On behalf of the football team and our outstanding coaching staff—indeed of the entire University—I thank all of those in Campbell Stadium today. In particular, the contributors to the Athletic Scholarship Fund who are seated between the 40-yard lines in the west stand are deserving of special recognition; in addition, I want to recognize the many faculty and staff who have purchased season tickets and the uncounted number of students, alumni, and Seminole Boosters whose steadfast support means so much to the football team and the coaches.

This evidence of continued support of an athletic program geared to match dynamic programs in the academic areas is what keeps Florida State in the winners' circle on both counts. Such success comes only with teamwork; and it is this teamwork, on and off the playing field, that assures Florida State's continuing excellence.

TONIGHT'S GAME

By Lonnie Burt

Sports Information Director

This will be the first meeting between Florida State and Clemson with the teams having faced two common opponents — Georgia Tech and Wake Forest — this season.

The Atlantic Coast Conference Tigers bowed to both Tech (28-7) and Wake (36-20) while the Seminoles were beaten by the Jackets (23-13) but downed the Deacons (19-14).

Clemson broke a five-game losing streak last Saturday by whipping Maryland 24-11 as defensive back Don Kelley put on a sensational show. He returned one punt for 85 yards and a touchdown, another 58 yards and intercepted a pass and returned it 56 yards.

It was the third straight game in which the 174-pound junior has scored a touchdown on either a punt or interception return. Against Wake Forest, the Greenville, S.C., native had a 67-yard TD punt return and against Duke he scored on a 102-yard interception.

Tailback Ray Yauger is the leading Tiger rusher with 502 yards in 122 carries. He needs 342 yards in Clemson's final three games to become the Tigers' all-time career rusher and replace Buddy Gore (1965-67).

While Clemson is not considered primarily as a passing team, quarterback Tommy Kendrick has completed more than 50 percent of his passes — 83 of 158 for 953 yards. His favorite target is tight end John McMakin who has 26 receptions for 380 yards and two touchdowns.

Linebacker Jim Sursavage and tackle B. B. Elvington are Clemson's top defensive linemen.

In the Tech contest, the Tigers were on top 7-0 at halftime and were tied 7-7 with six minutes and 18 seconds remaining. Against Duke, Clemson was on top 10-7 at halftime. A lack of depth has hurt the Tigers so far this season.

This will be Florida State's first Campbell Stadium appearance since Oct. 10 and opens a three-game home stand for the Seminoles.

Clemson is the third AAC team Florida State has faced this season. The Seminoles have already defeated Wake Forest and South Carolina.

The tragic air crash which claimed the lives of the members of the Wichita State football team, staff and boosters on Oct. 2, hit a little harder around Tallahassee, than in many areas of the country, since it was only a year ago that most of those same young men who died were playing against the Seminoles in the 1969 season opener.

The survivors of that crash, however, along with the remainder of the squad not involved, have displayed the spirit that makes college football the great game it is, by voting, almost unanimously, to continue the 1970 season.

In addition to the great personal loss suffered by the friends and families of those who died in the crash, a great financial loss has been suffered as well. Many people around the country have expressed a desire to help the Shockers overcome this trying period with a contribution to the program.

If you too, would like to help in this way, Florida State Athletic Director Vaughn Mancha and Head Football Coach Bill Peterson have asked that you send your contribution to the "Wichita Fund," Wichita State University, Wichita, Kansas, 67208.

Solving the Mystery of Football For the Feminine Set

- - - Or, How to Live the Grid Life with Your Man

By Rosemary Smith
Office of Information Services

For many women, football (and why men enjoy it) has always been something of a mystery. They think an illegal pass receiver is their husband's secretary.

Since men always seem too preoccupied during the game to explain anything and there don't seem to be any books on football from a woman's point of view, a gal is left to her own educational devices.

That is — if she wants to make those long afternoons in front of the TV set or in the stadium more bearable.

If you are a cheerleader, you KNOW when to cheer and when to weep. If you're sitting in the stands, you can watch the cheerleaders and know whether "we want a touchdown" or "block that kick" is appropriate.

Another safe bet always is to "do like the boss's wife." The "boss" in this case is Coach Bill Peterson. His wife, Marge, subscribes to various sports magazines; and you won't catch her forgetting, whether Joe Namath plays for the New York Jets or Mets (which, by the way, is a baseball team).

