

Miami Beats FSU Netters

MIAMI (AP)—Miami's Hurricanes defeated Florida State 7-2 yesterday but their No. 1 ace, Rodney Mandelstam, took another beating from Lex Wood.

Wood defeated Mandelstam for the second time in two days, 6-3, 3-6, 6-3. He also beat him Sunday in the Florida Intercollegiate Tournament. Both players are South Africans.

Miami's No. 2 player, John Hammill, also lost to Don Caton of FSU, 8-6, 6-3. Miami won the three other singles matches and swept the three doubles matches.
