

Florida State University's tennis team opened its 1962 campaign with an 8-0 loss to powerful Lamar Tech yesterday.

The Cardinals have won 39 straight matches over a three year period. the Techmen only lost two sets last season.

In the number one singles match, FSU's Paul Scarpa won the first set from Tech's Francis Rawstorne, 7-5 and dropped the second set by the same margin only to have leg cramps force him to retire for the day.