Coach Peterson, always ready to help a lady in distress, recently held a football clinic especially for the distaff side. He answered questions from the audience, including one from a motherly type who asked "Does it hurt Frank Fontes (the Seminoles' barefooted place kicker) to kick with his shoe off?"

The answer: "No, he says his foot is made of concrete by now."

WIVES MUST KEEP UP TOO — While Coach Bill Peterson coaches the Seminoles on the field, Mrs. Peterson keeps up with events in the sports world at home.

A FOOTBALL QUIZ FOR THE LADIES

The following is a test to determine just how much ladies know about some of the common, but obscure, terms associated with football. Check the answers at the bottom of the page to see how you rate.

DELAY OF THE GAME

- (a) When you can't find a fourth for bridge.
- (b) The quarterback forgot to wind his watch.
- (c) When either team takes more than 25 seconds to start a play after the referee's whistle blows.

CLIPPING

- (a) Taking your poodle for a trim.
- (b) What they do in that high-priced joint down the street.
- (c) Blocking below the waist from behind.

HIKE

- (a) Forty miles on foot with a backpack.
- (b) What your skirt does when you get out of a low-slung car.
- (c) The quarterback's word for "charge" when the team is on the line of scrimmage.

FIRST DOWN

- (a) "Don't you think I need to start shaving, Dad?"
- (b) One asleep, two to go, when you're tucking in the kids.
- (c) The first attempt of four chances to move the ball 10 yards.

MONSTER MAN

- (a) Boris Karloff.
- (b) The bill collector.
- (c) A linebacker who is capable of rotating from either side of the field where needed.

PERSONAL FOUL

- (a) Aren't you glad you use Dial?
- (b) You very own chicken.
- (c) Several actions such as grasping another player's face mask or kicking or kneeling another player.

NOSE MAN

- (a) A tester in a perfume factory.
- (b) A plastic surgeon.
- (c) The center man on the defensive team whose job is to keep pressure on the offensive quarterback.

RED DOG

- (a) A Mexican hairless who stayed on the beach too long.
- (b) Kosygin's pet wolfhound.
- (c) A linebacker who changes his normal course of tackling the receiver to charge the quarterback instead.

OFFSIDES

- (a) When your date won't stay on his side of the car at the drive-in.
- (b) A new exercise machine at the spa.
- (c) When an overanxious team member charges across the line of scrimmage before the ball is hiked.

RED SHIRT

- (a) That one you have to wash separately by hand in cold water.
- (b) That white one that was in the wash with the red one you forgot to wash separately by hand in cold water.
- (c) A team member who is left off the roster for a season to save a year of playing eligibility.

ANSWERS: Count 10 points for every (c) you checked. If your score was less than 100, doll, you'd better bone up for the basketball quiz.

Sound familiar? In today's fast-paced world, a busy line could signal a loss of business. When a modern system from Southeastern Telephone could automatically transfer incoming calls to other lines, should the main line be in use.

Installation is really a simple procedure, and a new system costs just pennies a day. Far less than lost business or an irate customer. Call us, and keep your lines busy. As well as your help.

YOU'RE NOT LOSING YOUR PATIENCE ARE YOU?

With women getting into new professions these days, even football place-kickers are worried. At least that's the way Seminoles' barefoot placekicker, Frank Fontes, seemed to be when a coed asked for lessons.

Teaching a woman some basics can try a man's patience at times. Frank, a junior from Perth Amboy, N.J., found teaching Alice Wander, a junior from Winter Haven, how to hold the ball distracting, but almost as much fun as a field goal.

After finally learning how to get the ball to stand up correctly, Alice decided it was best to stay in the stands and cheer the team on. Frank agreed, but said he'd be glad to give her some more coaching if she changed her mind.

MEET THE COACHES

DAN HENNING

AL CONOVER

DAN HENNING Offensive Chief

Sid Gillman, former head coach of the San Diego Chargers, recommended Henning to Coach Peterson before the 1968 season.

A New York City native, Dan served part of four seasons with the Chargers as a backup quarterback. However, in 1967 he was a record-breaking passer for Norfolk, Va., of the Continental League while also serving as a high school assistant coach in the area.

A William and Mary graduate, Henning attended St. Francis Prep in New York.

