

FSU swimmers down Miami

MIAMI — The Florida State women's swim team beat Miami 84-65 Saturday marking the first time the Lady Seminoles have ever beat the Lady Hurricanes in Miami.

FSU registered three school records and nine AIAW national qualifying times in raising their record to 5-2.

The FSU 200-yard medley relay team of Meg McCully, Sharon Spuler, Laurie Lehner and Simone Kusseling qualified for nationals, as did Lisa Nencioni in the 100 IM, Spuler in the 100 breast and Lehner in the 50 free. Also qualifying for the March 13-16 meet were: McCully in the 200 back, Sonya Booth and Spuler in the 200 breast, Lehner in the 100 fly and the 200 free relay team of Lehner, Gribble, Spuler and Kusseling.

The Lady Seminoles' next meet will be at South Carolina Feb 5.
