

Cincinnati leads Metro event

Defending champion Cincinnati won all three of its matches and took the first-round lead Sunday in the Metro Conference Volleyball Championship being played at Tully Gym.

Cincinnati beat Louisville (6-15, 17-15, 15-13), Tulane (15-12, 15-9) and Florida State (10-15, 15-13, 13-3).

Louisville was second with a 3-1 record. Florida State was third with a 2-1 mark, having beaten Tulane (15-5, 15-12) and Memphis State (15-7, 15-1).

Southern Mississippi (1-2) was fourth; Memphis State (1-2) was fifth; Tulane (1-3) was sixth and Virginia Tech (1-3) was seventh.

The tourney continues today, and Florida State will play at noon, 6 p.m. and 8 p.m.