Dan and wife Sandy have four children.

AL CONOVER Offensive Line

This is Conover's second year with the offensive line and his third season as a Florida State assistant since he handled the running backs during his first campaign.

The Largo native lettered three years at Wake Forest as a tackle.

Following graduation, Al returned to Largo High as an assistant for five seasons. He came to Florida State in 1966 as a graduate assistant and completed his Masters in Physical Education in 1968.

He and wife Dottie have one daughter.

Florida State's football games, whether played at home or away, will be heard throughout "Seminole Territory" on the Seminole Football Network.

With Tallahassee's WTNT acting as the originating station, 30 stations will carry every play to Seminole fans in Florida, South Georgia and South Alabama. In addition, several Florida State games will be heard from time to time as "Pick of Dixie" games.

Heading up the Seminole Network broadcast team once again will be Bo Mitchell. A veteran of more than 20 years broadcasting, Mitchell will be in his eighth season as the Seminoles play-by-play man. In addition to Seminole games Mitchell has also done play-by-play for the AFL All Star game, Senior Bowl and Tangerine Bowl games.

Joining the former Florida Sportscaster of the Year and station manager of WKIS in Orlando will be Bill Owens of Tallahassee. A Florida State graduate, Owens has handled the play-by-play for the Seminole basketball and baseball broadcasts the last two years, but this is his first season at the football mike.

The Story of College Football—Circa 2070

by JOHN MOONEY, Sports Editor, Salt Lake City Tribune, President, Football Writers Association of America

"Surely, that bicentennial of college football celebration was a great promotion last fall, and the news media got a lot of mileage out of the Third-50-Year and the Second-Century All-Time teams.

"One guy attempted to pick the greatest stars of two centuries of college football and chose a couple of guys named Heffelfinger and Nagurski.

"Now, sonny, you're a cub reporter and I know your generation doesn't trust anyone over 65, but let me tell you about the guy whose likeness should have been on the Bicentennial medallion.

"You probably never heard of Coach Joe Smith. He's the guy who should have been honored. But let me take you back to your grandpop's day to show you why . . .

"Medical men credited improved diets, vitamins, hormones and weight programs with developing super humans. Why, by the year 2000, the All-America offensive guards stood 6-11 and weighed 300 pounds and they could run the 40 in 4.2 seconds.

"Players grew so big there was agitation to widen and lengthen the football field, which was getting as congested as the area under the basket in the ancient game of basketball.

Field Goals Outlawed

"The field goal, which is mentioned frequently in the first 100 years of football, had been voted out. Kickers were booting them from one goal line to the other, so there was a rule passed outlawing the field goal attempt.

"The whole kicking game went out of football at the turn of the century. The shattering crash of those huge linemen mashing each other on the punts and kickoffs had become so devastating the kicks were outlawed to cut down on the carnage.

"You never saw a football coach in those days, except on the television programs. They had left the sidelines and retreated to their command headquarters deep in the bowels of the stadium.

"You couldn't believe these rooms. Coaches were surrounded by closed circuit TV sets, instant replay cameras and micro-wave transmitters beamed to each player on the field and the bench.

"Each coach had a broadcast band, aimed at the players under his command. The defensive coaches had their sets tuned to the front four, the linebackers and the deep backs.

"Across the room the offensive assistants had their head sets beamed to the quarterback, the wide receivers, the interior linemen and the running backs.

Computers Everywhere

"Computers were everywhere in this room. The instant replay was geared to one computer which could break down a play offensively and defensively in micro-seconds.

"Players did not call offensive and defensive signals; their coaches watched the computers' monitors and yelled instructions to the individuals as the action developed.

"There even was a special counter-intelligence unit in the stadium I visited. There, coaches and computers worked to break the code used by the rival coaches to convey instructions.

"Some coaches, who put winning ahead of ethics, were said to use their facilities to jam the wave lengths of the opponents, and more than one game allegedly was won when the defensive back lost contact with his instructor, when his wave length went dead or was jammed.

"It was the opening game of the 2025 season that Coach Joe Smith revolutionized, yea, saved college football.

"Historians of the First 100 Years can speak of the game's innovators—Rockne, Zuppke, Warner, Shaughnessy, Faurot, Yost—and Stagg—but on this afternoon Smith stood two feet higher than any coach in history.

