

FSU's Cindy Peterka In National Event

Cindy Peterka will represent Florida State University at the 27th Annual Intercollegiate Golf Tournament for Women at San Diego, Calif.

Opening rounds are on Monday (June 22) and the tournament, hosted by San Diego State College, ends June 27.

Cindy, a sophomore English major from Baltimore, Md., started playing golf about five years ago because "my father got me started." She has been getting ready for the tournament by playing every day or every other day.

Cindy captured the 22nd Annual Shamrock Women's Invitational at Capitol City

Cindy
Peterka

Country Club this past March. She won it with scores of 76, 82 and 73.

Her golf instructor, Mary Jayne Martin-Vegue, assistant professor of physical education, plans to join her student in California for the tournament.