

FSU Volleyballers Place Fourth In National Tourney

The Seminole volleyball team, coached by Bill Odeneal, placed fourth in the International tournament held Saturday in Springfield, Massachusetts.

The FSU team was beaten by the three leading teams, although they took their first game from the champion University of Mexico 15-12. Runner-up was Springfield College, while Eriham College placed third.

Coach Odeneal had scheduled a series with the Mexican team here Tuesday and Wednesday nights, but the national champs have now decided to go directly home instead of coming through Tallahassee as previously planned. Representing FSU in the tournament were Charlie Fies, George Edmiston, Capt. Dan Hobbs, James McPattler, J. Clark, Bob Greene, Charles Daniel, Emerson Kramer, J. Crook, Jim Couch and Dick La