"Actually, it all started when Coach Smith, in scanning some old rules and regulations, discovered the rules committee had outlawed the use of all instant replays and electronic devices as coaching aids back in the latter years of football's first century.

"Coach Smith checked quietly and found the rules had not been relaxed. Here was a football 'blue law' which hadn't been enforced in 50 years, but it still was on the books.

Individual Initiative

"Smith worked all spring stressing individual initiative in offensive and defensive drills. He gave the entire offensive burden to the quarterback and the defense to the unit captain.

"All electronic gadgets were banned from practice. The coaching staff moved back to the sidelines.

"Just before the opening toss for goals, Smith pulled out his old rule book and his opponent was shorn of his electronic gadgets and his Black Room deep in the stadium. With no coaching help, the rival players were in a shambles and Coach Smith won easily.

"Rival coaches were quick to demand a change in the rules.

"Some called Coach Smith 'anti-quoted' and a 'nit-picker' who did not have the best interest of the game at heart. The Football Coaches Association issued a White Paper to its members and the press corps, warning that the public would never accept such an inferior, non-electronic product.

"The ruling made in the 1960's had to stick, sonny, and you know what happened before the Rules Committee could meet to change the rules?

"The next Saturday, football fans by the millions, who had become accustomed to watching the game at home on TV, suddenly wanted to be a part of the action. The college football stadia around the country were jammed to watch this 'new philosophy' of football.

"The long run and the touchdown bomb, almost unheard of in the highly scientific game of electronic gadgets, became popular.

"The scrambling quarterback, who could turn a busted play into a thrilling gain, the fine running back who broke loose because of his desire and second effort, the defensive ace who dared try something different, became the new heroes.

"Suddenly, college football was a fun game again, sonny.

"A lot of rival coaches used some fancy names to describe the changing game, and mostly, Coach Joe Smith kinda faded from the scene and the glory.

"But I remember (I was just a cub reporter like you, in those days) the quote Coach Smith gave us after that BIG GAME:

"'All I did was give the game back to the boys,' he said. 'And they liked it and so did I. It was fun and I'm glad to see the fans agreed.'

"And that, sonny, is why you and I are here this afternoon watching college football, along with millions of fans across the nation.

"It's the greatest game in the world, but except for Coach Joe Smith, they would have killed it."

Following bitter defeat in the Civil War, South Carolina lay in economic ruin. The state had been robbed of property and its people were surrounded by poverty.

The hope for economic revival, — one man believed — was through education. Thus it was in 1883 that Thomas Clemson bequeathed his home (a plantation purchased 12 years earlier from his father-in-law, John C. Calhoun) to the state for the establishment of "a college which will combine physical with intellectual education."

Clemson did not live to see the first buildings of the University, which now proudly bears his name, since it was not until 1893, five years after his death, that full-time operation began.

Located in the northwest corner of the state, the university offers programs through 40 academic departments in nine undergraduate units. The graduate school offers masters and doctoral degrees in 44 avenues of study.

CHARLIE DURBIN - ALL PRO

It often happens in athletic competition that somebody making one of the biggest contributions gets the least amount of recognition. One of the most widely used examples is the football lineman.

The same holds true in most any organizational structure and it does in Florida State's athletic department. Charlie Durbin is, by no means, a household word among Seminole followers. But the Tribe's coaches, in all sports, agree he makes a tremendous contribution to the program.

Durbin came to Florida State during the late 1940's when the school was making the transition from a college of women to a full co-educational university.

A veteran of World War II where he served with the 34th and 88th Infantry Divisions in Italy and Austria, Durbin has served as bus driver, stadium groundskeeper, equipment manager and film lab technician at Florida State. Now, however, he serves mostly as film man for football and the bus driver for the spring and winter sports.

"Things sure have changed since the early days," Durbin recalled recently. "Today, of course, football flies nearly everywhere it goes, but when I first started we would bus to places like Due West, S.C., (Erskine) and Jackson, Miss. (Millsaps).

"Those trips would be overnight. I mean we would leave on a Thursday morning for Erskine and maybe go as far as Athens, Ga. There the team would get out, have a workout and then go on to Due West Friday."

But it wasn't long, before air travel set in. The Seminoles made their first flight in 1951 and since then about the only busing the football team does is to-and-from the airport.

