

Florida State's smooth-working tennis team claimed its second victory over Southeastern Conference rivals in two days yesterday with a 7½-1½ decision over Auburn.

Coach Keith Pitchford's Seminoles had whipped Georgia, 9-0, on their varsity courts Thursday.

FSU won all six singles matches and broke even in doubles against Auburn. The last doubles match was called a tie when the second set went to 13-15 without a winner.

The results:

Hal Schaus def. Hunter Bell, 6-2, 6-4; Tom Cundy def. Lee Abraham, 5-7, 6-3, 6-4; Shelby Creagh def. Phil Adams, 6-0, 6-1; Don Wyly def. Frank Heard, 6-2, 6-1; Shelby Brewer def. Charles Lee, 6-1, 6-3; Tom Morgan def. Jerry Eskew, 6-1, 6-2.
Bell-Adams def. Schaus-Creagh, 6-4, 6-4; Dick Walker-Larry Kersey (FSU) def. Lee-Eskew, 1-6, 6-1, 6-3; Wyly-Jim Wade tied Abramson-Heard, 2-6, 13-15.
