FLORIDA STATE SOCCER FALLS TO MARQUETTE

CLEMSON, S.C.-- The Florida State women's soccer team fell 0-1 to Marquette at the Clemson Tournament this afternoon. With the loss, FSU falls to 3-6-1 on the season while Marquette improves to 5-5-1 on the year.

Seminole goalkeeper Melissa Juhl had another excellent match, recording 15 saves for afternoon. But Marquette's Heidi Wiedel got a breakaway from midfield and took it in for a goal just before the first half ended at the 44:26 mark. The 30-foot shot from the left side was unassisted. In all, the Seminoles tallied four shot and one cornerkick. Marquette recorded 23 shots and 12 cornerkicks.

"We played a lot better than the scores indicated this weekend," FSU head coach Heather Kerby said. "Clemson has been the best team that we've seen all year and Marquette is also a solid team. Having to play back-to-back matches on the road was something new to this team, but it will be something we'll have to get used to."

Florida State will head to Lincoln, Neb., next weekend to take on the Huskers on Saturday, Oct. 7 at 1 p.m. The squad will then play Iowa State at 1 p.m. on Saturday.