But driving was not Durbin's only duty. In those early days, he doubled as equipment manager and also served as the ground crew for the Campbell Stadium turf.

Eventually he was relieved of those duties, but then came the "camera bug."

Today, the majority of Durbin's time in the fall is taken up with shooting, developing and editing film for the football team.

The athletic department's film lab is under Durbin's direction. Not only games, but also practices are filmed then several copies of each have to be made so both offensive and defensive coaches can study them.

Basketball, too, calls for a good bit of filming and occasionally the other spring and winter sports have an event to be filmed.

The spring sport coaches know Charlie Durbin best as a driver. The majority of them still do most of their traveling in the big "Garnet and Gold Special" with "A. J. Durbin" (a nickname given him by an athlete), at the wheel.

"You just don't worry about a trip when Charlie is at the wheel," says Track Coach Mike Long. "You leave the driving to him and he leaves the coaching to you."

Swimming Coach Bim Stults, who has ridden with Charlie longer than any of the other Florida State coaches, echoes Long's words and adds, "most important, is that if Charlie says we will be someplace at a set time we will be there.

Charlie Durbin is all business when he is behind the wheel of the "Seminole Special." A veteran of more than two decades of transporting Seminole teams, he performs an invaluable and too often unrecognized service for Florida State athletics.

"I can remember a couple of bad weather trips we have made when it seemed nearly impossible to continue. But Charlie kept pushing along until we reached our destination."

Shooting the film is only half the work. When the practice or game is through the film must first be processed (above). Then it is edited and copies, are made (below), so both offensive and defensive coaching staffs can review the action of their respective players. Most of this work has to be done right after the shooting so the coaches can have the film at the earlier possible moment.

Baseball Coach Jack Stallings is in a somewhat unique situation in that he is the only Seminole coach who has done any extensive traveling without Durbin.

"I don't think coaches can really appreciate how much Charlie means to them unless they have had to do without him for any length of time," says Stallings, who came to Florida State three years ago from Wake Forest.

"I remember at Wake Forest when we would make the trip down to Florida State in the spring. It was always by car, so I would have to select drivers. Then we had to diagram maps and write directions and somebody still would manage to get lost in Georgia.

"There is none of that with Charlie. You just turn all the travel arrangements over to him, sit back and enjoy the trip. He takes care of it all, the route, the eating and even the parking."

"One time last year we played a game downstate and the coach came to me and asked what route we came down. I told him I had no idea, that I just sat back and followed Charlie."

There are only a few rules about the bus, but those that he has, Durbin enforces. Most of them revolve around the safety of the passengers and the athletes respect him for it.

"Most of the kids are mature enough to realize why we have rules," he says. "There have been very few problems."

A couple of years ago, the department bought a brand new GMC Coach and Durbin instituted a few stricter rules concerning the inside care of the bus (keep feet off the seats, no drinks, etc.).

"Before that we had an old 1948 model and you couldn't hurt its interior much," Durbin recalls. "But this new one was fresh from the factory and we are going to use it for quite some time.

"I was afraid the kids would think I was 'mothering' them, but they quickly accepted the new rules. I guess they were proud of the new bus, too."

One thing Durbin misses is not getting to know some of the athletes better.

"In the early days," he explains, "some of them would travel with two or three sports and you could really get to know them."

Another change, one, the father of five and now a granddaddy, does not mind, is the length of the trips. In the past it wasn't unusual to find Charlie making a trip to Nebraska, Texas, Ohio or New York. Now about the longest trips are an occasional ride to Knoxville, Tenn., or Gastonia, N.C.

Durbin is reluctant to talk about his trips ("Just a little superstitious."), but admits to having a couple close calls. "Once I had an axle break," he recalls, "and another time I lost the air breaks just before coming to a detour where a bridge was out." Nothing serious resulted from either incident.

There are other stories, too. "Like the time we left early one morning and one player missed the bus. About halfway there, we had a breakdown and here comes the fellow who missed the trip—he had hitched a ride. The driver of the car pulled up in front of the bus and the boy got out. He took one look at the situation, got back in the car and took off. I don't remember his name, but I don't think he played again.

Whether it is behind the wheel or behind a camera, Charlie Durbin is a pro. "There is nothing bush league about him," says one coach. "He is a pro all the way."

