

Central Florida wins volleyball tourney

The University of Central Florida, fresh from a victory last weekend in its own women's invitational volleyball tournament in Orlando, came to Tallahassee this weekend and emerged as champion of a 16-team tournament.

UC defeated Miami 7-15, 15-3, 15-6 in the finals Saturday afternoon.

The Lady Seminoles, undefeated in four matches Friday, fell in the semifinals Saturday to Miami in three games and then captured third place by beating North Carolina in two straight games.

Now 19-8, FSU travels to Springfield, Mo., for a tournament next weekend at Southwest Missouri State University.
