

A&M-FSU match suspended

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — Texas A&M and Florida State were tied at 2 when their non-conference men's collegiate tennis match was suspended because of rain.

A&M is ranked No. 35th in the country and FSU No. 33.

"We are playing good," A&M coach David Kent said. "We've been delayed against South Alabama and the guys played well the next day. We can do the same thing Sunday."

The match, being played at the Scott Speicher Center, will resume at 9:30 a.m. today.

Singles

Brian Stanton, FSU, def. Blake Arrant, 6-3, 6-4; Carlos Tori, A&M, leads Antonio Prieto, 3-6, 7-6, 1-0; Eric Horan, A&M, is tied with Ken McKenzie, 7-5, 1-6, 2-2; Jason White, FSU, def. Bernardo Martinez, 6-3, 6-0; Rico Rodarte, A&M, is tied with Murphy Payne, 6-3, 3-6, 1-1; and Robbie Krause, A&M, def. Scott Schuhrimen, 6-4, 6-0.

Doubles

McKenzie-Stanton, FSU, def. Martinez-Arrant, 8-5; Rodarte-Horan, A&M, def. Prieto-White, 8-5; and Krause-Tori, A&M, def. Payne-Alex Golub, 8-3.