"I just try to do my job," Durbin answers. "I work with a great bunch of people and they deserve the best I can give them. I don't think you can find a finer group to work for."

Southern is scoring in the big-time now!

Just two, short years ago, Southern played in the confines of its own backyard . . . an eight-state region in the mid-South. But that's all changed now. Today, Southern is showing its winning ways in New York, Newark, Washington, St. Louis, Miami, Orlando, Tallahassee and Chicago.

Next trip, check Southern's fly pattern to any of the 66 cities it serves. See if Southern's own brand of service doesn't score points with you, too.

SPOTLIGHT -TENNIS-

Florida State's Tennis program is under the direction of Pete Barizon.

One of the newest Florida State coaches, Pete came to the Seminoles last year and promptly led the Tribe to a 17-7 record against some of the South's finest competition.

A native of San Mateo, Calif., Barizon was a standout collegiate performer at Arizona, where he graduated in 1962. In addition to being the Border Conference doubles champion two straight years and runnerup in the singles as well, Barizon enjoyed some outstanding summer seasons. Including in his tours were the Eastern Grass Court circuit and a spot in the Nationals at Forest Hills, N.Y.

Following his graduation from Arizona, Barizon went on to Colorado State University, where he served, not only as the university's tennis coach, but also as coach of the Fort Collins High School team. After earning a Masters Degree at Colorado State, Pete moved on to Amarillo, Tex., where his high school team went undefeated in dual matches, won the conference championship and captured several state titles. He was later named "Coach of the Year" in the Texas panhandle.

After just one season, he and his wife, Martha, joined the Peace Corps and spent two years in Nigeria, where he served as tennis and basketball coach at Katsina Teachers College.

They returned to the United States last year.

BASKETBALL AT ITS BEST

FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY BASKETBALL AT ITS BEST

EXCITING is the description for Florida State's Basketball team. High-scoring, run-and-shoot, offense; tenacious, pressing defense is the Seminole brand of basketball. Last year the Seminoles streaked to a 23-3 record with one of the nation's finest offensive teams. This year, despite the loss of big Dave Cowens and several other outstanding seniors, Coach Hugh Durham expects to have another high-scoring, banner year. Skip Young will be back to lead the attack along with Vernell Ellzy, Rowland Garrett and Ron Harris. Also the Seminoles will have the graduates of perhaps their finest freshman team ever. Sensational Ron King, Reggie Royals, Larry Gay and little Otto Petty, the 5-8 guard, who plays like he is a foot taller, will join the varsity. The schedule includes the likes of Texas, Miami of Ohio, Southern California, Miami (Fla.), Jacksonville, Georgia Tech and North Carolina. To order your season tickets stop by the Athletic Ticket Office in Tully Gym or mail the coupon.

SPORTSMANSHIP

STUDENTS, SPECTATORS!

Make Sportsmanship a Part of Your Game
Equipment

NOISE is a serious problem at many intercollegiate football games, and on some occasions in the past has prevented the Quarterback's signals from being heard. Such a situation may be interpreted as "interference" with the conduct of the game, and penalized. We seek your assistance in preventing excessive noise, which could cause a penalty against your team. Should unusual noise develop, the referee will call "Time-Out" and instruct the Defensive Captain to request QUIET, which he will do by moving toward the noise area with both arms and hands raised. If necessary, the Offensive Captain will make the same request on the opposite side of the field. We shall appreciate your respect for Sportsmanship in remaining quiet at this time.

In all games the Referee is authorized to inflict a penalty based on noise developments. Please cooperate. Don't help to draw a penalty against your team.

The reason people pass one door
To patronize another store,
Is not because the busier place
Has better silks, or gloves, or lace,
Or special prices, but it lies
In pleasant words and smiling eyes;
The only difference, we believe
Is in the treatment folks receive!

CHEVY'S NEW LITTLE CAR IS OPEN FOR BUSINESS.

Vega 2300 is here at last.

We'd have brought it out sooner, but you know how it is. We've got a lot riding on this little car and we wanted it to be right, really right, before turning it over to you.

Now we're ready.

And you were wise to wait.

Because now you can buy what we at Chevrolet have come to modestly believe is the best little car in the world.

We don't expect this ad to convince you.

We expect the car to, though.

Vega. The little car that does everything well. Look into it.
