PACK PARTNERS WITH HILINSKI'S HOPE

Wolfpack football is partnering with Hilinski's Hope Foundation for College Football Mental Health Week leading up to the Florida State game. The purpose of the week is to eliminate the stigma and increase mental health resources for universities and colleges. Several Wolfpack players will set up outside the players' dining room after practice to talk to their teammates about mental health awareness and normalizing struggles while advocating for every person to know they can reach out for support.

TRYING FOR THE TRI-FECTA

NC State has won the last two meetings with Florida State, but in 42 games, has never won three in a row against the Seminoles. The Wolfpack has won two in a row five times (65-67, 01-02, 05-06, 17-18).

NOLE-LONGER

Starting nose tackle Cory Durden will be facing the Seminoles for the second time, but will be on the game field with FSU in a football game for the 34th time. Starting strong safety Cyrus Fagan will be playing his first game against FSU (he was hurt last season), but played in 30 games during his FSU career.

Durden played in 32 games, starting 16, for FSU from 2018-20. He played in seven games in 2020 before opting out of the remainder of the season while recovering from COVID and a shoulder injury. He started 12 of the 13 games he played in during the 2019 campaign.

Fagan played in 30 games, starting five, over four seasons at FSU, and ironically, one of his best games came against NC State in 2019.

In that FSU win in Tallahassee, he posted a career-best 10 tackles, a fumble recovery and a pass breakup, earning ACC Defensive Back of the Week. He also had a crucial fourth quarter interception that led to FSU rallying for a win over Louisville.

POLL POSITION

The Wolfpack entered the season with its highest preseason national ranking in 47 years.

With a preseason rank of No. 13 in the AP poll and USA Today Coaches' polls, it tied as the best mark in school history (in 1975, Lou Holtz's squad opened the season ranked 13th).

Last week, for the first time since the week of October 28, 2002, NC State was ranked in the top 10. To put it in perspective, the last time the Pack was ranked in the top 10, QB Philip Rivers just had one kid (he now has nine).

FLORIDA STATE

The Wolfpack had not boasted a higher ranking since the week of Sept. 30, 1974 (8th). The Wolfpack spent six weeks in top 10 in 1967, two weeks in 1974, one week in 2002, and two weeks in 1957.

This season marks the first time NC State has ranked in the top 20 for six straight polls since the 2002 season - when the Pack spend nine straight weeks in the top-20.

HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE

Carter-Finley Stadium has always been known as a difficult place to play, but that reputation has really been solidified over the past two seasons.

NC State now has a 13-game winning streak at Carter-Finley Stadium. That's the fifth-best active home winning streak in the FBS and is the second-longest in the history of Carter-Finley Stadium (which opened in 1966).

NC State has opened 3-0 at home in 2022, posted a 7-0 mark in games played in Carter-Finley in 2021 and has not lost a home game since Nov. 6, 2020. The 2021 Wolfpack was the first squad since 1986 (35 years) to go undefeated at home (and that squad did post one tie) and one of just six teams in school history (1967, 1972, 1973, 1974, 1986) to post an unblemished record at Carter-Finley Stadium.

During the 13-game streak, the Wolfpack has outscored its opponent 34.8-14.9 (453-194) at home.

NC STATE VS. FLORIDA STATE

WOLFPACK LOOKS TO WIN FOR FIFTH TIME SINCE 2017

- Series Record: NC State trails 15-27 (9-11 home, 6-16 away)
- NC State has won four of the last five meetings with Florida State - winning 27-21 in Tallahassee in 2017, 47-28 at home in 2018, 38-22 at home in 2020 and 28-14 last season on the road. The Wolfpack fell 13-31 in 2019 in Tallahassee.
- Wolfpack defensive coordinator Tony Gibson and Florida State head coach Mike Norvell were on the same staff at Pitt in 2011. Gibson was the secondary coach while Norvell was the co-offensive coordinator and coached wide receivers.
- NC State special teams coordinator/FB/TE coach Todd Goebbel and FSU DC Adam Fuller coached together at Marshall (2015- 18).
- Seminoles ST coordinator/DE coach John Papuchis was on the Nebraska staff with Wolfpack OL coach John Garrison and OC Tim Beck (2008-14). Papuchis was a GA at Kansas in 2002-03 when Dave Doeren was coaching the Jayhawk LBs.
- The Wolfpack has outscored the Seminoles 82-17 in the first quarter of the last eight games in the series.
- The Wolfpack was the first team to defeat Florida State on its home turf after the Seminoles joined the ACC in 1992. The Wolfpack won 34-28 in Tallahassee on 11/10/2001.
- Starting left offensive tackle Anthony Belton is from Tallahassee and attended Florida State University School.

