

FSU 46 EMORY 38

The last relay with Julian, Stock, Hirshberger and Tschirret furnished the needed points to win over the surprizingly difficult Emory squad. The relay team won with a time of 3:52.2 to give FSU their 14th straight dual meet.

George Hirshberger set another school record by taking the 220-yard freestyle in the time of 2:05.8.

Charlie Crowe and Sam Ball-

ley walked away with the 150-yard individual medley honors. Charlie took a first and Sam a second.

Bob Spaulding, up and coming fancy diver for FSU, took second in his event.

Cooper and Lurie placed first and third respectively in the backstroke event.

George Hirshberger and Mike Tschirret paced each other in the 440-yard freestyle event, with George ending up in the first place slot and Mike a hands length behind.
