FLORIDA STATE vs. WAKE FOREST

- Florida State returns to action after its second open date of the season. Saturday night's game will be FSU's annual Seminole Heritage game and the university's Homecoming. Florida State celebrates its long-standing relationship with the Seminole Tribe of Florida by featuring turquoise - the color that represents harmony, friendship and fellowship throughout Native American communities - in many different ways during the game.
- FSU is 62-12-1 (.833) in Homecoming games and has won 11 consecutive Homecoming contests. Florida State is 2-0 in Seminole Heritage games after debuting the special recognition game with a 38-20 win over No. 16 Duke in 2023.
- Mike Norvell is 25-8 (.758) in November as a head coach, including 12-5 (.706) at home.
- The Seminoles have topped 400 yards of total offense in each of their last six games, the program's longest streak since a nine-game stretch between the 2022-23 seasons. Florida State gained 444 yards at Stanford after reaching 415 yards vs. Pitt, 404 yards vs. Miami, 514 yards at Virginia, 775 yards vs. Kent State and 729 yards vs. East Texas A&M. The Seminoles' total yards are the most allowed this season by Miami, Virginia, Kent State and East Texas A&M.
- FSU boasts one of the nation's most explosive offenses. The Seminoles lead the country in plays of at least 40 yards (16), rank 2nd in 30-plus yard plays (29) and 5th in 50-plus yard plays (9). The Seminoles are one of 32 teams with an 80-yard play in 2025 and rank 9th nationally with an average of 39.7 points per game.
- Florida State ranks 6th in the country in rushing plays of 10-plus yards (57) and also in the top 25 in rushes of 20-plus yards (16, 19th), 30-plus yards (7, 25th) and 50-plus yards (3, 17th). FSU ranks in the top 10 in passing plays of 30-plus yards (22, 2nd), 40-plus yards (12, 2nd), 50-plus yards (6, 5th), 60-plus yards (3, 10th) and 80-plus yards (1, 3rd).

- The Seminoles rank 1st in the ACC in total offense (523.3, 2nd nationally), yards per completion (15.82, 3rd), yards per pass (9.70, 4th), rushing offense (254.3, 6th) and 3rd-down percentage (.520, 10th). Tommy Castelannos leads the ACC in yards per completion (16.07, 1st) and yards per pass (9.68, 3rd), and Micahi Danzy leads the conference in yards per reception (22.95, 2nd).
- Combining 3rd- and 4th-down conversions, FSU's conversion efficiency rate of 64.3 percent (63 total conversions on 98 3rd-downs) is 1st in the ACC and 4th nationally.
- FSU's 775 yards of total offense in its win vs. Kent State are the most in the nation this season and the most for any team since Dec. 12, 2020, when North Carolina gained 778 yards in a 62-26 win at Miami. The Seminoles, who gained 729 yards of offense vs. East Texas A&M, became the first team with back-to-back 700-yard games since 2015. Florida State boasts two of the six 725-yard games in the nation in 2025 and the only ones from the ACC.
- In records dating back to 1995, FSU is the 18th team nationally and third from the ACC with multiple 725-yard games in the same season. The Seminoles are the first ACC team and one of three nationally with back-to-back games of at least 725 yards of offense, joining Baylor in 2015 and 2013.
- Florida State broke single-game school records with 498 rushing yards, eight rushing touchdowns and 27 rushing first downs in the win vs. Kent State. The rushing yards total was the most in a game against an FBS opponent since Jacksonville State vs. Louisiana Tech in 2023, and the rushing first downs were the most since Air Force vs. Nevada in 2022. The rushing touchdowns were the most by an ACC team since Georgia Tech at Louisville in 2018.

NEW CHAPTER, SAME MINDSET: SAWCHUK'S EXPLOSIVE START WITH THE NOLES

By Kate Finkelstein, FSU Athletics' Public Relations

Redshirt junior running back Gavin Sawchuk has made an immediate impact since transferring to Florida State, bringing a combination of experience, skill, and versatility to the Seminoles' backfield. A native of Littleton, Colorado, Sawchuk is no stranger to big plays, and he's been proving it early in the 2025 season.

In Florida State's victory over East Texas A&M, Sawchuk contributed three touchdowns, including a career-long 53-yard TD catch, while also rushing for 35 yards. It was a performance that highlighted both his athleticism and his ability to make explosive plays in the passing game.

