

FSU volleyball suffers upset

Special to the Democrat

SANFORD — The Florida State women's volleyball team starts play at 9 a.m. today in the loser's bracket of the state tournament.

The Seminoles split their matches Friday with a 15-0,15-7 win over University of Florida and a 15-7,15-9 loss to Florida International University.

FSU volleyball places second

Special to the Democrat

SANFORD—The Florida State women's volleyball team qualified for the regional tournament in Tuscaloosa, Ala., with a runner-up finish in the state tournament Saturday.

Coming out of the losers bracket, the top seeded Lady Seminoles defeated Florida 15-3,9-15,15-1, and then stopped Florida International University 13-15, 15-3,15-13.

However, in the finals FIU came back to win the tournament 15-6,15-8.

FIU was originally seeded second in the tournament at Seminole Junior College.