FSU doubles team wins

OXFORD, Miss. — The Florida State doubles team of Cheryl Cordes and Gigi Boesch moved into the semifinals of the AIAW Region III championships Thursday.

Cordes and Boesch defeated Kathy Denton and Myke Loomis of Alabama 6-4, 6-2. FSU's other representative in the individual competition, Suzanne Doumar, didn't fare as well. She lost to Lucia Schwanke of South Alabama 6-2, 6-1.

FSU's team, seeded No. 4, had a first-round bye in that portion of the event. The Lady Seminoles meet South Florida today.

FSU netters eliminated

OXFORD, Miss. — The Florida State women's tennis team and its only remaining individual competitors were eliminated Saturday from the AIAW Region III tennis tournament at the University of Mississippi.

Miami beat Florida State 9-0 and Florida beat Rollins 5-4 in team competition and will meet today for the title. The winner will advance to the national AIAW tournament at Tempe, Ariz., June 3-10.

Florida State, which finished fifth last year, plays Rollins this morning for third place.

In doubles play, Florida's No. 1-seeded team of Cissie Donigan and Ilene Friedland defeated FSU's Cheryl Cordes and Gigi Boesch 4-6, 6-4, 6-2 to advance to the national tournament.

In addition to the championship team, the top doubles team and two singles players advance to the national tournament.
