TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — Florida State pulled out a dramatic victory to win the Region 3 women's volleyball championship and earn one of 20 berths in the nationals in Carbondale, Ill., Dec. 6-8.

"We won the whole thing," said an elated Florida State coach Cecile Reynaud.

The Lady Seminoles fought their way back from the losers bracket after falling to Miami Saturday morning.

The Lady Seminoles then proceeded to beat Alabama 14-16, 15-11, 15-10; then defeat Miami 15-9, 4-15 and 15-9; and finally, beat the Hurricanes one more time, 8-15, 15-6, 15-12 in the final match.

"We had to play 12 games within about five hours, and we had to work hard for every game," Reynaud said.

Three Florida State players were named to the all-region team: Nancy Townsend, Cordelia Campbell and Margie Wessel.