DAVE DOEREN

Hard. Tough. Together.

That's the culture that NC State head coach Dave Doeren has built in his nine seasons at the helm of the Wolfpack football program. Tough, hard-working players who play not for individual, but for the collective.

That culture has paid off with success on the field. Doeren has led the Wolfpack to 64 victories – the second-highest total in school history.

In 2021, the Pack qualified for the seventh bowl game during his tenure, the most under any coach in program history.

Doeren also has more nine-win campaigns than any coach in school history (three) and has now led five of his nine NC State squads to seasons with eight or more victories. In the past two years, NC State ranks second only to Clemson in the ACC in league wins, posting a 13-5 record.

In terms of overall victories, Doeren has put NC State in elite company, as the only Power 5 teams with more wins than NC State over the past two years are Alabama, Notre Dame, Georgia, Oklahoma, Oklahoma St., Clemson, Ohio State and Texas A&M.

Between 2017-22, 19 of his players have been drafted by the NFL – including an ACC-best seven in 2017 – the sixth-highest total nationally. Three of his players have gone on to be first-round picks, including OT Ikem Ekwonu (No. 6 to the Panthers) in 2022.

The Wolfpack has boasted 43 Academic All-ACC performers under his guidance - including a program-high seven in 2021 - and in 2018 had a player named to the prestigious NFF National Scholar-Athlete Team.

Last season, Doeren's NC State squad became the first since 1986 (35 years!) to go undefeated at home (and that squad did post one tie) and one of just six teams in school history to post an unblemished record at Carter-Finley Stadium. The Wolfpack has won its last 10 games at Carter-Finley, including all seven of 2021. The only longer home winning streak in school history was a 16 game streak from 1972-75.

CARTER-FINLEY STADIUM

HOME OF THE WOLFPACK

One of the landmarks of North Carolina's capital city, Carter-Finley Stadium has gained a national reputation as being one of the toughest places to play. The home of Wolfpack Football since 1966, boasts 56,919 permanent seats and is surrounded by acres of convenient parking.

The playing surface at Carter-Finley Stadium was reconstructed in 2009. Named for Wolfpack alumnus Wayne T. Day in 2002, it is built to USGA specifications for a golf green.

The south end zone is the home of the 103,254 square-foot Murphy Center, which is the football team's home for training and preparation.

The A.E. Finley Fieldhouse in the north end zone houses two spacious, state-of-the-art locker rooms that can be divided into smaller locker rooms when NC State plays host to high school championship games. There are also halftime locker room areas for the cheerleaders, the dance team, game referees and coaches.

For the 2006 season, a new north end zone grandstand was added consisting of 5,730 new chairback, bench, and handicap-accessible seating with another 1,630 permanent bleacher seats built underneath the video scoreboard. Additional upgrades to the stadium included a new north end zone plaza with concession stands and the addition of two video screens in each corner of the south end zone.

TowneBank Center opened for the 2005 season, and sits atop the west stands. In addition to luxury suites and a club level, TowneBank Center serves as the stadium's press box.

NC State practices just a stone's throw away at the Wolfpack Practice Complex and the mammoth Close-King Indoor Practice Facility. The outdoor complex covers seven acres and boasts three full fields, a training room, restrooms and a video/coaching tower. The indoor facility boasts a full, 120-yard football field and roof height sufficient for kicking game, with suspended goal posts, additional training and conditioning space beyond both end zones.

HOME OF THE WOLFPACK

Carter-Finley stadium underwent further enhancements recently to enhance the gameday experience for fans. Raleighwood is an expanded, 25,000 sq ft fan zone that is located in the Northeast corner. The expanded concourse area includes food trucks, beverage stations and additional amenities such as tents, tables (picnic & cocktail) and occasional live music and entertainment options. Raleighwood is free and open to all fans when the gates open.

