

Gators Cop Doubles To Beat Tribe 6-3

Special to the Democrat

Florida State University ended its tennis season Saturday afternoon on a sour note, bowing to the University of Florida by a 6-3 count.

Rejean Genois and Ricardo Bernd got things going in the right direction taking the first two singles matches with Genois ousting Greg King 6-4, 6-4. Bernd went three sets before defeating Juan Diez 7-5, 6-7 and 7-6.

Overall the Seminoles split the singles competition at 3-3. Charlie Diggans collected the third match by downing Mike Borling 6-0, 4-6 and 6-4.

However the Gators stormed through the doubles matches to take the 6-3 win. King and Diez teamed up to eliminate Genois and Mike O'Neal 6-3, 4-6 and 6-1. Steve Diamond and Bernd faired no better against Knight and Ray Heidama losing 3-6, 6-0 and 6-2.

FSU thus ends its season with a 11-4 slate while the Gators stand 19-6.
