Auburn coupled three hits with a trio of walks to take a 4-0 lead in the first inning of the second game. John Ash, rookie lefthander, was the victim. Ham Wernke was touched for the other three runs in the fifth.

FSU placed 14 men on the bases, but could push only two around. The big reason was because Auburn ace Paul Susce allowed the Indians only one hit—a single by leftfielder Ed Mann in the first—over the first five innings.

MILLS SPARKLES

Susce weakened in the seventh, however, and Bob Ramsey replaced him in the eighth.

Senior Cooter Mills, a hometown product, was the day's defensive standout for the Seminoles. Cooter handled 13 chances, several of them difficult ones, without a flaw.

The split gives FSU a 4-2 record, counting an even break in a two-game set with Jacksonville

Ralph Matherly's Seminoles will play three games in Tallahassee this week. They host Davidson Tuesday afternoon and Jacksonville (Ala.) State Wednesday afternoon on their home grounds, then play the Tallahassee Rebels in an 8 p.m. game at Centennial Field Friday.

Matherly said that Sophomore Max Long, the Jacksonville righthander who owns two of FSU's four victories, will open against Davidson Tuesday.
