

HAMILTON, N. Y. — Florida State's top-seeded Paul Scarpa faced Bill Hinkle of Pittsburgh today after drawing a first-round bye in the Eastern Intercollegiate Tennis Tournament.

FSU's Gordy Smith, seeded No. 1 in the doubles with Scarpa, yesterday won a singles match from Temple's Neal Leserra, 5-7, 6-1, 6-2.

HAMILTON, N. Y. — Top-seeded Paul Scarpa of Florida State University defeated Walter Kit of George town, 6-2, 6-3, 1-6 and 6-0, Thursday to gain the finals of the Eastern Intercollegiate Tennis Tournament today against Pittsburg's Brown.

FSU's No. 1 seeded doubles team, composed of Scarpa and Gordy Smith, topped Colegate in yesterday's semifinals, 6-3 and 6-4, to earn a berth in the finals today against Ohio Wesleyan.

HAMILTON, N.Y. (AP)—Florida State University took team and individual honors in the 40th annual Eastern Intercollegiate Tennis Tournament here Friday, the first time they entered the competition.

Top-seeded Paul Scarpa of FSU won the individual crown by trimming unranked Joe Brown of Pittsburgh 8-6, 6-1, 6-2.

Scarpa teamed with Gordon Smith of FSU to win the doubles championship by defeating Bill Poist and Dick Gordon of Ohio Wesleyan 6-2, 6-1, 6-3.

Bill Poist Triumphs In Collegiate Tennis

Hamilton, N. Y., (AP) — Paul Scarpa of Florida State and Bill Poist of Ohio Wesleyan, the two top-seeded players, advanced yesterday in the 40th annual Eastern Intercollegiate tennis tournament.

Scarpa, seeded No. 1 in the tournament, beat Bill Hinkel of the University of Pittsburgh, 6-0, 6-2.

Poist of Hanover, Pa., seeded second, defeated John Wolf of Georgetown university, 6-1, 6-2. (Poist is a former York City-County men's singles champion).

Rain forced postponement of the varsity doubles. They will be played today.

Scarpa Defeats Two Tennis Foes

HAMILTON, N.Y. — (AP) — Joe Brown of Pittsburgh upset fourth-seeded Dave Bonner of Colgate Wednesday and became the only unranked player in the semifinals of the 40th annual Eastern Intercollegiate tennis tournament.

Brown downed Bonner 3-6, 6-3, 6-2 and then beat Leon Smith of Buffalo 6-1, 6-2 in a quarterfinal match.

Top-ranked Paul Scarpa of Florida State defeated Jim Faturas of Buffalo 3-6, 7-5, 6-0, and then downed Ross Kaplan of Syracuse 6-3, 6-4.

Bill Poist Defeated In Semifinal Round

HAMILTON, N.Y. (AP)—Unranked Joe Brown of Pittsburgh eliminated second-seeded Bill Poist of Ohio Wesleyan in the semifinals of the Eastern Intercollegiate tennis tournament yesterday, 7-5, 6-3, 7-5.

Poist, of Hanover, Pa., is a former York City-County junior and men's singles champion.

Top-seeded Paul Scarpa of Florida State beat third-seeded George Kit of Georgetown 6-2, 6-3, 1-6, 6-0.

Brown meets Scarpa in the final today.

Brown earlier had beaten fourth-seeded Dave Bonner of Colgate in the quarter-finals.

In doubles competition, Scarpa and Gordon Smith became the first to qualify for the final by beating Bonner and Dave McDiarmid of Colgate 8-6, 6-4.

Scarpa and Smith will seek the title against the winner of a match today between Kit and John Wolf of Georgetown and Ohio Wesleyan's Poist and Dick Gordon.

FSU Netters Win Tourney

HAMILTON, N.Y. (AP)—Florida State University took team and individual honors in the 40th annual Eastern Intercollegiate Tennis Tournament here yesterday, the first time they entered the competition.

Top-seeded Paul Scarpa of FSU won the individual crown by trimming unranked Joe Brown of Pittsburgh, 8-6, 6-1, 6-2.

Scarpa teamed with Gordon Smith of FSU to win the Douglas championship by defeating Bill Poist and Dick Gordon of Ohio Wesleyan, 6-2, 6-1, 6-3.