Friday's action:

Despite a hat-trick from Lauren Lynch, the Florida State women's soccer team was edged 5-4 by the Georgia Bulldogs in Athens.

Georgia started the scoring with a goal just 10 minutes into the match, but Lynch soon tied the contest with a cross to the far post at the 25:00 mark. Georgia would regain the lead just four minutes later and would maintain its advantage until the 63:00 mark when FSU leading scorer Alexandra Osorio scored a goal with a shot over the keeper's head. But the tie was short-lived as the Bulldogs went on to dominate the next 15 minutes. Georgia scored goals at the 65:00, 77:00 and 80:00 marks to take a commanding 5-2 lead. That's when Lynch went to work. She beat defenders on the dribble to notch her second goal of the match at the 81:00 mark and then picked up her third just six minutes later.

Goalkeeper Melissa Juhl suffered a broken finger late in the match.
