

Gators Top Seminole Netters 8-1

Special to the Democrat

GAINESVILLE — Only a leg cramp kept the University of Florida from a possible sweep over Florida State in tennis here yesterday.

As it was, the Gators won 8-1.

The Seminoles' lone point came as a result of a default in the No. 2 doubles match when Ray Heidema suffered leg cramps and withdrew along with partner Jim Oscher.

The FSU team of Charles Diggans and Ricardo Bernd were leading 4-2 in the first set at the time.

FSU carried the Gators to three sets in three singles matches and the No. 1 doubles before losing.

Florida State, now 13-7 for the season, closes the season at Georgia on Saturday.

Florida is now 19-3 for the season.
