Slusser fanned five men during the afternoon, and three Seminole double plays helped him out of the trouble spots. The only serious Miami threat came when they tallied their last two runs in the sixth.

In addition to Slusser's four hits, Howser and Philp had three apiece while Corpo drove in four runs with two hits.

Friday, the Seminoles begin a long road trip against Georgia Teachers College at Statesboro, Ga. They will play 10 games on the road to close out their season, ending May 1-2 against Rollins at Winter Park
