

Lady Seminoles in finals

TAMPA — The Florida State Lady Seminole volleyball team defeated rivals Florida and Central Florida on Saturday to qualify for today's finals of the first Red Lobster Florida Four Tournament in Tampa.

The Lady Gators extended Florida State to five games before dropping the match 15-8, 12-15, 15-7, 4-15, 17-15. The Lady Seminoles, now 2-2, then swept Central Florida 15-10, 15-5, 15-6 and will face tournament-host South Florida today at 3 p.m. in a preliminary to the final.

South Florida defeated Central Florida on Saturday before facing the Lady Gators in a late match. The tournament final will be today at 3 p.m.

Florida State was led by setter Donna Krai who assisted on 46 kill shots in the two matches. Julie Todd contributed five block assists and Marianne Tobolski put away nine kills.