Special to the Democrat

LOUISVILLE — The FSU women's volleyball team won its opening Metro Conference tournament match Friday afternoon against the University of Southern Mississippi 15-0, 15-0 and 15-5.

Top-seeded FSU plays Cincinnati this morning in the semifinals. In the other semifinal, host Louisville faces second-seeded South Carolina. The tournament finals are tonight at 8.

"We maintained our intensity very well, and I feel like we're ready to go up against Cincinnati. It should be an exciting match," Coach Cecile Reynaud said.

Julie Brown and Marie Sanders were among the Seminoles' top performers.

FSU is now 29-5.
