

The Tiger victory was inevitable—they had a just a little too much poise for the tall, but often awkward Floridans.

Memphis State					Florida State
	fg.	ft.	pf.	tp.		fg.	ft.	pf.	tp.
Arnold f	8	4	2	20	Gordon f	3	5	4	11
McKnight f	3	1	4	7	Westhafer f	6	3	5	15
B. McClain f	1	0	0	2	Pence f	0	0	0	0
Hoggard f	0	1	2	1	Dellahan f	1	0	1	2
Winn f	1	1	1	3	Richardson f	1	0	0	2
Sims c	2	1	3	5	Benson c	5	2	2	12
Combs c	1	2	4	4	Wold c	4	3	2	11
Butcher g	7	4	2	19	Oler g	1	3	1	5
Caldwell g	1	3	5	5	Wernke g	2	4	5	8
Kinder g	5	2	0	12	Burst g	2	1	4	5
McClain g	4	1	1	9	Artmeiere g	0	1	3	1
					Kallish g	0	1	2	1
Totals	33	21	24	87	Totals	25	23	29	73
Memphis State .....	22	19	32	14-87
Florida State .....	14	18	23	18-73
Free throws missed: Memphis State—Arnold 2, Hoggard, McKnight 6, Winn, Combs, Sims, Butcher 6, Caldwell, W. McClain 3. Florida State—Gordon, Westhafer, Benson, Wold, Oler 5, Burst, Wernke 3, Artmeiere, Kallish.
Master TV (53) Pos. Nat Buring (49)
Williams, 5	F.				Lowe, 5
Owens, 13	F.				Cookson, 13
Childers, 15	C.				Smith, 13
Magee, 3	G.				Portner, 16
Hodson, 10	G.				Ballard, 4
Substitutes: Master TV—Ezinn 7, Haynes. Nat Buring—Barham, Stover.

Special to The Democrat

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—The Florida State University basketball team headed into Arkansas today where Wednesday night it concludes the current three-game road trip facing Arkansas State College in Jonesboro. The Tribe will be attempting to salvage a win from the trip, having dropped an 82-79 decision to Rollins in Winter Park Saturday night and going down 87-53 here last night before a well-oiled Memphis State combine.

Last night's loss, eighth of the campaign for FSU against five wins, was a case of too much precision on the part of the Memphis aggregation. The Tennesseans played a fast-break, driving brand of ball, which coupled with some fine shooting from outside and the ability to drive in for layins from precision-drilled patterns, spelled the difference.

Memphis State came up with two sharpshooters in guard Jack Butcher, a 5-9 performer, and forward Forest Arnold. Butcher rung the wickets for 19 points, while Arnold took the game's scoring honors with 20.

COLD HAM

The FSU cause was considerably hurt by its star guard Ham Wernke not contributing his usual 20 plus points per game. Wernke, currently holder of the nation's No. 15 position among the country's scoring leaders, was stone cold here last night. He scored but eight points, making only two field goals, and fouled out early, getting the heave-ho with 7:17 remaining in the third period.

Florida State also lost the services of forward Jerry Westhafer who led the Indian scoring with 15 points. Westhafer fouled out with 9:49 remaining in the fourth heat.

Memphis State grabbed an early lead at 4-2 and with Arnold and Butcher pumping 'em in, had a 22-14 edge after one stanza.

FSU fought back to knot the count at 25-25 and then took a 27-25 lead with 8:03 left in the second. The lead was short-lived however, for Memphis rallied with a vengeance and behind some fancy shooting by Butcher, Arnold and Dick Kinder, ran the count to 41-33 at halftime.

The Tribe was unable to get the margin reduced in the third as a hot streak by Memphis State increased the gap, and the Tennessee team had a 73-55 lead after three periods.

With Wernke and Westhafer out of the game, FSU lacked its scoring punch and could not narrow the deficit in the final stanza.