

The Florida State University baseball team pulled back into town today after a disastrous downstate trip and most probably were hoping that their next jaunt down the peninsula will not prove quite as stormy.

The Seminoles move out again Thursday, this time headed for Deland where Friday and Saturday they play the Stetson Hatters.

On the recent road trip the following-events occurred:-----

1—The Seminoles dropped two games to Rollins, one to Tampa.

2—The Indians got involved in a full-grown rhubarb in Winter Park Saturday in which Umpire Allen Mobley, reportedly, hit FSU shortstop Ralph Blinn when the latter directed excessive profane language at him.

3—Rollins Coach Joe Justice stated that he would shed no tears should FSU not desire to play the Tars again.

4—FSU Coach Ralph Matherly was blasted by a central Florida press for not keeping his team in check with the umpires—that they harassed the arbiters unmercifully and that their conduct on the field was not in keeping with prescribed standards.

Yesterday the Tribe dropped its third game on the road trip that commenced last Friday against Rollins. Yesterday it was the University of Tampa Spartans who laid it on the Seminoles by a score of 4-1. The team had stated a two game set-to. The first tilt had been called at 11 p.m. Monday night on Tampa's curfew law with the score knotted at 3-3 in the eighth inning.

Supposedly, the nines were to have played off the deadlock yesterday before going into the second game but for reasons not known the game was not finished.