"I'm bringing a lot from there, bringing a lot of experience from playing, and also a lot of knowledge," Sawchuk said of his transfer from Oklahoma. "I'm really excited to just be here."

His enthusiasm for Florida State extends beyond the field. Sawchuk's ties to the Seminoles date back to high school, and he credits that connection for making the transfer decision an easy one. "I felt like Florida State was the best place for me to compete at that high level," Sawchuk said. "I just love the coaching staff, I've had that relationship since high school, so getting back in contact with them and hearing the ways they wanted me here and the excitement for that, it was really great."

Sawchuk's resume speaks for itself. At Oklahoma, he appeared in 23 games over three seasons, rushing 176 times for 977 yards and 11 touchdowns. He earned All-Big 12 honorable mention in 2023 after a career-best 744 rushing yards and nine touchdowns, with five consecutive 100-yard games and a standout performance in the Alamo Bowl versus Arizona.

His early performances with the Seminoles suggest he is picking up right where he left off, and he's immediately become a valuable piece of the Florida State roster. In addition to the East Texas A&M game, Sawchuk recorded 97 rushing yards and two touchdowns against Kent State, along with 74 rushing yards and a touchdown in the victory over Virginia. He has consistently demonstrated vision, patience and toughness while also being able to contribute wherever the team needs him.

His admiration for Florida State's offensive system was clear from the start. "When I got here, I took a visit, met with Coach (Gus) Malzahn and just went through the offense," Sawchuk said. "I learned about some of the schemes he likes to run, different things he likes to do to get athletes the ball in their hand and in space to make plays and make opportunities. I loved watching it."

That approach fits his own running style. "I just like going downhill. The fastest way to the end zone is a straight line," he said. "Breaking tackles, whatever it is, just being able to get downhill, just to get some of those dirty yards and then get some pop when they need to."

Now a veteran figure in the running back room, Sawchuk values both competition and chemistry equally. "They're all great in that room. Really competitive, love each other, great guys," he said. "Want to see the best for each other, but still at the same time competitive. So, just continuing to compete, continuing to grow each other, use ourselves in different ways. One back can't really run the whole game. It takes a couple of us."

Beyond the plays, Sawchuk emphasizes the team-first mentality and the family atmosphere within the Florida State program. "It's great. It's really family-oriented. Everybody's so accepting. It just feels like there's a lot of brothers on the team. It's a family," he said. "Everyone's focused on the goal, holding each other accountable. It's become a standard, it's become an intensity that we're all chasing after."

Sawchuk's mindset moving forward is simple. "Just helping the team out however I can," he said. "We want to win, we want to compete, we want to do everything we can to be the best. However that looks, just being able to be my best, to grow, continue to grow, and build a family with the guys here."

SEMINOLE SPORTS NETWORK BROADCASTERS

Jeff Culhane was named Director of Broadcasting for the Seminole Sports Network and Florida State Athletics on June 20, 2022, and is in his third season serving as the voice for Florida State football and men's basketball. Culhane has over 20 years of multimedia experience and has extensive experience growing radio networks through adding new affiliates and producing original content, including daily shows, weekly features and podcasts that highlight student-athletes and coaches in each program.

William "Bar None" Floyd started as an Analyst in 2009 alongside legendary FSU voice Gene Deckerhoff after a decorated college and pro football career. Floyd is the most recent fullback to be selected in the first round of the NFL Draft (1994) and spent seven seasons in the pros, winning a Super Bowl with the San Francisco 49ers. Floyd was a key piece to Bobby Bowden's first National Championship team in 1993. Floyd was inducted in the FSU Football Hall of Fame in 2017, an ACC Legends inductee in 2006, and this past Summer was a member of the newest class of the Florida Sports Hall of Fame.

Tom Block is currently in his 31st year on the FSU radio network. Block is a Florida State and Tallahassee fixture and was the former Sports Director at WTXL ABC 27. In addition to Sports Director, Block has been a longtime announcer for various sports networks including Sunshine Network, Sun Sports, Bally Sports Florida, ESPNU and ACCN.

DRIVE SOBER OR GAME OVER

You only have one life.

Driving impaired not only puts everyone on the roadway in danger, but it can also have serious legal and monetary consequences. Penalties for DUIs can include jail time, expensive fines, and license revocation.

Plan for how you are getting home before drinking alcohol. Do not let an impaired friend drive – take the keys and save a life. Use a ride-share service – it is much cheaper than a DUI arrest. The consequences of DUI last a long time. DUI conviction will remain on your driving record for 75 years.
