

Florida State's baseball team, limited to four hits and one run for six innings, paraded seven runs across the plate in the eighth inning to complete a series sweep from the Amherst College Lord Jeffs, 10-6, here yesterday.

It was FSU's eighth win against three losses and gives the Seminoles a 6-1 record against collegiate teams.

The Seminoles, who routed Amherst, 11-3, Monday, were trailing by 6-3 before their eighth-inning outburst, which tied their best previous inning in the way of run production. Five hits, singles by Billy Campbell, Bob Hudson, Bob Bondi and Bobby Waits and a triple by Cooler Mills, coupled with three walks, accounted for the seven runs.

The Seminoles had to overcome a six-run margin Amherst had stacked up off starter Ham Wernke over the first five innings. George Hehemann, who pitched three scoreless innings, and Jim Atwood, who worked the ninth, also pitched for FSU, with Hehemann getting his first 1954 win against no setbacks.

Shortstop Mills, the Seminoles' leading hitter among the regulars with a robust .415 average (17 hits in 41 at-bats), was the plate star yesterday. Cooler lined two sharp singles to left before unloading a two-run triple to the left-centerfield wall in that seven-run rally.

The Seminoles move into their biggest two-game series here tomorrow. Duke University's Blue Devils, defending Southern Conference and Region Three NCAA Champs, will provide the opposition for single games Thursday and Friday afternoons.
