

e Fairchild, with less than a
- minute showing, hit both tries 1 to cut the lead to two 56-54 with 5 a little over 30 seconds remaining.

Then cool Skip Iba, son of OSU coach Hank Iba, was fouled and he calmly sunk the Seminoles chances with two perfect free throws. Iba only had three points for the night — all free throws and in the last five minutes of play.

The Oklahoma State team, not particularly hot from the field in the first half, did however make successful on its first 14 foul shot attempts.

FSU goes against Baylor, 97-78 loser to Vanderbilt at 7 to-night.
