QUICK HITS

- FSU's 775 yards of total offense in its win vs. Kent State are the most in the nation this season and the most for any team since Dec. 12, 2020, when North Carolina gained 778 yards in a 62-26 win at Miami. After gaining 729 yards of offense vs. East Texas A&M, Florida State became the first team with back-to-back 700-yard games since 2015.
- In records dating back to 1995, FSU is the 18th team nationally and third from the ACC with multiple 725-yard games in the same season. The Seminoles are the first ACC team and one of three nationally with back-to-back games of at least 725 yards of offense, joining Baylor in 2015 and 2013.
- Florida State broke single-game school records with 498 rushing yards, eight rushing touchdowns and 27 rushing first downs in the win vs. Kent State. The rushing yards total was the most in a game against an FBS opponent since Jacksonville State vs. Louisiana Tech in 2023, and the rushing first downs were the most since Air Force vs. Nevada in 2022. The rushing touchdowns were the most by an ACC team since Georgia Tech at Louisville in 2018.
- The Seminoles rolled up 729 yards of total offense vs. East Texas A&M and showcased incredible balance with 361 rushing yards and 368 passing yards. It was only the third time in program history, and first time since 1995, FSU recorded at least 350 rushing yards and at least 350 passing yards in the same game.
- Florida State, which has recorded a touchback on all 34 kickoffs this season, is the only team in the country with a perfect touchback percentage in 2025.

TOMMY CASTELLANOS: LEADING FSU'S NEXT CHAPTER

By Kate Finkelstein, FSU Athletics' Public Relations

For Tommy Castellanos, wearing garnet and gold wasn't just a career move, it was the fulfillment of a lifelong dream.

"I've had that interest since I was a kid," Castellanos said. "I have family that went here, it's been my dream school, so I'm just excited to be here and be a part of this team."

The senior quarterback transferred to Florida State after two seasons at Boston College and a freshman year at UCF under current FSU offensive coordinator Gus Malzahn. He wasted no time making an impact in his Seminole debut. In a 31-17 victory over No. 8 Alabama, Castellanos completed 9-of-14 passes for 152 yards and added a game-high 78 rushing yards with a touchdown. His performance earned him recognition as a Davey O'Brien National Quarterback of the Week, a Davey O'Brien Great 8 honoree, and a Manning Award Star of the Week.

"From experience, my freshman year at UCF, it's an offense that's going to be explosive, going to be high tempo," Castellanos said of Malzahn's system. "I'm really excited to be back and be involved and to have him as my coach again."

Castellanos described his versatility as a quarterback, mentioning his ability to both pass and extend plays with his legs. "I feel like I can do everything. With the right tools, the right structure and system, I feel like I can be unbelievable. I can extend plays and make things happen off schedule," he said.

Building chemistry with teammates has been a priority for Castellanos throughout his transition. "Being the first quarterback to commit coming out of the portal means a lot because then it gives guys kind of whereabouts about where they should go, you know knowing who their quarterback's going to be," he said.

Castellanos also contributed to the recruitment process, helping coaches evaluate and bring in key players. "Helping recruit and stuff like that with Duce, Squirrel, Micah, and Luke has been amazing. I've gotten to create bonds with those guys on and off the field and I feel like our chemistry is continuing to grow every day."

Before Florida State, Castellanos left UCF after his freshman season in search of more opportunity. "I felt like I was ready to go get an opportunity and go prove to the world that I can play and be that leader," he said. "I'm so excited to be back with Coach Malzahn, he's a great leader, great coach and we had a great bond when I was there. Excited to be his guy."

At Boston College, Castellanos became the first player in school history to record 2,000 passing yards and 1,000 rushing yards in a single season. He started 20 of 21 games for the Eagles over two seasons, passing for 3,614 yards and 33 touchdowns while rushing for 1,307 yards and 15 touchdowns.

Castellanos has stressed the importance of leadership, trust, and communication in his role as quarterback. "If you don't have chemistry or a bond off the field or outside of the locker room, then you won't really have one on the field. You need to be able to trust each other and be able to demand and respect each other," he said.

After last week's loss to Virginia, Castellanos redirected the conversation to resilience as a key trait for the Seminoles. "We know we're going to continue to fight no matter what's going on. A little adversity will just push us and make us work harder," he said.

Looking ahead, Castellanos' focus remains on leading the team. "I'm here now, I'm part of something special, I'm a Seminole. My main focus is just leading these guys and helping this community and fan base bring back the excitement everyone is used to," he said.

From growing up in Georgia to multiple stops in college, Castellanos' path reflects both adaptability and experience, qualities that have now been showcased in his role as Florida State's starting quarterback.

TE #13

RANDY PITTMAN JR.

- Tight end Randy Pittman Jr. joined elite company against Virginia when he accounted for three touchdowns - one passing, one rushing and one receiving. Pittman is the third player in FSU history with at least one rushing, receiving and passing touchdown in a game.
- Pittman's 2-yard touchdown run was his first career rush. Pittman's 4-yard touchdown pass to Robinson was his first career pass.
- Pittman caught an 11-yard touchdown pass from Castellanos with 36 seconds remaining to send the game to overtime. It was his third career touchdown catch and first at Florida State.
- Pittman was the first player nationally in 2025 with a passing, rushing and receiving touchdown in the same game. Of the 81 times since 1995 that a player had a rushing, receiving and passing touchdown in the same game, Pittman is just the second tight end to accomplish the feat (James Casey, Rice, 2008 - 2x).

- White's defenses have now gone 10 consecutive home games without allowing a rushing touchdown. Last season at Nebraska, the Cornhuskers became the first team nationally since 2021 to not allow a rushing touchdown at home. It was the first time Nebraska had accomplished the feat since 1939.
- Florida State held No. 8 Alabama to just 87 rushing yards and no rushing touchdowns, Alabama's fewest rushing yards in a season opener since 1975.
- Alabama gained 55 rushing yards on its opening drive but tallied just 32 rushing yards on 17 carries (1.88 ypc) the rest of the game.
