

Lady Seminoles breeze in Metro tennis tourney

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — The Florida State women's tennis team shut out Memphis State 9-0 Thursday in the first round of the Metro Conference tennis tournament.

The Lady Seminoles won every match in straight sets, with Jenny Cerino and Debbie Pollack registering the easiest triumphs. Cerino defeated Memphis' Paula Potts 6-0, 6-0 and Pollack whipped Robin Stern 6-1, 6-0.

Sue Hatch, FSU's No.-1 player, had the toughest time, defeating Sarah Phillips 7-5, 6-2.

Florida State meets Tulane today at 1 p.m. in the semifinals. Tulane defeated Southern Mississippi 8-1 in first-round play Thursday.

In Thursday's other first-round matchups, top-seeded South Carolina slammed Cincinnati 9-0 and Virginia Tech defeated Louisville 7-2.

Singles — 1. Sue Hatch (FS) def. Sarah Phillips 7-5, 6-2; 2. Patti Henderson (FS) def. Rose Garasso 6-3, 6-2; 3. Debbie Pollack (FS) def. Robin Stern 6-1, 6-0; 4. Kim Temples (FS) def. Sharlyn Hamilton 6-2, 6-2; 5. Jenny Cerino (FS) def. Paula Potts 6-0, 6-0; 6. Claudia Gaugh (FS) def. Tracy Ferguson 6-1, 6-1.

Doubles — 1. Hatch-Henderson (FS) def. Phillips-Garasso 6-0, 6-3; 2. Temples-Gaugh (FS) def. Stern-Ferguson 6-3, 6-1; 3. Pollack-Cerino (FS) def. Potts-Hamilton 6-3, 6-1.