

FSU women whip Miami

From Democrat wires

MIAMI — Florida State's women's basketball team trounced previously undefeated Miami 82-64 Friday night.

"They played the best game of the year," said Assistant Coach Margaret Cooney of the Lady Seminoles, now 4-5.

Cherry Rivers was a scoring machine for FSU, tossing in 30 points on 15 field goals. She scored 20 in the second half.

Center Glenda Stokes poured in all of her 13 points in the first half when the Lady Seminoles built a 45-34 lead.

Also hitting double figures for FSU were Teresa Tinsley with 14 points and Lynn Dee McDonald with 16.

Jill Poorman was high scorer for the Hurricanes with 24 points.

FSU plays Oral Roberts this afternoon in Miami before returning for the Metro Tournament that begins Monday in Tully Gym.