Tuffy's Terrace, located in the North Endzone, includes an outdoor patio area, 4-person loge tables (Tuffy's Tables), as well as two 30-person suites (Tuffy's Suites). Each component of this new experience includes all-inclusive food offerings and several other perks, including beer and wine for purchase. Ahead of the 2022 season, new LED lights were installed which will let NC State 'Light it Red' throughout the stadium.

MURPHY CENTER

HOME OF THE WOLFPACK

The 103,254-square-foot Wendell H. Murphy Center houses every aspect of Wolfpack football, from sports medicine, to equipment, to strength training, to academics. As functional as it is beautiful, the Murphy Center is definitely the Wolfpack's den.

Known as "The Murph" to the Wolfpack players, the Murphy Center is among the largest operations facilities in the country devoted solely to football. Visitors enter the building through Gant Plaza, where the 28-foot "Wolfpack Turf" statue and fountain stand proudly.

Visitors to the Murphy Center can experience the rich heritage of Wolfpack Football in the Finley Hall of Champions. This multimedia complex highlights NC State's football tradition with photos, artifacts and exhibits. Fans can watch video highlights in the Woolard Theater and younger Wolfpackers can have fun in the Junior Wolfpack Zone.

From the lobby, double doors open into the massive Gunter Family strength training facility, which runs the entire length of the building and covers 15,000 square feet. The facility houses huge area for stretching, a track, a juice bar and over 15 tons of weights. The weight room and the nutrition center received a complete renovation in the Summer of 2022.

The third floor of the Murphy Center houses a large dining room and a players' lounge that overlooks Wayne Day Family Field. The lounge contains couches, pool tables, ping-pong tables, wide-screen TVs and video games for the Wolfpack players to enjoy during breaks.

rooms for each position are also on the third floor. Each room is equipped with the latest video playback equipment for reviewing film and breaking down an athlete's performance. That level also houses offices for the Wolfpack's academic advisors, as well as a large study room with computers in the Kirkland Academic Suite.

On the fourth floor, the coaches' offices, a large staff conference room, offensive and defensive meeting rooms, a television studio and the video production offices can be found.

The heartbeat of the Murphy Center is on the bottom floor. The locker room, which stretches the length of the building on one side of the hall, was renovated in the summer of 2016. It boasts 121 custom wood lockers, bathrooms, showers, a Sonos stereo system and two large screen smart TVs with eight additional monitors. The other side of the hall is home to the equipment room and the state-of-the-art Albright Sports Medicine Center, which covers 6,000 square feet and includes an aquatics recovery area with three pools.

The building is named for Wendell H. Murphy, a lifelong supporter of both athletic and academic initiatives at NC State and a member of the NC State Athletics Hall of Fame. A member of the NC State Board of Trustees, Murphy was awarded the prestigious Watauga Medal in 1999, the school's highest award given for outstanding and distinguished service.

CAPITAL CITY

North Carolina's capital city, Raleigh is the apex of the area known as the Research Triangle – home to more than 2 million. A top spot for job-seekers and tech professionals, Raleigh is nationally recognized as a leading urban center.

More than 125 years after its creation, NC State continues to make its founding purpose a reality. Every day, our career-ready graduates and world-leading faculty make the fruits of learning and discovery available to people across the state, throughout the nation and around the world.

Parks and Recreation: Raleigh boasts more than 9,000 acres of parkland and almost 1,300 acres of water, offering recreational activities year-round. A nationally-acclaimed greenway system spans more than 180 miles, providing walking, jogging and hiking trails that connect many of the City of Raleigh's 200+ parks and Town of Cary's 30+ parks.

Nightlife: Enjoy nightlife in downtown Raleigh in the Capital District, Fayetteville Street district, Glenwood South, Moore Square district and the Warehouse District. Listen to live music performed by popular local bands or international superstars at one of the area's major venues, concert venues or entertainment complexes, or simply dance the night away to DJs. The Raleigh area has the most live music venues concentrated here than anywhere else in the state and has more than 15 percent of the state's craft breweries, making it a capital of craft beer.
