

FSU wins, FAMU loses

TAMPA — The FSU women's softball team won both its games Friday to advance to the semifinals of the USF Invitational tournament.

FSU, 24-4, will play Florida today at 10:30 a.m. in the winners' bracket.

The championship game will be at 2.

In the first game, FSU beat Florida International 8-7 as Toney Donaldson and Carla Bingham each had two hits, including a home run. Natalie Drouin had three hits.

In the second game, FSU beat Palm Beach Junior College 5-4 as Drouin and Toni Robinette had two hits apiece.
