

Florida State's tennis team slapped a 6 - 3 defeat on a Georgia Tech squad making its season debut yesterday.

In the No. 1 singles match, FSU's Paul Scarpa won in straight sets over Tech's Duke Douglas 6-1, 6-3.

The only match to go an extra set was a doubles affair in which FSU's Ed Fasula and Jamie Jameison whipped Tech's Bill Moseley and Stuart Eads 5-7, 6-1, 6-0.

The Seminoles, 2-3 for the year, takes on Navy's netters in Jacksonville Friday.

Paul Scarpa, FSU, def. Duke Douglas, GT, 6-1, 6-3. Gordy Smith, FSU, def. John Barrow, GT, 6-2, 6-2. Ed Fasula, FSU, def. Bill Moseley, GT, 6-3, 6-1. Jamie Jameison, FSU, def. Stewart Eads, GT, 7-5, 6-2. Donnie Lander, GT, def. Bob Berry, FSU, 6-0, 6-3. Mike VanHouten, GT, def. Mike Dyer, FSU, 6-4, 6-0. Scarpa-Smith def. Douglas-Barrow, 6-2, 6-4. Fasula-Jameison def. Moseley-Eads, 5-7, 6-1, 6-0. VanHouten-Lander def. Berry-John Floyd, 6-1, 6-3.