

FSU women set records

TUSCALOOSA — Three Florida State women swimmers set school records Friday but the Seminoles lost a dual meet to the University of Alabama, 87-34. The Crimson Tide swimmers are ranked sixth nationally.

FSU's new records were set by Dana Wilkens in the 200-meter butterfly, Sarah Shuster in the 200-meter backstroke and Laura Barber, leading a 400-meter relay victory. Barber also won the solo 100-meter freestyle competition.
