

Seminole spikers lose match

The Florida State women's volleyball team finished its first road trip with a 15-13, 15-8 loss to Memphis State in Tennessee.

Freshman Shannon Lages led the Lady Seminoles' offensive onslaught with her spiking while classmate Sally Summer was the defensive stalwart in a losing effort.

FSU plays next in the Metro tournament Wednesday in Memphis.